The beautiful Arabian Horse Syphax.
WILL stand the next season, being his first in America, at my stable three miles from Warrenton, on the Stage Road to Raleigh.
 Syphax was landed at New-York in May 1824, from the United States frigate Constitution. He was purchased from an Arab of distinction, by Maj. Townsend Stith, late American Consul at the Regency of Tunis. He was raised near Mecca, in the Kingdom of Yeaman Arabia Felix, crossed the Red Seas to Terra, in Nubia, from thence through a part of the Desert to Toanila, in Terra, thence through the Regency of Tripoli, to Belledulgerid, and from thence to the American Consulate in the city of Tunis, as is certified by Mr. Samuel C. Potter, the brother-in-law of Major Stith. He is 8 years old, upwards of 15 hands high, and beautifully marked. To those who wish to raise from this deservedly celebrated stock of horses (the genuine Arabian) the present will be a good opportunity. Terms and further particulars will be made known before the season commences.

 Superior Court of Equity.
 September term, 1824.
 James Kerby & Stephen Grice, vs.
 Joel Newsom & Jesse Aycock, def'ts.

WHEREAS at March term, 1824, of said Court, the death of the defendant Jesse Aycock was suggested, and a sci. fa. ordered to be issued to the heirs and legal representatives of the said Jesse, and that they be made parties defendants to the bill of complaint. And by the Sheriff's return at September term 1824, it appears to the satisfaction of the Court, that Elias Aycock and Benjamin Aycock are not residents of this State, it is therefore ordered, that publication be made three months successively in the Register as to the non-residents, and that they appear at the next term of the Court, to be held at the Courthouse in Smithfield on the fourth Monday of March next, and shew cause, if any they have, why they shall not be made parties defendants as aforesaid.

Packets for Philadelphia.

THE Subscriber having established a Line of Packets between Philadelphia and Wilmington, N. C. takes this method to acquaint the public, that a vessel will leave Wilmington, N. C. for Philadelphia every ten days.—Produce intended for this conveyance, will be received & forwarded by Duncan Thompson, Esq. of Fayetteville, and Messrs. Stowe & Whittier, of Wilmington, N. C. at the lowest rates of freight and least expense possible.—Having three good vessels in the trade, commanded by careful captains, well acquainted with the coast, and cabins well fitted for the accommodation of passengers. He therefore trusts to meet with encouragement. Philadelphia with its environs has become so great a manufacturing place, that cotton can be sold to some extent and advantage to the owners, the consumption being at present about twenty thousand bales per annum, and will no doubt be soon greater.

 Fayetteville, Oct. 25, 1824. 102-2m.

$50 Reward.
RANAWAY from the subscriber on the night of the 20th inst. a yellow Man by the name of SAM, (sometimes calls himself Sam Freeman, at others Sam Craven).—He has more the countenance of an Indian than a mulatto. He is 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, 24 years of age, bushy hair, his fore-teeth decayed, is sensible and quick spoken, can read and write, and is a Carpenter and Painter by trade, and is also a pretty good Barber. He carried with him a blue homespun suit, also a blue broadcloth coat, a buff colored and a brown pair of pantaloons. I have no doubt he has a free pass, and is aiming to get to some free State. He some years ago ran away, and was apprehended and lodged in Harrisburg Jail, in Rockingham county, Virginia. I will give Fifty Dollars for his apprehension if taken out of the State, or Twenty-five Dollars within the State.
 H. H. COOKE.
 Raleigh, Sept. 27. 91ft

$100 REWARD.
RANAWAY, or was stolen from the subscriber on the night of the eighth inst. a bright mulatto woman (slave) and her child, a girl of about four years old. This woman ran away from the subscriber, executor of John Hunt, dec'd, in the summer of 1808, and passed as a free woman by the name of Patsy Young, until about the first of June last, when she was apprehended as a runaway. On the 6th of the same month I obtained possession of her in the town of Halifax; since which time, by an order of Franklin county court, she and her child Eliza have been sold, when the subscriber became the purchaser. She spent the greater part of the time she was run away, (say about sixteen years,) in the neighbourhood of and in the town of Halifax; one or two summers at Rock-Landing, where I am informed she cooked for the hands employed on the Canal. She has also spent some of her time in Plymouth, her occupation while there not known. At the above places she has many acquaintances. She is a tall spare woman, thin face and lips, long sharp nose, and fore-teeth somewhat decayed. She is an excellent seamstress, can make ladies and gentlemen dresses, is a good cook and weaver, and I am informed is a good cake-baker and beer-brewer, &c. by which occupations she principally gained her living. Some time during last summer she married a free man of colour named Achrael Johnson, who had been living in and about Plymouth, and followed boating on the Roanoke. Since his marriage, he leased a farm of Mr. James Cotton of Scotland-Neck, Halifax county, where he was living together with this woman, at the time she was taken up as a runaway slave in June last. I have but little doubt, that Johnson has contrived to seduce or steal her and child out of my possession, and will attempt to get them out of the State and pass as free persons. Should this be the case, I will give sixty-five dollars for his detection and conviction before the proper tribunal, in any part of this State. I will give for the apprehension of the woman and child, on their delivery to me, or so secured in jail or otherwise that I get them, thirty-five dollars; or, I will give twenty-five dollars for the woman alone, and ten dollars for the child alone. The proper name of the woman is PIETT, but she will no doubt change it as she did before.
 I forward all owners of boats, captains and owners of vessels, from taking on board their vessels, or carrying away this woman and her child Eliza, under the penalty of the law.
