

POETRY.

ON THE ARRIVAL OF
GENERAL LAFAYETTE.

Hail, patriot, statesman, hero, sage!
Hail, freedom's friend, hail, Gallia's son—
Whose laurels greener grow in age,
Pluck'd by the side of WASHINGTON!
Hail, champion in a holy cause,
When hostile bands our shores beset;
Whose valor bade the oppressor pause—
Hail, hoary warrior, LAFAYETTE.

Forever welcome to the shores,
A youthful chief thy footsteps pressed,
And, dauntless, want and peril bore,
Till "VENI VICI" deck'd thy crest!
Forever welcome, GREAT AND GOOD!
Till freedom's sun on earth shall set,
The still small voice of gratitude
Shall bless the name of LAFAYETTE.

What monarch of despotic power,
Who fain would crush the freeborn brave,
Whose glory glids a tottering tower,
Himself a subject and a slave,
Would not, to view a nations eyes,
With joyous drops unbidden wept,
The parting of pride pressed,
And grasp the hand of LAFAYETTE?

Whene'er the lips of youth inquire
The path to virtue, honor, fame—
To glory's temple proud aspire,
While warmly glows the ardent flame;
The voice of age shall fearless tell
What perils off its path beset,
And prompt them onward by a spell
That urged the soul of LAFAYETTE.

And when the shades of death shall close
Forever round thy hallow'd head,
We'll seek the place of thy repose,
By filial love and duty led;
And hearts that beat in bosoms free,
(Gems by unerring wisdom set,
The living monument shall be
Of Freedom's champion—LAFAYETTE!
BOSTON BARD.

THOSE who have undertaken the collection of accounts for me, are requested to return all that remain in their hands (except such as have been put in suit) & take in their receipts and account for, and pay the nett proceeds of what money they have collected. Each delinquent has had a copy of his acct. forwarded to him by mail several months since; and such as have not remitted their balance, nor even acknowledged the receipt of his account, and having been informed by several postmasters that my letters to delinquent subscribers are no longer taken out of the Post Office, it is useless for me to address any more to them by mail: Each delinquent therefore, will, I trust, excuse me, if I should, through some other channel than the Post Office, afford him an opportunity of seeing a statement of his account and the balance due me, which will save the expence of postage.

AUGUSTINE DAVIS.
The printers in North and South Carolina and Georgia, will please to give the above one or two insertions.

Tetter, Leprosy, Virginia and common Ring-worm, Tinea Capitis, alias Scald-head, Cements, &c. &c.

THOSE persons who are unfortunately afflicted with any of the above disagreeable and generally in-curable diseases, are respectfully informed, that the advertiser has made those complaints his particular study for a considerable length of time, and that nearly twenty years ago, was so fortunate as to discover what he believes may, with propriety be pronounced a specific for the same, and cutaneous diseases generally, especially those denominated Herpes; running as usually matter and attended with irritation and violent itching, particularly on becoming warm in bed; it makes its attack on the head, neck, arms, hands, and various parts of the body; but on those in the decline of life, commonly on their legs and about their ankles, and in the Eastern States, is denominated Salt Rheum: his remedy is also applicable to various running sores and recent ulcers, which prudence may not forbid drying up—and so confident is he, of its merits and superiority over every other method of treatment yet discovered; (not even excepting the mode of practice pursued by the celebrated Dr. Willan) that he will make no charge until a cure is performed, or sufficient indication thereof to satisfy the patient. He will also have no objection to operate under the eye of the Family Physician, and gentlemen of the Faculty who may have obstinate cases of the kind under their care may, if they please, have ocular demonstration of the importance and value of this remedy; and as it contains no mercury nor any other dangerous substance, it has, and may with safety be applied to females in a delicate situation, and to infants at the breast.

He wishes also to inform artists, manufacturers and mechanics of every description, that he has for more than twenty years been investigating every work he could meet with, both ancient and modern, for recipes for Cements, and has perhaps the best collection that ever was in the possession of a single individual, besides some valuable ones invented by himself, and which never have been published—they are adapted to every mechanic trade, and in number more than sixty, and well worth the attention of the curious—Manuscript copies of which, he will dispose of on reasonable terms.

It is not the advertiser's intention to make any stay in this City, unless applications should be left with the Printer; therefore, the afflicted and the curious are requested to send a few lines as above directed, addressed to A. B. C. when they will be duly waited upon on this arrival.

THE subscriber has just received a fresh supply of DRUGS, MEDICINES, &c. Also a supply of SWAIM'S CELEBRATED PANACEA, for the cure of Scrofula, King's Evil, Rheumatism, Ulcers, Tumours, and all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood; but more especially for Syphilis, Mercurial diseases, &c. &c. for which the proprietor offers the following description and certificates. RANDOLPH WEBB.
Raleigh, July 28, 1824.

SWAIM'S PANACEA.

This valuable Medicine has obtained a distinction which its efficacy alone can support. As a purifier of the blood it has no parallel. It is the most useful spring and autumn alternative ever known. All those who are affected with Scrofula, Leprosy, Scirrhus, or cutaneous Eruptions or any of those melancholy diseases arising from impurity of the blood and juices—also, those who suffer by diseased Liver Rheumatic affections, or from induration of their youth, as well as those whose constitutions are broken down by mercurial, antimonial or arsenical medicines, should submit to a course of Swaim's Panacea. The effect of this Medicine is such as not to interrupt either business or pleasure, and requires only the common restraints of moderation in diet. It is conveyed by the circulating fluids, and corrects their tendencies to all those diseases which originate in vitiated blood. It is a safe, though a powerful substitute for mercury, and removes those evils which an unsuccessful use of that mineral so often occasions, &c.

CERTIFICATES.

"I have repeatedly used Swaim's Panacea, both in the Hospital, and in private practice, and have found it to be a valuable medicine in chronic, syphilitic and scrofulous complaints, and in obstinate cutaneous affections."
"VALENTINE MOTT, M. D.
"Professor of Surgery in the University of New-York, Surgeon of the N. York Hospital, &c.
"New-York, 1st mo. 5th, 1824."

"I have within the last two years had an opportunity of seeing several cases of very inveterate ulcers, which, having resisted previously the regular modes of treatment, were healed by the use of Mr. Swaim's Panacea; and I do believe, from what I have seen, that it will prove an important remedy in scrofulous, venereal and mercurial diseases."
"N. CRAPMAN, M. D.
"Professor of the Institutes and Practice of Physic in the University of Pennsylvania, &c. &c.
"Philadelphia, February 16, 1824."

"I have employed the Panacea of Mr. Swaim, in numerous instances, within the last three years and have always found it extremely efficacious, especially in secondary syphilis and in mercurial disease. I have no hesitation in pronouncing it a medicine of inestimable value."
"W. GIBSON, M. D.
"Professor of Surgery in the University of Pennsylvania, Surgeon and Clinical Lecturer to the Alms House Infirmary," &c.
"February 17, 1823."

Caution to Purchasers.

The great demand and wonderful success of this medicine, have induced a number of persons to imitate it in various ways. Some are selling sarsaparilla and other syrups, imposing them on the ignorant for the Panacea: others are mixing the genuine medicine with molasses, &c. making three bottles out of one—thus retaining some of its virtues. These imitations and adulterations have in many instances, protracted the sufferings of patients in cases where the genuine medicine would have proved instantly efficacious. I therefore deem it a duty I owe the public, to acquaint them; that it is impossible, from the very nature of its constituents to be discovered by chemical analysis; and, consequently, that all other mixtures represented to be mine, and sold as such, are fraudulent and base impositions, calculated to deceive the ignorant and unwary. The genuine medicine has my signature on a label, representing Hercules and the Hydra, and my name on the seal.

PROPOSALS

FOR PUBLISHING A NEW-PAPER IN THIS TOWN, ENTITLED
The Fayetteville Weekly Gleaner.
B. H. TALBOT, Editor.
PROSPECTUS.

In accordance with custom, it first becomes necessary that the Editor should make an exposure of his political tenets, and then unfold his plans—in compliance therewith he would (as a creed by which he will, in his political career be guided) beg leave to point to the Farewell Address of the Father of American Independence; and when he shall depart therefrom—withdraw your patronage.
His plans are to make this Journal equally useful and interesting both to the Merchant and Agriculturalist; to give weekly, accurate statements of sales, public and private. Also, an estimate of imports and exports, with every transaction allied either to commerce or agriculture, that shall come within his knowledge; and from his experience in the commercial world, with the arrangements that will be made to effect this object, he hopes that he may receive the favorable consideration of an enlightened public.

It is likewise the intention of the Editor to report "verbatim et literatim," all trials by Jury, in the respective Courts held here; whether involving questions of law, or made interesting by incident; and he will also occasionally step into the "Town Hall," and Justices Court Rooms. As the Editor entertains the opinion, that the GLEANER may be still more interesting by giving the proceedings of our State Legislature in extenso, he intends residing in Raleigh during the session of that honorable body. A synopsis of Congressional Proceedings will always be found in the columns of this Journal. Original matter, i. e. Communications, will be thankfully received, to form a part of our miscellaneous chapter; but the Editor cannot hazard the reputation of his paper, by lending its pages to the circulation of unworthy Essays: his respect for the public should, and he trusts ever will preponderate, when called to exercise his editorial veto.

An extensive and well concerted News-Room will be opened, where Newspapers from all parts of the Union will be kept on file, and to which Subscribers to the GLEANER may have access gratis.

THE GLEANER will be published on Wednesday, on a super-royal sheet of good quality. Due notice will be given of its first appearance. No subscription taken for less than one year.
TERMS.—Three Dollars and a Half per annum: to be paid on the delivery of the number.
Fayetteville, May 20, 1824.
