

POETRY.

BYRON'S ENIGMA.

The following ingenious play upon the letter H is a masterpiece. It has been the rounds of the European and American papers, puzzling the learned and perplexing the ingenious. A French gentleman in this city at length discovered the key which unlocks the mystery, and which, as before observed is the letter H.—N. K. Pat.

'Twas whispered in heaven and muttered in hell, And echo caught softly the sound as it fell; In the confines of earth 'twas permitted to rest, And the depths of the ocean its presence confessed;

'Twas seen the lightning and heard in the thunder, 'Twill be found in the spheres when risen asunder;

It was given to man with his earliest breath, It assists at his birth and attends him in death, Presides o'er his happiness, honor, & health, Is the prop of his house and the end of his wealth;

It begins every hope, every wish it must bound, And though unassuming, with monarchs 'tis crowned; In the heaps of the miser 'tis hoarded with care,

But is sure to be lost with the prodigal heir, Without it the soldier and sailor may roam, But woe to the wretch who expels it from home;

In the whispers of conscience its voice will be found, Nor e'er in the whirlwind of passion be drowned. It softens the heart, and though deaf to the ear,

'Twill make it acutely and instantly hear, But in shades let it rest like an elegant flower, Oh! breathe on it softly—it dies in an hour.

Millinery Establishment.

MISS HENDERSON wishing to close her Business in Raleigh, offers for sale at the original cost, an elegant Assortment of Millinery and Fancy Goods. To any lady who wishes to establish herself in these branches, this would be an advantageous opportunity. The Rooms Miss H. now occupies as a store, &c. might be rented, and it is allowed to be one of the best situations in the City for such a Business. To those who are acquainted with Raleigh, nothing need be said, in respect to its superior advantages—strangers it may be added, that it is a pleasant, healthy situation, and as the seat of Government, is the resort of fashionable strangers.

Valuable Real Estate

FOR SALE. IN pursuance of powers vested in me by the last will and testament of William Twitty, dec'd. I offer for sale all that valuable Tract of Land in Warren county, on which said William lived at the time of his death, containing thirty-two hundred and sixteen acres. On it is a valuable Grist & Saw Mill, both lately repaired—and a large and commodious two story dwelling-house with the necessary out-houses, which with some repairs may be made a comfortable reception for a numerous family. There is a large body of Low Grounds on the waters of Fishing Creek, and a considerable quantity of good wood land attached to this tract. Eight hundred acres of this land are subject to a life estate, which interest I have good reasons to believe can be purchased at a fair price.—The balance of the land is also subject to the dower of the widow; which I can confidently say may also be purchased. This land would be sold privately on very accommodating terms, for a great part of the money, the purchaser paying the interest annually & giving good & satisfactory security for the performance of his contract. If this land should not be disposed of before the 23d day of August next (it being the 3d day of Warren Court) on that day it will be offered at public sale at the Market-House in the town of Warrenton. The Executor reserves to himself the privilege of a bid. It is thought unnecessary to give a minute description of this land, as those who may wish to purchase will view it and judge for themselves. ROB. PARK, the surviving Executor. Warren county, N. C. June 9. 65 6w

My Bar will be furnished with the choicest Liquors that can be procured.—The Table with the best country affords—the Beds, Mattresses &c. are all entirely new. There are large and good Stables newly erected, with separate stalls, which will be under the care of attentive Ostlers and provided with the best Forage. The price of Board will be: For Ladies & Gentlemen, per day, $1 00 Children and Servants 0 50 Horses 0 50 I have also built a commodious Ball Room, for the accommodation of those who are fond of such amusements. And there has been erected a large and comfortable Building immediately at the Spring, which will contain one hundred persons. The STAGES, during the summer season, will pass by the Springs every day for the convenience of Passengers. I shall continue to keep open my House of Entertainment, in Warrenton, where Travellers will find every accommodation that could be afforded by my personal attention. From which place the Stages, North and South, will continue to arrive and depart regularly every day. ROBT. H. JOHNSON. Warrenton, N. C. May 27. 61
