Fifty Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber living in Guilford county, on the 20th June, 1823, two negroes, CALEB and JUDY.—Caleb is about thirty years of age, light complexion, stout made, broad across the shoulders, speaks slowly, and is about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high. He has a long, loping walk, and bends forward considerably, as he walks; he has marks of the whip. He had on when he went away, a brown bombazett surtout coat, a striped (yarn) black and white jacket, blue cotton pantaloons and a wool hat.

Judy is about forty years of age, middle size, copper coloured, quick spoken, and blinks her eyes very much, when detected in an error. She also has the mark of the whip. Judy took among other clothing the following with her: a blue grounded cotton calico frock and two muslin ones, and an old fashioned black silk bonnet. She is an excellent Weaver.

I suppose they are lurking about as free persons. I will give the above reward for their delivery to me, or confinement in Jail, so that I get them, or in proportion for either.

PROPOSALS FOR PUBLISHING A NEW-PAPER IN THIS TOWN, ENTITLED The Fayetteville Weekly Gleaner.

B. H. TALBOT, Editor. PROSPECTUS.

In accordance with custom, it first becomes necessary that the Editor should make an exposure of his political tenets, and then unfold his plans:—in compliance therewith he would (as a creed by which he will, in his political career be guided) beg leave to point to the Farewell Address of the Father of American Independence; and when he shall depart therefrom—withdraw your patronage.

His plans are to make this Journal equally useful and interesting both to the Merchant and Agriculturist; to give weekly, accurate statements of sales, public and private. Also, an estimate of imports and exports, with every transaction allied either to commerce or agriculture, that shall come within his knowledge; and from his experience in the commercial world, with the arrangements that will be made to effect this object, he hopes that he may receive the favorable consideration of an enlightened public.

It is likewise the intention of the Editor to report "verbatim et literatim," all trials by Jury, in the respective Courts held here; whether involving questions of law, or made interesting by incident; and he will also occasionally step into the "Town Hall," and Justice Court Rooms. As the Editor entertains the opinion, that the GLEANER may be still more interesting by giving the proceedings of our State Legislature in extenso, he intends residing in Raleigh during the session of that honorable body. A synopsis of Congressional Proceedings will always be found in the columns of this Journal. Original matter, i. e. Communications, will be thankfully received, to form a part of our miscellaneous chapter; but the Editor cannot hazard the reputation of his paper, by lending its pages to the circulation of unworthy Essays: his respect for the public should, and he trusts ever will preponderate, when called to exercise his editorial veto.

An extensive and well concerted News Room will be opened, where Newspapers from all parts of the Union will be kept on file, and to which Subscribers to the GLEANER may have access gratis.

THE GLEANER will be published on Wednesdays, on a super-royal sheet of good quality. Due notice will be given of its first appearance. No subscription taken for less than one year.

TERMS.—Three Dollars and a Half per annum: to be paid on the delivery of the first number.
Fayetteville, May 20, 1824.
