BY AUTHORITY.

An act further to amend the act authorizing payment for property lost, captured, or destroyed, by the enemy, while, in the military service of the United States, and for other purposes: passed ninth April, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That any person having claim for a building destroyed by the enemy during the late war, under the ninth section of the act to which this is an amendment, and of the act to amend the same, passed the third of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, which shall have been presented to the Commissioner of Claims, appointed under the act first aforesaid, at any time before the tenth of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and which was not paid under said acts, nor finally rejected by said Commissioner, may, within nine months hereafter, present the same, with the evidence to support it, to the Third Auditor of the Treasury, for examination and adjustment; and if he shall be satisfied the building or buildings for which damages are claimed, was, at the time of its destruction, occupied by order of any agent or officer of the United States, as a place of deposit for military or naval stores, or as harbors for the military forces of the United States, he shall proceed to assess the damages and certify the amount for payment, in the way pointed out in the act first above referred to, which shall be immediately paid, out of any money in the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated: Provided, That, if the Auditor shall be satisfied the evidence before him is insufficient to enable him correctly to decide between the United States and the claimant, he may, on giving notice to the claimant, cause the evidence to be taken: And provided, also, That no payment shall be made under the provisions of this act, where the property destroyed was occupied under a contract with the owner, and at the risk of such owner.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the amount which shall appear to have been paid to the owners, as rent, for the use or occupation of their property, shall be deducted from the amount directed to be paid to them under this act.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That, in case the whole amount of claims presented, and allowed, under this act, shall exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, then, and in that case, the claimants shall, respectively, receive only their rateable proportion of the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, to be liquidated by the said Auditor in the adjustment of the amount to be received by such claimants, respectively.

Approved, March 3, 1825.

An act to authorize the sale of unserviceable Ordnance, Arms, and Military Stores.

Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby authorized to cause to be sold any ordnance, arms, ammunition, or other military stores, or subsistence, or medical supplies, which, upon proper inspection or survey, shall appear to be damaged, or otherwise unsuitable for public service, whenever, in his opinion, the sale of such unserviceable stores will be advantageous to the public service.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the inspection or survey of the unserviceable stores shall be made by an Inspector General, or such other officer or officers as the Secretary of War may appoint for that purpose, and the sales shall be made under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War.

Approved, March 3, 1825.

An act to authorize the sale of a Section of Land therein mentioned.

Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall be, and he is hereby authorized, to cause to be exposed to public sale, in the same manner other lands of the United States are, the section numbered thirty-four, of the Eleventh Township, and third range of Townships offered for sale at Steubenville, Ohio; and if not sold the said section shall be liable to entry in the Steubenville Land Office, as other lands are.

Approved, March 3, 1824.

An act to alter the terms of the District Court of the United States in the Western District of Virginia.

Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the terms of the District Court, in and for the Western District of Virginia, instead of the time now fixed by law, shall be holden on the days and at the places hereinafter mentioned, namely: at Staunton, on the last Mondays in March and August; at Wythe Court House, on the first Mondays in April and September; at Lewisburg, on the Fridays after the first Mondays in April and September, and at Clarksburg on the first Mondays of June and November, in each year.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That all recognizances, process, suits and proceedings, of every kind, whether of a civil or criminal nature, commenced or pending, in either of said Courts, shall be returned to, proceeded in, and determined at the terms herein provided for, in the same manner as if the times of holding said Courts had not been changed.
Approved, March 3, 1825.

An act to change the time of holding the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Louisiana.

Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Louisiana, shall be annually holden in the City of New Orleans, on the second Monday of December, instead of the third Monday of November, as now prescribed by law.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That all suits, actions, writs, processes, and other proceedings, which now are pending in said District Court, or which are, or may hereafter be, commenced for, or returnable to, the said District Court, on the third Monday of November, as heretofore established, shall be returnable to, heard, tried, and proceeded with, in the said District Court, in the same manner as if the time for holding thereof had not been changed.

Approved, March 3, 1825.

An act making an additional appropriation for defraying the expenses of bringing to the seat of Government the votes for President and Vice President of the United States.

Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there be, and there hereby is, appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of two thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine dollars and fifty cents, for the payment of the expenses of bringing to the seat of Government the votes for President and Vice President of the United States, in addition to the sum of three thousand three hundred dollars, heretofore appropriated for the same object.

Approved, March 3, 1825.

An act to make Castine a port of entry for ships or vessels coming from beyond the Cape of Good Hope.

Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, from and after the first day of April next, Castine, in the State of Maine, shall be, and is hereby, made a port of entry for ships or vessels coming from beyond the Cape of Good Hope.

Approved, March 3, 1825.

An act for the continuation of the Cumberland Road.

Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, of moneys not otherwise appropriated, be, and the same is hereby, appropriated for the purpose of opening and making a road from the town of Canton, in the State of Ohio, on the right bank of the Ohio river, opposite the town of Wheeling, to the Muskingum river, at Zanesville, in said State; which said sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars shall be replaced out of the fund reserved for laying out and making roads under the direction of Congress, by the several acts passed for the admission of the States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Missouri, into the Union, on an equal footing with the original states.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That, for the immediate accomplishment of this object, the President, with the advice of the Senate, shall appoint some fit person as the superintendent of said road, whose duty it shall be, under the direction of the President, to divide the same into sections of not more than ten miles each; to contract for and personally superintend the opening and making the said road, as well as to receive, disburse, and faithfully account with the Treasury for, all sums of money by him received in virtue of this act.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the superintendent shall not be interested, directly or indirectly, in the avails of any contracts so to be made by him as aforesaid: That he shall, before he enters upon the discharge of the duties enjoined by this act, execute a bond to the United States, with security to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties prescribed by this act: That he shall hold his office during the pleasure of the President, and shall receive at the rate of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum for his services, during the time he may be employed, in the discharge of the duties required by this act.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby authorized and empowered to, appoint one impartial and judicious person, not being a citizen of either of the states through which the road, hereafter mentioned, shall pass, to be a Commissioner; and, in case of the death, resignation, refusal to act, or any disability of any such Commissioner, to appoint another in his stead, who shall have power, according to the provisions of the act entitled "An act to authorize the appointment of Commissioners to lay out the road therein mentioned," approved May fifteenth one thousand eight hundred and twenty, to complete the examination and survey heretofore commenced by virtue of the provisions of said act, and to extend the same to the permanent seat of Government of the state of Missouri; the said road to conform, in all respects, to the provisions of the said recited act, except that it shall pass by the seat of Government of the states of Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois; and the said Commissioners and the person employed under him, shall receive the same compensation for their services, respectively, as is allowed by the said recited act: Provided, however, That the said road shall commence at Zanesville, in the State of Ohio; and to defray the expense thereof, the sum of ten thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, out of the appropriation made by the first section of this act.
