Concert Hall, Refectory & Confectionary Establishment.

THE Subscriber informs the public, that he has just received a large and General Assortment of Confectionary, Cordials, &c. which, together with the articles previously in Store, forms the most complete establishment of the kind ever erected in this place. He flatters himself that, from a thorough knowledge of his business, and an intention of endeavoring to please his customers, he will give no cause for dissatisfaction to those who may please to patronise him. All the articles composing his establishment were selected with care by himself, and he is enabled to assert that they are not inferior in quality to any ever before offered for sale in Raleigh.

He has also received, and will keep constantly on hand, a variety of musical instruments, and a large quantity of the latest and most fashionable Music.

Comfortable rooms are kept for the accommodation of select parties of ladies or gentlemen—one of which is furnished with a Piano Forte for the Ladies.

Among the articles received are the following:

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN-AWAY from the subscriber on the 13th of October last, a Negro Woman, by the name of DOLLY, a tall stout black wench, her right eye very much injured, between twenty-five and thirty years of age, a scar over one of her eyes, she is a very thin visage. She says she was raised near Murfreesborough, and brought from Northampton, by George Brooks; it is thought she will try to get back to her old range. I will give the above reward for the apprehension of said negro, if lodged in any jail, so that I get her again. ANDREW POLK. Anson county, N. C. Nov. 7, 1824. 5-3t.

Carriage & Gig Making

THE subscriber takes this method of informing his friends and the public, that he has just finished a number of elegant Gigs, made of the first rate materials, which he offers for sale at fair prices. Plated and brass mounted Harness at reduced prices. Persons wishing to purchase, are invited to give him a call previous to buying elsewhere, as he is determined to have his work done in the most substantial manner.

Members of the approaching General Assembly, and others, who wish to have their Gigs or Sulkeys painted or repaired, are desired to send them to his shop, where they will be done in a neat manner and on good terms, and where they will have a good Carriage-house to protect them from the weather. WESLEY WHITAKER. Nov. 13, 1824. 6-5t.

Stray.

Jersey Wagon & Harness FOR SALE.

A LIGHT very handsome strong Waggon, almost new, built at Baltimore, and of the best materials will be sold low for cash. Harness also new. Application to be made to the Editors of the Register. Sept. 16.

Runaway.

TAKEN up and committed to the Jail of Wake County, on the 24th inst. a Negro Man about 20 years old, stout built, dark complexion, who says his name is YEARLY, and that he was bought of ol. Staples of Patrick county, Va. by a Mr.ammel, who he believes lives in some part of Kentucky, & has been runaway more than 12 months. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs. SAMUEL H. PULLEN, Jailor. Raleigh, Sept 27. 91

$25 Reward.

I WILL give twenty-five dollars for the apprehension and securing in any jail in this State, so that I get him again, a negro man by the name of MACK or MACKLIN, about 21 or 22 years of age. I purchased said negro from William G. Bowers, of the county of Granville, some time in February last; and I understood he was raised by a man by the name of Williams, in Franklin county, N. C.—He ran away some time in July last. Any communication on the subject, will be thankfully received, if addressed to the subscriber, living in Mecklenburg county, N. C. THOS. P. BERRYHILL. Mecklenburg Co. Oct. 10. 9910t

Notice.

BEING anxious to close speedily my accounts as Executor of Thomas N. Mann, deceased, I earnestly request the debtors to his estate to pay their arrears—or if not convenient at this time to give their bonds. The creditors are likewise requested immediately to bring forward for payment their claims properly authenticated, else this notice will hereafter be plead in bar against such claims. JAS. N. MANN, Executor. Nash county, Oct. 1. 97 Letters to me may be sent to Hilliardston, Nash.

State of North-Carolina. Cumberland County.

Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, September Term, 1824.

Wm. Smith, adm'r. of Alex'r. M'Alister dec'd. vs.

Samuel Meher, guardian to John Farmer's Heirs, Charles Stephens, Aiden Balleger and wife, Joseph Farmer, George Sillers, John Sillers, Sampson Sillers, Sterling Lee and wife, Kador Farmer, and Trapnall Searcey, Heirs at law of Wm. Trapnall, deceased.

Sci. fa. upon a Constable's Levy on two tracts of Land, joining Hector Stewart and others, on Mingo Swamp.

WHEREAS it appears to this Court, that Sampson Sillers, George Sillers, Kador Farmer and Trapnall Searcey, are not inhabitants of this State: Ordered that publication be made in the Raleigh Register once a week for six weeks, that said defendants appear at the next term of this Court, at the Courthouse in Fayetteville, on the first Monday of December next, and plead to issue. Judgment will be granted according to Sci. fa. and the lands levied on sold to satisfy plaintiff's demand. From the minutes. Test, JOHN ARMSTRONG CLK.

Stop the Villain.

ON Tuesday night last, NATHAN G. BRAZIL of Edgecomb county, eloped from his neighborhood, and as I have sufficient reason to believe, snatched away my daughter, one of my negroes and four other negroes from an orphan child. This fiend in human form, his left hand is maimed and four helpless children, and repaid the many benefits I had conferred upon him by becoming my child.

The negro belonging to me, is named ANTHONY; he is a low thick-set fellow, about 24 years of age, and will weigh about 160 lbs. The wife and three children of the negro, lived with Mr. Thomas Boon of Edgecombe County, and was no doubt coaxed away by said Brazil. The woman's name is Nicey, and her children are called Jarman, Clarissa, and Henry. The oldest boy Jarman, has a mark on the left side of his neck occasioned by a burn, which may lead to a detection. All three of the children are yellow complexioned, as is the case with the mother. BRAZIL is nearly 30 years of age, with grey eyes, sandy hair inclined to curl, speaks in a fierce tone of voice, and is of slender stature. It is the interest as well as duty of every virtuous member of society to aid in the apprehension of this consummate villain. To those who themselves have children, I need urge no stimulus to assist in restoring an innocent though deluded young creature to the bosom of her family.

I will give a reward of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for the apprehension or confinement in jail of said Brazil and negroes. Letters to me, may be sent to Rocky Mount Post Office, Nash County. JORDAN JOYNER. 99 4w 14 miles east of Nash C. H

New Establishment.

Saddlery, Harness Ware, &c. Saddles, Bridles, Martingals, Harness, Valises, Portmanteaus, Whips, Spurs.

A GUR PIXLEY, having established himself in Raleigh, on Fayetteville street, next door above Miss Henderson's Millinery store, begs leave to inform the citizens thereof and the public in general that he is now opening a handsome assortment of Saddlery, made of the best materials, and in the latest style, expressly for retailing in this market, which will be sold on the lowest terms. He has also on hand excellent materials, and will, at the shortest notice, make and repair Saddles, bridles, Harness and every other article appertaining to his business. Raleigh, Nov. 12, 1824. 5-tt

The beautiful Arabian Horse Syphax.

WILL stand the next season, being his first in America, at my stable three miles from Warrenton, on the Stage Road to Raleigh.

Syphax was landed at New-York in May 1824, from the United States frigate Constitution. He was purchased from an Arab of distinction, by Maj. Townsend Stith, late American Consul at the Regency of Tunis. He was raised near Mecca, in the Kingdom of Yeaman Arabia Felix, crossed the Red Seas to Derra, in Nubia, from thence thro' a part of the Desert to Toouila, in Terran, thence through the Regency of Tripoli, to Bel edulgerid, and from thence to the American Consulate in the city of Tunis, as is certified by Mr. Samuel C. Potter, the brother-in-law of Major Stith. He is 8 years old, upwards of 15 hands high, and beaut. fully marked. To those who wish to raise from this deservedly celebrated stock of horses (the genuine Arabian) the present will be a good opportunity. Terms and further particulars will be made known before the season commences. ROBERT RANSOM. Greenwood, Warren county. Nov. 10. 106. 0tC

New Clothing Store.

POLEY, of Petersburg, Va. respectfully informs the citizens of North-Carolina, that he is just completing an assortment of upwards of 100 Suits, in the latest fashion, of durable manner, and out of the best materials (all of which were imported direct from Europe by himself,) and which are this day opened and for sale in the city of Raleigh; where he solicits all those in want of READY MADE CLOTHING.

To call at the Store lately occupied by Mr. Bond, on Fayetteville street, and give his stock a fair examination, confident that they will be pleased; as he pledges himself that all the articles were made by the first rate hands, under his immediate inspection, and he feels the utmost confidence in vouching for the quality of the materials as well as faithfulness of workmanship.

Members of the Legislature, and country gentlemen generally, in want of really good articles, will please call, and if on examination they find none to fit, by leaving their measure and instructions with his agent, they can have their orders forwarded and executed in Petersburg, and returned in a few days, when if not done entirely to their satisfaction, they will be considered under no obligation to take them. Nov. 16, 1824. 5-1m.
