New Berne Daily Times.

SATURDAY MORNING, JAN. 20, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Post Office, New Berne, N. C.,
November 6, 1865.

The mail will close, Sundays excepted, as follows:
Goldboro, Raleigh, and all points South and West at 11.00 A. M.
Roanoke, Elizabeth City, Edenton, and Plymouth, N. C., Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 1.00 P. M.
Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Norfolk, and all points North and East at 4.00 P. M.
Office open from 8.30 A. M. to 5 P. M. All letters to be delivered in the United States, including drop letters, must be prepaid, or they will be sent to dead letter office, unless addressed to Heads of Bureaus at Washington, D. C. GEO. W. NASON, Jr., P. M.

LAWLESSNESS.—Night before last, three men made a raid upon the premises of a Mr. TREBETS, about 5 miles from this city, beyond the Trent, and after knocking him down, took every thing portable to be found on the place. They broke him up in provisions, clothing, furniture and bedding, completely. They were armed with revolvers, and he thinks they were white men with their faces and hands blacked.

ANOTHER SCHOOL.—The Rev. Mr. FORBES, rector of Christ Church, proposes the opening of a school for males and females, in the New Berne Academy, about the middle of next month. An erroneous impression having obtained in regard to the kind of school it is intended to be, we have the authority to state that it will not be sectarian. Whilst every effort will be made to improve the scholars by moral and religious training, only the children of his parish will be taught the doctrines of the Episcopal Church. The worshiper at the Catholic altar may send his son or his daughter there and the religion of the parent will be scrupulously respected. The Presbyterian, the Baptist or the Methodist, who chooses to patronize the institution will have their children taught to respect the peculiar tenets of the denomination to which the mother or father may lean.

FOR THE LAST TIME.—The beautiful Drama of "Guy Rimerling," with Miss DILLINGHAM as My Meriliss, will be placed before the stage again this evening, and for the last time. Every effort will be made by the Stage Manager, MR. JOHN DAVIS, to give striking scenic and stage effect to this piece. The little drawbacks incident to its first presentation have been overcome by patient study on the part of the members of the Company, and we have no doubt the piece will be well played to-night. The charming music incident to the piece, given by Mrs. Pozzoni, is alone worth the price of admission, to say nothing of Mr. ROGERS as Don Sampson.

PARTIES possessing capital will find a rare chance for investment if they will go to Captain WHEELER'S office this morning, and follow POALK round in his professional wanderings during the day. Government buildings are to be sold, and even the lumber of which they are constructed will be valuable to the purchaser. The sale is positive, and if somebody doesn't make money it is somebody's fault. See the advertisement.

WILL SAIL.—Steamer Ellen S. Terry, will sail this P. M., at 5 o'clock for New York, with cotton and naval stores from W. H. OLIVER & Co.

SUPREME COURT.—His Honor Judge READ is qualified on yesterday. Hon. RICHMOND M. FRANKSON was appointed Chief Justice. The appointment of Reporter was postponed until the 31st inst.

Gen. Robt. D. Johnson, of Mecklenburg, is admitted to practice law in the County Courts.—Raleigh Standard.

A sermon will be preached at the Methodist Church on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, especially to young men.

POSTPONED.—The sale of lot No. 23, advertised by Mr. H. A. BROWN to take place to-day, has been postponed.

REMEMBER IN THE HOUR OF NEED, that those famous remedies prepared by HELMBOLD are sold at MENNINGER'S Drug Store.

FOUNDLING.—On the 10th instant, about nine o'clock at night, as Mrs. Polly Taylor and her family, residing near Grimsley's Church, in Greene county, were seated in the house, a noise like the crying of an infant was heard outside the door, and upon opening the door, a white female infant, entirely naked, was found on the steps. The neighbors and a physician was called in, and upon examination the child was found to be badly burned or baked on one side, as if it had been placed near a fire for the purpose of destroying it, but, it is thought, its cries softened the hearts even of the inhuman wretches connected with the affair, and induced them to take it from the fire to dispose of in some other way. The physician thought it to be about three days old. The poor little outcast was dressed and cared for by the kind family into whose hands it had thus fallen, and, our informant says, it is likely to do well. The neighbors think the parents, or rather the mother, does not reside near the neighborhood, but that the infant was brought from a distance to the place where it was left. The heart sickens at the contemplation of such a deed, and shows to what depths of crime poor weak human nature is capable of descending when once the steps are turned to the paths of shame.—Raleigh Standard.

The counterfeits of foreign perfumery pay but a poor compliment to the sagacity and taste of American ladies, if they expect them to buy their stimulated "extracts," when Phalon's "Night-Blooming Cereus"—the finest article of the kind in any country—is obtainable everywhere.—Appleton Crescent.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE.—On Friday of last week, a negro man, whose name we did not learn, was shot and instantly killed by a Mrs. BALL, living in the edge of Warren county, near Henderson depot, under the following circumstances, as we gathered them from one who professed to be acquainted with the facts. Mrs. BALL went into the kitchen, one day last week, in which the negro had been staying, and found a number of articles belonging to a lady's wardrobe, including a fine cloth cloak, silk dresses, and other articles. Thinking the negro had not come fairly by the things, she took them into the house, and when he returned she informed him that he could not have them unless he explained how he came by them. The negro left, but returned on Friday, in company with a youth by the name of WILLIAM HENDRICK, and having an order for the clothing, purporting to be given him by some Federal officer. He was armed with a rifle, and when he reached the yard fence and told her his business, she ordered him not to approach the house, whereupon young HENDRICK jumped over the fence and told the negro to come on, when they both approached the door, the negro using profane and threatening language. They entered the house, and the white boy caught down the gun of Mr. BALL, who was from home at the time. Mrs. BALL seized the gun at the same time and a scuffle ensued, during which, at one time, the gun was taken from her, but she seized it again, while in the hands of the negro, and as he was trying to get the muzzle of his own gun in a position to shoot her, she cocked the gun he was trying, at the same time to wrest from her, and pulled the trigger just as the muzzle was pointing at his neck. The result was as stated—he was instantly killed.

A coroner's jury was summoned, and rendered a verdict of justifiable homicide. The young man, HENDRICK, we understand, has decamped from the neighborhood.—Raleigh Standard.

DON'T FORGET.—If country merchants want bargains they should bear in mind that HURT & HARE are selling off at cost.

IMPERISHABLE TEETH.—Can the teeth be rendered imperishable? Unquestionably they can. SOZODONT, used daily, will render the enamel absolutely proof against decay, harden the gums and expel from the whole dental apparatus every offensive and pernicious element. Staw

[REPORTED FOR THE NEW BERNE DAILY TIMES.]

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

He Recommends the Early Appointment of Civil Magistrates.

HE REVIEWS THE CONDITION OF THE STATE BANKS.

HOW THE STATE DEBT SHOULD BE PAID.

etc., etc., etc.

RALEIGH, Jan. 19.—Gov. Worth's message was read before the General Assembly to-day.

He recommends the early appointment of magistrates, and that all acts of Provisional Clerks and Sheriffs, performed since the Provisional Governor was relieved, be made null and void, by those confirmed by the Legislature.

He recommends that the Attorney General have a fixed salary, and reside at the Capitol, and not be required to ride the circuit.

He also recommends that all laws passed during the war, unsuited to the present condition, or in conflict with the allegiance or with the Constitution of the State or United States, be repealed.

The Governor hopes that the time is not distant when the United States will perceive that we are ready to perform all our obligations to the National Government, and advises the adoption of an intelligible Judicious Militia Code, and the re-organization of the militia of the State.

He reviews the condition of the banks, and advises an amendment to the charters of banks and railroads, and to allow them to take stock in the National Banks. The State debt, exclusive of the war debt, is near fourteen and half millions; and he advises the issue and sale of State bonds to pay the interest of the State debt—taxes to meet the liabilities of the State would be more than double the former taxes, and more than the people in impoverished condition could pay. The Governor would not be understood as being dependent in relation to State affairs.

He says we must rely chiefly upon our virtue and persevering industry, and says we must protect the laborer and punish vagrants. The Governor says when the legislature shall have appointed Justices of the Peace, and the courts are restored, the machinery of the civil government will be about complete. He recommends a stay law for the benefit of debtors, if a constitutional mode can be devised. Governor Worth thinks there is no necessity for continuing the Freedmen's Bureau after the jurisdiction of the courts is restored, as the blacks can get justice from the courts, and prevent a conflict of authority. He refers the legislature to the commission appointed by the Convention to review the code touching the blacks; he makes no specific recommendations, but leaves the matter with the assembly. He refers to the collection of taxes by Federal officers, and regrets that our Senators and Representatives have not been admitted, and closes as follows: I pray God that a returning sense of patriotism and justice will ere long correct the prejudice of the times, and carry out the wise system so successfully begun and perfected, so far as is dependent on the executive authority for the restoration of the State to a constitutional and harmonious Union, and that he will inspire all of us with the wisdom and disposition to do right.

XXXIX Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Senate.—The credentials of Mr. Morvin, Senator elect from Florida, were presented and ordered to be laid on the table.

A bill enlarging the powers of the Freedmen's Bureau was discussed, and an amendment was adopted making valid for three years, instead of forever, as in the original bill, the title of lands given negroes by orders issued at Savannah, by Gen. Sherman, last winter.

House.—Mr. Deering, of Connecticut, made a speech maintaining that the Government has a right to hold and treat with the Southern States as conquered rebels. He said the loyalty there was of little value, the submission of the people being from necessity. He mentioned a series of guarantees which ought to be exacted of them before they shall be allowed a representation, including perfect equality of the blacks before the law with the whites.

Mr. Smith, of Kentucky, endorsed the President's restoration policy, and denied that the Southern States were ever out of the Union, and claimed now that they are obedient to the law, they ought to be represented.

Adjourned till Monday.

From Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The New York Herald's Mexican dispatch reports the arrival of the French Admiral, Didelot, to confer with Bazino on relations of France, Mexico, and the United States. It is rumored that a large squadron will follow, for objects which are variously stated.

Tolacco, the ancient capital of the Empire, has been taken by the Liberals.
