BY AUTHORITY.

An Act making appropriations for the Military Service of the United States, for the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and the same are hereby respectively, appropriated for the military service of the United States for the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, to wit:

For the pay of the army, and subsistence of officers, including the Military Academy nine hundred and ninety-four thousand four hundred and seven dollars and seventy-five cents.

For subsistence, in addition to an unexpended balance on the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, twenty-nine thousand one hundred and eighty-eight dollars and forty-five cents, two hundred and sixty thousand four hundred and twenty-nine dollars and fifty-five cents.

For forage for officers, thirty-five thousand five hundred and twenty dollars.

For the recruiting service, in addition to an unexpended balance on the first of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five of one thousand dollars, twenty-three thousand five hundred dollars.

For the contingent expenses of the recruiting service, in addition to an unexpended balance on the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, of eight thousand five hundred dollars, three thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars.

For the Purchasing Department, two hundred and four thousand five hundred and forty-nine dollars and eighty-six cents.

For the purchase of woollens, during the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, in advance for the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, twenty thousand dollars.

For the expense of building a brick wall round the arsenal lot, on Schuykill, and repairs of public buildings thereon, eight thousand dollars.

For Medical and Hospital Departments, in addition to amount on hand, on first of January, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, of thirteen thousand dollars, twenty thousand dollars.

For Quartermaster General's Department two hundred and eighty-four thousand nine hundred and seventy-three dollars and seventy-five cents.

For Quartermaster's supplies, transportation, mathematical instruments, books and stationery, for the Military Academy at West Point, eleven thousand five hundred dollars.

For the contingencies of the army, ten thousand dollars.

For the National Armories, three hundred and sixty thousand dollars.

For the current expenses of the Ordnance Service, forty thousand seven hundred dollars.

For Arsenals, forty-four thousand six hundred dollars.

For the pensions to the Revolutionary Pensioners of the United States, one million two hundred and forty-eight thousand four hundred and fifty-two dollars and twenty-six cents.

For half pay pensions to widows and orphans, twenty thousand dollars.

For making surveys, and carrying on the operations of the Board of Engineers, in relation to Internal Improvements, and in addition to an unexpended balance on hand, twenty-eight thousand five hundred and sixty-seven dollars.

For paying certain States the amount due on account of Militia in the service of the United States, during the late war, ninety-two thousand five hundred and thirty-five thousand dollars and seventy-seven cents, being an amount heretofore appropriated, & which has passed to the surplus fund.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the several sums hereby appropriated shall be paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated; Provided, however, That no money appropriated by this act, shall be paid to any person for his compensation, who is in arrears to the United States, until such person shall have accounted for & paid into the Treasury, all sums for which he may be liable: Provided also, That nothing in this section contained shall be construed to extend to balances arising solely from the depreciation of Treasury notes received by such person to be expended in the public service; but in all cases where the pay or salary of any person is withheld, in pursuance of this act, it shall be the duty of the accounting officer, if demanded by the party, his Agent, or Attorney, to report forthwith to the agent of the Treasury Department, the balance due; and it shall be the duty of the said agent, within sixty days thereafter, to order suit to be commenced against such delinquent or his sureties.

AN ACT making appropriations for the support of the Navy of the United States, for the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, for defraying the expenses of the Navy, for the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, the following sums be, and the same are hereby, respectively, appropriated:

For the pay and subsistence of the officers, and crew of the seamen, other than those at Navy Yards, shore stations, and in ordinary, seven hundred and eighty-three thousand five hundred and fifty-four dollars thirty-seven cents.

For the pay and subsistence of officers and others, at Navy Yards, shore stations, and in ordinary, two hundred and seventy-nine thousand three hundred and sixty-four dol-

Gildersleeve of Georgia, Rev. Oliver Hulbert, Do. Rev. Nathan S. Bennet, Do. Rev. Aaron W. Leland of S. C. Rev. Allan McDougald, Rev. Francis Cummins of Georgia, and Rev. Richard Furman of South Carolina.

Stray.

JOHN McLENNAN living on the Yaddin Road, four miles west of the town of Fayetteville, enters a Stray Horse of a dark bay colour, 5 feet high, about 9 years old, moves a little lame as if occasioned by a founder.—Valued at fifty dollars.

MALCOLM RAY, Ranger of Cumberland county. January 20.

Strays.

A dark bay Mare, about 14 hands high, supposed to be 12 or 13 years old, with a small white star in her forehead, blind in the left eye, and shod before, was taken up by Malcolm McAskill on Wet Creek, on the 14th of December last, and appraised to thirty-five dollars, and entered on the Ranger's Book of Moore county.

Also, a Gray Horse fourteen and a half hands high, 14 or 15 years old, with a scar on the right shoulder, was taken up by Kenneth Clark on Drowning Creek, on the 3d inst. Appraised to twenty-five dollars, and entered on the same Book.

JAMES DOWD, Ranger. January 27.

Jailors Notice.

Taken up, on the 22d of October, 1824, and lodged in Jail at Wilmington, N. C. a negro man who calls his name MOSES, and says he belongs to Joseph Rogers, living about 12 miles from Charlotte, in Mecklenburg County, in this State. Said fellow is about 24 or 25 years of age, five feet 6 or 7 inches high, complexion yellow, slender made and speaks good English and had on when committed a grey Jacket considerably worn, two shirts and trousers. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges, and take said fellow away.

CHARLES B. MORRIS, Jailor.

The Beautiful Arabian Stallion, SYPHAX.

Will Stand the next season, (being his first in America) at my Stable, three miles from Warrenton on the Stage road to Raleigh, and will be let to mares at the moderate sum of Two Dollars the season, if paid within the season, or Twelve Dollars, if paid after the season expires; Sixteen Dollars to insure a mare in foal; or Seven Dollars the single leap; and 50 cents to the groom in every instance. The season will commence the first day of March, and end the last day of August.

SYPHAX is a handsome sorrel, and most beautifully marked, red mane and tail; he is upwards of fifteen hands high; eight years old, healthy and vigorous, and not inferior in point of form or muscular power, to any horse on the continent; and the most docile animal I have ever seen.

SYPHAX was brought to America in the United States frigate Constitution, and safely landed at New York in May 1824. SYPHAX was obtained by Maj. Townsend Still, late American Consul, at the Regency of Tunis, and was purchased from an Arab of high distinction, who valued him above any horse in the actual possession of the Bey or King of Tunis.

SYPHAX was foaled near Mecca, in the Kingdom of Yeaman, Arabia Felix, crossed the Red Sea to Derra, in Nubia—from thence through a part of the Desert, to Toulla, in Terran—thence, through the regency of Tripoli, to Beledulgerid—and from thence to the American Consulate in the city of Tunis—as is certified by Mr. Samuel C. Potter, a gentleman of honor and respectability.

To those who wish to raise from this deservedly stock of horses, the genuine Arabian, the present will be a favorable opportunity; for experience has long shown us the advantages to be derived from the improvement of our stock crossed with the Arabian.

SYPHAX's high form, muscular powers, and beautiful make, I think constitute him a constellation among Stud Horses.

Good pasturage will be provided for mares left with the horse, or they will be fed with grain if required; but no liability for accidents or escapes. ROBERT RANSOM, Greenwood Warren, Jan. 14. 22-1st &

Committed.

TO the Jail in Ashburn, N. C. in October last, a Negro Man, of a Highway, about 27 or 30 years of age, about 5 feet 10 inches high, has lost some of his upper teeth, as a small scar upon his right eye. Says his name is SHADLOCK, and that he was taken from Maryland, by Joseph Williams, from whom he returned to the State of Alabama. SHADLOCK, Jailor. Nov. 1824.—6m

Female School.

Mrs. ELIZABETH WALKER is desirous of giving instruction to a few pupils in the Piano Forte. She will give lessons at her father's house, or elsewhere, will attend young ladies at their own residences. Her terms are $5.00 per quarter, to which will be added 2 dolls if she wants her pupils attend their own houses. Raleigh, Feb. 20, 1825. 35-1

Mansion Hotel, FAYETTEVILLE, NORTH-CAROLINA.

THE subscriber having leased this Establishment, formerly occupied by Captain TAYLOR, is now in readiness to accommodate Travellers and Boarders. He tenders his thanks to the Public and the Citizens of Fayetteville, for the former patronage, and friendly support which he has received, and in soliciting a continuance of these favors, assures them that every exertion shall be made, and due attention bestowed in order to the comfort and pleasure of Travellers and Boarders. His rooms are spacious, being new, clean and large, are well adapted for comfort and health, opening upon a garden which presents a fine prospect; super-add, are the comforts of ease and retirement, which may be enjoyed in spacious Parlours by Travelling Families. This situation, standing on one of the most elevated streets, is healthy; attended with the advantage and convenience arising from the important and extensive business transacted on that street, which will make it the interest of Country Merchants and Planters to call, it is constantly supplied by means of aqueducts, with pure water, issuing from one of the best fountains in the State.

His Bar will be constantly supplied with the best and choicest of Liquors; his Table with the best of the country and market affords; his Stables shall be attended by a firm, steady and honest Grooms. Other advantages are attendant upon this Establishment, rarely to be excelled in any other Public House in this State.

BILL ON JORDAN, Fayetteville, Feb. 26, 1825. 36-1

A Card.

I have pleasure in stating that the Mansion Hotel, in this town, has undergone a thorough purification, and is reoccupied by Mr. Jordan. The public may rest satisfied that there is no danger of contracting the contagion of the late epidemic disease either at the Hotel or any other place in Fayetteville.

HENJ. ROBINSON, Health Officer. Fayetteville, Feb. 23, 1825.

New Stock of Goods.

THE subscribers have now opened in Mr. Parre's brick Store, opposite Latta & McFarland's, a new stock of Dry Goods, Hardware, Cutlery, Glass, Crockery, and Groceries, all laid in at the best terms, and which they will dispose of low for cash.

LEWIS & MYERS, Columbia, S. C. Feb. 11, 1825. 32-1

N. B. They will have additions to their present stock in a few days, which will complete their Spring assortment.

Macon Bridge.

WILL be let at the Post-Office in Macon, to the lowest bidder, at public outcry, on Friday the 15th of April next, the building of a BRIDGE across the Ocmulgee river at the foot of the street leading to the public square in Macon. The river at the intended site has, it is believed, a very firm bottom, the most of which is known to be of rock—its width at common water is estimated at 250 feet; the height of the piers at 38 feet; the whole length of the Bridge at 400; and the contemplated width 32 feet. Stone and timber may be very conveniently obtained, and had gratis, on the adjoining public lands.—The piers and abutments to be of stone; the upper works of approved timber, and to be shingled, weather-boarded and painted. The undertaker will be required to give bond with three approved securities in the sum of $20,000 for the faithful performance of his contract. The names of the persons offered as securities must be submitted to the Commissioners by the 8th of April; letters for this purpose may be directed to the commissioners to the care of Mortimer H. Wells, Esq. Postmaster, Macon. Twenty per cent on the amount of the contract will be advanced, and further advances will be made at the discretion of the commissioners as the work progresses.

A model of the intended bridge and the form of the contract will be open to inspection at the room over Gillespie & B's drug-store in Macon, on and after the twenty-first of March until the time of letting.

Architects are invited to prepare and furnish models in wood on a scale of an inch to the foot with accompanying explanations in writing; which will be received at the room above mentioned until Tuesday the 15th of March inclusive. A premium of $100 will be paid for that model which shall be adopted as best, uniting the properties of cheapness, strength, durability and convenience in repairing.

LUKE J. MORGAN, CHARES BULLOCK, MORTIMER H. WALLIS, Comrs. SAMUEL GILLESPIE, WILLIAM BYRNS, Macon, Feb. 1. 36-1536
