plication at this Office.

THEATRE.—This establishment is now doing a flourishing business, under the able management of Mr. J. H. ROGERS. During the last week he has introduced to us Mr. and Mrs. JOHN DAVIS, from the Wilmington and other Southern theatres.
Their performances, upon both evenings, stamp them as ornaments to their profession; and with the assistance they receive from Mr. ROGERS, Miss MREDETH, and the rest of the dramatic company, our citizens are now able to witness some of the best dramatic performances that the city of New Berner has been honored with. The liberal patronage that Mr. ROGERS is now receiving induces him to still further strengthen his company, when he will produce a number of tragedies, comedies, and sensation dramas, with a cost equal to, if not superior to that of any theatre outside of New York. MISS DILLINGHAM will open during the coming week, and Mme.
POZZONI about the 1st of January.

This evening will be produced JAMES SHERIDAN KNOWLES' beautiful play of William Tell, and on Tuesday evening the tragedy of Macbeth, the Death of Roll, with Mr. and Mrs. JOHN DAVIS, Mr.
ROGERS and Miss MREDETH in both casts.

Mr. DAVIS brings with him many letters of introduction and commendation to the leading business men and citizens of New Berner, from valued friends elsewhere.

THE COLD SNAP.—The sleet of Saturday night was plainly visible in all its sickness upon the house tops and sidewalks yesterday morning.
There is a probability of snow, if the temperature suits and a snow cloud comes up. It does not snow at all during the winter, it is likely there will be very little or no sleighing done. For the benefit of skaters we would remark that if the Trent or Neuse does not freeze over before next May, there is hardly a probability of their indulging in the favorite amusement during the coming winter. Indeed those streams will not be expected to freeze unless the weather should be sufficiently cold to congeal the water. Should such be the case due notice of the fact will be given, if we find it out in time.

ONE MORE.—One more of the old merchants of New Berner presents his card to the public in this morning's paper. Mr. J. W. BAXTER has opened a well appointed stock of staple dry goods, groceries, provisions, &c., on Pollock street, in the building recently occupied by W. L. POLK as an auction house.

Mr. THOS. WILLIAMS will soon open. He is building a capital new store, on South Front, which, when completed, will be quite an ornament to that portion of the town.

GAS LIGHT COMING.—We were pleased to learn from Mr. JERKINS, President of the gaslight company, on Friday last, that the approach of gas light is near at hand. Nearly all that is now wanting is a full meeting of the stockholders to make some important preliminary arrangements, which it is hoped will be had to-night at the Exchange Rooms across the way. See advertisement.

If any body wants to buy gas stock, let him call on us. We will dispose of a few shares on good terms.

WE WERE MISTAKEN.—Mr. GUSTARELLI was not bound to keep the peace towards anybody except Mr. GEO. EVIE ON.

ALSO ABOUT TAXES.—The rate of taxes levied upon real estate by the county court for the maintenance of the poor is five-eighths of one per cent instead of one-eighth, as we erroneously had it.

CAPT. HEALY, of the People's Line steamer Jupiter, will please accept our thanks for New York papers only two days old.

AUCTION FIRM—POLK and MARSHALL, the two Craven street auctioneers, have united their forces and, in the future, will run the auction business on joint account. They will be hard to compete with, for they are both good talkers and are thoroughly posted in their business.

BULWER LITTON says that a refined gentleman may always be known by the perfumes he uses.
In American society it is recognized as a mark of elevated taste to patronize PALON'S "Night Blooming Cereus." Its purity, freshness, and delicacy commend it to all persons of poetic taste and feeling.—Concord Patriot.      3tawlv.

A TENDER TETE-A-TETE loses half its charms, if the sweet words of either party are not mated with a fragrant breath. Sozonon is the only article that will assure this desideratum by keeping the teeth speckless, the gums healthy, the whole mouth pure and undefiled. It literally embalms the dental substance, preserving it from decay, through life. Use it daily. Will find it a pleasure.      3tawlv.

large Stock of Groceries, Dry Goods, Hardware, Boots and Shoes, Soaps, Candles, &c. His Store is at Pollock Street. Give him a call, as he offers good bargains. Advertisement in another column of this paper.

THE Theatre is crowded nightly. Mr. ROGERS is sparing no pains or expense to make the performances agreeable and interesting. A splendid programme is advertised to come off to-night, and we advise all to go early if they wish to procure a seat, and witness a "good thing."

THE card of G. K. TURNER, M. D., will be found in our paper to-day. His office is at Mrs. SUM-MERS'S on Craven Street.

[REPORTED FOR THE NEW BERNE DAILY TIMES.]

EX-GOV. CORWIN—Washington City—From Mexico, &c.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16th, 1865.—EX-30r. THOS.
CORWIN, formerly United States Senator, and late Minister to Mexico, is in a dying condition.

A proposition is to be introduced into Congress to take away Washington city charter in order to get rid of the question of admitting negroes to citizenship here.

The Mexican Minister has received intelligence to the 10th Gen. Escobedo took Monterey, but was compelled to evacuate it by a strong French force.

HON. B. T. MOORE'S Decision.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16th, 1865.—The President approves the decision made by the Hon. B. T.
MOORE in a late opinion given to the Governor of the Treasurer of the State of North Carolina, to the effect that the late State Convention had no right to impose retrospective taxes—all right Indiana Ra-ifies the Constitutional Amendment.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15th, 1865.—Indiana has officially notified the Secretary of State, to-day, of the ratification of the Constitutional amend-

A Bill to Abolish the Freedmen's Bureau.
Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, had better be looked after by his Radical friends. He has not made such a pother with bills and resolutions as his colleague, Mr. Sumner, the acting charge d'affaires of Divine Providence in this country; but he has laid before the Senate, and means, the telegraph tells us, to "press to an early vote" the following bill for the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau:

Be it enacted, &c., That all laws, statutes, acts, ordinances, rules and regulations of any description whosoever, heretofore in force or held valid in any of the States which were declared to be in insurrection and rebellion by the proclamation of the President of the first of July, 1862, whereby or wherein any inequality of civil rights and immunities among the inhabitants is recognized, authorized, established, or maintained, by reason or in consequence of any distinction or difference of color, race or descent, or by reason or in consequence of a previous condition or status of slavery or involuntary servitude of such inhabitants, be and are hereby declared null and void, and it shall be unlawful to institute, make, ordain or establish in any of the States declared as aforesaid to be in insurrection and rebellion, any such law, statute, act, ordinance, rule, or regulation, or to enforce or to attempt to enforce the same.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That any person who shall violate either of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred, nor exceeding ten thousand dollars, and by imprisonment not less than six months, nor exceeding five years; and it shall be the duty of the President to enforce the provisions of this act.

The direct effect of this bill, if passed into a law, of course, will be to subject all the officials of the Freedmen's Bureau to fine and imprisonment, the regulations enforced by those officials distinctly "recognizing, authorizing, establishing, and maintaining very decided inequalities of civil rights and immunities" between the inhabitants of the lately insurgent States "in consequence of a previous condition of status of slavery or involuntary servitude." Confinement at hard labor in penitentiaries being also a "condition or status" of "involuntary servitude," it would be quite proper and legal for any discharged convict in those States to demand, under this bill, the punishment of registering officers who should refuse him his right to vote wherever a conviction for felony draws with it perpetual disqualification as a citizen, as well as of judicial tribunals for disallowing his competency as a witness. That Senator Wilson should declare in behalf of that much injured class, the criminals who have served out their time, is perhaps intelligible enough. But his motive for assaulting the Freedmen's Bureau in this under-headed subtle way we must leave it to the Radicals to discover for themselves. Why not set Butler, LL.D., upon this cunning Massachusetts Egyptian as a detective?—N. Y. World.

AMERICA AS A POWER.—A London editor, in his leader on American affairs, says: "America's increasing power seems to be an increasing danger to the world."

It is said that there are not less than one hundred thousand absentees from Paris at the present time, in consequence of the cholera. The cash loss to the merchants is fearful.
"Time works wonders," as the lady said when she got married after an eight years' courtship.

The Fenian Explosion.

[From the N. Y. Times.] The Fenian movement in this country was of political birth in this city. It was first a weak organization of ambitious Irishmen, who sought by combination to extort office from the Democratic party. How far it was successful in its political schemes in this city, the schemes of Tammany, the leaders of Mozzart, and the disciples of the impetuous McKoon may know; but, if they were aware that the Fenian Brotherhood have ever dictated terms to any wing of the Democracy here, they do disclose the fact.

The circle in this city struggled many months in obscurity; but at length its emissaries wrought the Irish immigrants up to enthusiasm in a new crusade against what the Fenian leaders style the despotism of the British Crown, and the movement soon became of far greater moment than its leader, the adventurous John O'Mahony, had expected. Circle after circle was formed in every part of the United States and in the Canadas, until at length nine hundred circles, of from 100 to 500 Irish Americans each, were in daily communication with the circles in the Department of Manhattan. It was understood that the British Lion was to be fought, and that the confront was inevitably to result in untold blessings to the Isle of Erin. Money, of course, was required; there was no lack of that; it flowed into the coffers of the Treasurer with marvelous rapidity, until so large a sum had been accumulated that it was inconvenient to handle, and the establishment of a large bureau became necessary. And hence grew the Fenian Government, with its President and Cabinet and Executive mansion in Union square.

But scarcely had President O'Mahony taken his seat in the luxurious quarters near the Everett House, when a large body of the Fenian Brotherhood, impatient of the seeming delay of the leaders, began to inquire why the leaders did not make immediate preparations for the shock of war, and seriously to doubt whether it was really intended ever to fight.

Then followed what President O'Mahony's adherents style the conspiracy in Chicago to depose him and put another in his place. But the real conspiracy, as we hear, was a movement in the direction of depriving him of the absolute power which he exercised as Head Centre. He was first reduced to a mere Presidency, responsible to a supervisory council; and then the Senate was created, with authority to impeach and to appoint at pleasure. The result may be seen in the following:

REPEAL OF THE ARTICLES OF IMPEACHMENT.
John O'Mahony, President of the Fenian Brotherhood, is hereby impeached for perjury and malfeasance in office on the following grounds: CHARGE 1.—Violation of his oath of office.

Specification 1.—In that he, the said John O'Ma-hony, when duly notified of the assembling of the Senate of the Fenian Brotherhood, has refused to recognize or communicate with said Senate on the affairs of the Fenian Brotherhood.

Specification 2.—In that he, the said John O'Ma-hony, has refused the Senate Finance Committee all opportunity of inspecting the books of account or investigating the condition of the receipts and expenditures of the financial department.

hony, in violation of the Constitution of the Fenian Brotherhood, has placed in official position at headquarters, at salaries paid out of the funds of the Fenian Brotherhood, parties whose names, when submitted to the Senate, were rejected by that body.

Specification 4.—In that he, the said JOHN O'Mahony, in violation of the provisions of the constitution, has usurped to himself, and without consent or confirmation by the Senate, the position of Agent of the Irish Republic, to which a salary of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) a year is attached.

O'Mahony, in violation of the constitution, has caused to be printed and issued bonds, purporting to be bonds of the Irish Republic, and has circulated the same, notwithstanding the constitution provides that no such bonds shall be valid unless signed by the Agent of the Irish Republic.

O'Mahony, has improperly and unconstitutionally withheld from the Treasurer of the Fenian Brotherhood, Patrick O'Rourke, the greater portion of the moneys received on account of the Fenian Brotherhood since the Philadelphia Congress.

O'Mahony, in violation of Art. 11, Section 3 of the constitution, has wastefully expended the moneys of the Fenian Brotherhood in the extravagantly hiring and furnishing a mansion in Union square, New York city, paying for the same eighteen months in advance.

O'Mahony, did pay out of the funds of the Fenian Brotherhood the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) as a guarantee against damages to the aforesaid mansion, thus locking up such sum of money for eighteen months, and risking the loss of the whole, though ample security in such case could have been given, had such been deemed legitimate or necessary.

Specification 10.—In that he, the said JOHN O'Mahony, has aided and abetted Bernard Doran Killian, Secretary of the Treasury of the Fenian Brotherhood, now under impeachment by the Senate of the Fenian Brotherhood, in the various misdeeds and malfeasances with which the said Bernard Doran Killian is charged.

O'Mahony, has arbitrarily forbidden the Secretary of War of the Fenian Brotherhood to communicate with the Senate of the Fenian Brotherhood, and has threatened the said Secretary of War with instant removal if he held communication, either personally or through his subordinates, with the Senate of the Fenian Brotherhood, while sitting in session.

CHARGE 2.—Calumniating the C. E. of the I. R.
CHARGE 3.—Calumniating the Senate and members of the Fenian Brotherhood.

CHARGE 4.—Perjury, in impeaching the objects of the Fenian Brotherhood.
John O'Mahony being found guilty on all the charges and specifications, the following was the judgment of the court: That John O'Mahony, being found guilty of the foregoing charges and specifications, be deposed from the office of President of the Fenian Brotherhood and declared incapable of holding office hereafter. Signed, Wm. Sullivan, P. O'Rourke, Michael Scamlan, W. E. Roberts,
P. Bannon, P. J. Mahan, W. Fleming, Ed. L. Carey,
W. Fitzgerald, Judge Advocate.
JAMES GIBBONS, President of Court.
Wm. J. HYNES, Clerk.

Feared Doran Killian, Secretary of the Treasury of the Fenian Brotherhood, was also, by a like document, impeached and deposed, for alleged "perjury and malfeasance in office."

The Senators were under the following oath in the trial of Bernard Doran Killian and John O'Mahony:
OATH—I solemnly swear that I will do justice between the Fenian Brotherhood and all such parties and causes as may be brought before this court, and that I will give an impartial verdict in no decision regarding all such parties and causes.

THE FENIAN CONGRESS, which has been called by President O'Mahony, will not, it is alleged, assemble in obedience to his mandate; for the call was made subsequent to his formal deposition, and the appointment of Mr. William E. Roberts as his successor, and President Roberts has revoked the summons which President O'Mahony sent to each of the nine hundred delegates. This is the showing of President Roberts' adherents. They allege that the House of delegates cannot legally meet before the time for their annual session in September next, and that, moreover, that body has no power in any event over the new-made President.
They further allege that the O'Mahony meeting, which was reported by telegraph from Philadelphia to yesterday morning's newspapers, was a meeting of no significance whatever, called and engineered by a few persons who are in receipt of salaries from the Union Square headquarters, and whose sole object was to get a report of proceedings in Mr. O'Mahony's behalf in the great morning journals of New York.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE FENIAN HOUSE have also been busy, particularly in the Department of Manhattan, where their great strength is supposed to lie, and one of the first of their acts has been the convening of the Hamilton Rowan Circle, and the ignominious expulsion therefrom of Messrs. William E. Roberts, Patrick O'Rourke, and Patrick Keenan, under resolutions affirming that the three have been "enemies to the good and welfare of the noble principles" which the Brotherhood advocate—in short, that they have been traitors. In addition to this action we also note the following laconic order which was promulgated yesterday by President O'Mahony: GENERAL ORDER NO. 1, NEW SERIES.—Orders on military affairs of the Brotherhood will be disregarded, if not approved by the undersigned.
Brothers, beware!

JOHN O'MAHONY, President F. B. I.
THE RESULT.
It is believed by the body which sits at the Jones House that there must necessarily, for some time hence, be two organizations in this city, but that at length the Irish American public will lose confidence in the Union square organization, and that President O'Mahony & Co., after a brief career of contention, with waning funds, retire from the field, leaving President Roberts indisputably at the head of the Fenian Brotherhood in America.

No Use For Trousers.

On the morning of the meteor shower, in 1832, old Peyton Roberts, who intended making an early start to his work, got up in the midst of the display. On going to his door, he saw, with amazement, the sky lit up with the falling meteors, and he concluded at once that the world was on fire and the day of judgment had come.
He stood for a moment gazing in speechless terror at the scene, and then, with a yell of horror, sprang out of the door, right in the midst of the falling stars, and there, in his effort to dodge them, he commenced a series of ground tumbling that would have done honor to a rope dancer.
His wife, being awakened in the meantime, secured Peyton jumping and skipping about the yard, bawled out to him to know, "what in the name of common sense he was doing out there dancin' around without his clothes on?" But Peyton heard not. The judgement had long back accounts he would have to settle, made him heedless of all terrestrial things, and his wife, by this time becoming alarmed by his behavior, sprang out of bed, and running to the door, shook at the top of her lungs:
"Peyton! I say, Peyton, what do you mean jumping about that? Come in and put your trousers on!"
"Trousers! What the d—!—s the use of trousers when the world's on fire?"

The other night an inquest was held in London on the body of a man "who thought nothing of drinking two or three pints of rum at a time.

Some thirty or forty copper veins, some of them extending several miles, have been discovered at Starksboro', Vt., and steps are being taken to work them.

"John, why don't you stop crying and go to sleep? What do you want?"
"I've got the beller-ache, that's what I want."

DR. PALMER gives personal attention to the business of his profession, aided by men of the best qualifications and greatest experience. He is specially commissioned by the GOVERNMENT, and has the patronage of the prominent Officers of the Army and Navy. Six Major-Generals and more than a thousand less distinguished officers and soldiers have worn the PALMER LIMBS on active duty, while still greater numbers of eminent civilians are, by their aid, filling important positions, and effectually conceal their misfortune.
Advice and Pamphlets Gratis.
To avoid the imposition of spurious Copies, the agent, apply only to DR. PALMER, as above directed, or to his Agent,
