The roses and lilies, so fair and so frail, Have gone from the garden and died in the vale, And pansies and gentian and sweet mignonette, With the tears of October are drooping and wet; So, fair little maiden, the light tissues fold

Ere the sun of November shines whitely and cold. Yet dream not to wear them again, as to-day, When the weeds of the year crusifine blossoms of May: For ah! the gay bodice may clasp in the breast A heart full of sorrow and weary unrest; And sombre-hued sack-cloth the spirit may shroud. While the form bears the colors it flaunted unbowed.

So folding thy vesture to lay out of sight, With sweet-smelling posies, with heart bounding light, Yet fold in a prayer for the strength you may and structure in this city. need-

A prayer which He grants to the storm-beaten

For strength in its weakness-a stay evermore Until winters and summers on earth shall be o'er.

RALEIGH CHURCHES. CHRIST'S CHURCH.

Something About Its Past and Present.

The "friends and members of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United covers all that is mortal of this good wo and various other improvements and re-States" in this city organized themselves man. It is a very small but not ungrace- pairs on the church, chapel, rectory and into a congregation "by the name of the ful tribute to the memory of one to whose premises. Congregation of Christ's Church" at a thoughtful and bountiful Christian libermeeting held Wednesday evening, 5 o'- ality the congregation of Christ's Church clock, August 1, 1821—as appears from was so early and so largely indebted. the first entry in the old Vestry Bookand elected the following gentlemen the nally erected, mainly through the untiring first vestry of the parish, viz., Hon. John exertions of a lady member of the then the parish because of their inability to get more or less worthless. Many people have It would require some trouble, of course, Haywood, Hon. John Louis Taylor, Dr. rector's (Dr. Mason) family in 1867. It regular sittings in the church. A. S. H. Burgess, Dr. James Henderson, then faced on Wilmington street and occuand William H. Haywood, Jr.

the session of the sixth annual convention too small for the wants of the Sunday distinguished in the affairs of the Etate as the evil. Our people will not, under any tain one of the breed of sheep dogs, but of the Church in the Diocese, held in the School and was enlarged. In the winter supreme Court room in this city, it was of 1874-5 it was still further improved and members in earlier times seem to have have their good uses. They keep down that, on account of their inherited instinct, Convention, with the Hon. John Louis Edenton street, where it now admirably Taylor, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Dr. A. S. H. Burgess and W. H. Haywood, Jr., afterwards U. S. Senator, for the week-day charity school of the Gales, W. H. Haywood, Jr., E. P. Guion, mote from neighbors, often a timid woas its first lay delegates. St. Mark's parish, Church, Halifax, and Calvary Church, Wadesboro', were admitted at the same

At this time the congregation of Christ's their devotions for thirty years, was in W. H. Battle, B. F. Moore, &c., &c. Church had no rector and only occasional 1861 donated to the Chapel of the Cross, services. It appears that the Rev. William Chapel Hill, and the present larger bell Hooper, Professor of Languages in the University, preached here twice as a Missionary during his summer vacation of 1820. The next year Rev. Wm. Mercer Green changed his residence from Raleigh to (now the venerable Bishop of Mississippi), Missionary, officiated here regularly once a month. During these years Rt. Rev. Richard Channing Moore, Bishop of Virginia, performed, at the request of the teristics, and whose great independence of standing committee, episcopal duty in the spirit, earnestness, devoutness, and uncom- twenty-five times as wide as the mouth of diocese. But at the seventh Convention, promising faithfulness to his convictions the great Roanoke, that everybody is faheld in Salisbury in April, 1823, Bishop are so well known, died about 1 o'clock Ravenscroft was elected, and took charge on the morning of the 5th of March, 1830, of Christ's Church as its rector on the 20th at the house of Gavin Hogg, Esq., in this mar its beauty—a grand, stately stream, of December of that year, 1823.

The same month, at "an adjourned meeting of the Vestry-present, Dr. Bur- tablet was erected in the wall over the The view is beautiful. But when gess, Dr. Henderson, Wm. H. Haywood, place of his interment at his own expense. the great Alligator begins to narrow Jr., and John L. Taylor-it was, on mo. His funeral was conducted according to (after you have gone thirty miles) tion resolved that the Vestry will rent the his own written directions. His remains it does take a curious course for a fact. It house lately used as a museum, and fit up were drawn to the church by his favorite twists and turns and writhes and wriggles the same for the immediate use of the horse Pleasant, led by his faithful body accordingly done." This room was in a read by the Rev. George W. Freeman, steamer. In many places two hundred building then situated where Stronach's rector of Christ's Church, and the 5th, 9th, yards of canal would shorten the distance vice on Saturday, January 18, 1824, when before his death in testimony of his disapand evening service. The Bishop reportnumber of members of the congregation, funeral occasions, whether celebrated at declared as such, is about 35." To the private houses or in the church. Convention of 1827 the Bishop reports that "the building intended for a church is the rectorship of Christ's Church by the commenced in a central and convenient Rev. Charles P. Elliott, of Charleston, S. situation, and expectation is sanguine that | C., who who was rector only one year. it will have a favorable effect on the inter- | He was succeeded in September, 1829, by ests of the Church." This, the first church the Rev. George W. Freeman, (uncle of building of the parish, was completed, and the late esteemed Clerk of the Supreme the tannic acid in the juniper preventing consecrated by Bishop Ravenscroft on the Court, Edmund B. Freeman, Esq.), and 20th of December, 1829. The following names are subscribed to an earnest, industrious and pious man, the original instrument of "donation and unyielding in his convictions and candid endowment" now in the keeping of the rector of this parish, to which is appended | tinued till 1840, and during this time the over his own signature, the first Bishop of congregation grew rapidly. In 1830 he North Carolina's certificate of consecra- reports 30 communicants as against 16 two eight exceedingly shabby looking stores, tion, viz.: William H. Haywood, Jr., years before, and in 1840 the number had George E. Badger, I. Wetmore, Hazlett swelled to 75. Kyle, William Thompson, B. A. Barham, John Beckwith and Gavin Hogg.

This old Christ's Church was a wooden structure and stood a few yards immediately north of the present stone church. Under its chancel were deposited in March. 1830, the remains of Bishop Ravenscroft. It was used with occasional additions and repairs until 1853, when it was given to he colored Methodists and removed to the 54 in 1840 to 100 in 1850, 124 in 1860, and corner of Edenton and Hargett streets.

The present elegant granite building.

designed by Upjohn and built under the ministry of the late R. S. Mason, D. D., was finished, with the exception of the tower, at a cost, it is said, of about $18,000. The tower was not completed until 1861. Towards its construction $2,500 had been officiating. Bishop Atkinson delivered a O. Watson. There had been a much car- address. The Church was appropriately places in this part of the State. her bequest to the congregation, the exact | draped and filled to its utmost capacity by amount of which it is impossible to state a deeply sorrowing congregation and comowing to the unaccountable absence from munity. A number of the clergy of the the church records of the vestry book of Diocese were present in the church and at the parish during the whole of the thirty- the grave in their surplices. He was a three years of Dr. Mason's rectorship, good man "full of faith and power," Diligent search and inquiry have so far failed to discover anything as to the loved as a friend and pastor, pure in life, whereabouts of this book, which doubtless | peaceful in death," and his works do folcontains an accurate statement of the low him. ing facts, however, have been gathered Rev. J. E. C. Smedes, then Principal of level of Pamlico sound, which is four miles sheep at his back. There is from entirely reliable sources: In Tarboro, "St. Augustine's Normal School and Col- out from the southern shore. It is pro-December 12, 1822, died Mrs. Mary Sum- legiste Institute" in this city, took tem- posed to partly drain the lake by means of ner Blount (or Mrs. Jacky Blount, as she was most commonly known), the daughter ty, and widow of General Thomas Blount, in charge of Emanuel Church, Warrenton, several times a representative of his Dis- the Church of the Good Shepherd, Ridgetrict in Congress, and brother of General way, and Grace Church, Weldon, was William and Governor Willie Biount, of unanimously elected its rector. He ac-Tennessee. The second clause of her will cepted the position and entered upon its bequeathed all her interest in her hus- duties on the 6th Sunday after Trinity, band's estate (which at that time had not | July 12, 1874. been settled by his executors) to the Hon. | Concerning this distinguished clergy-Duncan Cameron and Rev. William Hoop- man one must write with less freedom than er, in trust, for the purpose of erecting an of those other eminent names which have supported by the alleged discovery of The sheep range themselves behind him, and trade now stagnate and languish there hinderance. Through his influence Baron it."—Speaker Blaine to Fisher. Episcopal church in Raleigh, and, as doubts were at that time entertained as to praise of living men is apt to sound full the bottom. At all events it is a beautiful were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is apt to sound full were able to work off all your bonds at a living men is appeared to the full to the first three to the full to the first three to the full three to the full to the first three to the full three to the full to the first three to the full three to three to the full three to the full three to the full three to the how far the courts might support this besome and criticism ungracious. Yet it sheet of water, imposing and majestic.

Maleigh

Remister,

VOL. I.

quest, it being to religious purposes, and | must be said that Dr. Marshall is not an this being a new question for our laws, unworthy successor to the good and able she further provides that in case any men who have preceded him. That he doubts are raised as to the legality of such | should be a Doctor of Divinity while yet a bequest, or if any of her relatives should | a young man is of small account in these contest the same, then she bequeaths the days when American Doctors of Divinity said property to said Duncan Cameron are more in number than the sands of the and Rev. William Hooper, absolutely and sea. But, though handicapped with this any court, and leaves the disposition of of spotless life, an humble and devoted the same to their consciences. This legacy | servant of his Master, a sound theologian, consisted in Tennessee lands which were a graceful, strong and impressive preach-valued at "from $14,000 to $15,000," as er, Dr. Marshall stands in the front rank reported by "the Committee on the state of the clergy of the State. As the days of the Church" to the General Convention of man are counted, he has not yet reached of 1823, but there was a good deal of liti- his prime, and has, we trust, many years gation about them, and in the absence of of usefulness and honor in store for him.

riod when the proceeds of this legacy were advance in growth and material prosperity, to say exactly what it amounted to, or that purports to be a sketch, however im-whether, as some say, it went wholly to perfect, of so considerable a period of time, to say, however, that the congregation of marriages have been solemnized, and 156

Mrs. Blount was buried in a private ly met all its pecuniary engagements and but the place had become ruined and the or general. The total amount collected of the broken one, over the spot that now at $2,200 recently erected in the church, in 1832, after calling the congregation to Josiah O. Watson, William Thompson, Williamsboro', in Granville county, where If you haven't you have missed seeing and city, and was buried at his own request lined on either side with dense growths of under the chancel in Christ's Church: a cypress, juniper and other swamp trees.

During the ten years of Dr. Marshall's administration the parish has continued to which may not be passed over in anything although the evidences are necessarily

In these ten years 278 persons have been baptized, 139 have been confirmed, 59 persons have been buried. This is an average of a fraction over 27 baptisms, 13 confirmations, 6 marriages and 15 burials each year. The congregation has prompt-assessments, whether parochial, diocesan in the congregation for all purposes in this time is $51,123.37, being an average of $5,112.30 a year. This aggregate amount includes (besides the regular annual contributions and assessments for all the various diocesan and several missionary and charity funds and parochial ex-penses) the payment of a debt of $5,000 on the parish, the cost of a new organ valued

There are now about 105 families in the parish numbering about 400 souls. The number of communicants reported to the last Convention is 200. About 25 others

Henry, E. B. Freeman, James McKimmon, DOWN IN HYDE.

How Rivers Run and Farms Flourish.

Elizabeth City Falcon.

enjoying a sail on the loveliest, grandest, and one of the largest rivers in North Carolina. From bank to bank across its miliar with. Then up for thirty miles the course is perfectly straight-no curve to and that the color and flavor come from the juniper trees that line the shores and After following up the crooked part of the river about twenty-five miles you come to a six miles stretch of canal, at the end of which is Fairfield, the most prosperous village in Hyde county. The village has two or three handsome residences, six or and the prettiest and nicest country church (Methodist) we have ever seen. But the surrounding. Great forests of splendid never saw any corn before, comparatively.

MAGNIFICENT FARMS

MATTAMUSKEET LAKE.

A drive of half a mile from Fairfield brings you to Mattamuskeet Lake. To look at it for the first time is a revelation.

it from becoming stagnant.

glory of the place is the mouth the distance is good six miles-

Have you ever been up Alligator river?

the book already referred to, containing obably chiefly realized, it is impossible ing of the parish, or, as others think, in | mainly statistical.

the minutes of the Vestry during the pe-the construction of the first church build-part at least to the erection of the walls of the present granite structure. It is safe Christ's Church is very largely indebted to this munificent legacy of its liberal benefactress for its first material foundation burying ground near the town of Tarboro, slab over her grave broken to pieces. The Vestry of Christ's Church, having lately been informed of this state of things by the Rev. Dr. Cheshire, gladly availed themselves of his suggestion and caused her remains to be removed to the beautiful cemetery of Calvary Church, Tarboro', and a neat and durable monument of granite, suitably inscribed, to be erected in place

The Sanday School building was origipart by the "Ladies' Working Society" previously purchased was hung in the

In March, 1828, Bishop Ravenscroft he took charge of St. John's Church. This good and able man-the first Bishop of North Carolina-of such marked charac-

Bishop Ravenscroft was succeeded in afterwards Bishop of Arkansas. He was in avowing them. His rectorship con-

Dr. Freeman was succeeded by the Rev.

R. S. Mason, D. D., then President of Newark College, who entered upon his duties as rector on Christmas Day, 1840.

These duties he continuously discharged for thirty-three years, distinguished for his learning and piety and beloved by his parishioners. During his incumbency the Dr. Mason died of pneumonia at '11 o'- clock a. m., on Saturday, February 21, 1874, and was buried from the church the following Tuesday, February 24, in Oakwood Cemetery, Bishops Atkinson and "honored as a scholar and theologian, be-about 160 at the time of his death.

free of all trusts that can be enforced in title, he is a man of mark. A good man, RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1884.

SHEEP AND DOGS.

PRESIDENT BATTLE PROPOSES To Make Them "Mutual Friends."

It is very evident that the people of North Carolina will not exterminate their dogs. They would greatly prefer to destroy the politicians who would vote for The question has been agitated for years, and meet's with no popular favor. Shall we abandon all efforts to raise sheep because of the existence of their canine

During the State Fair of 1883 President Battle, in response to a general call by the members of the Agricultural Society, made some suggestions which struck the attention of those present. We reported his talk, which was entirely impromptu, for the Fayetteville Observer. As all light possible should be thrown on this important question of sheep raising, we requested Mr. Battle to revise our report, and now present it to our readers with his emenda-

PRESIDENT BATTLE stated in substance that he had not contemto be the wish of members to hear from the subject of SHEEP-RAISING All agreed as to the importance of this industry of our people. As an economical foood supply, as a means of securing a cheap home made fertilizer, as a means of ntilizing much grass and other herbage on the plantation, which would otherwise run to waste; in fine, as a source of profit from flesh, wool and manure, the best farmers of the most advanced agricultural sections place sheep-raising in the front rank of the industries. Many sections of North Carolina are peculiarly adapted to it. There is no section where it would not aid greatly in the support of the laborers and improvements of the land.

THE CHIEF OBSTACLE, usually considered as insurmountable, is have during these ten years been lost to the existence of great numbers of dogs, abandoned sheep in despair on account of but not more than is needed for training This congregation has always had-as it this obstacle. Mr. Battle admitted the other dogs. No hunter expects his setter pied very nearly the exact site of the old now has-among its male members some evil to some extent. He admitted, more- to find the covey, point them, etc., with-In April of the following year (1822), at church. After a short time it was found of our best citizens, many among them over, the impossibility of getting rid of out previous training. It is better to obbeen John Louis Taylor, Gavin Hogg, foxes and other animals which would, they are more easily trained than others. John Beckwith, Ichabod Wetmore, Dun- without them, increase to a degree for- But an animal of any good courageous serves the three-fold purpose of Chapel, can Cameron, Thomas P. Devereux, Geo. midable to poultry and sheep as well. And Sunday School building and school-room | E. Badger, Charles Manly, Weston R. the lonely cottager, in a secluded spot, re- loves his work can find time to carry out George W. Mordecai, S. F. Patterson, man, would feel defenceless at night with charges, while young, injuring the lambs The old bell, which was purchased in Richard Hines, John H. Bryan, Louis D. out her faithful dog to protect the prem- by too much playfulness. Indeed, this is ises, and at least give warning of the approach of danger. We may persuade ourselves as much as we please that they should all be exterminated, but any act of Assembly passed with this view would meet with general condemnation, and would speedily be repealed. The ques- The true way to meet the evil of mean. tion is, then, can sheep be raised notwithstanding the dogs! In deciding this question we should in- courage and affection of good dogs. quire what other people do and have done, who now raise, and have for ages raised, sheep successfully. Let us examine the methods of Oriental nations, of Great Britain, of Spain, Italy, of Australia, of South America.

We find that sheep always and everywhere have enemies, from which they must be guarded. They are timid, foolish and defenceless creatures. They need the care, the oversight, the protection of man. Wherever they get these they flourish; wherever they are neglected they come to the literature of Greece and Rome, we find proof of this. and finally gets so narrow that you could Church as a place of worship; which was servant Johnson. The burial service was jump on either shore from the decks of the watches over and defends them. Christ used a metaphor well appreciated by his hearers, when he called himself the Shepstore (on Market Square and in gear of the 10th and 11th verses of the XVIth Psalm a mile. You turn in and steam fifty yards, herd and His disciples His sheep. And Da-('itizens' Bank building) now stands, and were sung, but there was no funeral ser- turn a point and follow the river back for | vid did not give up the raising of sheep was used for the first time for divine ser- mon, it being so directed by the Bishop forty yards, and keep this up for half a because a lion and a bear came out of the day-for no boat can make time on such woods to devour them. No, he arose and the Bishop preached both at the morning probation of the practice of preaching at a wickedly crooked course. The water at slew their wild beast enemies. Grant that funerals, and since that time it has been this part is of a dark, rich mahogany color we have in North Carolina formidable foes ed to the Convention of this year, "the customary in the congregation of Christ's and looks beautiful as the steamer plows in the shape of vile hounds and "curs of number of communicants is about 25; the Church to dispense with the sermon on through it. It holds its color when taken low degree;" they are no worse than the up and put in a glass-about the shade of | wolves and foxes and jackals, not to mengood stiff sherry, and very mellow and tion the lions and tigers and bears of other pleasant to the taste. Of course you know | countries. Even if every dog in our State it is the getting-to-be-famous juniper water, should be slain.

> OTHER ENEMIES would spring up, such as foxes and prowlcover the swamps that drain into it. This water will preserve its freshness for years, mers would be grumbling over new evils, as sheepless as ever. pecially on a large scale, there should be a shepherd, whose whole attention should tend back in the distance for miles. We the plantation to another. Lands that have been steadily in cultiva- of protecting sheep found very effectual big farm. The soil is black and of a veg- who gives philosophical reasons, founded four feet above the becomes fiercer because of the army of porary charge of the parish; but at a meeting of the Vestry held on the 27th day of $10,000 has been subscribed for this purwhile supported by his followers. Darwin will never be explained; but it seems to be ed of himself. He is afraid of every other up in the Treasury will commence to flow houn being utterly superseded in the Prestolerably certain that nature didn't put it dog. When he is pursued he will run to outward. It will come back once more there to begin with. The most reasonable his flock in the utmost terror. But as soon into the pockets of the people and into who, being a widower, could pay attention

They invest the whole flock with the attributes of their leader. They see before them in angry defiance not one, but, in fancy, a numerous band of angry dogs, and their courage quails. They dare not attack. A flock with such a dog can be left all day to itself. He will defend them from any animal, not human, and will do his

To guard against the latter there should be a human defender. If a shepherd be not employed, the sheep should be penned at night near enough to the farmer's house for him to be aroused by a disturbance in the folds. Putting bells on some of the rams would aid in this. The combined noise of a barking dog and jingling bells should arouse any careful man from the deepest slumber.

To secure the best results in manuring ery light lands, perhaps it is best to pen flock at different places on the farm. VERY LIGHT LAND would thus be benefitted, not only by the plated being called on, but as it appeared | droppings, but the packing of the earth by sharp hoofs. The English plan of hurhim, he would offer a few suggestions on | dies was recommended for making movable fences, i. e., panels made of two upright stakes, with sharpened ends projecting 18 inches below the cross-pieces. Between the stakes are woven long twigs of willows. These can be easily propagated along the branches or on river banks, and grow very rapidly, making twigs 15 or 20 feet long, light, pliable and hard to break. Panels made of these could be easily car ried wherever needed, and when the sharpened stakes or posts are thrust into the ground, would make a pen strong enough to confine sheep. The patent movable fence of plank would answer, but is too heavy. The speaker has grown the variety of willow known as "golden," and knows that it fulfills the required conditions. President Battle urged the members to try the plan recommended for RAISING A SHEPHERD DOG breed will answer. Any active farmer who the plans. He must guard against his about the only difficulty in the way. The plan is not mere theory. It is constantly in use in South America and elsewhere, and has been for years. What other men can do we can do. The dog can easily be taught to bring the flock home at night. sheep-stealing dogs is to use against them the noble qualities of faithfulness and

MANURING.

ONE OF THE CAUSES

- +++

Of Languishing Commerce and Trade.

[Governor Hendricks at Toledo.] Governor of the State of Indiana in a consideration for others; and was in prispeech not long since boasted of the fact vate a really agreeable companion. It ap- 1829-30 a bill had passed the Virginia power it found an empty treasury, but that it now has an excess in the Treasury in others, but now and then appreciated being taught to read or write; and the nought. All through the Bible, and in of $400,000,000. This statement is true, it himself, and that he used to listen with next year it had passed almost unanimousthat when this speech was made there was delight to the reading of the "Jack Down-ly, $400,000,000 lying idle and unemployed ing "letters, laughing heartily sometimes. There will be added to that in new vaults have written that. Depend upon it, Jack another $100,000,000, and it will stand at Downing is only Van Buren in masquer- alarms in Maryland, so that fifty blacks $500,000,000, wrung from the people be ade." It is a curious fact that the satirist yond the demands of the Government, is already the better remembered of the Have you stopped to think how much that | two, although Van Buren was in his day is? It is more than half the paper cur- so powerful as to preside over the official rency of the United States, and when it patronage of the nation, and to be called comes to be $500,000,000, as it will be at | the "Little Magician." the close of the year and before Congress every man, woman and child in the coun- | was what Mr. Morse has tersely called tion, ought there to be a change? The list into the politics and government of the Democrats say in their platform at Chi- country." It was the nearest approach vet cago that the revenue must be reduced to made under our masculine political instiing human thieves; and the careless far- the requirements of the Government, eco- tutions to those eminent scandals which nomically administered. What do you say | constitute the minor material of court histo that, my fellow-citizens? Are you a torians in Europe. The heroine of the I will not equivocate, I will not excuse, I In order to raise sheep successfully, es- Democrat? Are you a Republican? Are comedy, considered merely as Peggy you a Granger or an independent? What- O'Neil, daughter of a Washington inn- be heard," Andrew Jackson for once met ever may be your party relations, what do keeper-or as Mrs. Timberlake, the wife a will firmer than his own, because more be given to them. He should become an you say to that proposition of the Chicago of a naval purser who had committed sui-steadfast, and moved by a loftier purpose. expert. He should understand their dis- Convention that the revenue shall be re- cide because of strong drink-might have | Thenceforth, for nearly half a century, the eases and the causes and remedies. He duced to the needs of the Government seemed more like a personage out of one history of the nation was the history of should have an eye on them by day and economically administered? If you do of Fielding's novels than as a feature in the great anti-slavery contest, sleep near enough to them at night to be not like that, don't vote with the Democ- the history of an administration; but when The administration of Jackson will thus always ready, with shot gun in hand, to racy, for when the Democracy comes into fate made her Mrs. Secretary Eaton she be most remarkable, after all, not because protect them from danger. This could be power, I undertake to say that the ma- became one who could disturb cabinets of any triumph of his will, but because of managed by having them driven up to chinery will be turned for a while-back- and annihilate long friendships. It was something that arose in spite of it-an agithe farm yard at evening, or by having a ward, did I say-no; forward, in favor of not merely out of regard for her personal tation so far opposed to his wishes, in house for the shepherd so light that it reform; in favor of reducing taxation to wrongs that all this took place, but there fact, that he wished for the passage of a corn, from twelve to fourteen feet high, ex- could be hauled by oxen from one part of | the wants of Government economically ad- was a long history behind it. There had ministered. What are you going to col- been a little irregularity about President The speaker called attention to the plan lect any more for? Have you stopped to Jackson's own marriage. He had espoused tined to draw new lines, establish new think that that money which is now his wife after a supposed divorce from a standards, and create new reputations: number of communicants increased from tion for over half a century, without ever in South America and elsewhere. It is locked up is a part of our currency, that previous husband; and when the divorce having been fertilized, bring ten barrels of | mentioned in the "Voyage of a Natural- it has an office to perform, and that if the | really took place the ceremony had to be corn to the acre-through and through a ist," written by the great Charles Darwin, Government doesn't need it the people do? repeated. Moreover, as the divorce itself Whatever Government doesn't need be- had originally been based on some scandal etable formation. In dry weather it will on principles of human and canine nature, longs to the people. If you owe it to the about Jackson, he was left in a state of burn readily, and care has to be taken to for its success. A new born puppy, he Government pay it; if you don't owe it to violent sensitiveness on the whole matriprotect it from the flames when burning says, is taken, and thenceforward segre- the Government for the purpose of carry- monial question. Mrs. Eaton had nothing exhausting language to depict the outbrush, etc. The dwellings and farm gated from other dogs, is not allowed to ing on its affairs, economically adminis- in the world to do with all this, but she got rages committed by President Jackson, Lyman and the Rev. Dr. Aldert Smedes houses through this country give play with puppies or even children. A tered, don't pay it. Just stop to think the benefit of it. The mere fact that she evidence of general thrift and prosperity ewe is held for him to suck three or four how much that $400,000,000 or $500,000,- to whom the President had good-naturedbequeathed by a late vestryman, Dr. Josiah short but most feeling extemporaneous that are to be found to a like extent at few times a day. He sleeps upon a nest of 000 would do for you and yours. I don't ly nodded as Peggy O'Neil had been censurwool in the sheep fold; he is never to as- know how much it would do. I do know ed by his own officials, after she had become an Andrew Jackson may be a blessing. sociate with any animals but sheep; he is that in Indiana, with a soil of wonderful the wife of one of them, was enough to But of the wholly new series of events castrated. He thus grows up with the af- richness, with many of the institutions enrage him, and he doubtless looked across which were to date from that agitation fections of sheep, without losing the cour- that make wealth for the people-manu- the fire-place at the excellent Mrs. Jackson neither Sullivan nor Jackson had so much of his flock which came from the province age of a dog. Indeed, he becomes more facturing establishments-I know that -a plain, estimable backwoodswoman, as a glimpse. courageous because he feels the support of | there is many a man who cannot find em- | who sat smoking her corn-cob pipe in the A great inland sea it is, with an area near- his associates, and, moreover, in his faith- ployment. There is many a family that opposite corner-and swore to himself that ly as great as the entire county of Pasquo- ful nature is the instinct to stand up for are hard pressed because enterprise has Peggy O'Neil should be sustained. tank or Chowan. Twenty miles is the his feeble friends. It has been well said stopped, because there is no employment For once he over-estimated his powers. length, seven miles the width-over fifty that an army of hares with a lion com- for labor. Ought that to be with $400,- He had conquered Indian tribes, and miles around, with a good road following manding is stronger than an army of lions 000,000 locked up in the Treasury? The checked the army of Great Britain, but pasture of Mr. G. B. Pate, we inquired of The offending brother was slightly deaf, amount of the legacy referred to and the For some weeks after the death of Dr. the shore all the way. It has no natural with a hare as their general. So our dog Democracy say "reduce taxation until the the ladies of Washington society were too him the cause, and he informed us that in but the teacher was so much in earnest amount shall be just what the Govern- much for him. Every member of his cab- his pasture grows a kind of sedge known that even the deaf could hear. But McA and in 19 years this country should have position, but they said with one accord Mr. Pate says it looks somewhat like a count. The benediction was scarcely endbeen administered upon principles that gov- that those matters must be left to their reed, grows about three feet high and ed when he had the pastor by the hand. ern in times of peace. Why should we wives. Mrs. Donelson, his own niece- grows out almost as fast as it is bitten off, have extraordinary taxation 20 years after that is, the wife of his nephew, and the and is said to be better pasturage than was most commonly known), the daughter mig of the vestry held on the settly held on the s the lake overflows and submerges the farms | dogs will scarcely ever, (some say never), of war? Why shall it be? When we re- White House-would not receive Mrs. Ea- sure, Mr. Pate's cows are fat, and he says in the neighborhood. Mattamuskeet Lake attack a flock guarded by even one of duce taxation upon these principles until ton, and was sent back to Tennessee. Mrs. that one acre of waste land well set in this is very shallow. You might wade across these faithful shepherds. He comes to the there shall be no more collected than the Calhoun, the wife of the Vice-President, it but for treacherous holes in places. How dwelling house for his meat, and as soon Government needs, what will be the ef- took the same attitude, and ruined thereby it ever came there is a sort of mystery that as it is given he skulks away as if asham- fect? That money which is now locked her husband's political prospects, Mr. Cal-

"OLD HICKORY."

President was received in Washington with an ardor that might have turned a more modest head. On the day when the new administration began (March 4, 1829), Daniel Webster wrote to his sister-in-law, with whom he had left his children that winter: "To-day we have had the inauguration. A monstrous crowd of people s in the city. I never saw anything like it before. Persons have come five hundred miles to see General Jackson, and It is difficult now to see what this peril was supposed to be; but we know that the charges of monarchical tendency made against John Adams had been renewed against his son-a renewal that seems abpublican that he would not use a seal ring, and so unambitious that he always sighed after the quieter walks of literature. Equally absurd was the charge of extravagance against a man who kept the White House in better order than his predecessor on less than half the appropriation—an economy wholly counterbalanced in some minds by the fact that he had put in a billiard table. But however all this may have been, the fact is certain that no President had yet entered the White House amid such choruses of delight; nor did it Buren, yielded, amid equal popular enthusiasm, to another military hero, Harri-

For the social life of Washington the President had one advantage which was altogether unexpected, and seemed difficult of explanation by anything in his earlier career. He had at his command the most courteous and agreeable manners. Even before the election of Adams, Daniel Webster had written to his brother: General Jackson's manners are better (12,866,020). There was no foreign war drum, poor music, and negro musicians than those of any of the candidates. He is grave, mild and reserved. My wife is with France was barely averted, and no the civil-rights champion had espoused. for him decidedly." And long after, when domestic contest except the second Semi- In response to their calls York came to the President was to pass in review before | nole war against the Florida Indians-a | the front and made a few very commonthose who were perhaps his most implaca- contest in which these combatants held place remarks in a mechanical manner, ble opponents, the ladies of Boston, we their ground so well, under the half-breed have the testimony of the late Josiah chief Osceola, that he himself was only his own constituents. No sooner was this Quincy, in his Figures from the Past, that captured by the violation of a flag of truce, scene and discord over than the Asheville ficial was most unwillingly approved. Mr. | Commissioners tell us, some three hun- | ville Light Infantry, in procession proceed-Quincy was detailed by Governor Lincoln, dred of the tribe remain in Florida. The ed to the Swannanoa Hotel to pay their on whose military staff he was, to attend war being equally carried on against fugi- respects to General Scales. A large crowd President Jackson everywhere when visit- tive slaves called Maroons, who had inter- of the best citizens were collected around ing Boston in 1833; and this narrator tes- married with the Indians, did something them. The band played some of its tifies that, with every prejudice against to prepare the public mind for a new agi- sweetest music-and those who have heard Jackson, he found him essentially "a tation which was to remould American them know how enchanting that is. Gen. knightly personage-prejudiced, narrow, political parties, and to modify the Con- Scales came to the balcony on the second mistaken on many points, it might be, but vigorously a gentleman in his high sense of honor and in the natural straightforward courtesies which are easily distinguished from the vencer of policy." Sitting erect | different parts of the world. The French | chaste and pointed. He did not strike a on his horse, a thin stiff type of military revolution of the Three Days had roused false note, but made music at every touch. strength, he carried with him in the streets all the American people to sympathy, and He paid many well-merited tributes to the a bearing of such dignity that staid old called forth especial enthusiasm in such city of Asheville, and complimented the Bostonians, who had refused even to look cities as Baltimore, Richmond, and Char- ladies by some of his happiest and most nally be coaxed into taking one peep, and universal interest, and John Randolph had would then hurriedly bring forward their said, "The Greeks are at your doors." little daughters to wave their handker. All these things were being discussed at chiefs. He wrought, Mr. Quincy declares, every dinner table, and the debates in Vir-

upon him from their windows, would fi-"a mysterious charm upon old and young;" My fellow-citizens, the candidate for showed, although in feeble health, a great hat when the Republican party came into pears from these reminiscences that the President was not merely the cause of wit in the Senate, prohibiting slaves from n the Treasury at the end of the year. and declaring: "The Vice-President must

But whatever personal attractions of can act, if the population of the country | manner President Jackson may have had, is properly estimated, at 50,000,000, there he threw away his social leadership at will be locked up in the Treasury and the Washington by a single act of what may vaults dug down deep beneath $10 for have been misapplied chivalry. This act What for? I am arguing the ques- "the importation of Mrs. Eaton's visiting

SOME THINGS THAT HAPPENED In the Reign of Andrew Jackson.

[Mr. Higginson in Harper's Magazine.]

lona," as the newspapers afterwards called the lady, from her influence in creating strife, was present. It did no good; every dance in which she stood up to take part was, in the words of a Washington letterwriter, "instantly dissolved into its original elements," and though she was placed On the day of his inauguration the at the head of the supper table, every lady present ignored her very existence. Thus the amenities of Van Buren were as power- not being sufficient in the court house, the less as the anger of Jackson; but the astute Secretary won the President's heart. and with it that of his whole immediate circle-cabinet proper and cabinet improper. It was one of the things that Buren, putting the New York "magician" in line for the Presidential succession; and in this way Peggy O'Neil had an apprecithey really seem to think that the country is rescued from some frightful danger." not also lead to foreign embroilments, for the wife of the Dutch Minister once refused to sit next to her at a public entertainment, upon which the President threatened to demand the Minister's recall. surd in case of a man so scrupulously re- All this time Jackson himself remained utterly free from scandal, nor did his enemies commonly charge him with anything beyond ill-timed quixotism. But it shows how feminine influence creeps inside of all political barriers, and recalls Charles Churchill's couplet: Women, who've oft as sovereigns graced the

NO. 31

But never governed well at second-hand." The two acts with which the administration of President Jackson will be longest identified are his dealings with South amid such choruses of delight; nor did it happen again until Jackson's pupil, Van long warfare with the United States Bank. The first brought the New England States | best efforts, captivating every Democrat back to him, and the second took them away again. He perhaps won more applause than he merited by the first act, and more condemnation than was just for the other Two new States were added to the Union in President Jackson's time | nine o'clock the brass band of the city. -Arkansas (1836) and Michigan (1837). composed entirely of negroes, collected at The population of the United States in the Eagle Hotel, where York was stopping, 1830 had risen to nearly thirteen millions to give the Doctor a serenade. A cracked during his administration, although one were fit emblems of the principles which and that even to this day, as the Indian cornet band, accompanied by the Ashestitution of the nation.

began to be filled in Jackson's time with the choicest speeches I ever heard. His rumors of insurrections and uprisings in sentiments were beautiful; his expressions leston. The Polish revolution had excited | appropriate anecdotes. ginia as to the necessity of restricting the growing intelligence of the slaves had added to the agitation. In the session of Assembly by one majority, and had failed There had been, about the same time, alarms of insurrection in North Carolina, so that a party of slaves were attacked and killed by the inhabitants of Newbern; had been imprisoned on the Eastern Shore; Democrat, spoke first and made one of the alarms in Louisiana, so that re-enforce- most vigorous speeches I have heard in the ments of troops had been ordered to Baton | campaign. Johnston is a great campaign Rouge; and a traveller had written even | er and is thoroughly acquainted with the from Richmond, Virginia, on the 12th of questions at issue. He is doing as much to February, that there were constant fears enlighten the people and awaken enthusiof insurrections and special patrols. Then asm as any man in the field. Mr. H. G. came the insurrection of Nat Turner in Ewart, Republican, says many things, but Virginia-an uprising described minutely not much. He tries to fool the people with by myself elsewhere; the remarkable in- the old trick, that they ought to support flammatory pamphlet called "Walker's the man and not the party. Mr. Ewart is Appeal," by a Northern colored man-a a very clever gentleman, but he will be piece of writing surpassed in lurid power left far behind in November. by nothing in the literature of the French Revolution; and, more potent than either or both of these, the appearance of the first number of the Liberator in Boston. When Garrison wrote, "I am in earnest, will not retreat a single inch, and I will law excluding anti-slavery publications from the mails. It was an agitation desand it is to be remembered that the Democratic President did not abhor it more, on the one side, than did his fiercest Federalist opponents on the other. The Federalist William Sullivan at the close of his Familiar Letters on Public Characters, after points out as equally objectionable the rising antislavery movement, and predicts that, if it has its full course, "even

> Why His Cows are Fat. [Snow Hill Telegraph.]

Noticing some very fine cattle in the growth will well keep two or three cows. Our farmers should look into this matter.

Promise Faithfully Fulfilled.

"I do not feel that I shall prove a deadtheory is that it was burnt out, and this is as he reaches them he turns and barks. the channels of trade. Where commerce to the offending fair one without let or head in the enterprise if I once embark in elors, gave entertainments at which "Bel- very high price."-Fisher to Blaine.

Raleigh Register.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Advertisements will be inserted for One Dollar per square (one inch) for the first and Fifty Cents for each subsequent publication. Contracts for advertising for any space or time may be made at the office of the second Floor of Fisher Building, Fayetteville Street, next to Market House CAMPAIGN NOTES.

RALEIGH REGISTER,

SCALES AND YORK IN THE WEST. A Democratic Triumph at Asheville and Waynesville.

[Correspondence of the RALEIGH REGISTER.] A large crowd assembled at Asheville to hear the candidates. Accommodations speaking was held on Battery Porter, a beautiful site in the midst of the city. General Scales was borne thither from the Swannanoa Hotel in a fine carriage, acproper. It was one of the things that companied by a long procession of the turned the scale between Calhoun and Van best citizens of the town. York went along, on foot, with such a crowd as one of his political traits could attract in a Democratic town like Asheville.

The Doctor, having the first place, pro ceeded to deliver his usual harangue with very little sympathy from his audience, outside of the negroes and confraternity of revenuers. When the first speaker had closed, Thos.

D. Johnston, Esq., introduced GENERAL SCALES to the audience as a man who, in the dark days of North Carolina, stood by the poor and the rich, the honest man of toil and the lover of his country. In war he fought for our rights and in time of peace he has defended our rights; and when elected to the Governor's chair, he will administer the affairs of State for the good of all, both the white man and the black. When General Scales took the stand almost the entire audience rose to their feet with shouts of applause for our Democratic leader. Scales made one of his and winning over many from the Republican ranks.

At night the lines were drawn closes was more distinctly displayed, About floor, escorted by a number of ladies who It must be remembered that the very air | were guests of the hotel, and made one of

AT WAYNESVILLE the people gave General Scales a grand ovation, and treated York with much coolness. A procession of mounted horsemen met the General at the depot and paraded around and through town with a show of triumph. In the speaking Scales completely demolished his opponent, and the people went away with the assurance that Haywood would give the largest Democratic majority that she has ever polled. On the next day following the speeches of the candidates for Governor, the candidates for Congress in the 9th District spoke at Waynesville. CAPT. THOS. D. JOHNSTON.

NATIONAL HOTEL.

While at Waynesville your correspon dent stopped at the National Hotel and found such accommodations as are rarely equalled in the State. Everything is kept in the most elegant style and the table supplied with all the bounties that the rich county of Haywood can afford. Mr. E. H. Norvell, the proprietor, makes it his highest pleasure to see that his guests are entertained and satisfied. The most interesting feature of our stay there was the opportunity to attend a Calico Ball. The participants were all dressed in calico costumes. To see the ladies in such dress was not so unnatural, and yet unexpected on an occasion of that kind; but to see the young gentlemen in full dress calico breeches and spike-tailed coat was a spectacle both novel and amusing. If such a fashion should come into vogue generally it would very much lighten the expenditures for the ball-room.

> Preaching to Deaf Ears. [Harper's Magazine Drawer.]

+++

In the village of - there is a Presbyterian church, several of whose members are Scotch-Irish. Their views and their practices on the subject of temperance are not in strict accord with the notions of their pastor. Some years ago he preached them a sermon in which he "came down pretty heavy," as the younger brethren described it, upon the habits of that portion of Ulster. One in particular, McA-, a good old man, with but one failing, who occupied a pew at the side of the pulpit, was so clearly hinted at that all eyes were upon him. Even the minister expected that Mac's "Irish blood would be up. "Brother W-," he exclaimed, "an' it is dauncing ye are gieing it to the young Brother W- waited some time before he ventured another temperance sermon.

A Cotton Picker Invented.

The Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier alleges that a practical cotton picker has at last been invented and stands the test of actual use. The machine is claimed to pick cotton in the field for one-seventh pick by hand.