

Poetry.

The following verses, from the Albany Plough Boy, rival the sweetest strains of Shensstoue or of Akenside. Like those writers, all Mr. Southwick's effusions breathe the same openness of heart, the same abhorrence of duplicity and exalted love of virtue.

TO A COUNTRY GIRL. Who expressed a wish to lead a town life.

Sweet Mary, sigh not for the town, Where vice and folly reign; Spurn not the humble homespun gown That suits the rural plain.

In every street the city's glare Both simple hearts betray; And simple hearts who wander there, Are sure to lose their way.

The tradesman plays his wily part To take the stranger in: The profligate displays his art, The modest maid to win:

He lures her to perdition's brink By every treach'rous scheme, Then leaves the hapless wretch to sink In Pleasure's guilty stream!

The flaunting crowd that seem so gay, May please you for a while; But Joy with these doth rarely stay, Or sweet Contentment's smile.

The splendid dome that proudly rears Its gilded roof on high, Full oft conceals pale Envy's tears And Disappointment's sigh.

There foul Ambition loves to dwell, False Pride, and lust of Fame; There Malice and Revenge rebel Against the good man's name.

Ah! little do you know, sweet maid, What art the city spoils, Where villains ply the cunning trade, And Fraud is drest in smiles.

Then, Mary, sigh no more to rove, Or change your native fields, The rural walk, the verdant grove, For all the city yields.

And when some swain, of soul sincere, Shall seek your love to gain, Trust to his faith, nor ever fear That you shall trust in vain.

So shall your rustic life be spent, With every blessing crown'd; Within your doors shall sweet content And faithful love be found.

And when your infant offspring rise, A mother's smile to greet, The joy that sparkles in their eyes, Shall your own bliss complete!

Your tide of life, thus even flowing, Will ebb at last 'tis true; When calm, with Horze your bosom glowing, You'll bid the world adieu!

Treasury Office, 15th August, 1825. STATE OF NORTH-CAROLINA.

THE Public Treasurer considers it his duty to invite the attention of the Clerks and Sheriff of this State to the provisions of the acts of the General Assembly, passed in 1822-1823, & 1824, for the promotion of Agriculture and family domestic Manufactures.

By these acts, the Clerks of the County, Superior and Supreme Courts, and Clerks and Masters in Equity, are required, at the first term of the Courts of which they are Clerks respectively, after the 1st day of August in each and every year, to make a statement on oath, of all monies remaining in their hands, and which were received by them officially, three years or more previous thereto; specifying therein the amount of each separate claim, and the name of the person to whom the same is payable; and if there be no such monies in their hands, they are to make affidavit of the same: which return or affidavit, the Judge or Chairman of the Court before whom it is made, shall cause to be transmitted to the Public Treasurer on or before the 1st of December in the same year, and the said clerks, after making such statements, are to pay into the Treasury, on or before the 1st of December, all the balance so stated to be in their hands. Every clerk aforesaid failing to comply with these requisitions, forfeits $1000, to be sued for and recovered by the Public Treasurer, in Wake Superior Court; and is moreover liable for all the monies in his hands as aforesaid: And on failure to pay over the monies as aforesaid, such clerk may be proceeded against by the Public Treasurer in any Court of record in like manner as defaulting revenue officers. Every person who has heretofore been clerk of any court of record in this state, is to render to the court of which he may have been clerk, a statement of monies remaining in his hands as aforesaid, and shall account and pay over the same, in the same manner as clerks in office, and under the like penalty for failure; and it is made the duty of the law officers of the state for the circuit in which such person shall reside, to cause a sci. fa. to be issued against him (on his failure to make return and payment) returnable to the Superior Court of the county in which such person resides-on which, the court is to render judgment for the penalty, unless sufficient excuse be given for the failure. All Sheriffs in office at the time of passing the act of 1825, are required, at the same times, to render a like statement and to account in the same manner, under a like penalty.

While the Public Treasurer takes pleasure in testifying to the punctuality of many of our most distinguished citizens of the present day, it is with much regret that he is constrained to add, there remain still many who are defaulters under these laws.

Waiving all other considerations, the Treasurer would hereby respectfully suggest to those concerned, that it is certainly far more easy, and will eventually prove to be less troublesome and expensive, to furnish voluntarily and forthwith the returns required by law, than by longer neglect or delay to risk the being subjected to the compulsory process of the courts; which must & will be the certain and inevitable consequence of future neglect or omission.

NOTES.

1. The Postmaster General may expedite the mails and alter the times for arrival and departure, at any time during the continuance of the contract, he paying an adequate compensation for any extra expense that may be occasioned thereby. And he reserves the right to abridge any contract made under this advertisement when he thinks it proper, and to deduct from the compensation at the ratio paid under the contract, for lessening the duties of the contractor.

2. Ten minutes shall be allowed for opening and closing the mail, at all offices where no particular time is specified.

3. For every thirty minutes delay, (unavoidable accidents excepted,) in arriving after the time prescribed in any contract, the contractor shall forfeit five dollars; and, if the delay continue until the departure of any depending mail, whereby a trip is lost, a forfeiture of double the amount allowed for carrying the mail one trip, shall be incurred, unless it shall be made to appear that the delay was occasioned by unavoidable accident; in which case the amount of pay for a trip will be forfeited.

4. Persons making proposals, are required to state their prices by the year. Those who contract will receive their pay quarterly—in the months of May, August, November, and February, one month after the expiration of each quarter.

5. No other than a free white person shall be employed to carry the mail.

6. Where the proposer intends to convey the mail in the body of a stage carriage, he is desired to state it in his proposals; and the stage must be of sufficient size, unless otherwise expressed, to conveniently convey seven passengers.

7. Every proposer may offer in his bid, to make improvement in the transportation of the mail, from the terms invited, either as to the mode of transporting it, the speed required, or the frequency of the trips per week—which shall receive due consideration.

The number of the post route shall be stated in every bid, and the proposal must be sealed and directed to the General Post-Office, and endorsed "Proposals."

Strict attention must be given to the endorsement, as it is not intended to break the seal of any proposal, until the time for receiving bids shall have expired.

8. The Postmaster General reserves to himself the right of declaring any contract at an end, whenever one failure happens, which amounts to the loss of a trip.

9. The distances stated are such as have been communicated to this office, and some of them may be incorrect: On this subject the contractor must inform himself—the department will not be answerable for any mistake.

10. No bid shall be withdrawn after the time for receiving bids shall have expired, and should any person refuse to take the contract at his bid, he shall be held responsible to the Department for the difference between his bid, and that at which the contract shall be made. No decisions on bids shall be made known before the 17th of October. The assignment of any contract without the consent of the Postmaster General, shall forfeit it—and in all cases where application to make a transfer is made, the terms must be fully stated.

11. The contracts are to be in operation on the first day of January next, and continue one year. JOHN M'LEAN, Post-Master General. General Post-Office, Washington City, July 14th, 1825.

SAML. L. SOUTHWARD, Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

Fayetteville Academy.

A PRINCIPAL TEACHER is wanted in this institution, well qualified to instruct youths of both sexes in all the branches of an English and Classical Education, and to prepare young men for entrance into the Junior Class of any College in the Union. His moral character, and qualifications for teaching the Greek and Latin Classics, must be undoubted.

It is the design of the Trustees to contract with a Gentleman who will take upon himself the sole management and responsibility of the School, comprehending both departments, Male & Female, supply the same with Teachers of his own choice, & furnish every other necessary, in consideration of which he will be entitled to regulate the price of tuition, and to receive all the emoluments derived from it.

This plan is recommended by the experience, that salary employments do not stimulate to that industry and zeal, which are necessary to the successful progress and reputation of a large School, and has its foundation in that principle of self love, which prompts the exertions most where interest lies, by identifying the interest of the Teacher with the character of the School, thus affording to the public the surest guaranty of having their children faithfully taught.

The Academy lot and buildings are situated in very pleasant part of the town, on one of the principal streets, and in the neighborhood of the Episcopal and Presbyterian Churches. The lot is large, and well shaded in the front yard, which communicates with the street over a stile: The main building and wing are three stories high, with a double Portico in front, and is surmounted with a beautiful Belfry—the length and breadth of the main building is about 65 by 45 feet, divided into large apartment, separated by large halls or passages through the centre.

They are sufficiently capacious to accommodate a School of 200 scholars and a family, and the lot is supplied from a Hydrant in the front yard with good and wholesome water.

Few prospects can be more inviting than the present, to a married gentleman with a family, qualified to assist in the school, or capable of taking boarders, (and such a person the Trustees would greatly prefer) for it combines the advantages of two fold profits, to be derived from teaching and boarding children from abroad. And when it is known that this Academy is situated in a town with a population of 3600 souls, & that there is no Academy within 60 miles of it, in which the higher branches of learning are taught, the striking advantages of this offer cannot fail to make a strong appeal to the interest and enterprize of the first talents in the country devoted from necessity to the vocations of Literature.

The Trustees will lease the buildings, lot, &c. from the first day of January next; (when the present lease expires) for one year: after which they will extend the term to any number of years the contracting parties can agree upon.

Lerters, post post paid, may be addressed to the subscribers at this place. LOUIS D. HENRY, JNO. W. WRIGHT, Committee.
