RALEIGH REGISTER.

FRIDAY, JUNE 25, 1824.

FOURTH OF JULY.—The Committee of Arrangement, appointed by the Raleigh Blues, to determine on the plan of celebration of the 49th Anniversary of our Independence, take this method of reporting :

That, whereas the fourth day of July next, falls on a Sunday, they have applied to the Rev. Doct. Wm. McPheeters, who has obligingly consented to deliver a suitable discourse, on that day, in the Presbyterian Church. The members of the Company are therefore required to rendezvous at the Capitol, at 9 o'clock, A. M. in full dress, with their side arms, to march to the place of worship ; immediately after service, return to their rendezvous, and dismiss for the day.

That, at 9 o'clock, A. M. on Monday, the Company will parade in the Capitol square, completely equipped, with 21 blank cartridges each.

That they have applied, successfully, to the Rev. Mr. Leigh, of the Methodist Church, to open the ceremony on Monday, by Prayer ; after which an Ode, prepared for the occasion, will be sung, to be followed by the reading of the Declaration of Independence, by Mr. John H. McKethen, and an Oration to be delivered by George W. Haywood, Esq. to commence at 11 o'clock.

That the Ladies particularly, and the Citizens generally, be requested to repair to the Square, on Monday, by 10 o'clock, to join in the procession to the Church.

That the Committee have made arrangements for the furnishing a Barbecue, &c. at Sharon Springs, at 2 o'clock precisely.

That a Federal Salute be fired.

That the gentlemen amateurs be requested to bring their instruments to the place of dining.

That Lieut. Alex. J. Lawrence be appointed Marshal of the day.

JNO. J. S. RUFFIN, Chairman.
JNO. G. MARSHALL, Secretary.

Mr. John C. Stedman, having resigned his office of one of the City Constables, Mr. Bobbitt, has been appointed by the Intendant and Commissioners to supply his place.

Supreme Court.—The Summer Term of this Court commenced on Monday last. All the Judges are present.

The Index to Mr. Hawk's 2d vol. of the Reports of this Court is ready for delivery, and bound copies of the 2d vol. may be had on application at the Register Office.

The following young Gentlemen having passed approved examinations, were licensed to practice in the County Courts of this State, viz :

Benjamin F. Haywood, Raleigh, Henry Miller, Do.
James L. Gaines, Moore County,
Henry A. Martin, Stokes County, James K. Belden, Fayetteville.

Another young gentleman applied for a licence, but being born an alien and not naturalized, he was not examined.

At a meeting of the Democratic citizens of the city and county of Philadelphia, friendly to the election of Wm.
H. CRAWFORD as President, and AL-BERT GALLATIN as Vice President of the United States, held on Wednesday afternoon, at the county court house, an Address and Resolutions were adopted, and Delegates were appointed to attend a Convention which is to be held at Harrisburg, on the 9th of August, to form an Electoral Ticket.

John Tod, of Bedford, late member of the House of Representatives of the United States, is appointed to be President of the Courts of Common Pleas of the 16th Judicial District of the State of Pennsylvania.

Charles Shaler is appointed to be President of the fifth Judicial District of the same State.

Colonization.—It appears that the Rev. L. D. Dewey, of New-York, an agent of the American Colonization Society established at Washington, without consulting the Society on the subject, wrote to the President of Hayti, to ascertain on what terms he would receive persons of colour who might emigrate from this country. The President, probably considering Mr. Dewey as authorised to make the enquiry by the Colonization Society, at once expressed his willingness to receive such persons on terms which, if such a disposition of our free coloured people were advisable, could not be objected to, and immediately sent an Agent to New-York, to treat on the subject, with money sufficient to defray the expense of the passage of such as might be ready to go. But, we learn, the proceeding of Mr. Dewey was not only unauthorised, but entirely disapproved by the Colonization Society, whose views are confined entirely to a colonization in Africa.

On the 15th inst. the corner stone of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, was laid, under the direction of the Rt. Rev. Bishop White, President; the Vice Presidents, Directors, &c. The Bishop delivered an appropriate address on the occasion, as did also Joseph R. Ingersoll, Esq.
It is said, that there are in Pennsylvania alone, 484 persons deprived of hearing and speech, most of whom will probably be inmates of this institution.

Methodist Circular.—At a meeting of a number of the Itinerant and Local Ministers and Laymen of the Methodist Episcopal Church, convened in the city of Baltimore, from different parts of the United States, for the purpose of adopting such measures as, in their judgment, shall be best calculated to effect an improvement in the government of said church, Dr. S. K.
Jennings was called to the chair, and Dr. Francis Waters appointed secretary ; when, after due deliberations and a free interchange of ideas, the following measures were agreed upon :

First.—To institute a periodical publication, entitled The Mutual Rights of the Ministers and Members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, to be conducted by a committee of Ministers and Laymen.

2dly, To raise societies in all parts of the United States, whose duty it shall be to disseminate the principles of a well balanced church government, and to correspond with each other.

3dly, To appoint a committee out of their own body, to draft a circular addressed to the Ministers and Members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and to forward the same forthwith to all parts of the United States.
The following persons were accordingly appointed:—Dr. Samuel K. Jennings, Baltimore ; Dr. John French, Norfolk ; W. Smith, New York ; Gideon Davis, Georgetown, D. C. ; John Wesley Boardly, and Philemon B.
Hopper, Esq. Eastern Shore, Maryland.

The Circular shall appear hereafter.

Extract of a letter lately received from a lady living in Madison County, Alab. to her friend in this city.

"I never heard of worms doing so much mischief as they have done this spring. The Army and Cutworms. They have not been in our neighborhood very much ; but they are not far off ; they go in armies through cotton fields, wheat patches, gardens and grass lots. They seem almost like bringing on a famine in some places. People have got to digging ditches for them to fall into, and then kill them by bushels, some scald them with hot water. They appear hard to conquer."

Marquis De Lafayette.—In the Legislature of Massachusetts, on Saturday, a resolve, requesting the Governor and Council to make such arrangements as will secure to this distinguished friend of our country an honorable reception on the part of this state, and to draw his warrant on the Treasury for any expense incurred thereon, was unanimously adopted in both branches.

Dutch Canal.—Nearly 50,000 men are employed on the great canal from the Texel to Amsterdam. The marshy earth which is found towards the bottom of the canal is taken out with bag-nets, and fills more than a thousand boats each day. The canal will be twenty-five feet in depth, so that the largest East and West Indian may pass direct to Amsterdam, without unloading part of their cargo at the Tex-el. The canal will be more than sixty miles long, and will cost, without including the great flood-gates, more than ninety millions of guilders.

An unfortunate accident happened to one of our ships of war, the Franklin, lying off Valparaiso. In fitting out some boats for the purpose of capturing a Spanish privateer in a calm, a quarter-gunner, in trying a flint, communicated fire to a number of cartridge boxes, an explosion ensued, which blew up eleven men, two of whom have since died, the rest are recovering.

A letter from New-Orleans, of the date of May 16. states that there is a deficiency in the Cotton Crop of last year, compared with that of preceding years, of 20,000 bales. This amount of deficiency, however, considering the vast stock on hand in Europe, will not materially affect the market.

The Committee of Investigation closed their Investigations on Saturday, (having refused an application of the prosecutor, Mr. EDWARDS, to summon certain individuals of Illinois, and all the Senators of the United States,) and their Report may be expected to be completed, we understand, to-day, or to-morrow.—NAT. INT. JUNE 21.

Judge Van Ness having declined the appointment of Fourth Auditor of the Treasury, Tobias Watkins, Esq. (late Secretary to the Board on the Spanish Claim,) has been appointed in his place.

The House of Representatives of the State of New-Hampshire has, by a vote of 105 to 101, negatived a motion to proceed, the present session, to the choice of a Senator in Congress, from the 4th of March next, when Mr. Parrott's term of service will expire.

The Huntsville Bank, in the State of Alabama, is to resume specie payments on the 19th July, so far as to redeem in specie one-half of the amount of notes which may be presented for payment, issuing new notes payable on demand, (that is, as we understand, whenever it shall be able to redeem them.) It is said to be the intention of the Bank to surrender its charter, and wind up its affairs. By this measure, a large additional amount of what have been termed unavailable funds will be realized to the government.

Political Economy.—Proposals have been issued from Baltimore for a periodical publication, under the title of "The Political Economist, and the Emporium of Statistical Philosophy," by a society of Gentlemen. The Prospectus states, "that the cultivation of a science which is so immediately essential to the stability of our Government, and to the prosperous operation of our institutions, has been neglected, is the more extraordinary, when we view the expense of inventive genius, and promptness to improve the skill of others which has signalized our free citizens, and raised the character of this Republic. To that neglect we ascribe a state of injurious depression and general embarrassment, which prevails amidst the blessings of peace, and the abundance of materials for every comfort—manifestly proving the fatal presence of some defects, or the lamentable absence of a just understanding of the proper causes of NATIONAL HAPPY-NESS. The earnest exertions of this society will be employed to find the source of existing evil, and to illustrate a course of policy, which shall give activity to every interest—quicken the march of amelioration, and improve the condition of every class and grade of people. They will endeavour to engage the best talents of the nation to aid the object of their undertaking, review with candour the various theories which may appear, and test their truth by the rules of practice." The work will be printed on fine paper, and distributed in numbers calculated to form a volume, containing from 250 to 400 octavo pages, at $2 50, payable in advance.

BRAZIL.—By the arrival of the Spartan, at Alexandria, we have advices, that on the 25th of last March, the Brazilian Constitution was sworn to, at Rio de Janeiro, by the Emperor and Heads of Government Departments.

In consequence of this act, the Brazilian Charge d'Affairs in the United States, has received orders, we understand, from his government, to make oath to that instrument, before a public magistrate of this City, and afterwards to receive the oath of every Brazilian citizen resident in the U. States, to record the same, and to send to the Secretary of State, at Rio de Janeiro, a copy, duly authenticated.

By the newspapers from that country it appears, that from the 4th March to the 17th April, seventeen American vessels arrived from different parts of the world, and that twenty-nine departed for various destinations. It appears moreover, that the navigation between Brazil and Russia under the American flag is a profitable enterprise.

Mr. Robert Carr, an American citizen, through the mediation of Mr. C.
Raguet, United States' Consul at Rio de Janeiro, offered to the government there a box containing a collection of seeds of various North-American plants, which are to be planted in the national botanical garden, now in charge of F. Leandro de Sacramento, who had the honor of being elected, on the 5th of this month, by the Columbian Institute, a corresponding member of that body.

FOR THE REGISTER.

GENTLEMEN.—It is a monstrous evil that prejudice should possess the power of blinding a man, so as to render him incapable of observing the proper bounds of consistency, and of confining himself within the sacred limits of truth.

I noticed in the Halifax Free Press, a piece bearing the patriotic signature of A Friend of the People which piece certainly adds some little credit to the author's ingenuity ; but on the other hand, is a disgrace of considerable magnitude to his veracity, inasmuch as he has painted the Hon. William H.
Crawford in false colors, and made use of every defaming implement that his genius possibly could invent, for the sole purpose of blasting his Presidential prospects.

Shall we, therefore, look upon this Friend of the People to be a friend in reality, when he has thus attempted to injure the people by this most formidable endeavor to deprive them of the man who is unequivocally the most suitable for their next President, and whose election, in the opinion of every wise and good man, would be more conducive to the interest of the southern people than any other of the candidates whatever ? If in fact, an act of this kind can with propriety be called friendly to the people, why I will then give up that I am just as ignorant of the true signification of the word Friend, as I am of the number of angels that inhabit the regions of eternal felicity. No, Sir. It is visible to every human eye that possesses the least particle of discernment, that this most ardent Friend of the People, as he styles himself, is not a friend in reality ; but, on the contrary, a mock friend, who has dragged on this endeavoring garb of friendship with the sole view of covering his hypocritical deformities. But I assure the gentleman, the texture of his cloak is too flimsy not to be seen through ; his deformities are exposed in defiance of all the artifice of his scholastic ingenuity.

But, while I am chastising this gentleman on the one hand, I feel it a duty I owe him on the other, to confer on him at least one solitary honor, by admitting, that his academical education has given a considerable pre-eminence over the most of mankind in the beauty and power of logic, and indeed, he really appears to be endowed with the supernatural talent of transformation, as he has nearly succeeded in metamorphosing a wise man into an idiot, and in changing a good man into a frightful bugbear (as for instance Mr. Crawford) and it really does appear that the gentleman is somewhat disposed to transmogrify this good man, Mr. Crawford, into a very devil, and give him for employment the dirty business of shearing hogs, and no doubt would, provided he could see the least possible chance, filch the wool unseen. And what is still more vain and illiberal in this gentleman, he has absolutely, without reason to guide him, or skill to perform, introduced into the field against Mr.
Crawford, the curious army of a parcel of sheared swine with the Devil at their head, together with a puny host of insipid objections as to his qualifications, &c. and with this formidable band of unnatural heroes at his heels, I presume he designs marching through the whole republic, with fire and sword in hand, to lay waste every vestige of preference to Mr. Crawford, and ultimately reach the Capitol of the country, and there rear on the Presidential Throne his favorite man, let him be tyrant, tariff-man, aristocrat, or what not, which if they be in reality the object of the gentleman, I would advise him to abandon the idea of so daring an enterprise ; for I can assure him it will not only prove a fruitless one, but it will prove a fatal one also.

Having done all that my feeble pen will allow in behalf of Mr. Crawford, and in chastising his enemy, I will now conclude, by simply stating, that with all this gentleman's collected force of swine, devils and objections, which he has brought in awful array against Mr.
Crawford's pretensions to the Presidential Chair, it appears that the pitiful aggregate amounts to something like the poor figure nine, with its tail amputated, and really, the gentleman must confess, that this paltry force would cut but an infamous figure before the walls of Troy. Therefore he bites against a file ; cease Viper.
