New Clothing Store.

P. FOLEY, of Petersburg, Va. respectfully informs the citizens of North-Carolina, that he is just completing an assortment of upwards of 100 Suits, in the latest fashion, most durable manner, and out of the best materials, (all of which were imported direct from Europe by himself) and which are this day opened and for sale in the city of Raleigh: where he solicits all those in want of

READY MADE CLOTHING.

To call at the Store lately occupied by Mr. Bond, on Fayetteville street, and give his stock a fair examination, confident they will be pleased; as he pledges himself that all the articles were made by the first rate hands, under his immediate inspection, and he feels the utmost confidence in vouching for the quality of the materials, as well as faithfulness of workmanship.

Members of the Legislature, and country gentlemen generally, in want of really good articles, will please call, and if on examination they find none to fit, by leaving their measures and instructions with his agent, they can have their orders forwarded and executed in Petersburg, and returned in a few days, when if not done entirely to their satisfaction, they will be considered under no obligation to take them.

Lands for sale near the City of Raleigh.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Equity for the county of Wake, made at the last term of said Court, will be offered for sale at the Court-House in the City of Raleigh, on Monday the 20th day of December next, on a credit of 12 months, two valuable Tracts of Land, belonging to the estate of William H. Ruffin, dec'd; viz. one tract lying on the waters of Beaver Dam Creek and on the Stage road leading from Raleigh to Louisburg, adjoining the lands of Nathaniel Jones and others, & containing by estimation four hundred and four acres and an half, which said tract of land, was purchased by said Wm. H. Ruffin of Jeremiah Dunn. The other tract principally in woods, containing fifty-three and three quarter acres, by actual measurement and adjoining the lands of C. Manly and others, was purchased of James Boylan and wife. The purchaser will be required to give bond with two good securities for the purchase money.

Contractors

ARE solicited to make Proposals to either of the undersigned Wardens, on or before the 20th December next, for Boarding and Clothing the Poor of Wake County for one year. The Contractor or Overseer of the Poor, will have the use of the Plantation, Grist and Saw Mills belonging to the county. There are six new Houses just finished, having four rooms in each, besides several other Houses for the use of the Overseer's family, situated four miles northwest of Raleigh, in a healthy part of the county. The Overseer will be paid a certain sum for each pauper. The particular kinds of diet and clothing to be furnished the poor, may be known on application to either of the undersigned. Bond and security will be required of the Overseer—who must be prepared to receive the paupers on the first Saturday in February next—and to enable him to be thus prepared, money will be advanced to lay in his yearly provisions, &c. Beds and some other furniture will be provided by the undersigned, for such paupers as are known to have no beds. Upwards of two thousand dollars are at the disposal of the Court of Wardens for the support of the poor.

Commission Business.

HAVING been solicited by many respectable friends in this state, to establish myself in Fayetteville, for the purpose, exclusively, of disposing of the produce of the Planters and Farmers, whose interests my business will naturally require me to guard. I am ready to attend the calls of all who may favor me with their commands in this line. Safe and convenient Houses have been provided for storing property of all kinds. My friends and correspondents may rest assured that their produce will never be pushed on a dull market, unless positively ordered. Liberal advances in Cash will be made on the delivery of produce, if it should be required. My office will be kept at Messrs. Cameron & Townes' near the Market House.

Notice.

THE subscribers, by virtue of the last Will and Testament of their father, Stephen Sneed, senr. dec'd, offer for sale the "Grove Tavern, in Williamsborough." It consists of a long range of two story Buildings, containing an elegant Ball-room, a very good Cellar, and thirteen other apartments, most of them with fire places: a back House, containing a good Dining-room, Lolling-room and Kitchen; a Smoke-house, Corn-house and an excellent Stable. The Garden is in good order, and the whole establishment is very convenient to one of the best Springs known in the country.

Also, a Lot immediately opposite to the Tavern, containing an excellent Store-house at the corner, with a Counting-room and Cellar, and a Piazza on the two fronts of the house. On the same lot is a Coach-maker's shop, a Carriage house and spacious Cellar.

Also, three Lots under one fence and well set in red clover, very convenient to the Tavern lot.

This establishment has been long an approved house of entertainment, and is situated on the main post and travelling route from the west to Petersburg and Richmond, and from the north and east to the western & southern countries. It is now, and has been for some time, the only house of entertainment kept up in the town. The great advantages of pure air and water, the wealth, gentility and sociability of the town and neighborhood, added to the certain prospect of gain which this stand affords, render it a very desirable situation.

We are desirous to sell, and will give a good bargain and liberal credit.

Stop the Villain.

ON Tuesday night last, NATHAN G. BRAZIL of Edgecomb county, eloped from his neighborhood, and as I have sufficient reason to believe, enticed away my daughter, one of my negroes and four other negroes from an orphan child. This fiend in human form, has left a destitute wife and four helpless children, and repaid the many benefits I had conferred upon him by deceiving my child.

The negro belonging to me, is named ARCHIBALD; he is a low thick-set fellow, about 24 years of age, and will weigh about 160 lbs. The wife and three children of the negro, lived with Mr. Thomas Boon of Edgecombe County, and was no doubt coaxed away by said Brazil. The woman's name is Nicey, and her children are called Jarman, Clarissa, and Henry. The oldest boy Jarman, has a mark on the left side of his neck occasioned by a burn, which may lead to a detection. All three of the children are yellow complexioned, as is the case with the mother.

BRAZIL is nearly 30 years of age, with grey eyes, sandy hair inclined to curl, speaks in a fierce tone of voice, and is of slender stature. It is the interest as well as duty, of every virtuous member of society to aid in the apprehension of this consummate villain. To those who themselves have children, I need urge no stimulus to assist in restoring an innocent though deluded young creature to the bosom of her family.

I will give a reward of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for the apprehension or confinement in jail of said Brazil and negroes. Letters to me, may be sent to Rocky Mount Post Office, Nash County.

Just Received,

At the Bookstore of J. Gales & Son, an assortment of Music, consisting of the most fashionable songs and pieces.

Fayetteville.

ROBERT JAFFRAY, & Co. have received their Fall Importation of Dry Goods, direct from England and New-York. Their assortment includes almost every article needed in a country store.

They invite all responsible dealers to come and buy, on as liberal terms of credit as are given by any Importer in the United States. Other houses in this town, have imported so largely this season, that the amount of goods here, at present, far exceeds that of any former time in our experience.

The stock of Groceries, is equally extensive. Country dealers, therefore, have many more advantages now than heretofore, in this market. 102-2m.

TAKEN UP,

AND committed to the Jail of Stokes County on the 10th ult. a Mulatto man; who sometimes says his name is Daniel and belongs to John Billips in Lunenburg, Virginia; and at other times, he says his name is Daniel Stion, and is a free man. But on his examination before the Justice of the Peace who committed him, he said he was a slave, and belonged to John Smith of New York. It appears to be impossible to make him tell the truth as he tells different tales every time he is examined. He says it has been five years since he ran away. He is about 27 years of age, 6 feet 1 inch high, his ears are cut off close to his head, which he says was done by a Sheriff in Missouri; but will not tell particularly for what offence. He can write a tolerably good hand, and has a very down look.

The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take him away; otherwise he will be dealt with according to law. JESSE BANNER, Jailor.

ABSCONDED from the subscriber on the 10th of this instant, three Negro Men, to wit: SAM, EDWARD and KADER. Sam, aged about 50, of light complexion, considerably marked with the smallpox, bought of Parson Keeband of Suffolk, Virginia.

Kader, aged about 30, sold by Asa Rogerson to James B. Diggs of Norfolk, then to a man by the name of Bass of Duplin county, North-Carolina, and then to the subscriber. Kader is of a dark complexion, well made, and of a pleasing countenance when spoken to, and has a scar on his forehead with a large pair of whiskers, no other mark recollected. He said previous to his going off that he had a wife in Camden county, N. C. and probably will aim for that place.

Edmond, between 28 and 30, about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, of a pleasing countenance when spoken to, and speaks very quick, inclined to be bowlegged, was raised on the Eastern Shore of Virginia, and sold by one Northam to James Patterson, by him to the subscriber.

I will give 50 dollars a piece for Edmond and Kader, and 25 dollars for Sam, for apprehending and securing them in any safe Jail so that I get them again.
