THE DISTRICT CONVENTION.—We condence from the Goldsboro' News, the following facts and proceedings had at this Convention.

Jos. A. Eng LEHARD, of New Hanover, presided, and S. D. Poor, of Wayne, and John W. Dun-HAM, of Wilson acted as Secretaries. The preamble and resolutions passed are the following:

WHEREAS, The people of the South, with great unanifiity, in the year 1861, appealed to arms in defence of what they honestly believed to be their appeal was unsuccessful, owing to the great preponderance of numbers, and resources brought against them, and whereas, they have submitted in good faith to the stern decree of the battle, and have yielded all that an honorable foe should have exacted, and all that they can yield without a sacrifice of manhood; and whereas, the dominant majority of Congress still impose new exactions; insist upon other conditions, precedent to a restoration of civil rights; levy taxes without representation, turning a deaf ear to all remonstrances; and whereas, there have been found a few noble spirits at the North, in Congre s and elsewhere, who denounce the acts and usurpations of radicalism, and who support the President of the United States in his efforts to thwart the machinations of the Stevenses and Sumners; and whereas, these friends of constitutional liblectures at the Theatre on Monday and Tuesday erty and of the South, these supporters of the policy of Andrew Johnson have issued a call for a National Union Convention to assemble in the person of delegates, chosen from each Congressional District of the Southern States, and from the States at large, therefore, Resolved, That we, the people of the 2d Congressional District of North Carolina, in Convention assembled at Goldsboro, on the 25th of July, 1866, duly appreciating the invitation extended, approve the assembling of the National Union Convention aforesaid, believing in the language of the address of the forty-one conservative members of Congress, that it convenes "to preserve the National Union, to vindicate the sufficiency of our admirable Constitution, to guard the States from covert attempts to deprive them of their true position in the Union, and to bring together those who are unnaturally severed, and for those great national purposes only;" and fur-ther believing it calculated to strengthen the President of the United States against the states majority in Congress, the sworn enemies of restoration and of the rights of the South, will send thereto two delegates, representative men of this

Resolved, That we suggest as suitable representatives of this district, Hon. MATTHIAS E. MANLY, of Craven, and WILLIAM A. WRIGHT, of New Hanover.

Resolved, That we recommend to the consideration of the delegates to assemble in Raleigh, the name of Hon. Geo. Howard, of Edgecombe, as one of the delegates for the State at Targe. On motion of Dr. J. M. Taylor, of Wilson, it was ordered that the resolutions be read and acted upon seriatim.

The first resolution was read by the Secretary and unanimentaly adopted, without discussion. Upon reading the second resolution a spirited debate ensued. On motion of Col. G. C. Moses, it was ordered that the vote on the second resolution be viva voce. The second and third resolutions were then unanimously adopted.

The preamble to the resolution was then read, and a motion made by J. P. Speight, of Greene, to strike out all to "And whereas, the friends of constitutional liberty," &c. After a warm dis-cussion, participated in by Taylor, of Wilson, Wright, of New Hanover, Cobb, of Edgecombe, and Speight of Greene, it was rejected, and the preamble, as reported by the committee, was William Robinson, of Wayne, offered the folwing resolu ions which was adopted : Resolved, That the delegates to the Philadelphia Convention, selected by this Convention be and they are hereby instructed to meet the delegates from the other Congressional districts in the city of Raleigh, on the 10th of August next to appoint delegates from the State at large to the Convention to meet in Philadelphia on the 14th of that month.

A motion to appoint alternate delegates was rejected, the convention expressing a decided preference that the distinguished gentlemen who had been elected should attend. On motion, the President and Secretaries were instructed to furnish the delegates to the Na-tional Union Convention with certificates of

On motion of Col. G. C. Moses, of Wayne, the thanks of the convention were tendered to the town authorities for the use of the hall, and to

MESSAGE OF PRESIDENT JOHNSON. WASHINGTON, July 24. - The Pesident this afternoon transmitted the annexed message, name-

To the House of Representatives! The following joint resolution, restoring Ten-the State of Tennessee was seized upon and taken possession of by persons in hostility to the United States; and Whereas, Said State Government can only be of the United States; and the inhabitants of said declared to be in insurrection against the United States; and Whereas, The people of said State did on the 22d day of February, 1865, by a large popular vote adopt and ratify a constitution and government whereby slavery was abolished, and all ordinances and laws of secession and debts contracted under the same were declared null and void: and Whereas, A State Government has been or canized under said constitution, which has ratied the amendment to the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery, and also the amendment proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and has done other acts proclaiming and lenoting loyalty; therefore be it Resolved by the Senate and House of Representa-tives of the United States in Congress assembled, That the State of Tennessee is hereby restored to her former practical relations to the Union, and again entitled to be represented by Senators and Representatives in Congress.

The preamble simply consists of statements, some of which are assumed, while the resolution is merely a declaration of opinion.

It comprises no legislation, nor does it confer any power which is binding upon the respective Houses, the Executive or the States. It does not admit to their seats in Congress of Tennessee; for, notwithstanding the passage of the resolution, each House, in the exercise of bers, may, at its discretion, admit them or continue to exclude them. cessary, and binding as a condition precedent to ciliation .- Tribune. niladelphia on the 14th of August next, and the admission of members of Congress, it would have invited the people of the South to partici happen, in the event of a veto by the Executive, pate in the deliberations of that Convention, in that Senators and Representatives could only be admitted to the halls of Congress by a two-thirds vote of each of the two Houses of all anitus M Among other reasons recited in the preamble for the deciarations contained in the resolution is the ratification by the State Government of Tennessee of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery, and also the amendment proposed by the Thirty-ninth

If, as is also declared in the preamble, said Government can only be restored to its former political relations in the Union by the consent of the law-making power of the United States, it would really seem to follow that the joint resolution which at this late day has received the sanction of Congress should have been passed approved and placed in the statute bucks nearly any amendment to the Constitution was submitted to the Legislature of Tennessee, for ratification. Otherwise the inference is plainly deducible, that while in the opinion of Congress the people of a State may be too strongly disloyal to be entitled to representation, they may nevertheless, during the suspension of their former practical relations to the Union, have an equally potent voice with other and loyal States in propositions to amend the Constitution upon which so essentially depend the stability, presperity and very existence of the nation.

A brief reference to my Annual Message of the 4th of December last will show the steps taken by the Executive for the restoration to their constitutional relations of the States that had been affected by the rebellion.

Upon the cessation of active hostilities, Provisional Governors were appointed, Conventions called, Governors elected by the people, Legisla-tures assembled, and Senators and Representatives chosen to the Congress of the United

At the same time the Courts of the United States were reopened, the blockade removed, the Custom-houses re-established and postal operations resumed. The amendment to the Constitution, abolishng slavery forever within the limits of the country, was also submitted to the States, and they were thus invited to, and did participate in, a ratification, thus exercising the highest functions pertaining to a State. In addition nearly all of these States, through their Conventions and Legislatures, had adopted and ratified constitutions of government, whereby slavery was abolished, and all ordinances and laws of secession, and debts contracted under the same were declared null and void. So far then, the political existence of the States, and their relations to the Federal Government had been fully and completely recogniz-ed and acknowledged by the Executive Department of the Government, and the completion of the work of restoration which had progressed so favorably, was submitted to Congress, upon which devolved all questions pertaining to the admission to their seats of the Senators and Representatives chosen from the States whose people had been in rebellion.

4th day of December, 1865, the Thirty-ninth Congress assembled. Nearly eight months have elapsed since that time and no other plan having been proposed by Congress for the measures instituted by the Executive, it is now declared in the joint resolution submitted for my approval that the State of Tennessee is hereby restored o her former practical relations to the Union and is again entitled to be represented by Senators and Representatives in Congress.? Thus, after the lapse of nearly eight months, Congress pro-poses to pave the way to the admission of the representatives of one of the eleven States whose people arrayed themselves in rebellion against the constitutional authority of the Federal Government. Earnestly desiring to relieve every Frierer Harrist cause of further delay, whether real or imaginary, on the part of Congress, to the admission to Fredk McCoy Oliver capt Bart Wood J S seats of loyal Senators and Representatives from the State of Tennessee, I have, notwithstanding Gray Marcus the anomalous character of this proceeding, affixed my signature to the resolution.

My approval, however, is not to be construed as an acknowledgment of the right of Congress to pass laws preliminary to the admission of duly qualified representatives from any of the States. Neither is it to be considered as committing me to all the statements made in the preamble, some of which are in my opinion with-out foundation in fact, especially the assertion out foundation in fact, especially the assertion that the State of Tennessee has ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress. No official notice of such ratification has been received by the Executive or filed in the Department of State. On the contrary, unofficial information from most reliable sources induce the belief that the amendment has not yet been constitutionally sanctioned by the Legislature of State of Stat ALAMANCE. - Judge Fowle has just held a amendment to the Constitution of the United special Court of Oyer and Terminer at Graham, States proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress. No official notice of such ratification has been In the case of Allen Foust, charged with asment of State. On the contrary, unofficial inforsault with intent to commit a rape: Verdict, mation from most reliable sources induce the stitutionally sanctioned by the Legislature of Tennessee. The right of each house under the Constitution to judge of the election returns and qualifications of its own members is undoubted, and my approval or disapproval of the resolution could not in the slightest degree increase or di-sion, I cannot toe earnestly repeat my recommendation for the admission of Tennessee, and all other States to a fair and equal participation in the National Legislature, when they present themselves in the persons of loyal Senators and Representatives who can comply with all the requirements of the Constitution and the laws. By effected, the practical relations of all the States to the Federal Government re-established, and The following joint resolution, restoring Ten-nessee to her relations to the Union, was last mination of the war successfully completed.

Washington, D. C., July 24, 1866. Democratic Meeting at New Orleans, New Obleans, Tuesday, July 24—Evening.— An immense meeting of the Democracy was held restored to its former political relations in the here to-night, and ratified the nominations of Union by the consent of the law-making power the State Committee. Resolutions were adopted the State Committee. Resolutions were adopted of the United States; and the inhabitants of said depresating the motives of the Conventionists of State, in pursuance of an act of Congress, were 1864; that it is the duty of the law officers of the State to take such steps as the occasion demands to save Louisiana from anarchy which threatens her because of the reckless misconduct of unworthy citizens and pretended patriots; that Louisiana pledges herself to the honest support of Johnson's policy; and fully endorsing the Philadelphia Convention. The speakers were very severe on the Radicals; secession was denounced, and the emancipation of slavery fully accepted.

Mr. STANSBERRY'S NOMINATION CONFIRMED. -The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Henry Stansberry to be Attorney General, in place of Speed, resigned, and Thos. Harland of New York, to be Deputy Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The Senate rejected several nom-inations, among them Thos. M. Wells for Naval Officer for the district of New Orleans. Well-informed persons consider that there is no immediate prospect of Secretary, Stanton either resigning or being ousted from the Cabinet. It is possible, however, the Philadelphia Convention may change the programme.
