THE VILLAGE ORACLE. [Texas Shiftings.]

Beneath the weather-beaten porch That shades the village store...

And jolly farmers riding by On fragrant loads of hay...

AMONG THE MORMONS.

A North Carolinian Takes the Notes.

Barring some little defects, this is a model city. It has a most lovely and striking situation...

SALT LAKE CITY.

The city is embowered in beautiful trees—trees that grow by waters. The streets run regularly at right angles...

UNION OF CHURCH AND STATE.

and business is one of the crying evils of Mormonism, in the eyes of Jew and Gentile.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

And the People's Duty to Them.

Often we hear complaints that a poor system of free schools is worse than none.

This Man Knows What's What.

No matter how weak a man's power of reasoning may be, there is always one person he can convince, and that is himself.

SWAIN MEMORIAL HALL.

How its Building was Achieved.

At the Annual Commencement of June, 1888, a resolution was submitted to an unusually full Board, requesting the appointment of a committee...

At the same Commencement, June, 1888, on the rostrum in the chapel, held in the presence of a large audience, were presented...

And now, without disparagement to any of our predecessors, we express the opinion of his associates in the Board...

THE LONG and SHORT of it.

The longest verse in the Bible is in the book of Esther, chap. vii., v. 9, containing 91 words.

Not at all Surprising.

Cheever, who killed Pickett in Dawson last year, and who was adjudged insane soon after, is now in possession of all his faculties.

Mr. R. Frank Peterson proposes to print a daily newspaper, The Evening News, in Fayetteville. It is to be issued four times a week—on Monday, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday.

MURDER WILL OUT!

Strange Sequel to an Artist's Dream.

A New York artist, whom I count among my friends, is just back from a month of rambling along the St. Lawrence from Montreal to Quebec.

POVERTY AND RICHES.

Rich Poor Man and Poor Rich Man.

The desire to possess a particular object, as of objects, to possess certain course of life, to live in the enjoyment of specific luxuries or utilities...

BIG AND LITTLE FARMING.

Kansas Ways and Vermont's Ways.

Parties lately returned to Kansas City from Maine and the seacoast, who attended the Grand Army reunion...

How he Surprised the Boys.

[Gov. Seales at Chapel Hill.] In his start in life he had neither money, position nor influence...

BETTING CONTRACTS.

A Decision from the Court of Appeals.

The English "Law Reports" of Monday give the case of Bridger vs. Savage, in the High Court of Appeals.

Tobacco Smoking.

Tobacco was unknown to Europe, Asia and Africa until the clear start of the fifteenth century, when America was discovered...

LOVE AND MURDER.

Three Lives pay for a Lady's Leap.

A terrible encounter, in which three men were mortally wounded, occurred at the residence of John R. Shelton...
