POETRY.

Like orient pearls at random strung.

ON HEARING A VIOLENT PREACHER ANATHEMATIZE EVERY SECT BUT HIS OWN.

Blest be that Charity which pen'd the line,
"To err is human, to forgive Divine."
Dare FIRST MY INFINITE goodness trace,
And mark the boundaries of his sovereign grace?

Dare he presume—a grovelling child of dust,
To make one creed the test, that God is just?
Oh! blind of heart, weak nature's erring child:
Whence springs this maddening rage, this phrenzy wild?

To hurl Anathemas with fiery zeal,
And mark thy fellows with a damning seal!
When Charity pervades the preacher's mind,
He looks with pity, but he bows resigned;
He knows opinions, like the human face,
In various forms, shows various forms of grace:
(That "many mansions" make the blest abodes,
And to these mansions may be many roads.)
He humbly reasons as his master spoke,
"Light is my burden—easy is my yoke."
He seeks conviction in the mind to raise,
And kindle in the heart Devotion's blaze.
Praying this sacred truth may "lume the mind,
That "all who diligently seek shall find."

Raleigh Academy.

THE Exercises of this Institution will be resumed on the first Monday in January under the continued superintendance of the Rev. Dr. McPHEETERS.

The Assistant Teachers, both in the Male and female departments, whose diligence and success have hitherto given much satisfaction, will continue to serve in their respective places.

On the resignation of Miss Nye, Miss Benedict was elected to fill her place in the Female Department, and is now ready to engage in the service of the Board.
The Trustees are happy in having it in their power to say, that this Lady, who has been long engaged in the instruction and government of young Ladies, comes to them with such ample testimonials, that they can, with confidence, recommend her to the friends and Patrons of the Institution, as every way well qualified to discharge the duties of her appointment.

An arrangement has been made with Dr. McPheeters, under which, what has been usually called the Classical Department of the Academy, is now, at his own request, given up to his sole instruction and management. For more particular information respecting the mode in which that Department will hereafter be conducted, the Public is referred to his Advertisement.

The tuition fees of the Academy, for a session of half year are the following:
1st Class—Spelling, Reading, First Catechisms, copy-writing, $5.
2nd Class—The four simple rules in Arithmetic, committing to memory the English and Latin Grammars, Geography of the United States, Plain Sewing, 7.
3rd Class—Arithmetic, Geography and English Grammar throughout, Rudiments of the Latin Language, Needle-work, 12.
4th Class—The Latin and Greek Languages throughout, Elements of Mathematics, Natural Philosophy and Astronomy, Rhetoric, Logic, Moral Philosophy and Chemistry, Drawing, Painting and Embroidery, 15.
Each student is likewise required to pay 50 cents a session to the contingent fund for fire-wood, repairs, &c.

J. HILL, Sec'ry.

Raleigh Grammar School,

OR PREPARATORY PROFESSORSHIP.

THE Trustees of the Raleigh Academy, having given up the Classical Department of the Institution to the sole instruction and management of the subscriber, he proposes to establish a Grammar School, on a plan, of which the following is an outline:

1. The number of pupils shall be limited to twenty; but the school will go into operation with ten, or with any less number.

2. That the attention of the instructor may not be too much divided, and that full time may be given for each recitation, the pupils shall not, at any time, be divided into more than two classes.

3. The object of the school shall be, to prepare the pupils for entering, with credit, the University of this State, or any other University or College in the United States.

4. The use of translations among the pupils, either in, or out of the school-room, shall be strictly prohibited; but, in all cases where the general standing of the class, or the difficulties of any particular lesson, or number of lessons, seem to make it necessary, it is the intention of the instructor to sit down familiarly with the class as one of its members, and aid the pupils in getting their lesson, not by translating it for them, but by referring them to their Dictionaries, and affording them such hints and directions as will enable them, in the exercises of their own faculties, to surmount the difficulties which occur; after which, the class will generally be required to review the lesson, and recite it at the proper hour.

5. That the pupils may become acquainted with the solution of the principal difficulties to be met with in the classics, a selection of these difficulties will be prepared as soon as practicable; and particular sentences, as trials of skill, shall, from time to time, be handed to the pupils. After allowing sufficient time for reflection and research, their solutions will be called for; and if not satisfactory to the instructor, he will either furnish what appears to him to be the true solution, or give further time for investigation.

6. The classes will be required to pay scrupulous attention to the rules of Prosody, that they may, at an early period, be able with ease, to scan Hexameter verse; and thus, habituate themselves to a correct pronunciation.

7. The school-room shall at all times be furnished with a competent number of Ancient Maps, for the purpose of instructing the classes as they progress, in the Geography of the classics. It has been found by experience, that the classics are studied by youth, with increased attention and delight, when their acquaintance with Classical Geography enables them to locate on their Maps, the poetic scenes and historic facts, of which they read.

8. The sessions and vacations of the school will be regulated for the present, by those of the University of North-Carolina. The price of tuition per session will be $15, paid in advance.

9. Instead of public examinations, the attendance of two or more literary gentlemen will be solicited at, or near the close of each session, for the purpose of examining the pupils privately; and parents and guardians shall be regularly furnished with circulars, specifying the standing of their sons & wards, in regard to Behaviour, Industry and Scholarship.
10. Particular attention will be paid to the conduct of the students; and every prudent means adopted, to promote strict order, unblemished morals, and constant industry. All unnecessary harshness and severity, in the administration of the government and instruction of the school, will be avoided; and the constant aim shall be, to render the pupils contented and happy; and to present them to their parents and guardians, manly, well-taught, and virtuous. Should youth of irregular, immoral, or dissolute habits be found at any time, connected with this school, unless they speedily reform, an early dismissal will be the inevitable consequence.

Without entering into further details, the preceding exhibits the general features of the proposed school. It is the wish of the subscriber, to furnish the public on a limited scale, not with a showy, but a useful institution; one, which, being reduced to the simple character of a Preparatory Professorship, and freed from the distractions and drawbacks incident to more extended plans of instruction, will, it is hoped, tend in some degree, to promote the interests of solid learning. A portion of public patronage is therefore respectfully solicited.—It is not promised, nor need it be expected, that the pupils of this school will be prepared with any unusual despatch, for their Collegiate course. Too much haste, without doubt, is the grand defect of the present preparatory system. No circumstance can be more alarming to the literary interests of any country than a rage for entering College with the least possible, or allowable amount of preparation. It has long been the opinion of competent judges, that to lay the foundation of a good education, requires much time, and a patient persevering application.

Parents and Guardians are moreover reminded that it is one thing for a boy to have within his reach, the means of acquiring an extensive and finished education; and another thing, for him to have the talents, inclination and zeal, sufficient to induce him to avail himself of his happy advantages. After all that can be effected by proper discipline, and the most laborious and persevering exertions, the fond expectations of Parents and Guardians will sometimes be disappointed. In such cases too, the blame, not unfrequently, falls where it ought not. But the well qualified and prudent instructor, will always find his surest reward in the consciousness of having honestly endeavored to discharge his duty.

W. McPHEETERS, Principal of the Raleigh Academy.
Dec. 23, 1823.

P. S. Parents living at a distance are informed, that they can have their children accommodated with Board, on moderate terms, in many respectable private families in the city. Any assistance that the instructor can render, in locating to advantage, such pupils as may be put under his care, shall be cheerfully afforded.

Classical School.

THE subscriber having removed to the City of Raleigh, would take under his charge from eight to ten young gentlemen, for instruction in the Latin and Greek Languages, and in the Elementary Branches of the Mathematics. His wish is, to receive that number into his family as boarders, that their moral and religious deportment and improvement, may be as carefully attended to, as their literary acquirements.

The accommodation provided for them will be liberal and genteel, and the regulations of the school such, as to meet the important purposes of advancement in science.

For the accommodation of the inhabitants of the City, from six to eight day scholars will be taken, but the whole number taken under charge, will be limited to eighteen.

The course of study will be directed on a principle different from the modern mode of tuition, and calculated to make the students sound and thoroughly grounded classical scholars. The school will commence on the first Monday in January next; and there will be two vacations in the year, corresponding in time and duration with those at the University of the State.

The price of board and tuition will be $100 per session paid in advance, which will include every expense but that of books and paper.—The price of tuition alone, will be $30 per session, likewise paid in advance.

The subscriber is happy to have it in his power to say, that his plan has the sanction of the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese, and the promise of his co-operation, in whatever may render his services really profitable to those entrusted to his care.

GEO. W. FREEMAN.
Raleigh, Dec. 20, 1823.

In giving the sanction of my approval to Mr. Freeman personally, and to the plan of tuition proposed to be pursued by him, I am happy to present to the Episcopal families in this Diocese, the opportunity of putting a portion of their youth, under the immediate care of a gentleman fully competent to what he undertakes; who in a few months will be in Holy Orders—and engaged both by duty and interest, to the most earnest endeavors to instill into the minds of those under his care, not only the principles of sound science, but those sound and long-tried principles which are the safeguard of pure and undefiled religion.—In this pursuit, it will be my pleasure to render him every assistance compatible with my other duties.
JOHN S. RAVENSCROFT.
Raleigh, Dec. 20, 1823.

Beware of Swindlers.

ON Saturday, the 13th ult. passed my house in Franklin County, two men, one calling himself SIMS, and the other GILLIAM. Sims under the pretence of being lame borrowed a Horse, Sulkie, and Harness of me, to travel on to Louisburg, from which place they promised to return the aforesaid horse and Gig, the next morning, but have not been heard of by the Subscriber since. Sims is 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, of muscular, robust appearance, weighing about 200 lb.—Gilliam is about the same height of a slender form, weighing 140 or 50 lb. These men had been lurking for several days in my neighborhood in the capacity of horse Drivers but from circumstances that have come to my knowledge, since their departure, from my vicinity, I have no doubt but they are professed swindlers. The Horse is a bay, about 5 feet 1 inch high, much rubbed with harness, and a scar on the inside of the right hind leg about 4 inches above the pastern joint. The Sulky and Harness are about half worn. The former much disfigured from having the Top taken off, and the foot board being painted of a Slate Color, the body being of a pale green. I will give a reward of $50 for the apprehension of the aforesaid Sims and Gilliam, or $20 for the discovery of the property.

North-Carolina Female ACADEMY.

THIS Institution which during the present year has been located in Hillsboro' rough, will open in OXFORD, on the first Monday in February next. The principals have been induced to a change of residence, with a view to a permanent establishment where the premises will comfortably accommodate their pupils; and they have altered the time of commencing the scholastic year, for the convenience, and at the general request of their patrons.

The pupils are instructed in Needle-work, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Grammar and Parsing, Geography, Mythology, History, Belles-lettres, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry Botany and Astronomy.

The terms for board, washing and tuition, in all the above branches, are Sixty Dollars per session payable in advance. Music, vocal and instrumental, Thirty Dollars per session. Drawing and Painting, Twenty Dollars per session. Dancing is also taught by a competent master.

The first session will end early in July, the second in December, when the only vacation in the year takes place.—New scholars pay from the time of their arrival only.

The system of education is in all the departments radical: by the aid of an excellent apparatus, the truths of Natural Philosophy, Chemistry and Astronomy, are experimentally illustrated, and are thus rendered objects of sense. There are six teachers constantly engaged; three excellent Piano Fortes, are employed in the musical department, and the models for Drawing and Painting, are numerous and good.

No expeditures are allowed, but such as are authorized by parents or guardians; and the principals are determined strictly to enforce the rule prohibiting finery in dress; in summer, coloured cotton dresses, and in winter, worsted stuffs, will be worn by all the young ladies.

All the pupils will board with the principals, who pay strict attention to their health, their manners, and their morals. The public and private offices of devotion are regularly observed, whilst every thing sectarian is carefully avoided.

Each pupil is expected to bring a coverlid, a pair of sheets, blankets and towels, for her own use, otherwise an extra charge of $2.50 per session will be made.

When payment in advance cannot be made, approved bonds will in all instances be exacted.
