Fires were pleasant yesterday.

Yesterday was a bright, cool, pleasant day.

There was no Mayors Court yesterday—cause, no cases.

Wild geese are now emigrating South in large quantities.

Wilmington ain't sorry that Robinson's Circus will give them the go by.

Wednesday night was decidedly cool, the thermometer indicating 60 degrees.

A serenading party in this city are said to put on many more airs than they can sing.

It is said that green kids are liable to produce incurable eruptions on the hands. Beware!

The Wilmington Star says the peanut crop will be short. Bad news for members of the Legislature.

If you don't pay your taxes soon you will be published as delinquents, and have additional costs to pay.

A rattlesnake was killed in Brunswick county a few days since which was six feet long and had twelve rattles.

Professor Neal of the Academy is busily arranging his classes for the opening of the Academy next Monday.

Miscronstics is the new name for tatlers. The definition of the word is "an instrument for magnifying small sounds."

The WEEKLY TIMES for this week is now ready. Call and subscribe. Price only $2.00 per year; fifty cents for three months.

The steamship Ellen S. Terry will leave New Bern for New York on next Monday, instead of the time heretofore announced.

It is predicted that next winter will be the severest that we have had for sometime. Same old story. It is getting about "played out."

The bridges on upper South Front street and the junction of the Pembroke Road, on the same street, were repaired by the street hands yesterday. These repairs were much nee'ed.

Sheriff Lee, of Wake calls the editor of the Sentinel a slanderer and a blackguard, and that individual with shrankness that is really refreshing, treats the whole thing as grossly as circus clown.

There has been at least double the quantity of grapes brought to this market this year, than any previous year. If this rate keeps on this section will soon become a great grape mart.

The receipts from fines in the Mayor's office since the present administration has been in, four months, is over $100 per month. This amount will pay the salary of three policemen and the expenses of the police station for the same period.

The place where colored people most do congregate. The Camp Meeting now going on at Jumping Run.

Notwithstanding the cool weather, mosquito serenades still continue.

The Pantarchy, Free Love, Woman Suffrage, and Victoria Woodhull, are discussed in certain parts of this city just at present, to an extent that is fairly disgusting. We say, gentlemen give us a rest.

Wormell, the Photographer, we are pleased to notice, has very materially mended his ways, having put the brick sidewalk in front of his gallery, in good repair. To others who have bad sidewalks in front of their premises we say, "do thou likewise."

Flowers teach us the tenderness of God's character. If he had made nothing of this kind, if he was had been for bare utility, and had consisted of coarse and more substantial creations only, the whole side of the Divine character would have failed of the revelation it now has in nature.

Why don't our merchants get up a Board of Trade, or a Chamber of Commerce? No city in the South, of our size, needs one more. All that is needed to start the thing is for three or four of our leading merchants to take hold and the whole business will be accomplished in a short time.

The steamship Zodiac will leave New York for New-Bern to-morrow, Saturday 30th.

It is said that the Treasurer of Stephen Pleasants Padgett, Grand Master of North Carolina, and travels about with the funds of the institution, which amounts to just twenty cents.

The streets of our city have for the last week or ten days presented quite a lively appearance. The arrival of fall goods and merchandise, and departure of produce, with the consequent drayage thereon, has given quite an animated appearance.

We are informed by a friend from Jones county that the difficulty between Mr. Creh and Mr. Jones, published recently, was the result of a serious family quarrel, and that Mr. Jones is a respectable high toned gentlemen, who is, and has always been, where he could be served with process. We regret that any wrong information should have appeared in these columns relative to the affair, but published the item as received and currently reported. Mr. Creh is now residing in New Bern, and carries a useless arm as the reminder of a terrible beating received from Mr. Jones.

Massachusetts.

The latest news received last night indicate that Washburne has been nominated for Governor of Massachusetts. This is well.

Examination of Teachers.

The examination of teachers announced to take place last week did not occur, and the interesting event has been put off until sometime in December.

Dorgs.

The hangers-on about the market have recently taken to patronizing that ennobling sport, dorg fighting, more than usual lately. Within the past few days there has been some very sanguinary canine battles.

Another Change.

One of the witnesses, in the Biggerstaff Ku Klux case, stated, on the trial the other day that he had heard, at a meeting in Rutherford, that Eliot got authority to make Egerton Chief from Col. McAfee, and that McAfee got his authority from Jo. Turner, editor of the Sentinel paper. Jo. still denies being a Ku Klux.

Arrived.

The schooner Agile, Capt. Delmar, arrived at this port yesterday morning from New York, with full cargoes of merchandise to our merchants. The Agile and Delmar left New York on the same day, and about the same hour, during their trip down they were never out of sight, and arrived here together yesterday morning about the same time.

Peaches.

Mr. Joseph Smith, from Lenoir, showed us yesterday some fully developed peach blossoms, which, in view of the lateness of the season, is somewhat unusual. He also stated that on the trees on which these blossoms were taken, there were also growing peaches, which is unusual.

What with double crops of pears and peaches New-Bern can consider itself highly favored.

The Poll List.

Register of Deeds, Harrison, is now engaged in preparing for publication a list of the insolvent polls on the last year's list of county taxables. Among the list returned as insolvent and from whom a simple poll tax could not be procured are men in this community whose names the people will be surprised to see. This is a delicate way the Government has of holding up such men to scorn. The allegation made in black and white against a respectable young man, that he has failed to pay his poll tax, is not a pleasant one, and though he may "scorn the allegation and defy the allegator," its there.

They Have Commenced.

The Atlantic Fire Company have secured the services of Prof. Pollman, who has selected their band members and commenced to practice. That this embryo musical organization is a success, none who know them can for a moment question, and as it is dissipate any lingering doubt, one of the members, Prof. assured us in a whisper yesterday that they were indeed getting along finely, the best proof of which, was that all the band were willing to move out. It is seldom that a young organization meets with such flattering success, at the outset, and there is no doubt but that in the course of time, the Atlantic Band will be a source of pride and admiration to our entire community, and especially the small boys.

Change.

There is an unusual scarcity of change in this city at present, brought about, we believe, by the amount of small parcels of seed cotton purchased. At any time during the day may be seen employees dodging in and out of business places seeking "change." Some of our merchants, we understand, are becoming annoying, and one of our banking houses have put up in their office a placard, in large letters, "Dont ask for change." This answers very well for those that can read, but to those who can not read the difference, they bolt in just the same, and with the stereotyped inquiry, "Ken yer change er five," nearly moving the presiding dignitary to anger.

Grpe Jelly.

Take ripe, juicy grapes, pick them from the stems; put them with into a large earthen pan, and mash them with the bottom of a wooden bowl or with a potato beetle. Put them into a kettle (without any water,) cover them closely, and let them boil for a quarter of an hour, stirring them up occasionally from the bottom. Then strain them through a sieve or colander, and to each pint of jelly allow a pound of loaf sugar. Dissolve the sugar in grape juice, then put it over a quick fire, in a preserving kettle, and boil and skim it twenty minutes. When it is a clear, thick jelly, take it off, put it warm into tumblers, and cover them with double tissue paper cut to fit the inside. In the same manner you may make an excellent jelly, for common use, of ripe grapes and the best brown sugar; only with the sugar before it goes on the fire, a little beaten white of an egg; allowing two whites to two pounds of sugar.—Miss Leslies Cook Book.

The Colored Men's Convention.

We have, as yet, heard of no action being taken by the colored men in this District, or in this county, towards the selection of delegates to represent them in the Columbia Convention.

In other Districts of the State, the proper and necessary action is being taken, and much interest shown. Other States in the South are preparing to send delegates, and we have no doubt the Convention will be well attended. We, of course, do not know what good is to result from this proposed Convention, but the fact of its being called by leading colored men, should, if too much expense be not incurred, be a sufficient reason for its being attended by delegates representing every District in the South. We suggest, therefore, that it be arranged to meet in this city at an early day, and with such county representation as may be had, select some leading man who will reflect credit upon his race, and send him to Columbia.

Amusements.

From past experience and present indication, it is but fair to presume that the present fall and approaching winter will find New-Bern, so far as the visits of travelling companies are concerned, very dull in the way of amusements. There is no good reason, however, why this should be so. We do not propose that extra inducements be offered for travelling companies to visit us, for we believe that on the whole our little city is as well, if not better off without them, as at best only very second rate companies would visit us, and they would perhaps take away more than their talents entitled them to, or than we could afford; but we do believe that there is sufficient talent here in our midst from which can be organized a first class dramatic association. A slight original outlay that could be easily refunded. Afterward out of the proceeds of their entertainments would be sufficient to procure the necessary costumes, and by selecting such plays as would be easiest rendering justice to, and a performance of once or twice a month would go far toward relieving the dull monotony of the present and coming season. If there be anything objectionable, however, to that style of amusement, on the part of those who possess the enterprise and have the ability to organize an affair of the kind mentioned, be taken to get up a series of lectures, this style of entertainment could be made very attractive by the introduction of vocal and instrumental music. In addition to the pleasure to be derived from this source, those entertainments could be made the source of much good by devoting the net proceeds to charitable or other worthy uses.

We sincerely hope that our suggestions will meet with a proper response, and some practical demonstration of their propriety and usefulness soon be made. There is no good reason why they should not be carried out, and we think we have advanced sufficient reasons why they should. Who will move in the matter?

New-Bern Academy

Will open on the first Monday in October, 1871, Geo. W. Neal, A. M., Principal. Assistant male teacher in Latin, Greek and High English, W. H. Swann, A. B. Miss A. C. Brookfield, in Higher and Primary English. Mrs. Esther Stanly in Primary Department.

The course of instruction will be graded in a Primary Department, and, four schools, embracing the Lowest and Highest Branches of an English education, including therein the privilege of the most advanced studies of Mathematics; the Natural Sciences with Experimental Lectures; Ancient and Modern Languages, thus affording students ample preparation for the practical pursuits of life, or, for entering any of the different classes in Collegiate Institutions.

Pupils should be present, if possible, at the opening of the scholastic year, to enter fully upon the studies of the schools.

Parents in entering their children are understood to subscribe to the rules of the Academy, and not to withdraw them before the close of the session, except in case of necessity to be stated to the Principal, as this is one of the great safeguards to a high standard of scholarship.

A certificate of proficiency will be granted to students in any of the four schools, when properly earned by industry.

These schools are free of charge to all white students in the County of Craven, between the ages of six and twenty one years.

Apply for certificates of admission at the office of the undersigned, on the corner of Hancock and Pollock streets, before the commencement of the school. As the school is expected to be full the next session, it is desired that students shall procure certificates of admission some day before the school opens

Great secret of success is that it establishes departments in the various States, in which it is at work, and puts the management in the hands of the citizens of the State, and invests all its reserve fund in the department where the premiums are received, thereby building up and improving the communities in which it operates, instead of impoverishing them as all the companies do that carry the money away.

Over-doctored.

Without any disrespect to the members of the medical profession, a profession honored by all thinking men, it is only just to say that they are too thick on the ground. The consequence is that the community is doctord over much. When nature needs only the gentle stimulant and alterative, which has become famous throughout the country as a reliable medicine, under the name of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, she is not unfrequently dosed with a dozen prescriptions, all experimental, from the Pharmacopœia. This is an evil, and proves that the practice of medicine is far from being at all times a healing art. At this period of the year, when the fall of the leaf indicates that decay has seized upon the vegetable kingdom, many harassing diseases are prevalent. Chief among these may be mentioned intermittent fever and bilious remittent. The exhalations rising from decomposing vegetation, and the heavy dews and fogs, are very apt to generate these complaints. The wisest policy is to protect the system by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters at the commencement of the fall. Much suffering may thereby be avoided. But if the disease has already begun, its periodical visitations may readily be checked and broken up by this active, yet harmless, vegetable tonic.

But be on your guard against the charlatans who are attempting to palm off, under various names, unwholesome compounds, which they pretend to compare favorably with the great national elixir, which has long since swept more formidable opposition from the field. Bear in mind that every bottle of genuine Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is authenticated by a splendidly engraved label, and a fac simile of the sign manual of the firm. Put up in bottles only, and cannot be obtained in bulk.
