THE WILMINGTON JOURNAL, -Maj. J. A. ENGLE-HAEDT, a gentleman well and favorably known throughout this State and Virginia, las become associated with Mr. A. L. PRICE, in the editorial conduct of the Wilmington Journal. This paper is one of our most reliable cotemporaries, and the style in which it is printed is surpassed by no journal in the country. The addition of Maj. E. to its editorial staff, will add one more to its other attractions. We wish four cotemporary an abundance of patronage.

TALL STEALING .- On Sunday night last, it being known that the police force was "sorter on duty and sorter not, but a little more sorter not than sorter," some of the most daring, outlandish and unheard of roguery was perpetrated in our town that it has been our misfortune to chronicle yet.

We refrain from giving the cases in question at present, from prudential reasons, but will give particulars when the guilty parties shall have been apprehended and the property secured, as, no doubt, they will be, in a few days.

Masonic.—Under the appropriate head will be found a masonic notice extending an invitation to all masons, when in the city, whether members or not, to visit St. John's Lodge during its sittings, which will be on each Thursday evening, besides the regular communication on the first Wednesday of each month.

Without boasing, we may say that the Fraternitg have the most elegant hall, in this city, to be found any where in the South, if not in the United Stafes, and its officers are as bright Masons as are met with in any country.

No Mart. - The train from the West failed to arrive yes er lay until after the hour had arrived fer closing the Post office, and consequently, we are without our usual State news, and regular Northern exchanges. We knocked several times at the door of the Post office for enterance, but it opened not.

We did not even learn the cause of the deten-

Public Spirred.-We learned from Mayor Hough, yesterday, that several of the most prominent merchants of our town complained at the reduction made in the taxes on business, and insisted on paying the same monthly fee as hertofore. This we denominate public-spirited.

In this connection, we will be pardoned for calling attention to several notices from the city clerk this morning bearing upon this wonderfally annoying subject of taxes.

Gaston House, on South Front Street, has a very fine lot of Diaries for 1866, which he sells cheap for cash. He also keeps a good supply of Stationery, Dry Goods, Groceries, &c. Give him a TEMPERATURE. - The mercury in our office, yesterday morning, was only a very small fraction above zero, and was the coldest weather we recollect ever to have seen in this latitude; not so cold as it has been, however, for these rivers have been frozen over a time or two within the last hundred years.

HALLECK'S words, "None know thee but to love thee; none name thee but to praise," may be fairly applied to Phalon's Night Blooming Cereus." No one who once use the perfume ever relinquishes it, and rosy lips are never weary of commending and re-commending it .- Norwich

Household Words .- Delicious, refreshing, purifying, preservative, indispensable, exquisite, are the terms applied to the famous Sozodont, in thousands of households every day. And why? Simply because all the virtues mendaciously claimed for other dentifrices, actually exist in this wonderful preparation.

Marriage of a Countess and "Fast" English NOBLEMAN. —The Countess Dudley, just married one of the richest noblemen of England, Lord Ward, now Earl Dudley, was the belle of Compeigne. Her beauty, toilet, and jewels eclipsed all there, making even the Empress jealous. She is described as tall, fine features, exquisite figure, twenty, and amiable. Her husband has dissipated in every capital in Europe, been angled for for twenty-five years by ambitious mammas of handsome daughters, and has protected more ballet girls and actresses than any man on the continent. He surprised everybody by choosing his bride from a poor but good family, and endowing her with the most liberal gifts. One of the celebrations of his marriace was a free permission to every tenant on his estates to shoot game during the winter, on the condition that he should not cell it. The Earl is well preserved. he should not sell it. The Earl is well preserved, so advised. considering the life he has led, and is styled Hubbell is reported to have been a fast exhandsome yet.

XXXIX Congress.

Washington, Jan. 9.—House.—Voorhees made speech endorsing the President's policy of reconstruction, and combatting the views of Stevens-that the Southern States by war had ceased to exist. He contended that the war having cased, obedience to the laws was the only guarantee to representation, and, in conclusion, expressed himself against the doctrine of protection to domestic manufactures.

Bingham replied to Voorhees, declaring that the sentiment he uttered was such as kept alive rebellion, and asserting that the President was in accord with Congress.

The Mexican Question.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The President transmit ted reports to the House of Representatives, to day, in response to a resolution of that body Diaries. -Mr. C. P. Loomis, one door east of relative to Mexican affairs. They embrace much diplomatic correspondence on the subject, and are mainly to the effect of indisposition on the part of the United States to recognize any other government in Mexico excepting the republic presided over by Juarez, with which we have so long been on terms of amity and friendship."

A Railroud Seized by the State for Default in the Payment of Interest-A Protest.

Sr. Louis, Jan. 3, 1866. Governor Fletcher took possession to-day of he St. Joe and Atchison and the Atchison and Western Railroad, known as the Platte County Road, in consequence of default in the payment to the State of $300,000 and interest, according to the law of the Missouri Legislature passed last winter, under which the roads were sold to Messrs. Stringfellow, Osborne, Carpenter, and Burns, and providing for the forfeiture of them to the State if the above payment was not made on the first of January.

The Governor has appointed a State agent to operate the roads until they can be sold again, pursuant to law.

The ejected parties have entered a protest against the action of the Governor, but the Legislature will probably indorse it.

ST. ALBANS, Vt., Jan. 4, 1866.

The singular disappearance of Mr. Hubbell, the Cashier of the Mississquol Bank, Sheldon, Vt., is at last accounted for. He turns out to be a defaulter in a large sum. The amount is stated as high as $75,000. His embezzlements began years ago, but have been so covered by false entries and false foot-travagant liver, his expenses exceeding those of almost any man in Franklin County. His the little P. O. Box 266, Baltimore, Md. whereabouts are still unknown by the officers of DEATH AS A DEMOCRAT—Death is in restity the only democrat upon the earth who is no respector of person. His democracy is sublime. You cannot buy, him for gold, not bribe him by office. He enters the palace and the hovel with the same imperial dignity. The maiden with the raven tresses, and the old man with the silvered hairs he greets with equal benignity. The vigorous and the strong, the sickly and the emaciated receive equal favors. Your consumptive and weaklurged patient, as well as your giant with the NEW BERNE, January 9, 1866. Like the sun that lights up the heavens, this pale ghost of the grave showers his gifts upon the rich and poor, the famous and the obscure, with equal courtesy. The humblest peasant girl is to him as noble a victum as the most beautiful queen. He calls for sacrifices within the sacred sanctuaries of the churcif, and with equal composure knocks at the door of the brothel. Color and creed, race and religion are alike to him. Death knows no selfishness. What a grand subject would the De-mocracp of Death make an eloquent divine. One Virginia Bank Notes, about..... South Carolina cannot write on such a theme. The words, phrases, sentences and thoughts should come gushing from the soul, warm with vigorous life—come like the lightnings fiash, and the roar of thunder be in harmony with a text so sublime.
