YET NOT FOR ME THY CHAPLET WEAR.

For me, oh world! no chaplet weave:
Thy frowns I fear not, nor believe
Thy wanton smiles, and summer glow,
Deceptive as retiring snow;
For me, thy grandeur's all too high,
And danger lurks its steps too high:
Then not for me thy chaplet weave,
For all thy pleasures but deceive.

Let Beauty with its eye of fire
With maddening love the gay inspire;
Let War, in panoply arrayed
Unsheath the Chieftain's ready blade:
Let glory rear its plumed crest,
And dazzle with its glittering vest:
Yet not for me thy chaplet weave;
Thy smiles are false—thy hopes deceive.

Let the full cup of pleasure teem
With draughts from fair Calypso's stream
Which shrouds the soul's immortal flame
Beneath the brute's degraded frame:
Though fair the flow'rs that here entice,
All, all too costly is the price;
Such chaplet, therefore, do not weave,
The flow'rs decay—the draughts deceive!

Nor weave for me Ambition's wreath,
It is the bloody mead of Death
Asp-like, foul murder nestles there,
Entwined with folds of grim despair!
And oh! weave not the wreath that binds
The brows of sordid selfish minds:
Like those entwined no wreaths for me,
They show too much, oh world! of thee!

Nor the bright wreath of riches twine,
Dug from Golconda's purest mine;
Nor dazzling stones, that proudly gem
An empire's envied diadem.
No; twine for me the Christian's crown,
And let the wreath that decks my brow
From pure Religion's branches grow.
June, 1823.

For all such stock which they may purchase before the first day of April next, at a rate not exceeding two dollars for every sum of one hundred dollars, in addition to the interest which would have accrued on that day upon the said stock:

For all such stock which they may purchase between the first day of April and the first day of July next, at a rate not exceeding seventy-five cents on every sum of one hundred dollars, in addition to the interest which would have accrued on the day last mentioned:

For all such stock which they may purchase between the first day of July and the first day of October next, at a rate not exceeding, on every sum of one hundred dollars, the amount of interest which would have accrued on the day last mentioned: and

For all such stock which they may purchase between the first day of October next and the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, at a rate not exceeding the principal and the interest which shall have accrued at the day of purchase.

Sec 2. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to make such purchases, under the foregoing restrictions, at such times and places as they may deem most expedient, out of any moneys in the Treasury, heretofore appropriated for the redemption of the public debt, or out of any moneys in the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated.

Approved, January 22, 1824.

An Act making a partial appropriation for the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of two hundred and sixty-five thousand one hundred and forty dollars be, and the same is, hereby appropriated, for the compensation granted by law to the Senate and House of Representatives, and to the officers, clerks, and servants of both Houses of Congress, and for defraying the contingent expenses thereof; and that the same be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated.

Approved, January 19, 1824.

An Act further extending the term of half pay pensions to the widows and children of officers, seamen, and marines, who died in the public service.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, in all cases where provision has been made by law for five years' half pay to the widows and children of officers, seamen, and marines, who were killed in battle, or who died in the naval service of the United States, during the late war; and, also, in all cases where provision has been made for extending the term for five years, in addition to the first term of five years, the said provision shall be further extended for an additional term of five years, to commence at the end of the second term of five years, in each case, respectively, making the provision equal to fifteen years' half pay; which shall be paid out of the fund heretofore provided by law; and the said pension shall cease, from the causes mentioned in the laws providing the same, respectively.

Sec 2. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this act, the act, entitled "An act to amend and explain an act giving pensions to the orphans and widows of persons slain in the public or private armed vessels of the United States," passed March the third, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, be, and the same is hereby, repealed: Provided, however, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prevent the payment of any pension already granted, until the full expiration of the period thereof; nor to affect or impair the rights of any person or persons which may have accrued during the existence of the act hereby repealed as aforesaid.

Approved, January 22, 1824.

Warrenton Male Academy.

THE exercises in this Academy commenced on Monday the 12th inst. under the management and direction of Mr. James H. Otey. The Trustees can with great confidence recommend this School to the public from the following ample testimonials of his character and qualifications.

This certifies that Mr. James H. Otey, after having received the first degree of Bachelor of Arts in the University of North-Carolina, was appointed to a tutorship in that Institution, and continued to act in the office nearly a year and a half; and that he possessed the confidence and approbation of those with whom he was associated as a member of the Faculty.

He is recommended without reserve to all with whom he may have business or social intercourse.

Signed,
JOSEPH CALDWELL, President.
E. MITCHELL, Prof. Mathematics.
D. OLMSTED, Prof. Chemistry and Mineralogy.
W. HOOPER, Prof. Languages.
S. KOLLOCK, Prof. Rhet. & Logic.

We, the Trustees of Harpeth Academy do certify, that James H. Otey has had charge of the said Institution for the term of two years, that his conduct has been such both as a teacher and citizen, as to give entire satisfaction to the board, and it is with reluctance, that they part with this Gentleman. His qualifications as a teacher, they believe to be surpassed by no man of his age, and seldom have seen so many requisites, necessary for the government of a literary institution combined in the same individual, and we have no doubt, but his exemplary virtues and literary acquirements will give him a welcome reception, and render him an estimable member of any circle in which he may be placed.

Done by order of the Board,

of the Board.
H. PETTAWAY, Sec'y.

ANDREWS & JONES' North-Carolina Female ACADEMY.

THIS Institution which during the present year has been located in Williamsboro, will open in OXFORD, on the first Monday in February next. The principals have been induced to a change of residence, with a view to a permanent establishment where the premises will comfortably accommodate their pupils; and they have altered the time of commencing the scholastic year, for the convenience, and at the general request of their patrons.

The pupils are instructed in Needle-work, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Grammar and Parsing, Geography, Mythology, History, Belles-lettres, Natural Philosophy, Chymistry Botany and Astronomy.

The terms for board, washing and tuition, in all the above branches, are Sixty Dollars per session payable in advance. Music, vocal and instrumental, Thirty Dollars per session. Drawing and Painting, Twenty Dollars per session. Dancing is also taught by a competent master.

The first session will end early in July, the second in December, when the only vacation in the year takes place.—New scholars pay from the time of their arrival only.

The system of education is in all the departments radical: by the aid of an excellent apparatus, the truths of Natural Philosophy, Chymistry and Astronomy, are experimentally illustrated, and are thus rendered objects of sense. There are six teachers constantly engaged; three excellent Piano Fortes, are employed in the musical department, and the models for Drawing and Painting, are numerous and good.

No expenditures are allowed, but such as are authorized by parents or guardians; and the principals are determined strictly to enforce the rule prohibiting fiery in dress; in summer, coloured cotton dresses, and in winter, worsted stuffs, will be worn by all the young ladies.

All the pupils will board with the principals, who pay strict attention to their health, their manners, and their morals. The public and private offices of devotion are regularly observed, whilst every thing sectarian is carefully avoided.

Each pupil is expected to bring a covered, a pair of sheets, blankets and towels, for her own use, otherwise an extra charge of $2 50 per session will be made.

When payment in advance cannot be made, approved bonds will in all instances be exacted.
