however willing that he should try his luck in caucus. It is the good old Republican mode of nomination, and has heretofore been the watchword of the Republican party.

Neither the acts of Mr. Crawford, nor of his advocates, have been done in a corner or in the dark. His friends in Raleigh had the honesty and magnanimity to give public notice of their intention to assemble in caucus, from which open sort of conduct Mr. Calhoun's friends shrunk. It is now notorious, that some 20 or 30 of the Members of the Legislature friendly to Mr Calboun's election, without giving any notice of their intentions, held a private meeting in some obscure corner o the City, with closed doors, no doubt, and actually made out an Electoral Ticket in favor of Mr. Calhoun. and have now gone home, and are endeavoring to bring it out under the imposing, but insidious epithet of "the People's Ticket," when in fact, and in truth, the people had no sort of agency in this underhanded business. We know of one very respectable gentleman, a quondam member of Congress, to whom they have applied to serve as an Elector for the Calhoun Ticket, who promptly & positively declined, alleging as a publican, that paper which has done the same individuals who formed the Mr. Calhoun more essential injury than Electoral College that voted for Mr. boring to try to palm the belief upon in 1816 and 1820. the public, that Mr. Calhoun is the most popular Presidential Candidate in North-Carolina. Sometime last summer it was ascertained certainly, that nearly all our Representatives in Congress, and both our Senators, were friendly to Mr. Crawford's election ; complected, about five fect six inches high, yet it was then said, strange as it may stout built and has a sulky appearance. He seem, that this fact was no evidence of his popularity in North-Carolina, but the contrary. And now, when it is longs to the heirs of Benjamin Harris, dec'd clearly ascertained, that more than 100 and his father and mother belong to Henry Members of our last General Assembly Mason, Esq. of Halifax. The above reward actually went into Caucus to nominate Electors to vote for Mr. Crawford, still, with these facts, 'strong as holy writ,' staring him full in the face, it is gravely argued by the Editor of Mr. Calhoun's paper at Washington, that the friends of Mr. Crawtord in this State are a small and contemptible minority.

The Editor, in a late number of that paper, is not a little vexed that the invitation to the Members of our General Otey. The Trustees can with great confi-Assembly to meet in Caucus, should have been confined to the friends of Wm. H. Crawford alone, and not to the Republican Members generally; and thinks it extremely inconsistent went into caucus should have previously pledged themselves to support Electhe nomination in the Congressional of the Faculty. caucus.

The truth is, that owing to the man-reason for doing so, that it was now very evident, a decided majority of th people of North-Carolina were for Mr. Crawford, and that he felt no disposition to lend his name to counteract the wishes of the majority fairly and honorably expressed.

North-Carolina may very justly lay claim to considerable credit for having been the first State in the Union to nominate Mr. Crawford. Regardless of what might be his fate in a caucus at Washington, she has boldly stepped forward, nominated an Electoral Ticket favorable to him, and determined to support him at all hazards.
