So the little coral workers, By their slow and constant motion, Have built those pretty islands In the distant dark-blue ocean, And the noblest undertakings Man's wisdom hath conceived.

By oft-repeated effort Have been patiently achieved. Then do not look disheartened On the work you have to do, And say that such a mighty task You never can get through:

But just endeavor day by day Another point to gain, And soon the mountain which you feared Will prove to be a plain!

Rome was not builded in a day," The ancient proverb teaches, And nature, by her trees and flowers, The same sweet sermon preaches Think not of far-off duties, But of duties which are near, And having once begun to work, Resolve to persevere.

BATCHELOR.

BRIEF RECORD OF THE LIFE Of One who has Done His Duty,

In every age of the world some man has lived who, going through his life performing duties simply as duties, without blowing his own trumpet, has so lived his life that even those most intimate with ence on the age. Such a man is the Hon. JOSEPH B. BATCHELOR, of Raleigh.

Mr. BATCHELOR was born in Halifax county, North Carolina, in 1825, and was lishment and success of the Institution. graduated at Chapel Hill in 1845, receiving the first distinction, and delivering the ken of frequently as a proper and probable valedictory of his class. He obtained his Democratic nominee for the office of Asso- shed for sinners, be merciful to their crite, cried the fierce mariner, dost thou Whigs; so of course Mr. Batchelor was defeated, but he very largely reduced the An Agitator in the Lime-Kiln Club. majority, and in his county the strength of the Whig party was broken, and it was henceforth regarded as a Democratic

In May, 1855, he was appointed Attorney | heah in front of de desk." Court, as to the right of the Legislature over-pleased at being disturbed. When ble soul." to tax their salaries, has been and is still he had limped along to the desk, one hand regarded as a final settlement of the ques-

In 1860 he was elected to the Legislature from Warren county, and voted for dis club?" the call of the Convention which passed the Ordinance of Secession. Few men realized the immense responsibility assumed by those who voted for this measure. The night you scher your connexun wid this cople of the State, in doing so, again club. liberty. Mr. BATCHELOR was not one of or anythin' since dat date?" those who rushed into this matter without

e volunteered in the ranks more than us, an' you might kick too hard and nce, but his health and strength were break a leg." onstitutionally so feeble, that the physicians invariably refused to receive his enistment. During the struggle while the in the world, are self-sustaining, and now, when the shadows of a ripe age first begin | ble." to fall on him, he can look back on a life without a blot, and with no duty unperformed. Such has been his life as a lawyer. signed for the Secretary to proceed with In politics, Mr. BATCHELOR has always | the regular order of business. been a true and consistent Democrat, but he has never been a politician. His love for the fundamental law of the land has in the Constitution and had denounced most one." military rule and the military methods of was yet dangerous to do so. soul with Colonel William L. Saunders in the campaign of the Wilmington Journal, which ended in the call of a Convention that year, and which gave relief to the East. If elections are to be won and lost mel I will pay more attention the next this year on county government, Mr. BATCHELOR should head the ticket that supports honest county government for the East, for to him and Colonel Saunders, and to one hardly more than the other, the East owes its deliverance. His letter, written at the request of Colonel Saunders, appeared just as the matter was on the oise. Causes must be judged from effects: after this letter appeared there was no lon-

Raleigh

Remister.

RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MAY 28, 1884.

THE FORGERS.

[Lights and Shadows of Scottish Life.] will tell you a tale of tears, concerning the North Carolina Railroad, and in 1879 he last inhabitants of yonder solitary house, proposed the plan and drew the bill by just visible on the hill-side, through the gloom of those melancholy pines. Ten years have passed away since the terrible catastrophe of which I am about to speak: and I know not how it is, but methinks, has rendered to the public, has been, like whenever I come into this glen, there is something rueful in its silence, while the common sounds of Nature seem to my mind dirge-like and forlorn. Was not this very day bright and musical as we walked across all the other hills and valleys? but now a dim mist overspreads the sky, and, beautiful as this lonely place must in truth the darkness of perpetual shadows." As the old man was speaking, a female figure, bent with age and infirmity, came slowly up the bank below us with a pitcher by his quiet but strenuous efforts succeeded in her hand, and when she reached a little in getting it passed by the Legislature. well, dug out of a low rock all covered The effect was at once felt, and while the with moss and lichens, she seemed to fix heard, on his arrival, that his uncle had her eyes upon it as in a dream, and gave

"The names of her husband and her known to the profession as "Batchelor's only son, both dead, are chiselled by their Stay Law." We have heard him speak of own hands on a smooth stone within the it as one of the acts of his life to which he | arch of that fountain, and the childless | forgave him all his sins; at death would | as dust. widow at this moment sees nothing on the | not defraud him of the pleasant fields that face of the earth but a few letters not yet had so long belonged to his humble ances-Commission are well known. The duties overgrown with the creeping time-stains. See! her pale lips are moving in prayer, and, old as she is, and long resigned in heart—a few big drops are on her withered cheeks, but she feels them not, and is un-

the scaffold!'

man of three-score and ten years."

had now heard came from the uttermost desolation of the human heart. At last been buried in the sea. His face was, inher eyes to Heaven, and, distinctly saying, prayer, but he still held up his lean, shriv-"O Jesus, Son of Gon! whose blood was elled, trembling hand. 'Accursed hypo-

"I have beheld the childless widow me from the distant isles of the ocean, to man then living could remember when induced to accept, no man in the State happy," said the pastor, "even her who bring thy white head into the hangman's sat alone, with none to comfort her, on a hands." blossoms. But her whom we have now loud, stifled gasp was heard, and she whom about their restless and wandering eyes, any moment with profits at the rate of fifty East, and Lower Little river on the South. Eastern and Western portions of this seen I dare not call happy, even though she put her trust in God and her Saviour. The offer was so tempting that there drained, and even now they are not ex-"If Socrates Spikeroot am in de hall Her's is an affliction which faith itself can at the sailor's feet. The terror of that unfor thought I saw something like a faint smile was a general anxiety on the part of the celled in productiveness by any in the and species of trees that are valuable in dis evenin' I would like to see him out not assuage. Yet religion may have soft- given crime, now first revealed to her of hope. 'Gop has been merciful unto boys to lend their marbles to James Smith, State. The staple products are corn, cot- any market in the world. The timber inened even sighs like those, and, as you knowledge, struck her down to the floor. us,' said the father, with a calm voice. 'I and in the course of the week every boy ton and small grain. From 750 to 2,800 terest is one of the greatest of the county's shall hear, it was religion that set her free | She fixed her bloodless face on his before | must not think that he has forgiven my in the school had invested in the marble | pounds of seed cotton are produced per | resources, and is rapidly growing in magthat capacity until 1857. The opinion delivered by him during this time, at the request of the Judges of the Supreme request of the Monda in the mast request of the Judges of the Supreme request o

when the old man gave me these hints of alone must die.' The wife soon recovered "How long has you been a member of a melancholy tale. The sky was black and the power of speech, but it was so unlike found resignation at last, and are prepared to play with his unknown adversaries. of fine grade can be profitably grown here. for its abundant products, as well as its lowering, as it lay on the silent hills, and her usual voice, that I scarcely thought at to die.' enclosed us from the far-off world, in a first the sound proceeded from her white "Um! It has been 'bout three months sullen spot that was felt to be sacred unto quivering lips. 'As you hope for mercy since I first had my eye on you, an' togone with a sigh was the only dweller make his escape-hush, hush, hush-till scople of the State, in doing so, again blood with a few days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with standy disregarded its precepts, and now with standy days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with standy days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with standy days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with standy days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with standy days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with standy days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with standy days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with standy days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with standy days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with standy days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with standy days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with standy days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with standy days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with standy days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with a lew days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with a lew days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now with latary disregarded its precepts, and now days ne has said away in latary disregarded its precepts, and now disregarded its precepts and now disregarded its precepts and now disregarded its pre neir most sacred honor" to the cause of was a barber. Has you barbed anybody a broken heart in the cheerless solitude of surely will not hang an old gray-headed nature.

"That house, from whose chimneys no "The sailor stood silent and frowning. common decay; peaceful prayers were said lowed, one and all. The door of the stable better had it been if that one had never, to commit suicide. His own son cut him who at this time died, leaving an only son, minds of ever anxious thoughts, or per- and all the time that the cords were encir- Nevertheless, although no grown person who at this time died, leaving an only son, who had for many years abandoned his who had for many years abandoned his who had for many years abandoned his father's house, and of whom all tidings they could unburthen their guilt to one saw nothing but his son standing at last folly, it should be mentioned that James be bought, owing to the fact that it is now commenced with eight students, in an old to his lovely niece, as he entered the parlor, and saw her on the sofa in the arms of the sofa in the sofa in the arms of the sofa in the arms of the sofa in the sofa in the arms of the sofa in the sofa in the arms of the sofa in the been greater even than that to his party. So in 1871. when the General Assembly attempted to call a Convention by means which he regarded as unconstitutional, he did not sustain the measure, though he lad constantly been in favor of a reform had constantly been in favor of a reform the cool reply; "you see that we are all bad constantly been favor of a reform the cool reply; "you see that we are all besides! They sat down together within the solution and saled it with a smack, "what's been disinherited by his stern and unreleded out their names on that slab, as you the solution and sealed it with a smack, "what's been disinherited by his stern and unreleded out their names on that slab, as you the slience and solitude, they often felt passage and the echoing tread of footsteps, till all at once we stood in a crowded hall, with a thousand eyes fixed on these two miserable men. How unlike were they to all besides! They sat down together within the cool reply; "you see that we are all besides! They sat down together within the cool reply; "I notice that the ballet girls mostly to be replaced to all a convention by means the silence and solitude, they often felt remorse, perhaps penitence. They chis-till all at once we stood in a crowded hall, with a thousand eyes fixed on these two miserable men. How unlike were they to all besides! They sat down together within the sollence and solitude, they often felt remorse, perhaps penitence. They chis-till all at once we stood in a crowded hall, with a thousand eyes fixed on these two miserable men. How unlike were they to all besides! They sat down together within the selected and solitude, they often felt remorse, perhaps penitence. They chis-till all at once we stood in a crowded hall, with a thousand eyes fixed on these two miserable men. How unlike were they to all besides! They sat down together within the selected and solitude, they often felt remorse, perhaps penitence. They chis-till all at once we stood in a crowded hall, with a their and the selected and solitude property, except an annuity to be paid to the natural heir, should he ever return. Some pitied the prodigal son, who had become property and doubtless even more the natural heir property and an annuity to be paid to the souls of them so tenderly beloved in the shadow of death. Prayers were said and a psalm was sung, in which their voices water power in the State, and at Smiley's their innocence, and doubtless even more than their power in the State, and at Smiley's stage," said old Mr. Squaggs to his wife, were heard to join, with tones that wrung who had firmly insisted on accompanying the shadow of death. Prayers were said and a psalm was sung, in which their voices water power in the State, and at Smiley's stage," said old Mr. Squaggs to his wife, who had firmly insisted on accompanying the shadow of death. Prayers were said and a psalm was sung, in which their voices water power in the State, and at Smiley's power in the shadow of death. Prayers were said and a psalm was sung, in which their voices water power in the State, and at Smiley's power in the State, and at Smiley's power in the shadow of death. Prayers were said and a psalm was sung, in which their voices water power in the State, and at Smiley water power in the State, and at Smiley's power in the shadow of death. Prayers were said and a psalm was sung, in which their voices water power in the State, and at Smiley water power in the shadow of death. Prayers were said and a psalm was sung, in which their voices water power in the shadow of death. Prayers were said and a psalm was sung, in which their voices water power in the shadow of death. Prayers were said and a psalm was sung, in which their voices water power in the shadow of death. Prayers were said and a psalm was sung, in which their voices water power in the shadow of death. Prayers were said and a psalm was sung, in which their voices water power in the shadow of death. Prayers were said and a psalm was sung, in which their voices water power in the shadow of death. Prayers were said an At a marriage celebration the bride was Some pitied the prodigal son, who had tenderly beloved in their guilt and in their were heard to join, with tones that wrung fashionable to denounce it and while it requested to sign her name in the register been disinherited—some blamed the father, graves, she carries to her lonely hut the out tears from the hardest or the most careat the sacristry. Excitement caused her some envied the good fortune of those who water that helps to preserve her hopeless less heart. Often had I heard those voices him to the theatre. "It shows that they In 1875 Mr. Batchelon joined heart and signed, and made an enormous ink blot. It Colonel William L. Saunders in signed, and made an enormous ink blot. Saunders in signed, and made an enormous ink blot. Saunders in signed, and made an enormous ink blot. Some carried the good fortune of those who water that deeps to preserve her hopeless less heart. Often had I heard those voices had so ill borne adversity. But in a short life, from the well dug by dearest hands, singing in my own peaceful church, before evil had disturbed or misery broken them: "Must I do it over again?" she blush- ited, were all forgotten, and the lost lands into the dust." ingly asked her husband. "No, I guess being redeemed, peace, comfort and hap- After a moment's silence the old man and the hour of their departure was come. piness were supposed again to be restored | continued, -for he saw that I longed to > long been banished. the old man's face were deep before, when oners were condemned. Hope there was for the moment these ghosts appeared, that he had to toil from morning to night, they none. It was known, from the moment of mighty crowd felt reverence for human seemed to have sunk into more ghastly the verdict-guilty, that they would be nature so terribly tried, and prayers and trenches, now that the goodness of Provi- executed. Petitions were, indeed, signed blessings, passionately ejaculated or condence had restored a gentle shelter to his by many, many thousands; but it was all vulsively stifled, went hovering over all the declining years. When seen wandering in vain, -and the father and the son had multitude, as if they feared some great through his fields at eventide, he looked to prepare themselves for death. not like the patriarch musing tranquilly on the ways and works of GoD; and when visited them in their cell. God forbid "It was a most beautiful summer's day my eyes met his during divine service, I should say that they were resigned. Hu- on which they were led out to die; and, as which he now again attended with scrupulous regularity, I sometimes thought they a doom; and I found the old man pacing time to the sky, the clouds lay motionless "Let us sit down on this stone seat," were suddenly averted in conscious guilt, said my aged friend, the pastor, "and I or closed in hypocritical devotion. I ing chains, with hurried steps, and a shone joyously over the magnificent heavscarcely know if I had any suspicion against him in my mind or not; but his high bald head, thin silver hair, and countenance of unspeakable horror. The son was lying on his face upon his bed of high bald head, thin silver hair, and countenance of unspeakable horror. The son was lying on his face upon his bed of high bald head, thin silver hair, and countenance of unspeakable horror. The son was lying on his face upon his bed of high bald head, thin silver hair, and countenance of unspeakable horror. The son was lying on his face upon his bed of high bald head, thin silver hair, and countenance of unspeakable horror. The son was lying on his face upon his bed of high bald head, thin silver hair, and countenance of unspeakable horror. The son was lying on his face upon his bed of high bald head, thin silver hair, and countenance of unspeakable horror. tenance with its fine features so intelligent, the massy bolts were withdrawn, and the vast multitude were not to be denied the had no longer the same solemn expression which they once possessed, and something dark and hidden seemed now to belong to them, which withstood his forced and un- upon his misery; and, as soon as he knew was shricking and fainting, not only among natural smile. The son, who, in the days of their former prosperity, had been stained pointed to his son. 'I have murdered come there in the mystery of their hearts, by no vice, and who, during their harder lot, had kept himself aloof from all his former companions, now became dissolute and profligate, nor did he meet with any reproof from a father whose heart would once have burst asunder at one act of wickhave come upon him every day since our edness in his beloved child. "About three years after the death of his father, the disinherited son returned to night. It is not fear for himself that brings them on-for my boy, though guilty, is his native parish. He had been a sailor on board various ships on foreign stations—but hearing by chance of his father's death, face for hours, till at last he seems to lose he came to claim his inheritance. Having heard, on his arrival, that his uncle had sions, often upon the stone floor till he is souls were in eternity—and I fear not to people, as a class, are singularly intellisions, often upon the stone floor till he is succeeded to the property, he came to me all covered with blood.' The old man and told me that the night before he left then went up to his son, knelt down, and, home his father stood by his bedside, putting aside the thick clustering hair from kissed him, and said that nevermore would his forehead, continued kissing him for he own such an undutiful son, but that he some minutes, with deep sobs, but eyes dry "But why should I recall to my remembrance, or describe to you, every hour of tors, and hoped to meet reconciled in anguish that I witnessed in that cell? For Heaven. 'My uncle is a villain,' said he several weeks it was all agony and despair; fiercely, and I will cast anchor on the the Bible lay unheeded before their ghastly and firmness, and the report of the Com-mittee formed the ground work of the suc-mittee formed the ground work of the sucbut one thought-that he had deluded his "I accompanied him to the house of his son into sin, death and eternal punishment. consciously weeping with eyes that old age has of itself enough bedimmed."

I accompanied min to the nouse of his son into sin, death and eternal punishment. He never slept; but visions, terrible as ily had just sat down to their frugal miduty Grand Master. To the establishment of the Oxford Orphan Asylum he gave the well; and though I knew not the hismuch time and labor, and while, not being tory of the griefs that stood all embodied to pray, had just lifted up his hand to ask sweat splash down upon the floor. I sometimes thought they would both die before itself above water more than a week or usefulness to the community and his influ- detail of the services he rendered, we must have been gathering together for the door, fell upon the table, and turn- the day of execution; but their mortal sor- two longer. know it was with him a labor of love, and many long years, and that such sighs as I ing his eyes, he beheld before him on the rows, though they sadly changed both face

ble energy to life, and every morning that genius. At the beginning of the present miles up this river to McNeill's Ferry. Lower Little river and Cape Fear, and in she dipped her pitcher in the water, lifted | deed, at that moment, most unlike that of | I visited them they were stronger and more | school term he conceived a grand scheme | From this point up the river, the land | the eastern part of the county, the farmbroadly awake in the chill silence of their for enriching himself and all the boys who corresponding to the above variety of soil ing interests have been very materially adlonesome prison-house. license in 1847, and in 1848, the first elecciate Judge of the Supreme Court. The souls, but two interest, and pay both this interest and Upper and Lower Little rivers is enclosed Those lands, which have not as yet relicense in 1847, and in 1848, the first electric license in 1847, and in 1847, a Bible open before them. Their faces, nine marbles within two days, and in case alluded to above, the other boundaries to a state of cultivation which would well ing that their souls were immortal, they humbly put their faith in the mercy of humbles large tracts, and can be bought in smaller middle Carolina. The geographical situations are the festility.

"It was during that resigned and serene hour that the old man ventured to ask for it, provided they would place securities in him the Constitution meant that the States were paramount, and the liberty of the suspishus of him. Brudder Giveadam Twenty years beheld her a wife and a lib widout labor people have a right to be in the beauty of her joy and innocence, the mother of his poor unhappy boy. I his hands. Most of the boys kept rabbits, on the Eastern side of the Cape Fear her sister counties. The principal markets people, dependent on the sovereignty of Jones, you will escort dis pusson to de mother, with all their most perfect happi- yard arm before now, for only asking their told him the truth calmly, and calmly he and they pledged their rabbits, their tops, the bottom lands are not so wide, and are now for the produce raised are Fayetteville, heard it all. On the day of his condemna- their jack-knives and other negotiable se- principally under cultivation. These lands Raleigh and Smithfield, all being about tion, she had been deprived of her reason, and, in the house of a kind friend, whose Last Thursday night the books of James like those on the opposite side of the river are not subject to overflow even during the seat. From the above topographical es-LOR gave largely of his then ample for acted of the southern cause, and assisted put de Bogardus kicker at work. Let him all but one died, in infancy, childhood, or wretched wife and mother, sprining to her name he blessed, now remained in merciful Smith showed that twenty-eight millions highest freshets. Adjoining these river cription of the county, the salubrity of around the bed of peace; and when the was open, and the mother and son enter- but one who had long ago lost her husband, school. On Friday night James Smith but now under skillful management and healthfulness of this section is not surpassed on with an unaching heart into the unobserved during the passion that had satisfied. The son said nothing, but wept Greek Professor, in trust for his creditors. extend as high as the Wake county boun- being numerous first class schools now in

'em to pick up deir hats an' feet an' trab- permitted them to enjoy, and how sullenly | well. "That was the last work done by on his father's mournful face? Yet thither em to pick up deri hats an icet an travelled the President There was a deep silence for a minute, and as no one travelled the President and son, and finished the day between the Clarksville schoology, and now suffering the travel in the Clarksville schoology, and now suffering the travel in the Clarksville schoology, and now suffering the their shock their field in the Clarksville schoology, and now suffering the their shock there are the Clarksville schoology, and now suffering the their shock there are the Clarksville schoology, and now suffering the their shock there are the Clarksville schoology, and now suffering the their shock there are the Clarksville schoology, and now suffering the their shock there are the Clarksville schoology, and now suffering the their shock there are the Clarksville schoology, and now suffering the clark there are the Clarksville schoology, and now suffering the clark there are the Clarksville schoology, and now suffering the clark there are the Clarksville schoology and the clark there are the Clarksville schoology and the clarksville schoology. The clarksville schoology are the clarksville schoology and the clarksville schoology are the clarksville schoology are the clarksville schoology and the clarksville schoology are the clarks "The unhappy old man had a brother of amusement to beguile their unhappy executioner's approach towards himself, much sympathy for them in their losses. poses.

but the last word of the psalm was sung,

"They stood at last upon the scaffold. to the dwelling from which they had so hear the details of that dreadful catastro- That long street, that seemed to stretch phe, and his own soul seemed likewise de- away interminably from the old prison-"But it was not so. If the furrows on sirous of renewing its grief, -"The pris- house, was paved with uncovered heads, calamity to themselves, and felt standing About a week after condemnation I on the first tremor of an earthquake.

door creaked sullenly on its hinges. The troubled feast of death. Many who now father fixed his eyes upon me for some stood there wished they had been in the time, as if I had been a stranger intruding heart of some far-off wood or glen; there William—I have brought my only son to but men fell down in their strength; embraces an area of five hundred and fifty of this county there are, on this stream, the scaffold, and I am doomed to hell! I for it was an overwhelming thing to begently called on the youth by name, but hold a father and his only son now halte was insensible—he was lying in a fit. ered for a shameful death. 'Is my father 'I fear he will awake out of that fit,' cried | with me on the scaffold?-give me his the old man with a broken voice. 'They hand for I see him not.' I joined their hands together, and at that moment the condemnation, and sometimes during the great bell in the cathedral tolled, but I am McDonald, Stewart, Shaw, Campbell, convinced neither of them heard the sound. For a moment there seemed to be no such thing as sound in the world; -and then all souls were in eternity-and I fear not to say, not an eternity of grief.'

THE CLARKSVILLE PANIC.

[New York Times.] The panic in the Clarksville school has naturally cast a gloom over playground and dormitory, and it will probably be long before the game of marbles recovers its former standing as a reputable though risky game.

trading in marbles. An immense business same stream, are materially different, and etc., can be grown here as early and as was done with insufficient capital; and a that body of pine land in the western part well as in any section of the State, short shrinkage in the value of rabbits or other of the county commonly known as the of the coast. Some portions of the county securities would have precipitated a panic at any time during the last three months. The failure of James Smith was, of course, the immediate origin of the panic, but the firm could not, in any event, have kept confluence of the above stream with the silk culture can be carried on profitably

Master James Smith is not only a skillful marble-player, but he is a financial three miles in breadth, extending eight tain sections, such as those lying along the had confidence in him. He proposed that is found lying on either side of the river. vanced, and the lands now show a high "I know not how deep a change was at he should borrow marbles at a high rate of This body of land lying between the grade of cultivation and improvement. though pale and haggard, had lost that the lender should reinvest both principal this section of country being Upper Little repay the small outlay of money needed to floor swept by the hand of death of all its "For a moment all was silent—then a glare of misery that so long had shone and profits he undertook to repay him at river on the North, Cape Fear river on the bring about this desirable end. In the forged the will, said the son, advancing with him in my bosom, as I used often to do enough, no one inquired where these boys he had limped along to the desk, one hand in his pocket and the other digging into his pocket and the other digging into he had limped along to the desk, one hand in his pocket and the other digging into he had limped along to the desk, one hand in his pocket and the other digging into he had limped along to the desk, one hand in the State for the production had advantageous terms.

There was not a bee roaming near us, towards his cousin with a firm step, 'my in the days of his boyhood, when, during were to be found, or at what hour in the be found in the State for the production of wheat and oats. From recent experidely in the onward march of progress is below the trees of my own farm. We have secretly getting out of bed and going off ments it has also been proved that tobacco perhaps its poor means of transportation o die.'

The boys were, however, perfectly satis"There were no transports of deluded fied with his method of conducting busiare opened for cultivation, the remainder railroad which runs through the county is enthusiasm in the souls of these unhappy ness. He never failed to tender large being heavily timbered woodland, consist- the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley, which men. They had never doubted the truth quantities of marbles to his patrons when- ing principally of white oak, red oak, runs along its Western border through the gone with a sigh was the only dweller make his escape—hush, hush, hush, hush, hush, hush, hush, hush, hush, hush as few days he has sailed away in fatally disregarded its precepts; and now were entitled to dividends, and they never character of the soil is a gray-colored, Should some of the projected roads, the thought of inevitable death, the light that at least a million of marbles before closing had been darkened, but never extinguished | their accounts with James Smith, and they in their hearts, rose up anew; and know- were eager not to draw marbles but to add | vation, seem not yet even to have lost their | the resources of the county and bring into ore a most mournful tragedy.

The Principal of the school investigated
The hour was faintly heard through

At present the Clarksville schoolboys

Matrimonial Wishes.

A happy pair in smart array By holy church united. From London town in open shay, Set out, by love incited.

The day was dull as dull could be, So (dreaming of no pun) Quoth John, "I hope my dear, that we May have a little sun.'

To which his bride with simple heart, Replied, ('twas nature taught her), Well, I confess, for my own part, I'd rather have a daughter

Raleigh Register.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Advertisements will be inserted for One Dollar per square (one inch) for the first and Fifty Cents for each subsequent publication. Contracts for advertising for any space or time

RALEIGH REGISTER,

Second Floor of Fisher Building, Fayetteville Street, next to Market House, bridge, would contribute no less than HARNETT. 3,000 bales of cotton besides other products for exportation. AMONG THE SCOTCH.

NO. 14.

Good People and Good Country.

Carolina, and was formed from the north-

Sampson, on the South by Cumberland, gent, thriving and industrious, unassum-ing in their manners, yet markedly generous and hospitable in their dealings with each other and towards new comers.

ern portion of Cumberland county.

and on the West by Moore.

double that population.

Sand Hills.

may be made at the office of the Lower Little river is the dividing line westward between Cumberland and Harnett. It is a never-failing stream, the [James P. Hodges.] water being perfectly pure, and having as Harnett county lies in Middle North arolina, and was formed from the north-hills. No stream of its size is superior to it as a water power, and for five miles of It is bounded on the North by Wake its course it runs through the famous cotand Chatham, on the East by Johnston and | ton belt of lower Harnett. It has an average of sixty feet in breadth with perpendicular banks twenty to thirty feet in Its county seat is Lillington, situated on height, its fall averaging twelve and a the west bank of the Cape Fear River. It half feet to the mile. Within the limits is under cultivation. Its population in 1880 and two cotton gins now in operation. A was 10,862; though it can easily support better site for a cotton manufactory could not well be found than this stream and the Its People. The inhabitants are for the surrounding country offers.

most part of Scottish origin, the names of About the centre of the county there is another stream but little inferior in water McLean, McNeill, McLeod, McKay, &c., resources to the above, known as Upper being still prominently associated with Little river. The best locations for mills the history of the county. While there on this stream are probably near its conat once the multitude heaved like the sea, are few men of great prominence in any fluence with the Cape Fear, though there

Black river, famous for its abundant supply of fresh water fish of all kinds, is about five miles from the Cape Fear, and ach other and towards new comers.

Its Lands.—Within its bounds almost east of that river.

every variety of soil is found, ranging from the fertile bottom lands on the Cape Besides these, there are numerous other smaller mill streams of varying volume in sky game. those lands lying on either side of the being, however, at present, the staple pro-The panic was distinctly due to over- Cape Fear, which, though watered by the duct. Vegetables, fruits of all kinds. Sand Hills.

Commencing at Lower Little river, the particularly the Scuppernong and the comdividing line between Cumberland and mon varieties of bunch grapes. It has

> Cape Fear along the western banks of the and at small cost. latter stream, there is a large tract of very | Its Capacities. -This county, as a whole, fertile bottom-lands, varying from one to is not yet fully developed, though in cer-The vield of corn is from ten to fifty wild or improved, on very favorable and bushels per acre, and no better land can advantageous terms. very high state of cultivation, and some road, crossing the Cape Fear at Smiley's of them, after one hundred years of culti- Falls, it would develop beyond measure consented, after the boys had spent all lots at prices ranging from $6 to $12 tion of the county is such that at no disrailroad communication between this and ignorance of all that had befallen, believ- of marbles in round numbers were due to bottoms are wider tracts of pine table the climate can well be judged. Except ing herself indeed to be a motherless widow, the sixty-four boys of the Clarksville lands, once considered not very productive, in a very few of the bottom lands, the

The school advantages are good, there house of God. All but one died; and struck all our souls, and had endeavored better had it been if that one had never to commit suicide. His own son cut him the country better had it been if that one had never to commit suicide. The disaster was precipitated by a dary, where the lands become more unsuccessful operation in different parts of the country. The christian denominations A large portion of this section is still in est order.

The system of county government is in small tracts at from $2 to $5 per acre. this county are unbounded, and as yet but

Superintendent of Public Instruction, permit me to mention the name of Dr. R. L. Abernethy, President of Rutherford College, Burke county, North Carolina. There is not another man in the State who has higher claims upon North Carolikinds. From extensive travel in the na for the office, and there is not another studded with reeds and perennial grasses, making this one of the finest of ranges for cattle, sheep, &c., and rendering it especially adapted for stock raising of all

This land, though so bountifully en-

The Cape Fear is the largest river in the the purposes of machinery, the volume of water here being estimated as sufficient, if utilized, to run all the machinery of the Northern manufactories. Just below these falls there is a point, owing to the natural situation of an island in the river, at which a bridge could be built cheaper probably than at any other point on the river. A bridge thus constructed would bring into direct communication the most ing up schools and colleges in the State. year. The sentiment of the West is in $2 per acre.

Principal Water Courses.—This county favor of Dr. Abernethy, and he is known is unusually well drained and well watered. and loved all over the State.

I have lived by him for twenty years, county, running through its centre from and I know of whom I write. His unparaccompanying Ferry in the lower part of the county, the to be benefitted by the natural situation is especially adapted for | mands his recognition by our people. I speak the sentiments of many.

MINING INTELLIGENCE.

They are pushing vigorously and suc-cessfully the development of the famous Conrad Hill mines.

Mr. Lofflin continues to develop the B. T. Coggins Quartz vein in Montgomery fertile farming lands of upper Cumberland county. The material yields an average and Harnett, and should the contemplated of four dollars per ton, while some of it railroad from Wilson to Florence be built, runs into twenty odd dollars per ton. A the present location of which is about fine vein of about four and a half feet has three miles distant from this point, this been exposed for thirty yards. - Salisbury section of country, by means of this Watchman.

VOL. I. no paper sent after expiration of time paid for.

ger a doubt that the Convention would be As a lawyer, also, Mr. BATCHELOR has been of great service to the State. In the meeting of the North Carolina Railroad Company in Salisbury he began proceedings which saved the State's interest in the One brick upon another, And the highest wall is made; One flake upon another, which this interest was again saved, and And the deepest snow is laid. the construction bonds compromised at a saving to the State of $750,000. Another service which Mr. BATCHELOR most of his services, known only to the bar and to a few friends.

The Code of Civil Procedure was adopted in 1868, and, as construed by the Supreme Court, the collection of debts under this Code was so summary as to threaten serious danger to the farming interest. The danger was pressing, and Mr. BATCH-ELOR, regarding the farming interests of and the flowers, as if they grew beneath the State as her chief source of prosperity, at once realized the gravity of the situation, and to avert it drew up an Act to suspend the Code of Civil Procedure, and act was intended as a temporary measure, it has worked so well that it still remains a long, deep, broken sigh. on the Statute Book, and is familiarly looks back with most pleasure. Mr. BATCHELOR's services on the Fraud were both onerous and unpleasant, but were discharged with singular impartiality cess of the Democratic party in the next

As a Mason, Mr. BATCHELOR has filled the offices of Grand Senior Warden and Dephim do not know how great has been his a member of the Order, we cannot speak in so mournfully before me, I felt that they a blessing. Our shadows, as we entered we have understood from the brethren that his efforts contributed greatly to the estab-

[Detroit Free Press.] Socrates had just crowded himself

his wool, Brother Gardner continued :-

Misser Spikeroot, it was under-

"I-I-no, sah." forethought. He knew, and knew well, the responsibility and foresaw clearly the immense issues involved in the act. But he had through life studied law as a day's work. We doan' hanker arter sich her whom we now saw so woe-begone, I would. 'I say he has forged my father's their Creator and Redeemer. science, and from the foundation. To members as you. When a poo' man kin remember brought home a youthful bride. will. As to escaping, let him escape if he the States, must be defended at all hazards.

Ouring the war that followed Mr. Batch Utter any remark derogatory to de char
ble griefs. Death passed not by her door

Holla! where is the old man gone?' LOR gave largely of his then ample for acter of de Lime-Kiln Club, you needn't without its victims, and, of five children, "We all looked ghastly around, and the iberally the families of those in the field. go in peace. What he kin say won't hurt blooming youth. But they died in Nature's feet, rushed out of the house. We fol-

"Gem'len, if dar am any mo' agitators demon of speculation seemed to possess all in de hall I want 'em to listen closely. classes, he refused to advance his interests by engaging in any speculation for making workin' man. All to once he got de ideah with his fortune entirely swept away, and with his fortune entirely swept away, and with a burden of debt, incurred as security for his friends; with health entirely broken for large for earlied at the form a rafter down, as he hung suspended from a rafter had it been it that one had never with the store. The great city lay still as on the Sabbath down, as he hung suspended from a rafter from the ration of the rabbits have commoditions and the classes, he refused to advance his interests Socrates Spikeroot used to be a harddown, and a large family dependent on offence for capitalists to oppress labor, it man, of which I need not state the partruded eyes, till, in a few minutes, he tread of feet was heart in every avenue; to redeem them their owners were comhim. Under these circumstances, to which am all right for a kicker to go aroun' bor-ticulars, robbed them upon his the streets began to fill with pale, anxious pelled to call in the marbles that they had its native state, but annually larger bodies so many succumbed, his courage rose to rowin money, runnin in debt, an stealin tary fields, which now passed into the pos- wife, who, soon recovering from a fainting and impatient faces; and many eyes were invested with James Smith. The latter are being brought under cultivation, and good; taxes are lower than in many of the so many succumped, ms courage rose to meet the occasion, and he commenced a struggle to pay the debts which he had struggle to pay the assumed for others at a time when he could He went to va'us laborin' men an' con- had been their own; and for a while father the sailor with a gasping voice, 'you have time, till it should reach the point at which both their marbles and their hypothecated vating these lands. They can be purchased several years; in short, the capacities of have paid them all without inconvenience.

In 1866 Mr. Batchelor removed to large the securities and son bore the change of fortune seemingly undismayed, and toiled as common lothing; the worst is now passed; and son bore the change of fore a most mournful tragedy.

The should reach the point at which securities and son bore the change of fortune seemingly undismayed, and toiled as common lothing; the worst is now passed; and son bore the change of fore a most mournful tragedy.

The Principles of the should reach the point at which and both their is should reach the point at which and both their is should reach the point at which and both their is should reach the point at which and both their is should reach the point at which and son bore the change of fortune seemingly undismayed, and toiled as common lothing; the worst is now passed; and son bore the change of fore a most mournful tragedy.

The Principles of the change of fortune seemingly undismayed, and toiled as common lothing; the worst is now passed; and son bore the change of fore a most mournful tragedy. In 1866 Mr. BATCHELOR removed to Raleigh and formed a partnership with the late Hon. Sion H. Rogers. Heretofore the later Hon. He has got factor to the school investigated the later Hon. He has got factor to the school investigated the later Hon. He has got factor to the later Hon. He practice of law had been to him a diver- an' figgers to prove dat de workin' man gether, and at twilight they returned. man's heart. Let us be kind to the old gether for the last time in the condemned tree switches of the largest size. He found settled, except those portions bordering other county in our State. practice of law had been to him a diversion, more as an excuse for the study of a science to which he was devoted than as a source of income; henceforth it was a means of livelihood. The knowledge acquired by studying law for the love of which he was devoted by studying law for the love of the study of a source of income; henceforth it was a mean refuses to portions bordering the free switches of the largest size. He found to the old man's face that it is seemed as if their industry was in the state of the study of a section of the study of a science to which he was devoted than as a grain my love the remed as if a raven had croaked by any in the state. These sand-hill and a spirity of the sand at twinght they returned.

State of the largest size. He found to the old man's face that it is seemed as if their industry was in the sum of the largest size. He found the free switches of the largest size. He found to the old man's face that as again in the state of the study of a source of income; henceforth it was a source of income; hencefor study, now came into use. Mr. Batchelok lend him money he am called a bloated darkened with anger and dissatisfaction. seen that concealment or escape was no a shrivelled, bloodless face and small, red, tims were simply the investments made by with vast meadow-lands intervening, study, now came into use. Mr. BATCHELOR immediately assumed a place in the very first rank in the profession, and from that day until now, he has worked hard and study in the profession, and from that day until now, he has worked hard and study in the profession and study in the profession, and from that day until now, he has worked hard and study in the fields, or visited them in their death."

Assumed a place in the conceanment of escape was no darkened with anger and dissatisfaction. They did not attend public worship so other victims. He had not won a single other victims. He had not won a single of the son with a cord. No resistance was as a marble financier, and, as the Principle of the son with a cord. No resistance was as a marble financier, and, as the Principle of the son with a cord. No resistance was as a marble financier, and, as the Principle of the son with a cord. No resistance was as a marble financier, and, as the Principle of the son with a cord. No resistance was as a marble financier, and, as the Principle of the son with a cord. No resistance was as a marble financier, and, as the Principle of the son with a cord. No resistance was as a marble financier, and, as the Principle of the son with a cord. No resistance was as a marble financier, and, as the Principle of the son with a cord. No resistance was as a marble financier, and, as the Principle of the son with a cord. No resistance was a marble financier, and, as the Principle of the son with a cord. No resistance was a marble financier, and, as the principle of the son with a cord. The cord with a distribution of the son with a cord. The cord with a distribution of the son with a cord. The cord with a distribution of the son with a cord. The cord with a cord with day until now, he has worked hard and constantly. To such work success is cerconstantly. To such work success is the poor men an grind em to powder. If the poor men an grind em to powder. If the poor men an grind em to powder. If the poor men an grind em to powder the success and I grieved to think had heard enough to understand the long, that tall and beautiful youth, while the fiend bound him for execution. At this been no better than that of a professional been educated, and, doing their own work hind an opportunity will now be giben ten the blessings Providence had so long that bowed-down figure beside the solitary mournful sight, how could I bear to look pickpocket.

and as no one travelled the President disturbing both their hearts.

that will do, but-" "Oh, don't scold

Love and Lightning.

time."

A lady, who her love had sold, Asked if a reason could be told Why wedding rings are made of gold.

I ventured thus to instruct her:

Love, ma'am, and lightning are the same—
On earth they glance, from heaven they came; Love is the soul's electric flame, And gold its best conductor.