THE STATE CONDENSED.

Mr. D. W. Curtis has established a Land Agency at Reidsville, N. C.
Forty-five North Carolinians are studying medicine in Baltimore, and will soon be ready to practice.
It costs four thousand dollars per year to feed the boarders in the Halifax jail.
Not a highway robbery, murder, or an item of interest has transpired in New Bern for a day past.
Big dog walked through glass door at Newbern. Not so stated, but we presume he damaged the glass.
A correspondent of the Old North State nominates Rev. Wm. R. Pell for Governor. Mr. Pell declines.
Sargent, the wonderful illusionist, is still in Newbern having a good time generally.
On Sunday last at a bar-room kept by Mr. Gillespie, a difficulty occurred, and one of the party, a white man was terribly beaten.—Lincoln Courier.
The same paper says, that on Sunday two colored men had a difficulty and one of the party was severely if not seriously cut with a knife.
Nine daily papers are now published in North Carolina—four at Raleigh, two at Wilmington, two at Charlotte, and one at Newbern.
A new saw dust road is being made in Wilmington, N. C. This is being done on account of the sand. Saw dust roads should be made in Raleigh on account of the mud.
The colored boy arrested in Fayetteville, upon suspicion of incendiarism, has been discharged, there being no positive evidence against him.
The Wilmingtonians are raising subscriptions to purchase a steam fire engine. The Star does not like the plan, and wants the Commissioners to purchase it.
The Wilmington Star, of yesterday, gives a long account of the confessions of Wm. Wright Parker, who suffered the extreme penalty of the law in that city on yesterday, for murder. In this confession are fearful revelations.
Mr. D. T. Jordan's store was entered on Tuesday night last, by some unknown scoundrel, during a temporary absence of Mr. J. of but a few moments, and his money drawer robbed of about seventy dollars in cash and two hundred dollars in notes.—Edenton Transcript.
The Wilmington Journal thus speaks of Mr. Sutton's troupe now in that city: We were present for a few moments at the entertainment given at Thalian Hall last last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Sutton, assisted by Mr. Howland. The audience was discouragingly slim—in fact, the seats were very nearly all empty. What we saw of the performance left the impression upon our mind that the acting was far better than the show.
Sargent is still in New Bern. The Journal of Commerce, of that city, is quite enthusiastic about it. Listen: Sargent the great illusionist having dropped the drama will appear in his proper sphere as a magician on Thursday and Friday night, February 27th and 28th. Our citizens having seen him before are well assured that he is the very best magician that has ever visited the city, and we learn that he will perform some of the most difficult illusions in his profession on these occasions. Let all go and see him.
The Weldon News is complaining of the bad weather, and says: "We awoke on Monday morning to find the ground covered with snow, and throughout the day hail, rain and snow continued to fall in mixed doses, rendering our dooring anything but pleasant and agreeable. The wise-acres say this is the breaking up of winter—we trust it is, as we are—out of wood and nearly out of money." We have several families in Raleigh in the same fix, neighbor.
On Tuesday night last one or more darkies went to the plantation of Jno. H. Richardson, Esq., about six miles distant from this city, and killed one of his finest oxen. Mr. B. discovering the theft early in the morning followed the tracks to the city, and succeeded in getting his beef (already slaughtered) and the best of all got the soundrels, (three in number) and they are now in Craven jail ruminating over their folly. We only hope that all our citizens will display the energy Mr. Richardson has in this case and our word for it, will be less stealing in the county.—Newbern J. of Commerce.
We learn that quite a pleasant little affair took place down at Rockfish last Thursday—a tournament and coronation ball, at which there was a large crowd, with dancing and much enjoyment. The successful knight on the occasion, was our young friend, Mr. Thos. C. Lutterloh, of this town, a bold and very skillful horseman, who has on one or two other like occasions since the war been successful in winning the prize.
The arrival of a one-horse cart, in Raleigh, loaded with cotton, creates intense excitement amongst the editorial fraternity.—Will Star.
Your's a "green un." Don't have one horse cart in this section. The Local of the Star has never seen a bale of cotton. He should come to Raleigh and see one packed by Rev. Bennett T. Blake weighing about one thousand pounds, and six or seven hundred bales are shipped weekly on the R. & R.R.

Mr. Heaton offered the following resolutions to the committee, which were adopted.
1. Resolved, That we, the Delegates of the Republican State Convention, do hereby reaffirm the principles and sentiments contained in the Republican Platform of the 27th of March and the 5th of September, 1867.
2. Resolved, That this Convention do hereby earnestly and emphatically recommend to the Congress of the United States, and especially do we emphatically approve of the noble stand recently taken by the House of Representatives, in maintaining the rights and liberties of the people against the encroachments and flagrant assumptions of a vacillating and accidental President.
3. Resolved, That this Convention do hereby pledge an unwavering and an unflinching support.
The balance of the evening was consumed in speech making.
What the Birds Said.
A gentleman whose modesty was too great for his happiness, was one day going through the wood with a lady, to whom he longed but feared, to offer his hand and his heart. He had schemed and maneuvered enough for ten diplomatists to draw her away alone from the picnic where they had met, and now he durst not speak for the life of him. But the silence had become embarrassing, and at last ventured upon a hint.
"Hark!" he cried, suddenly stopping, "do you not hear that beautiful bird singing?"
"Yes," said the lady.
"Do you not catch what he says 'I love you! I love you!' as plainly as possible."
"Dear me how odd!" replied she; and they walked on silently for a little distance. Presently the lady in her turn stopped and said, "how funny! Do you hear what the other bird says?"
"No; what?" asked the man.
"Why it seems to me say 'Show it! Show it! Show it!'"
That landed him.

Hon. Henry A. Wise is announced to address the citizens of Augusta on the 7th of March, on the importance to that county of a speedy completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad.

From our Special Correspondent.

WASHINGTON CITY, D. C., Feb. 24.
To-day has been one of the most exciting ever witnessed—even at the period of the commencement of the war—or at any time during its progress. Police were stationed pretty thick at the Capitol the live long day—the soldiers stationed in and around Washington were all kept at their post to prevent any disturbance that might occur. Long before 10 o'clock this morning, the horse meeting at 12 M.—the galleries were crowded, and remained so until the adjournment. The discussion of the impeachment question was the object of interest. Speeches were made by the more prominent members of both sides. At 5 o'clock the resolution, "Resolved, That Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, be impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors," was passed by 198 to 47—which might be called a strict party vote. He now stands impeached by the House of Representatives and will soon be arraigned before the bar of the Senate.
Nothing has yet been said regarding the suspension of Mr. Johnson from the office of President during the trial. It is believed such a move on the part of Congress would create considerable disturbance. Many predict that Mr. Johnson will play Mr. Stanton's part, and declare that he will not submit to the action of Congress. It is as yet a matter of speculation as to what course the President will pursue in the event of his suspension, which event is improbable.
Several prominent Democrats called on the President to-day, including the members of his cabinet, and Senators and members.—He attended the reception to-night and notwithstanding the action of the House in the impeachment question, seemed in the finest spirits.
The War Office is still in charge of Stanton. He was requested by Thomas to give it up this morning for the third time, but bluntly refused. Mr. Stanton ordered Mr. Thomas to assume his duties as Adjutant General—and gave him as his superior officer some orders to execute. General Thomas declined to obey.
It is conjectured that it will end in a court martial case. Stanton and Thomas, it is reported came near a personal encounter at this interview. A. H. D., Jr.

An Ordinance to Charter the Coast Line Railroad.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Delegates of the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, That for the purpose of facilitating the transportation of passengers and merchandise across the eastern part of the State, and of opening direct communication between Wilmington in North Carolina, and Norfolk in Virginia, through the lower counties, the formation of a corporate company with a capital stock of three millions dollars is hereby authorized, to be called "The Coast Line Railroad Company;" and when formed in compliance with the conditions hereinafter prescribed, to have a corporate existence as a body politic, in perpetuity.

Sec. 5. That the books aforesaid, may be opened at any time after the ratification of this act, due notice of the same being first given, by advertisement in the newspapers, and otherwise, twenty days, at least, before-hand; and the said books shall be kept open for thirty days at least, and as long thereafter, as the commissioners may direct. All subscriptions of stock shall be in shares of one hundred dollars each, the payment of which to the commissioners may be made in lands, which shall be received at the valuation assessed for taxes by the county officers, at the assessment which was made last before the late civil war. Provided, that where it appears to the satisfaction of the commissioners that the lands in any county or vicinity were assessed at more or less than two-thirds of their saleable value at the time, a reassessment shall be made, on that basis, by referees, appointed jointly by the commissioners, and by the several owners of the land, and the lands thus reassessed shall be taken in payment of the stock subscribed for.
Sec. 6. That in order to provide a fund for paying the necessary expenses of the Commissioners while engaged in obtaining subscriptions to the stock of the Company, each stock-holder shall be required to pay one dollar in advance, to their authorized agent, for every share of one hundred dollars issued to him in exchange for lands. Provided, that accurate accounts shall be kept by the Treasurer of the Board of Commissioners, of all moneys expended; and proper vouchers required for each disbursement.
Sec. 7. Sec. 8. That a general meeting of the stockholders shall be convened as soon as the above named sum of five hundred thousand dollars in manner and form above said, shall be subscribed. Public notice of this meeting shall be given by the Commissioners, through their Treasurer, at least thirty days beforehand, in the Wilmington, Newbern, Washington, Edenton and Norfolk, newspapers; and at each of the places named in the 4th section. At this meeting,

Sec. 15. That this ordinance shall be in force from and after its adoption, and shall be deemed a Public Ordinance.

A Mexican Murder.
A Mexican named Mariado Santa Ana de Valdes was lately found dead at Santa Rosalia, below Brownsville, under the following circumstances:
The body was standing up lashed to a tree. The heart had been cut out according to custom, and the breast, stomach, bowels, and head had been stabbed in a dozen or fifteen places. The nose had been partly lopped off, one eye out; in short the stabbing must have been continued long after life was extinct.
The man had evidently been tied to the tree and then tortured to death. The murderers had not been discovered.
