For the tomb of a little Girl, eight years old. No-I will not deem thee dead, my love, but parted far away, Though fairer scenes than earth can yield, for ever more to stray;

To dwell where ceaseless pleasures reign, in undecaying rest, Amid the quiet shades of some fair island of

And there, I ween, thy little feet, from ev'ry In frolic mirth now wander, as infancy they roved; And still thy little fingers pluck the sweetest, fairest flowers.

Oh! winter comes not there, to chill, with short and cheerless day; Nor summer sums are there, to scorch, with fierce and salary ray

Nor hunger ther , nor thirst, is known, to mar thine hours of ease; Nor, raging, in his thousand shapes, the tyrant, fell Disease.

And shall I, though thou'rt torn from me, my precious one, repine ? Alas! how poor life's best estate appears, compared with thine-With thine, who, far removed from all that dims its darkened way, Dwellest mid the splendors pure of heaven's unclouded riv.

Valuable Real Estate FOR SALE.

N pursuance of powers vested in me by the last will and testament of William Twitty, dec. I offer for sale all that valuable Tract of Land in Warren county, on which said William lived at the time of his death, containing thirty-two hundred and sixteen acres. On it is a valuable Grist & Saw Mill. both lately repaired-and a large and commodious two story dwelling-house with the necessary outhouses, which with some repairs numerous family. There is a large body of Low Grounds on the waters of Fishing Creek, and a considerable quantity of good wood land attached to this tract. Eight hund dred acres of this land are subject to a life es tate, which interest I have good reasons to believe can be purchased at a fair price .--The balance of the land is also subject to the dower of the widow; which I can confidently say may also be purchased. This land would be sold privately on very accommodating terms, for a great part of the money, the purchaser paying the interest annually & giving good & satisfactory security for the perform-4th, in either order, will each be entitled to $25 ance of his contract. If this land should not be disposed of before the 22d day of August next (it being the 2d day of Warren Court) on that day it will be offered at public sale at the Market-House in the town of Warrenton. The Executor reserves to himself the privilege of a bid.

It is thought unnecessary to give a minute description of this land, as those who may wish to purchase will view it and judge for themselves.

S125 REWARD. DANAWAY from the Subscriber about GLOSTER, a small black man, with long visage, 4 feet 6 or 7 inches high, has a lope in his walk, and is about 42 years of age. He will aim for the county of Carteret in this State, where he wishes to live, and where he is well known. The other GRANDERSON, a man about twenty-three years of age, a coarse Carpenter, and is remarkably white for a slave, and might readily be taken for a white man; is a strong well set fellow, rather above ordinary size. He may have a scar on his forehead between, or rather above his eye-brows, ranging up and down, as by accident, the edge of an axe flying from its helve cut him there some years ago. One of his arms was broken, when small, near the wrist joint, and it is believed the left, which shows that joint enlarged, and has the appearance of dislocation, bending outwards, with the end of the outer bone of the arm 3,000 next the joint considerably increased in size. 2,000 His eyes are what are called blue, his hair is very straight, of a dingy yellowish white.— Had perhaps, when he went off, a black furred hat, and round-about blue broad cloth coat. He is a blunt spoken fellow, speaks with assurance, and stutters and stammers in speaking, particularly when confused. His 3,720 purpose is doubtless to pass for a free man. I will give for Gloster, if safely delivered in any Jail so that I can get him again, twenty-five dollars, and for Granderson I will give one hundred dollars, if safely delivered in Jail, so that I can get him again, and I will for either or both, besides, pay all reasonable expenses, if delivered to me, at my residence

A beautiful young Orchard of Apple and Peach trees. There is about 200 acres excellent creek land, thro' which a beautiful and never-failing stream flows .-The hills adjoining the low lands, is well supplied with never-failing springs; upland generally level, which enhances its value-It is but seldom that a tract of land of its worth, and generally reputed healthy situa-tion and many advantages and conveniences, such as being convenient to never-failing mills, is offered for sale in this section of country. Those disposed to buy would do well to call and see. Said Tract of Land will be sold on accommodating terms, if applied for shortly. Young Negroes will be taken in payment.
