mails.

BUSINESS NOTICE.—From and after this date, all transient advertising and job work must be paid for promptly, when the order is handed in.
The expense and trouble of collecting little bills is so great that we are driven to this necessity.
This rule of course will not apply to regular monthly advertising patrons.

habits, not over fourteen years old and can read well, to learn the printers trade. Apply at this office. If

MAYOR'S COURT.

Wednesday, April 18th.—Before His Honor, Mayor WASHINGTON:

F. S. Bangert, for peddling without license, was released on condition that he would procure them.

Nathan Edwards, colored, for jumping over the wall of the city cemetery, fined $5.

FINE PICTURES.—We noticed some albatypes yesterday at Mr. O. J. SMITH's gallery, on Pollok street, which for delicacy of finish and life-like appearance, excelled anything we have ever seen gotten up in this latitude. Any one having a taste for examining specimens of the fine art, can be gratified in part, at least, by calling in the reception rooms of either, Mr. SMITH on Pollok, or Mr. HENWOOD on Craven street, for they are both excellent artists.

TAKEN OFF.—We are sorry to learn that the steamer El Cid had been taken off the Goodspeed line, and will run to Richmond, Va., for the present. The Terry will continue her regular trips to this port, and the El Cid will again be put on as soon as business will justify.

IMMIGRATION.—Quite a number of the mechanics and other citizens of this place have left for Illinois, and others are contemplating a removal.
They are industrious, good citizens, but the situation so straitens them that they have determined to seek a better country. We cannot blame them. There are others, not quite so fond of work as they are, who would do well to follow their example, if they would go to work. Indeed, new scenes, new society, would spur them, and the result would be good.—Raleigh Sentinel.

RAILROAD CASUALTIES.

Serious Accident on Long Island—The Result of Recklessness.

At Lakeland, on Long Island, yesterday, a Bohemian lad, about 14 years of age, attempted to jump on a train of cars while it was running slowly, when he missed his hold and the wheels went over both his legs, cutting one off about the knee, the other at the foot.

Mr. McLeish made a temporary tourniquet to stop the flow of blood till surgical assistance could be procured to perform amputation. Dr.
King, of Brooklyn, a passenger on the train, said Mr. McL. had done all that could be accomplished without instruments; but it was thought the lad could live but a short time.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT WILMINGTON, VT.

Early yesterday morning, on the Vermont Central Road, near Williston, where a bridge crosses a carriage-way, there was burned the previous night, a train ran into the chasm, and five cars were piled one upon another into the gap, in a badly wrecked condition. A Frenchman, name unknown, was instantly killed. The conductor was seriously injured in the spine, and lies in a helpless condition. Six or eight others were more or less hurt, one or two quite seriously but not fatally.

Shipwrecks Reported During the Month of March.

The loss of shipping during the past winter has been greater than that reported in any winter in our history, and the stormy month of March swells the record up to four millions of dollars in gold, the value of the vessels alone, exclusive of their cargoes, which have been wrecked or are missing in a single month. Of these 30 were American and 3 foreigners, bound to or from United States ports, in which American citizens were interested. Four steamers, 2 ships, 7 barges, 1 brig and 19 schooners comprise the list, and of these 19 were wrecked, 3 abandoned, 5 burned, 4 foundered, and 4 are missing. Their cargoes probably amounted to at least $2,000,000, total, a large amount to be destroyed in a single month. These losses show the extent of our commerce, and the resources of our insurance offices to meet such losses, for we suppose that two-thirds of all this was covered by insurance.

According to the Florida papers there are thousands of negro children in that State being educated by their employers, who were formerly slaveholders.

FROM OUR MORNING EDITION.

FIRE.—The denizens of our city were aroused from their apathy—occasioned by the gloomy weather of the past two days—by the alarm of fire about four o'clock yesterday afternoon. Our well regulated, prompt and efficient firemen were early upon the spot, and by their skill soon had control of the flames, thereby keeping the fire from communicating with other buildings which were in close proximity to the one on fire, which was a small untenanted wooden building in the neighborhood of the North Carolina and Atlantic Railroad Depot.

The following was communicated on the same subject:

"The fire department was on the ground early —the hook and ladder first. There was a case non com (mensheut). The arrival of the steam engine convinced the citizens that they were able to control the fire in its original building. The steam engine poured profusely on the fire as well as on the small sable race, moving contagion beyond a doubt on the part of those present.
Capt. JOE MYERS, having the pipe of the fire engine, is entitled to all credit for the sanitary measure. The hook and ladder company performed feats for which there was not opportunity to give them credit. Mr. POLZ exhibited courage when others failed to make a hook fast.
Credit to the hook and ladder company.
"A LOOKER ON."

EXCITEMENT ON CRAVEN STREET.—Yesterday afternoon there was quite an excitement on Craven street, in consequence of an affray between two small bureau-knobs. There was quite a promiscuous crowd gathered around, and these two chaps were encouraged by various persons present. They showed that there was real courage hid under their black exterior, and but for the interference of one of our most respected citizens, we have no doubt but one or the other of the chaps would have been whipped.

SPRING.—All nature is wide awake. Winter no longer stalks abroad over our land pelting with her fierce unfriendly blasts, the unprotected heads of thousands of widows and orphans who now gladly raise their hearts in thanks to Him who ruleth, for the return of a season of bright days and genial sunshine. Again the icy fetters of Grim Winter have been forced by balmy breezes to loose their hold on the vegetable kingdom, and nature has again robed herself with the fresh tinted robes of beauty and loveliness.

The dark cloud hangs for a moment like a pall o'er the face of the waiting thirsty earth, and then the rain falls in torrents, but ere we can second the scene with our sluggish hand, it is changed. The clouds disperse, the rain ceases, and the bright, warm generating rays of the sun kiss the countless rain-drops that lingeringly cling and sparkle on the tips of leaves and buds of flowers. The birds come forth, and with their sweet notes gladden the heart of man. Who can look around on this bright world and not admire the works of Nature? And who can appreciatingly admire and not be led by them to admire and adore Nature's God?

Builder, &c. Persons who may want work done in his line will do well to give him a call, as he warrants satisfaction.

Applications for Pardon.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—It has been reliably ascertained that applications have been made and are now pending for pardon by eighty-six ex-members of the Rebel Congress and one hundred and thirty-two ex-graduates of West Point, but who served in the Rebel army; one hundred and twenty-seven Rebel Generals, including Bragg, Longstreet, Beauregard, and several of the Lees; also thirty-two prominent ex-Rebel officers and one hundred and sixteen ex-United States naval officers who held positions in the Confederate service.

Adjournment of the Pennsylvania Leg- islature.

HARRISBURG, April 13.—The Pennsylvania Legislature adjourned sine die yesterday, after unanimously adopting resolutions of thanks on behalf of the State to Gov. Curtin for his fidelity to the interests of the country during the recent rebellion. Every member voted "Yes," and the result was received with loud and prolonged cheering.

Political Affairs at Fredericksburg, N. B.

FREDERICKSBURG, N. B., April 13.—The resignation of the anti-confederate administration was accepted unconditionally by Gov. Gordon yesterday.
No new administration has yet been formed.
The House of Assembly has adjourned until Monday, to give the incoming party time to organize.

Do all in your power to teach your children self-government. If a child is passionate, teach him, by gentle and patient means, to curb his temper. If he is greedy, cultivate liberality in him. If he is selfish, promote generosity. If he is sulky, charm him out of it by encouraging frank, good humor. If he is indolent, accustom him to exertion, and train him to perform even onerous duties with alacrity. If pride comes in to make his obedience reluctant, subdue him either by counsel or discipline. In short, give your children the habit of overcoming their besetting sins.

Presentation to an Editor.

New York, April 10.—A magnificent gold watch, gold chain, and a book, the latter containing a complimentary address, were presented to Mr. Frederick Hudson, managing editor of the Gerald, last evening, by his associates in the editorial department, as a testimonial of their appreciation of his eminent abilities as an editor and his urbanity, courtesy and gentlemanly qualities. Mr. Hudson replies from his arduous post for a season for the benefit of his health.

Test Case under the Civil Rights Bill.

A dispatch from Lafayette, Indiana, announces the first case involving the test of the Civil Rights bill, as follows:

A colored man named Barnes brought suit against a prominent citizen to enforce a contract. The defendant, for an answer, set up that the negro came into the State in violation of the 18th article of the Constitution of the State of Indiana, which, under pains and penalties, prohibits negroes from coming into the State, and debars them from all rights to enforce contracts, &c.

The plaintiff demurred to the answer, maintaining that the 18th article is void and of no effect, because: 1. It is in contravention of the letter and spirit of the constitution of the United States. 2. It is in direct conflict with the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery. 3. It is void under the first section of the Civil Rights bill, which gives to all persons born in the United States full right to make and enforce contracts, any law, statute, ordinance, regulation or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

The first two points of the demurrer are not worth consideration. The statute of Indiana has been in the Code of that State from time immemorial, and its conflict with the Constitution of the United States has never been suggested heretofore. And the Constitutional amendment abolishing slavery simply abrogates servitude, and prohibits its re-establishment.

The third point will be sustained by the Court, for the reason that an adverse decision will subject the Judge, under the second section of the Civil Rights Bill, to a penalty of $1,000 fine and imprisonment. But it by no means follows, therefore, that the 18th article of the Indiana Constitution is "void." An appeal will doubtless be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States, and we feel sure that that tribunal, notwithstanding the radical proclivities of Chase and his late extra-judicial opinion, will hold the Civil Rights Bill to be unconstitutional.
We are glad that this test-case has been originated in Indiana. It will thus go before the highest tribunal in the land, untrammelled by any of the prejudices which would attach to a similar case emanating from one of the Southern States.— Richmond Sentinel.

Madame Pozzoni is taking quite a circuit. The Salisbury North Star has the following:

MADAME CARLOTTA POZZONI.—The above-named lady will commence a series of concerts in our city commencing Friday, April 20th.
Madame Pozzoni has delighted the citizens of Newbern during the past winter months, and has just concluded a most brilliant engagement of fifteen nights in Wilmington. She will be assisted by Mr. H. B. Coy, Baritone, and Messrs.
Worsley and Beardon, on the piano and violin.

She was advertised to sing in the city of Raleigh last night.

Retirement of an Editor.

Nat Tyler, one of the editors of the Richmond Enquirer, takes his leave of that paper in the following manner:

"On yesterday I received an 'order,' by command of Major General Turner, to 'forward by mail or carrier to Major General Terry, commanding the Department of Virginia, a copy of each issue of the Richmond Enquirer on the day of the publication of the same.' 'Each issue' of the Enquirer is my private property, and should be paid for by those who desire to read it.
If I do not comply with this order my paper will be suppressed; if I do comply with it, my property is taken from me without compensation. I know of no right of law under which Lieutenant General Grant, or Major General Terry, or Brigadier General Turner, has the right to direct that copies of newspapers shall be sent to their headquarters. As soon, therefore, as I read the late order of General Grant, I determined that I would no longer remain connected with the press—where neither its liberty nor its property were safe from General orders. A week's absence from the city has prevented the announcement of my retiring.
Hoping that the days of 'General Orders' will soon pass away, I close my connection with the Enquirer, wishing its readers a speedy return of the happy day and prosperous country which we all enjoyed when that connection began."

Daring Outrage.

We are informed that about one o'clock last night, the proprietor of a restaurant opposite the Montague House, on Davy street, was called up by heavy knocking at his front door. On opening it, a burly negro made application for a quart of liquor, and when Mr. M. M. Shoffman stooped to draw it, he was struck with a heavy stick of wood and felled to the floor. The blow was not, however, sufficient to stun him and he cried out lustily for help. His vociferations had the desired effect, producing instant retreat on the part of his assailant, who has not since been heard from. The rascal who made the attack was accompanied by others, who, like their leader, escaped. It is believed that Mr. S. will be able to identify the would-be-murderer, and measures have already been taken to effect his arrest.
This is one of the grossest outrages which has happened in our city for a long time.—Rail. Progress.

Pennsylvania will have to pay as her share of the Freedmen's Bureau for the current year one million five hundred thousand dollars.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE GREAT NEED SUPPLIED!!!

Pills have been swallowed in millions. Salves have been rubbed in by the pound. Dr. MAG-GIE's two grand specifics are putting an end to this wholesale system of medication. One of his famous pills is a dose. A box of his healing salve is of more value, as a remedy for ulcers and eruptive diseases, than a ships cargo of the Ointments advertised to cure everything, but are all, in fact, either useless or deleterious.
Dr. MAGGIE's motto is concentration. He has placed in the smallest compass the active principle of the most potent vegetable specifics. There is no mineral in his Pills—they do not gripe—they do not enfeeble. They create a vigorous appetite, and correspondingly strengthen the digestion. They tune the liver, clear the head and steady the nerves.

No form of scrofulous disease can resist the disinfectant operation of the Salve Tumor. Abcesses, Salt Rheum, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, &c., are thoroughly eradicated by this unrivaled medicine. In fact, MAGGIE'S BILIOUS, DYSPEP-TIC and DIARRHOEA PILLS cure where all others fail.
While for Buns, Scalds, Chills, Cuts, and all abrasions of the skin, MAGGIE'S SALVE is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIE'S 43 Fulton street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cents per box. Sold by

TAMPERING WITH THE TEST IS MADNESS.—Avoid the copious dentifrices, submit to no scraping, use nothing but SOZODONT. Orient herbs are its ingredients. It preserves the enamel. It removes all impurities. It strengthens the gums. It deodorizes a tainted breath. It is harmless as water, and more valuable than its weight in gold.

Fair and fashionable Young America has installed Phalon's "Night Blooming Cereus" as a speciality in all its drawing-rooms, dressing-rooms, and boudoirs. It is well. Beauty should breathe a fragrant atmosphere, and Nature, in all her bowers, has no richer perfume than this.—

NEVERMORE can the coarse gritty tooth powders
