Consolidation -- Rings -- Railroads.

The Act recently passed by the General As mby, amending the charter of the North Carolina Railroad Company, so as to enable this Company to purchase and complete the Western North Carolina Railroad and consolidute it with the North Carolina Religend and prospectively with the Atlant c and North Careina Rail oad-this act, we say, has many adn.en. "Should the cout mplated consolitation be effect d, we will have a c ntipuous line of sailway from the S. a-board to the Georgia and Tennessee lines.

Befor these roads are con-olidat d, the Wes tern North Carolina Railroad will have to be completed. This, the North Carolina Railroad Company propose to do without adding a cent to the debt of the State, or the taxes of the people. - How? It will issue its bonds, to the exten' of $50,000 per mile of the North Caroling Railroad, already completed, sell those b eds at a stipulated price, m rigaging the read as security to the purchasers. The money thus raised will, it is said, be amply sufficient to complete the Western North Carolina Rullread, but if not, the C mpany, as we understand it, (we have not the charter or act before us) is author'zed to m rtgage this real also in sectious as it becomes completed.

The completion of the Western N. C. Ruilroad extensions, completing a consolidated line through the State of North Carolina could not fail to be of is calculable advantage to all ranks and conditions of our citizens. In the grand scheme, the people of W stern North Carolina are deeply is terested. Its advantages to them cannot well be estimated wit out diving deeper other suljects, but we cannot approve of its into the future than we can allow our imaginaon to carry us. Among other things, however it will open to them markets, foreign and interests of the State. domestie, from which they have b en hitherto shut out, for their agricultu al, mining and mechanical productions, stimulate all their energies and enterprise, and make all their deschate places, mental and physical, blossom as the rose. It will do more :- It will consolidate the people of the East and West, Larmonise their interests, pr mote their culture a d refinement, and nuil them in the bonds of fratern lunity. It will effect an object, bing and culpatly neelected, t e building up of our o u senout towns, foste ing trate and commerce between Consolidation scheme would be to us convincing the Celebrated Hoyts Garman Cologne for t e sections of the State and Inviting trade and commerce from every part of the civilized orl - and stril wore : Making one of two peoples and adding to the culture and refinement of both.

But it is objected th to "there is a Ring in this movement-that Billy Smit), McAden, Buford, Silley, and Wilson, the President of the Southern Security Company, hell a meeting in New York, as early as last August, or S pleater, to consider this very subject," This statement we copy from the Sentinel; and in the same connectio , the Sentinel states that it knows : "The State has been robbed of its Go to Worm L's for fine presents for the it knows; "The State has be u robbed of its holidays—Chromes, Albums, pic use frames, property by huge corporations who are now at work to take the little that is left." The ob- To the Public. ject of the Sentinel in making this and other similiar stactmen's seems to be to prevent the passage by the Legislature, of a supplementary Great Reduction in Prices for 30 Days, | bill in aid of the pr. jected consolidation.

To the Sentinel, the honest masses of North Carolina are deeply indebted for its faithful defense of themselves, their rights, duties and interes's in the past.-Though not always approving of its course, we would not pluck a solitary leaf from its well-carned laurels. But its opposition to the scheme of consolidation and its mode of warfare upon its authors, supporters and friends, we deem unwise and im-

The Sentinel persists in saying that "there is a Ring in this movement "-that "Billy Smith, McAden, Baford, Sibley and Wilson, the President of the Southern Security Company held a meeting in New York as early as last August, or September, to consider this very subject." If by this the Sentinel means to make the impression that the parties named originated the scheme, we must insist that it is grossly mistaken, and has been sadly imposed upon by its informants. Why do we say so?

Cel. L. W. Humpbrey, our Senator from sonal veracity or official integrity, has never been questioned. T. at he wants be a party to a "Ring" of ruffins, combined to rob the State and its people, no national man will believe. If he is a party to and a part of such a "Ring" as the Sentinel tries to expose, we unhesitatingly sas he is corruptly so, and none who know Col-Humphrey-no, not one believes that he is corrupt or corruptible.-Then if not corruptly a party to this "Ring" neither is he ignorantly so; for as a man of quick p-resption, keen sensibility and keep penetration, C.I. Hum-

Humphrey) is its origintor-that At 6 o'clock A. M. neither Scott, Buford, Swepson, nor any of the Sentinet's "Ring" men had anythinfi to do with "concocting" it. Col. Humphrey further tells us that the creating, by the Legislature, of a Commission consisting of Tod P. Caldwell, M E Manly, W. L. Steele, J. H. Wilson. George Davis and B. L. Gaither, to arbitrate and adjust our Western North Carolina Railroad troubles caused him to think over our dilapidated Railroad system, and he came to the corclusion that the N. C. Railroad Company had the ability, and that it was to the interest of its stockholders, to parchase and finish the Western N. C. roads, then to purchase the Atlantic and N. C. roud, then to consolidate them all and have one continuous line from vocat s and some opponents among our leading seaboard to the Tennessee and Georgia roads. But Col. Humphrey, in his remarks, does not stop here. "He gives the names of a number of our leading men, all large stockholders in N. C., road, to whom he submitted his consolidation scheme and every one of whom cordially approved it and urged him to press it. It was then submitted to the Board of Directors of the N. C. R. R. Company who also approved it. And lastly, it was submitted to a joint meeting of the Board of Directors and the State Commission meetioned above, by whom this consolidation railroad policy was unanimously adopted and Col. Humphrey was requested to introduce the bill.

Now, in view of all these explanations, openly and candidly submitted by Col. Humphrey, and in view of the additional fact that the State commissioners, composed of such men as Tod. R. Caldwell, M. E. Manly, W. L. Sfeele, J. H. Wilson, George Davis and B. S. Gaither, in joint meeting with the Board of Directors, unanimously approved and adopted this Consolidation Railroad policy-in view of all this, we say, we deem it unwise and impolitic in the Sentinel to persist in its opposition to the grand scheme. We have admitted the Sentinel's usefulness and influence in other days, and in present course because we deem it disastrous, if

To our Eastern readers it will take loud talk and volumes of sophistry, before they will consent to believe that M. E. Manly, Walter L. Steele and George Davis could be deceived on the wisdom and fitness of any scheme or any policy which they had jointly or severally investigated, by the plots, machinations or conspiracies of any "Ring," however artful in deception or drilled in the art of roquery. The sametion of their names, great pure and esteemed as they are admitted to be, to this magnificent ing proof of the tolle and impolicy of the Senti-ne's invectives against. And we carnestly hope that if any further legislation is necessary to facilitate the work of consolidation, it may be speedily granted .- Goldsboro Messenger.
