CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

The King of Terrors is the Prince Peace.

The Methodist revival still continues in Elizabeth City.

Yesterday was close and sultry; thermometer nearly ninety.

The favorite pitcher of the present season is the ice pitcher.

The gross receipts of the Baptist fair at Elizabeth City amounted to nearly $800.

Edgewood county has sent three more representatives to the penitentiary.

Brown linen cuffs are to be fashionable this year and children will please take notice.

We would acknowledge the receipt of about $100 due us for subscription—if we got it.

Wilmington has shrimps four and five inches in length, of the whale variety no doubt.

The chain-gang were yesterday employed on Craven street, and performed excellent work.

Dr. Love, who opposed the Convention bill in the Legislature, is stamping the West for Convention.

The thanks of the manager of the Memorial Celebration are returned to persons contributing flowers, &c.

A colored man has been arrested in the vicinity of Elizabeth City on suspicion of having fired a farmer's barn.

Four additional assistant revenue Assessors have been appointed in the 5th Congressional district of this State.

Mr. Holmes, the assistant postmaster, desires to announce to the public that he has for sale stamped note envelopes.

There are several cases of hydrophobia and persons bitten mentioned in our exchanges as occurring in Southern cities.

Three coroner's inquests were held in Cumberland county last week. A boy, a man and a woman, colored, all accidentally drowned.

Dr. H. J. Menninger was chosen to deliver the memorial oration at Raleigh yesterday. No better orator could be selected.

They have more roasting ears in Wilmington. Such of our New-Bern friends as have had them this year will please acquaint us of the fact.

We learn from our exchanges that there is considerable demand at the North for colored labor and with good wages. Hence many are leaving Virginia and North Carolina.

A fellow from the rural districts called on one of our druggists yesterday and demanded some tinkers violin, after much questioning and cogitation it was ascertained that he wanted tincture of iodine.

Hornes is traveling the South as a farmer, and announces that he desires to address himself particularly to farmers. He hasn't yet got over that old thing, and persists in telling "what I know about farming."

An exchange holds to the thesis that "the worst use you can put a man to is to hang him." Now we beg to submit a much worse use to which he can be put—editing a Democratic journal.

Never attempt to do anything that is not right. Just as sure as you do, you will get into trouble. If you even suspect that anything is wrong, do not act until you are sure your suspicions are groundless.

At the close of the recent term of the Gaston county Superior Court, a colored man named Caldwell Hartgrove, was convicted of committing a rape on the person of a white girl and sentenced to be hung on the 30th prox.

At the meeting of the Board of Council on Monday night, a public spirited colored citizen offered his services as Policeman for Ten dollars per month. He stated in his application that he didn't know anything about the duties of the position but might learn. His application was laid on the table.

We can pay no attention to the suggestions contained in a communication from "An unfortunate citizen." If the matter is brought properly to our attention we will do all we can, but our rule is, never to act upon anonymous communications. If the gentleman will call and see us we will call attention to the subject to which he refers.

Gov. Holden.

Rumor has it that Gov. Holden has received a lucrative appointment from the general government and that his family will shortly leave this city to join him. The nature of the position has not transpired.—Sentinel.

Changing the Colors of Flowers.

An English paper describes a case of a yellow primrose which, when planted in a rich soil, had the flowers changed to a brilliant purple. It also says that charcoal adds great brilliancy to the colors of dahlias, roses, and petunias; carbonate of soda reddens pink hydrangeas, and phosphate of soda changes the colors of many plants.

Supposed Infanticide.

Coroner Shepard was notified yesterday afternoon that a colored child was found dead in the vicinity of Swift Creek, and bore on its person marks and wounds, conclusively proving that death was caused by violence. A woman named Emily Hill has been arrested as the supposed mother and author of the crime. Coroner Shepard left for the scene of the crime last night, and will hold an inquest to-day, when, no doubt, all the facts will be elicited.

Murder in Curie.

Mr. James Burden, an influential and highly esteemed citizen, living about twelve miles from Windsor, was killed about one mile from his house while on route to Windsor on business a short time since. Though no positive clue to the perpetrators of this crime have been obtained, suspicion rested upon a former employe, Mr. Burden, with whom he had a dispute in regard to a settlement, and who had been heard to use threats toward Mr. B., and he has been arrested. The arrested party is described as a desperate character, and a general distributor of the peace.

Meeting of the Board of Council.

The Board of Council met on Monday night Mayor Kilburn and Councilman Stanley being absent, Councilman Allan was called to the Chair.

The matter of pumps came up for consideration and after some discussion it was concluded to employ James Lucas to work upon the pumps for the next week.

It was on motion resolved that the City Marshal be instructed to notify citizens to remove all garbage or filth from their premises or sidewalks.

On motion Councilman Stanley was appointed acting Mayor.

The bills of the Police force were on motion allowed.

On motion the Board adjourned.

A Fact Worth Knowing.

The best way to build up a town is for every business man in the place to advertise his business in the columns of the local paper, and thus present an array of business houses equal to the number of houses on the street. It draws trades to the town, draws emigrants to the town, draws produce to the town, draws money to the town. If a man wants to buy anything, he goes where he sees the most men trying to sell that article. If he wants to sell anything, he goes where the most men are buying. If a man wants to buy groceries or sell produce, he goes to the business man that advertises, for he knows where to find him and what he has to sell.

No Mayor.

The Board of Councilmen, at their meeting, on Monday night, appointed Councilman Stanley to act as Mayor, during the absence of Mayor Kilburn. The City Marshal notified Mr. Stanley of his appointment yesterday; but in a communication Mr. Stanley declined to serve, on the ground that he was too busy and engaged in other matters of more importance. In the meantime the city is without a mayor, and will remain so unless the Board again meet and appoint another member.

The cases now pending for adjudication are, Moses Latham, for disorderly conduct; Rose Simms, Maria Simmons, Hetty Williams and Henry Lee, for disorderly conduct; Hetty Williams, for keeping a disorderly house. These are all old offenders, who appear periodically before the Court; they are now under arrest, and will remain so until a mayor can be found.

Comical Compositions Considered by Councilmen and Consigned to Condemnation.

At the meeting of the Board of Councilmen, held on Monday night, several communications and propositions were submitted, among which, for chirography and composition, are among the richest effusions we have lately seen. Among them, one was received from Mr. John Mayo, of which the following is a true copy:

New-Berne, N. C., May, 29 1871.
Application to the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of New-Bern for auctioneer license to sell at auction John Mayo application I will say to the Board of Aldermen that I will not take nothing from no person old or young unless they tell me where they get it from. All persons who are colored And all person shall tell me where they Live Before I take anything from Any person.

No more to day I will not take nothing from children with thout A note from there parents on My oath.

Among the applications for the position of policeman, the following were read:

New-Berne, N. C., May 20th, 1871 to the Honorable Board of Aldermen & Mayor in City of New-Bern please your Hon. I will call your attention I estate A the Honorable Board of Aldermen Joseph H Clark serve on the piece force for $20 Dollars, If I am accepted by the Honorable aldermann of Boards,

Soy'n by

(Here follows signatures)

There were many others of equal uniqueness, but our space forbids their publication. With the receipt of such communications, the office of Councilman is not so lacking in amusement after all, much merriment resulting from hearing them read.

As an evidence of the dullness of some portions of our city, on Monday, a rabbit burrow containing one old and two young rabbits was discovered on a lot adjoining the Memorial Chapel, on George street. The old rabbit was killed and the young ones captured.

Memorial Day.

Yesterday, the 30th of May, being the day set apart throughout the United States, as Memorial Day, upon which floral tributes as well as those of poetry and prose, are rendered in memory of the Union Dead, was observed in this city by the Union people. For several days gentlemen had been scouring flowers and evergreens, which being placed in the care of ladies, were fastened and woven into wreaths, crosses, and other emblematical devices, and in sufficient quantity to embellish the decorations to be made on a fine, liberal scale. The labor, with all concerned, was one of love and cheerfully borne.

Capt. Usher, of the Brevan Cutler, Stevens, having kindly placed the use of his boat at the disposal of the committee, at a little after four o'clock, a large number of ladies and gentlemen embarked on the Cutler, from the foot of Craven street. In addition to this party, a great number of persons went to the cemetery by land, and at the commencement of the ceremony, a large crowd were in attendance, many persons being in vehicles and on horseback. At the cemetery and over the entrance was suspended an elegant large wreath. A neat and tasteful stand had been erected around the flag-staff in the center of the cemetery. On the arrival of the procession, the Chaplain, Reader of Poem, and Committee ascended the stand, and the exercises commenced with the rendering of a beautiful Memorial Hymn by L. J. Bates, followed by Prayer by the Rev. L. Thorne; and was followed by a hymn by the choir; it being excellently well rendered. The music was succeeded by a poem, rendered by Hon. R. F. Lehman, which, both in sentiment and delivery was very fine. The reading of the poem was succeeded by music from the choir, and benediction. The leading feature of the celebration was then performed, the decoration of the graves; fond and loving hands being busily engaged in placing upon the mounds and head-boards, the cross, the circle, or the hump's bunch of flowers; few if any graves were left without the emblem of appreciation and kindness. During the ceremony of decoration, minute guns were discharged from the Reverend Cutler, Stevens, the deep booming of the guns adding solemnity to the solemn scene. The concourse slowly wended their way from the city of the dead, all, apparently, impressed with the feeling that a high and important duty had been performed, and from which all participating derive a pleasure. May the custom so sweet, so simple, ever continue; may the memories of our fallen heroes ever be cherished, and their names and deeds handed down to posterity, as examples of men, who died in a great and good cause.

A Skillful Medical Operation.

A very skillful and successful medical operation, that of the transfusion of blood from a lamb to a human body, was performed in this city on last Friday afternoon by Drs. J. F. King and J. E. Winans.

The subject was a colored man, an inmate of the city hospital, who has been suffering for some time past and who has lately seemed in danger of death from mere exhaustion. When laid upon the table he was too weak to talk, and appeared to have but a few hours of life left to him. When his vein was opened but one drop of blood fell from it. The carotid artery of the lamb was opened and the blood was forced from thence, by the palpitation of the animal's heart, through a small glass tube, into the patient's cephalic vein. In this way, about eight ounces of blood was conveyed from the lamb to the man. The operation was entirely satisfactory in its results, and the patient is now doing very well.

This, we believe, is the first operation of the kind ever performed in this city, and we are not sure that it has ever before been attempted in the State. It was a delicate one and will be well worthy of a full report in some of the surgical journals of the day.—Wilmington Journal.

The number of ex-rebels in Congress far exceeds the number of "carpet-bag" representatives of the South.

Of the twenty-two Southern Senators, only nine are of Northern birth and one of these is a Democrat. Of the fifty-nine Southern Representatives, forty-one are natives of that section, and only nine Northerners; and of this number of Southern Representatives twenty-eight are ex-officials of the Confederacy. This statement effectually explodes the cry of "carpet buggers," and shows that the South has more natives in Congress in proportion than many of the Western States.—Lexington (Ky) Statesman.

A Faithful Condition.

It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility. They complain of no specific diseases they suffer no positive pain; but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure to their more robust and energetic fellow-beings.

In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food, every organ is starved, every function interrupted.

Now, what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression? The system needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two, to sink after into a more pitiable condition than ever, (as it assuredly would if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to,) but radically and permanently.

How is this desirable object to be accomplished? The answer to this question, founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century, is easily given. Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not waste time in administering temporary remedies, but waken the system up by recuperating the fountain head of physical strength and energy the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support.

By the time that a dozen doses of the great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence. Appetite will be created, and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves. Persevere until the cure is complete—until healthful blood, firm to be the material of flesh and muscle, bone and nerve, and brain flows through the channels of circulation, instead of the watery pulpium with which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished.
