

The New-Berne Daily Times.

VOL. IX.—NO. 66.

New-Berne Daily Times.
JOHN S. MANIX, Local Editor.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

POST-OFFICE, NEW-BERNE, N. C., Aug. 19th, 1871.

Mail Closes for the North, West and South at 6:30 A. M.

Mail closes for Beaufort and the East, at 5:30 P. M.

Mail Closes for Washington, Swift Creek Hills and Beaufort Counties every Tuesday

Thursday and Saturday, at 1:30 P. M.

Mail closes for Trenton, Pollockville, and Swansboro, Wednesdays and Saturdays at 6:30 A. M.

Mail closed for Hatteras, New York, etc., days at 12 o'clock noon.

Mail closed for Granboro, Bay River and Vanderbilt Tuesdays Thursdays and Saturdays at 6 A. M.

MAIL ARRIVES.

From the North, West and South at 6 P. M.

From Beaufort and the East at 1:30 A. M.

From Washington, Swift Creek, N. C., &
Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 4 P. M.

From Trenton and Pollockville, Tuesdays and Fridays at 4 P. M.

From Granboro, Bay River and Vanderbilt, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 4 P. M.

Office hours from 8 & M. to 6 P. M. and 7 to 7:30 P. M. Sundays from 12:30 to 1 P. M.

GEO. W. NASH, Jr., Postmaster.

We now have moonlight nights.

The street hands are usually employed daily.

Fires and overcoats were much in use yesterday.

This is a good time of the year to clean out your closets.

A white man named Hayes died suddenly in Wilmington on Sunday.

R. W. Best of Raleigh has been appointed a U. S. Commissioner.

The Banner of Temperance makes its first appearance on Saturday.

Yesterday was cool, damp and disagreeable; thermometer 65 degrees.

Arrangements are making for a grand ball in Raleigh during Fair week.

Reuben Stallings, of Franklin county, has invented a superior cotton press.

Wood, delivered at residences or places of business, sold yesterday for $3.10 per cord.

The regular term of Wayne county, Superior Court commences next Monday at Goldsboro.

There is a drought in Greene county, and the walls are dry. Our friends don't take any water in them now.

Owing to the violence of the storm, Tuesday night many of the timid thought the Tidal Wave was coming "so nuff."

Have you seen them yet? If so, well, go at once and see McLean's new clothes and accessories for Fall suits.

The lightning flashed; the wind blew a gale, and the rain fell in torrents awhile on Tuesday night.

There was no Mayor's Court yesterday—case, no cases.

The bad weather of yesterday materially interfered with the successful operation of the fishermen.

There was considerable seed cotton in the market yesterday. This article is now rapidly coming in.

Turner's Gzano is advertised in many of the country papers. It is no doubt principally composed of the muck and filth of the Sentinel's editorial.

St. James Benevolent Society of Raleigh, of which Dr. Menninger is President, have passed a resolution welcoming him on his return from Germany.

The success of the friends of Charles Jones in securing a pardon for him has caused the friends of Mingo Croom, a very old man, as present in the penitentiary for manslaughter, to get up and circulate a petition for a pardon for him.

An error occurred in the Times of yesterday.

The item relating to the death in Kinston should have read that Rev. Mr. Womble had died and not his child; and that Mr. Alphin's child had died and not him. This was a very serious subject in which to make a mistake, but the types while grave fellows, will occasionally get wrong.

There was a row at the market Tuesday—a Broker broke his hand against a countryman's head extramurally, broke into a run with the Broker after him; a white Broker was taken before a Mayor; Broker fined $100;

he was dead broke; Mayor couldn't help it;

Broker would have to go and sue there unless he broke out; Broker couldn't sue it;

Appealed for decision; put under $200 bond; broke for a bondsmen; got home; breakaway from officer; went up of his own accord next day and settled the matter; everything all right; nothing broke except what was intended; countryman gone home.

Patterson in the Field

By reference to his advertisement in another column, it will be seen that the enterprising

Middle street merchant, Moses Patterson, answers to the public that he is fully prepared for an extensive Fall trade. He desires to call special attention to a class of goods that for years have had a wide celebrity as being superior to any goods of the kind in the market: The penitentiary boots and shoes.

M. Patterson has also a full stock of goods and articles useful, and ornamental, usually

found in a first class business house, which

have the advantage of being new and suited to the season and season. Read his advertise.

Blacksmiths

By reference to his advertisement in another column, it will be seen that the enterprising

Middle street merchant, Moses Patterson, answers to the public that he is fully prepared

for an extensive Fall trade. He desires to call special attention to a class of goods that for years have had a wide celebrity as being

superior to any goods of the kind in the market: The penitentiary boots and shoes.

M. Patterson has also a full stock of goods and articles useful, and ornamental, usually

found in a first class business house, which

have the advantage of being new and suited to the season and season. Read his advertise.

DRY CLEANERS

By reference to his advertisement in another

column, it will be seen that the enterprising

Middle street merchant, Moses Patterson, answers to the public that he is fully prepared

for an extensive Fall trade. He desires to call special attention to a class of goods that for years have had a wide celebrity as being

superior to any goods of the kind in the market: The penitentiary boots and shoes.

M. Patterson has also a full stock of goods and articles useful, and ornamental, usually

found in a first class business house, which

have the advantage of being new and suited to the season and season. Read his advertise.

DRY CLEANERS

By reference to his advertisement in another

column, it will be seen that the enterprising

Middle street merchant, Moses Patterson, answers to the public that he is fully prepared

for an extensive Fall trade. He desires to call special attention to a class of goods that for years have had a wide celebrity as being

superior to any goods of the kind in the market: The penitentiary boots and shoes.

M. Patterson has also a full stock of goods and articles useful, and ornamental, usually

found in a first class business house, which

have the advantage of being new and suited to the season and season. Read his advertise.

DRY CLEANERS

By reference to his advertisement in another

column, it will be seen that the enterprising

Middle street merchant, Moses Patterson, answers to the public that he is fully prepared

for an extensive Fall trade. He desires to call special attention to a class of goods that for years have had a wide celebrity as being

superior to any goods of the kind in the market: The penitentiary boots and shoes.

M. Patterson has also a full stock of goods and articles useful, and ornamental, usually

found in a first class business house, which