WHAT THE SPARROWS CHIRP to ... The Trail I vignes brothe I am only a little sparrow ; A bird of low degree;

My life is of little value, But the dear Lord careth for me. He gave me a coat of feathers, It is very plain I know,

With never a speck of crimson, For it was not made for show. But it keeps me warm in winter, And it shields me from the rain, Were it bordered in gold and purple Perhaps it would make me vain.

I have no barn or storehouse, at waited! I neither sow nor reap : I have have God gives me a sparrow's fortune; But never a seed to keep.

If my meal is sometimes scanty, Close picking makes it sweet; I have always enough to feed me, And "Life is more than meat."

I know there are many sparrows; All over the world we are found, But our Heavenly Father knoweth When one of us falls to the ground.

Though small, we are never forgotten, Though weak, we are never afraid. For we know that our dear Lord keepeth The life of the creatures He made.

I fly through the thickest forest, I light on many aspray; I have no chart or compass, But I never lose my way
