BY AUTHORITY.

An Act supplementary to an act of Congress, passed on the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and twelve, entitled "An act making further provision for settling the claims to land in the territory of Missouri."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall be the duty of the individual owners, or claimants, of town or village lots, and common field lots, in adjoining, or belonging to, the several towns, or villages, of Portage des Sioux, St. Charles, St. Louis, St. Ferdinand, Villa a Robert, Carondelet, St. Genevieve, New Madrid, New Bourbon, and Little Prairie, in Missouri, and the village of Arkansas, in the territory of Arkansas, whose lots were confirmed by the act of Congress of the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and twelve, entitled "An act making further provision for settling the claims to land in the territory of Missouri," on the ground of inhabitation, cultivation, or possession, prior to the twentieth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and three, to proceed, within eighteen months after the passage of this act, to designate their said lots, by proving, before the Recorder of land titles for said state and territory, the fact of such inhabitation, cultivation, or possession, and the boundaries and extent of each claim, so as to enable the Surveyor General to distinguish the private from the vacant lots, appertaining to the said towns and villages.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That immediately after the expiration of the said term allowed for proving such facts, it shall be the duty of the Surveyor General, within whose district such lots lie, to proceed, under the instructions of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, to survey, designate, and set apart to the said towns and villages, respectively, so many of the said vacant town or village lots, out lots, and common field lots, for the support of schools in the said towns and villages, respectively, as the President of the United States shall not, before that time, have reserved for military purposes, and not exceeding one-twentieth part of the whole lands included in the general survey of such town, or village, according to the provisions of the second section of the above-mentioned act of Congress; of, [and] also, to survey and designate, so soon after the passage of this act as may be, the commons belonging to said towns and villages, according to their respective claims and confirmations, under the said act of Congress, where the same has not been already done.

Provided, That lots relinquished to the United States on account of damages done them by the earthquake, and in lieu of which lands have been located elsewhere, shall neither [be] so designated or set apart, nor taken into the estimate of the quantity to which any town or village is entitled.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Recorder shall issue a certificate of confirmation for each claim confirmed, and shall receive for the services required of him by this act the sum of one dollar for each lot so proved to have been inhabited, cultivated, and possessed, to be paid by the respective claimants; and, so soon as the said term shall have expired, he shall furnish the Surveyor General with a list of the lots so proved to have been inhabited, cultivated, or possessed, to serve as his guide in distinguishing them from the vacant lots to be set apart as above described, and shall transmit a copy of such list to the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this act, and of the aforesaid act of the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and twelve, be, and the same are hereby, extended to the village of Mine a Burton, and the right of filing their claims with the Recorder.

Approved, May 26, 1824.

An act granting to the Counties or Parishes of each State and Territory of the United States, in which the public lands are situated, the right of pre-emption to quarter sections of land, for seats of justice within the same.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there be granted to the several counties or parishes of each State and Territory of the United States, where there are public lands, at the minimum price for which public lands of the United States are sold, the right of pre-emption to one quarter section of land, in each of the counties or parishes, of said States and Territories, in trust for said counties or parishes, respectively, for the establishment of seats of justice therein: Provided, The proceeds of the sale of each said quarter sections shall be appropriated for the purpose of erecting public buildings in the county or parish for which it is located, after deducting therefrom the amount originally paid for the same: And provided further, That the seat of justice for said counties or parishes, respectively, shall be fixed previously to a sale of the adjoining lands within the county or parish for which the same is located.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That, so much of such acts, heretofore passed, granting to States rights of pre-emption, for county or parish purposes, as require said seats of justice to be continued at or near the centre of each of said counties or parishes, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

Approved, May 26, 1824.

An act to regulate the mode of practice in the Courts of the United States, for the District of Louisiana.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the mode of proceeding in civil causes in the Courts of the United States, that now are, or hereafter may be, established in the state of Louisiana, shall be conformable to the laws directing the mode of practice in the District Courts of the said state: Provided, That the Judge of any such Court of the United States may alter the times limited or allowed for different proceedings in the State Courts, and make by rule, such other provisions as may be necessary to adapt the said laws of procedure to the organization of such Court of the United States, and to avoid any discrepancy, if any such should exist, between such state laws and the laws of the United States.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That petit jurors, for the trial of all causes, as well civil as criminal, shall be designated, summoned, and returned in the same manner that now is directed by the laws of the said State, with respect to jurors, to serve in the District Courts of the said State of Louisiana, and that all the duties directed by such state laws to be performed by the Sheriffs and clerks, in relation to the designation, summoning, and returning, such jurors, shall be performed by the Marshal of the United States and the Clerk of the Court of the United States, in the district where such Court of the United States shall sit, and that the petit jurors to serve in such Court of the United States, shall be taken from the parish in which said court holds its sessions, but that the grand jurors may come from any part of the District, and may be summoned and empanelled [empanelled] by the Marshal, in the manner now prescribed, and the Marshal, for the purpose of designating such petit jurors, shall take the names of all persons liable to serve as jurors, from the list made by the Sheriff, for the purpose of drawing jurors for the District Court of the state; and such number of jurors shall be drawn for each term of such Court of the United States, or for such portion of each term, as the Court may, by its rules, direct: Provided, That nothing herein contained, shall be so construed as to prevent the Judge of any of the said Courts of the United States from directing a jury to be summoned from any other parish within the District, whenever it may be necessary to secure an impartial trial; but that in all such cases, the names of the jury shall be also designated, by lot, in the manner directed by the laws of the state, for designating jurors to serve in the District Courts: And provided, also, That special juries may be directed for the trial of any particular civil cause, by the consent of parties, but not otherwise.

Approved—May 26, 1824.

An Act making appropriations to carry into effect certain Indian Treaties.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and the same are hereby appropriated, that is to say:

For carrying into effect so much of the fourth article of the Treaty of the eighth January, eighteen hundred and twenty-one, between the United States and the Creek nation, as relates to the compensation due to the citizens of Georgia by the Creek nation, the appropriation heretofore made for that object being exhausted, the sum of twenty-three thousand dollars:

For the payment of the annuity to the Creek nation, as provided for by the same article of said Treaty, the sum of sixteen thousand dollars annually, for five years, and the sum of ten thousand dollars annually, for six years thereafter;

For implements of husbandry and stock cattle and hogs, agreeably to the stipulation contained in the third article of the Treaty with the Florida Indians, of the eighteenth September, eighteen hundred and twenty-three, the sum of six thousand dollars;

For the payment of annuity to the Florida Indians, as provided for by the third article of said Treaty, the sum of five thousand dollars annually, for twenty years;

For the expense of rations to be furnished to said Indians, agreeably to the fifth article of said treaty the sum of sixty-five thousand seven hundred dollars;

For compensation for improvements that may be abandoned by said Indians, as provided for by the fifth article of said Treaty, the sum of four thousand five hundred dollars;

For transportation of the different tribes to the land assigned them by the said Treaty, as provided for by the fifth article of the same, the sum of two thousand dollars;

For the establishment of a school and the support of a gunsmith for said Indians, as provided for by the sixth article of said Treaty, the sum of two thousand dollars, annually, for twenty years.

For running the line of the land assigned to said Indians, as provided for [in] the seventh article of said Treaty, the sum of five thousand dollars.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said sums be, and they are hereby directed, to be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Approved, May 26, 1824.

An Act for altering the time of holding the Circuit Court of the United States for the fourth Circuit in the Maryland District.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the terms of the Circuit Court of the United States for the fourth Circuit in the District of Maryland, which are now directed by law to be holden on the first day of May and seventh day of November in each year, shall hereafter be holden on the 8th days of May and December in each year, except where such days shall occur on Sunday, when the terms of said Court will be holden on the next succeeding day.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the first session of the said district Court, after the passage of this act, shall be held on the eighth day of December, in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-four.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That all process which may have issued, or which may hereafter issue, returnable to the next succeeding terms as heretofore established, shall be held returnable and be returned, to those terms to which they were severally changed by this act.

Approved, May 26, 1824.

Late residence of Judge Potter, FOR RENT.

THIS pleasant and desirable Dwelling House and Lot, situated near the Southeast part of the City, is at present unoccupied, and would be rented. The situation as a summer residence is preferable to a residence in the City—uniting, from its proximity to the City, the advantages of Town and Country.

The conditions of the rent, moderate and accommodating.

The Celebrated Race Horse,

will stand the present season at my stable in Warrenton, and be let to mares at twenty-five dollars for the season, payable on the 1st day of January next.

Washington's Pedigree and Performances are excelled by no other horse; a full description of them cannot now be given, suffice it to say that he was gotten by the celebrated mare Ariadne, by Citizen, her dam by Wild air.

Washington was engaged in four Sweepstakes, two mile heats, two hundred dollars entrance, when he was three years old. Three of them he won, beating in one of them the celebrated Horse Henry; the other he lost, after winning the first heat, he lost the second heat by a bad start, whereby he lost at least eighty yards; being in bad order he was then withdrawn, although he only lost the second heat by a few feet.

Last spring he was lame in one of his hind legs, and only run at Newmarket for a Handicap, two mile heats. Three started, and he was beaten by Sir William. Washington won the first heat, Sir William won the second and third. The second heat was run in better time than it was ever run at Newmarket. Sir William had ten pounds taken off his weight in this race. Washington lost sixty yards by a bad start in the second heat, and he only lost the heat by a length. Last fall he won the Proprietor's Purse at Newmarket, three-mile heats, three hundred dollars. The first heat in this race, was two seconds faster than it was ever run there before. He was then carried to Baltimore, where he won the Proprietor's Purse of five hundred dollars, three mile heats, beating the celebrated Running Horse Flying Childers; but had the misfortune to get one of his fore legs injured. He was trained this spring, and run at Newmarket and won the Jockey Club Purse of six hundred dollars, four mile heats, beating with ease Mr. Winn's Mare Squirt, and Capt. Harrison's Horse A-ratis.

Washington is not withdrawn from the turf; but it is thought necessary to give him rest, as his leg is not supposed to have recovered its full strength. He will stand the next season also, and those putting Mares this season which do not prove with foal, will have the privilege of putting them next season, gratis, provided the property of such Mares is not changed.
