Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Judicial power of the territory of Florida, shall be vested in three superior courts, and in such inferior courts and justices of the peace, as the Legislative Council of the territory may from time to time establish. There shall be a superior court for that part of the territory situated to the west of the river Apalachicola, to consist of one judge; he shall hold his court on the first Mondays in May and November, in each and every year, at Pensacola, and at such other times and places as the Legislative Council may direct. There shall be a superior court for that part of the territory situated between the Apalachicola and Suwanee rivers to consist of one judge; he shall hold his court on the first Mondays of April and October in each and every year, at the seat of government in said territory, and at such other times and places, as the Legislative Council may direct. There shall be a superior court for that part of the territory, situated to the east and south of Suwanee river, to consist of one judge; he shall hold his court on the first Monday in May and November, in each and every year, at St. Augustine, and at such other times and places as the Legislative Council shall direct. Within its limits herein described, each court shall have jurisdiction in all criminal cases, and exclusive jurisdiction in all civil cases of the value of one hundred dollars, arising under the laws of the territory now in force, or which may, at any time hereafter, be enacted by the Legislative Council, and shall have and exercise appellate jurisdiction over the inferior courts of said territory. Each judge shall appoint a clerk who shall reside, respectively, at the place where his court is, or may, by law be directed to be held, and they shall keep the records there. Each clerk shall receive for his services, in all cases arising under the laws of the territory, such fees as shall be established by the Legislative Council. And writs of error and appeal from the final decision of the said superior courts, authorized by this section of this act, shall be made to the appellate court of said territory, hereinafter provided for, in such manner, and under such regulations as the Legislative Council may direct; and, until the Legislative Council shall have made such regulations, writs of error and appeal from the decision of the said superior courts shall be made to the appellate court of the territory, in the same manner that writs of error and appeals are taken and prosecuted in the next adjoining state.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That each of the said superior courts, shall, moreover, have, and exercise the same jurisdiction within its limits, in all cases arising under the laws and Constitution of the United States, which, by an act to establish the judicial courts of the United States, approved the twenty-fourth day of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine, and "An act to establish the judicial courts of the United States," approved the second of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three was vested in the court of the Kentucky district. The first six days of each term of the said courts or so much thereof as may be necessary shall be appropriated to the trial of causes arising under the laws and Constitution of the United States. And writs of error and appeal from the decisions in the said superior courts authorized by this section, of this act, shall be made to the appellate court of said territory, in such manner, and under such regulations, as the Legislative Council shall direct. The clerks, respectively, shall keep the records at the places where the courts are held, and no one clerk shall, by himself or deputy officiate at more than one place for holding said courts: they shall receive, in all cases under the laws and Constitution of the United States, the same fees which the clerks of the district court of the next adjoining state receive for similar services.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That there shall be appointed, for each of the said courts, a person, learned in law, to act as attorney for the United States, as well as for the territory, each of whom shall receive the same fees, both in civil and criminal cases, as are received by the district attorneys of the United States, of the next adjoining states, for similar services; and shall, moreover, receive, as a full compensation for all extra services, annually, the same salary as is provided, by law, for the district attorney for the district of Kentucky, to be paid, quarterly, by the Treasury of the United States. There shall also, be appointed, for each of the said courts a marshal, who shall perform the same duties, be subject to the same regulations and penalties, and be entitled to the same fees, to which marshals, in other districts, are entitled for similar services; and shall, in addition, be paid the sum of two hundred dollars annually, as a compensation for extra services; and shall, also, be subject to such regulations and penalties as the Legislative Council shall impose, while acting under, and in virtue of the territorial laws. Each judge shall receive a salary of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, to be paid, quarterly, by the Treasury of the United States.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That there shall be organized in said territory a court of appeals, to be composed of the judges of the superior courts of said territory, any two of whom shall be a quorum, and shall hold, annually, at the seat of government of said territory, one session, commencing on the first Monday in January, in each and every year. The senior judge shall be the presiding judge of said court, and the other judges shall have precedence according to the date of their commissions, or, where their commissions are of the same date, according to their respective ages. That the said court may, by any one of its judges being present, be adjourned, from day to day, until a quorum be convened; and, if no one of its judges be present, by the marshal of said court, until a quorum be convened; and the district attorney, marshal, and clerk, of the superior court of the middle district, shall be officers of the said court of appeals; and writs of error and appeal from the decision of the said court shall be made to the Supreme Court of the United States, in the same manner, and under the same regulations, as from the circuit courts of the United States, where the amount in controversy, to be ascertained by the oath or affirmation of either party, shall exceed one thousand dollars.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That so much of the act, of which this is an amendment, as requires the Legislative Council of said territory to commence its sessions on the first Monday in May, in each and every year, be, and the same is hereby, repealed; and the said Legislative Council shall, hereafter, hold a session in every year, commencing on the second Monday in November, in each and every year, but shall not continue longer in session than four weeks after the first session, which shall not continue longer in session than eight weeks; to be held at the seat of government in said territory, or at such other place or places as the Governor and Council may, from time to time, direct.

$50 Reward.

RUNAWAY on Saturday Morning last, a small yellow fellow called HARRY, 22 years of age, about 4 feet 10 inches high, weighs 122lbs. or thereabouts, well made, bushy head of hair, but when cut close, is rather straight, pleasing countenance when spoken to, and very polite, having been raised a house servant.

I suspect he carried two $20 Newbern notes with him, together with a blue broad cloth coat, a black crape frock or surtout coat lined with silk, a pair of brown cassimere pantaloons patched in the seat, a spencer and pair of pantaloons of common homespun cloth dyed in part with copperas, a pretty good hat and booties, all of which he will exchange if in his power.

His object is to pass as a free man, and no doubt will aim for some large town, having on a former trip got near Wilmington in four days from this place, under the name of Martin Fogg. He is a keen artful little fellow and will (as he said he did on the first trip) keep the most public road when travelling. I will give for the securing of him in any Jail so that I get him, the sum of $25 provided he is taken in this state, and $50 if he is taken, secured, &c. without the limits of it. JO. HAWKINS.
Raleigh, N. C. July 12th, 1824. 69

The Editors of the Newbern, Edenton, Wilmington and Hillsborough papers, are requested to insert the above 3 times, and forward their accounts to me for payment. J. H.
