BREAKFAST.

By a thorough knowledge of the natal laws which govern the operations of egestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of welleleted Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided breakfast tables with a delicately World beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the hermus use of such articles of diet that constitution may be gradually built up antil strong enough to resist every tendency to diseases. Hundreds of subtle maladies are thoating around us ready to tack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by dong ourselves well fortified with pure local and a properly nourished frame. Service Gazette. Made simply th boiling water or milk. Sold only in bound time by Grocers, labelled thus:

Breathe not nil nisi bonum o'er my dust: A manly soul would ever take to task

The charity that stifles truth, and ask That what thou sayest be severely just. If all my virtue be a hollow crust, My heart a devil's shrine, my face a mask Of Christian love that living I may bask In men's approval, then dispel their trust. Nor do I crave for studied praise of wit And wisdom that I never have possessed; I should go hence content if on the bit Of stone that tells my dates of birth and

In truth and soberness, there might be writ:
"He was loved best by those who knew him best."

-Wilbur Larremore At a Reading. The spare professor, grave and bald, Began his paper. It was called, I think, "A Brief Historic Glance At Russia, Germany and France.' A glance, but to my best belief Twas almost anything but brief, wide survey, in which the earth Was seen before mankind had birth; trange monsters basked them in the sun, Behemoth, armored glyptodon And in the dawn's unpracticed ray The transient dodo winged its way; Then, by degrees, through slit and slough, We reached Berlin-I don't know how. The good professor's monotone Had turned me into senseless stone. Instanter, but that near me sat, Hypatis in her new spring hat, Blue eyed, intent, with lips whose bloom Lighted the heavy, curtained room. Hypatia-oh, what lovely things Are fashioned out of eighteen springs At first, in sums of this amount, The eighteen winters do not count. Just as my eyes were growing dim With heaviness, I saw that slim. Erect, elastic figure there, Like a pond lily taking air. She looked so fresh, so wise, so neat, So altogether crisp and sweet, I quite forgot what Bismarck said, And why the emperor shook his head,

Were these: A forehead broad and low, Such as the antique sculptures show: A chin to Greek perfection true: Eyes of Astarte's tender blue; A high complexion with the neck.

Or flaw, and curis about her neck.

-T. B. Aldrich. Immortality. mmortal life is something to be carned, By slow self conquest, comradeship with Pai And patient seeking after higher truths. We cannot follow our own wayward wills. And feed our baser appetites, and give Loose rein to foolish tempers year on year,

Cost France another frontier town. The only facts I took away

And then cry, "Lord, forgive me, I believe," And straightway bathe in glory. Men mus God's system is too grand a thing for that. The spark divine dwells in our souls, and we Can fan it to a steady flame of light. And shines on through Eternity, or else Neglect it till it glimmers down to Death, Each conquered passion feeds the living flame Each well borne sorrow is a step toward God: Faith cannot rescue, and no blood redeem The soul that will not reason and resolve.

Sends prayer footsore forth over weary wastes While he who calls it prayer gives wings to hope), And there are spirits, messengers of Love, Who come at call and fortify our strength. Make friends with them, and with thine inner Cast out all envy, bitterness and hate:

And keep the mind's fair tabernacle pure. Shake hands with Pain, give greeting unto Those angels in disguise, and thy glad soul From height to height, from star to shining

Shall climb and claim blest immortality. -Ella Wheeler Wilcox. "A Rose by Any Other Name." First the teacher called the roll. Clos't to the beginnin "Addeliney Bowersox! Set the school a-grinnin. Winter time, and stingin cold When the session took up-Sox's feelin's was so hurt She cried half an hour! My dest was acrost from hern; Set and watched her tryin To p'tend she didn't keer, And a kind o' dryin Up her tears with smiles, tel I Thought, "Well, Addeliney Bowersox is plain, but she's Purty as a piney!" It's ben many of a year Sence that most oncommon Cur'ous name o' Bowersox Struck me as so abomin-Nubble and outlandish-like; I changed it to Adde-Liney Daubenspeck-and that Nearly killed her daddy! -James Whitcomb Riley. Mystery. I did not love him; long ago Instead of Yes I gave him No. I did not love him, but today I read his marriage notice. Pray Why was I sad, when never yet Has my heart known the least regret Over that whispered No? And why, Reading the notice, did I sigh? No analyst can guess the cause: A woman's reason laughs at laws. Sure, I am glad to know the wound I gave is healed; that he has found

Love's blessedness and peace, and yet With every glance a mute caress, Still pleading for the longed-for Yes. His early love for me is dead-Another lives in that love's stead. And if he loves her well, as men Should love their chosen ones, why then He must be glad that long ago,

Perhaps that is the reason why I read the notice with a sigh. -Indianapolis Journal. Love and Gold. Riches, like insects, while concealed they lie, Wait but for wings, and in their seasons fly: To whom can riches give repute and trust,

Instead of Yes I gave him No.

Esteem and love are never to be sold. Beauty. Beauty, sweet love, is like the morning dew, Whose short refresh upon the tender green Cheers for a time—but till the sun doth show-
