Sincerity.
Ah, you were speaking of flirting:
'Twas wrong, I recall, you declared,
But I held the other opinion.
Would have said so had I but dared.

You said a flirtation to some
Must surely bring infinite pain;
That whenever two hearts went playing
One heart must be hurt of the twain.

I ventured that, both understanding,
'Twas only a pleasing pastime.
You averred that, while I might think so,
To love was more than a sublime.

Far too grand to be made a plaything,
Too sacred for false masquerade.
And I smiled at you there in earnest,
Such a sweet, sincere little maid.

'Twas yesterday, down on the seaside,
I thought as we talked on the sand,
That time, with its changes so bitter,
Would alter her fancy so grand.

It is strange that a year could so change
The girl whom I met by the sea—
Last night when I made my avowal
She said she'd be flirting with me.

—W. R. H.

A Wonder.
She is a college graduate. Packed in her little Are all the living languages and many that are dead.
She speaks her thoughts in Latin and she whistles in high Greek,
While with the Chinese waltz man she easily can cope.

The whole array of sciences are at her finger tips,
And problems mathematical, just bubble from her lips.
Whenever she talks her hearers try their hardest to keep up with her, but
But, to confess their ignorance, they venture no replies.

Not only is she learning far ahead of any young woman,
But she is college tennis was the captain of a team.
And in the college races on the lake and on the land,
Was always crowned the victor, to the music of the band.

A dainty pair of glasses on her dainty little nose,
Adds to her look of culture and her stately bearing.
But when discussing subjects with a Boston
messenger,
Her eyes flash through her glasses like a locomotive's light.

Oh, she is just a daisy. Though the drawback of her sex
Keeps her from being president, her mind it
doesn't vex;
For there are higher stations she is able to attain.
By having so much knowledge in her active
little brain.

And now the wonder cometh: this sweet college girl,
Keeps her from being president, her mind it
doesn't vex;
For there are higher stations she is able to attain.
By having so much knowledge in her active
little brain.

Young and Old.
When all the world is young, lad,
When all the trees are green;
And every grass a sward, lad,
And every flower a queen;
Then they for boot and horse, lad,
And round the world they ride,
Young blood must have its course, lad,
And every dog his day.

When all the world is old, lad,
And all the trees are brown;
And all the sport is o'er, lad,
And all the wheels run down;
Creep home and take your place there,
The spent and maimed among,
God grant you find one face there,
That you loved when all was young.

—Charles Kinsley.

Who Shall Be Fairest?
Who shall be fairest?
Who shall be rarest?
Who shall be the first in the songs that we sing?
Who shall be the first in the songs that we sing?
When Fortune is blindest,
When Fortune is blindest,
When Fortune is blindest,
When Fortune is blindest.

Bearing through winter the blooms of the spring.
Charm of our gladness,
Friend of our sadness,
Angel of life, who shouldst take wing,
She shall be fairest.

Who shall be rarest?
Who shall be the first in the songs that we sing?
Who shall be the first in the songs that we sing?
When Fortune is blindest,
When Fortune is blindest,
When Fortune is blindest,
When Fortune is blindest.

Remember.
Remember me when I am gone away,
Gone far away into the silent land;
When you are all so sadly leaning,
Not half turn to go, yet turning stay.
Remember me when no more day by day
You tell me of our future that you planned;
Only remember me, you understand,
It will be late to counsel then or pray.
Yet if you should forget me a moment,
Afterward remember, do not grieve;
For if the darkness and corruption leave
A vestige of the thoughts that once I had,
Better by far you should remember and be sad,
Than that you should forget me wholly.

—Christina G. Rossetti.

Romance in E.
The room is dark, she sits
And plays the wily moonlight fits
While dim the wily moonlight fits
Above her braided hair,
And borne from out the summer dark
I hear the village watchdog bark.

She plays the air, and I recall
How first I heard it by the sea;
I know each chord, remember all
The meaning it once held for me,
That bitter autumn in the rain,
Old scar, in which I yet feel pain.

And as she plays, thank God, my heart
Beats strong with thankfulness and joy,
That I have lived and played my part,
A man, and not a loveless boy.
A man I come to her and cry,
"Play for me, dearest, till I die!"

—Cornhill Magazine.

Best at Last.
Sweet rest at last—
At last the hands are folded
Upon a peaceful breast.
And a soul tired of earth's great burden
Hath found sweet rest.

—In Cambridge Cemetery.

Fate.
Fate leads the footstep:
Fate, when their roof-tree
Falls, think it doomed;
Firm stands the sky.

—James Russell Lowell.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Wm Timmers, Postmaster of Ila-ville, Ind., writes: Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Fit Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c a bottle, at T. R. Abernethy's Drug Store.

What measures are you taking to stop that cough? Let us suggest, Dr. Witt's Cough and Consumption Cure. It is infallible.—For sale by J. A. Smith, druggist.

The term foothall, as applied to the game now played, seems to be a case of genus non inveniend. There is very little foothall in it. The kicking mostly done by the players against the rulings of the umpire. The head, the arms, the hands the fists are all used more than the feet. It would be curious to trace the evolution of the present game from the old-fashioned foothall played thirty years ago, when it was almost wholly a kicking game. Then it was an exceptional thing for the ball to be touched by a player's hands; now it is seldom out of some one's hands.

You may cough and cough and cough and cough and cough you will not, if you take Dr. Witt's Cough and Consumption Cure.—For sale by J. A. Smith, druggist.

NATIONAL ALLIANCE MEETING.

From Col. L. L. Polk's account of the Indianapolis meeting in the Progressive Farmer we copy the following. The February meeting is to be composed of twenty-five delegates at large from each organization in the confederation one for each ten thousand members in each organization to be chosen by the membership. The following is the list of the delegates at large for the Alliance;

Harry Tracy, Texas; L. P. Featherstone, Arkansas; William Farr Goodwin, New Jersey; Col. C. M. Butt, Wisconsin; Alva Agee, Ohio; T. S. Adams, Louisiana; Marion Cannon, California; L. F. Livingston, Georgia; Frank Burkett, Mississippi; J. B. Beverley, Virginia; Matthew Rhea, Tennessee; L. Leonard, Missouri; J. B. Weaver, Iowa, M. V. Rork, Oregon; C. M. Maxson, New York; St. Claire Thompson, Pennsylvania; M. A. Householder, Kansas; M. G. Elzey, Maryland; T. T. Gardner, Kansas; Thomas W. Gorce, Indiana; William Hess, Illinois; R. A. Southworth, Colorado; M. V. Lonecker, Michigan, S. M. Adams, Alabama; A. P. Baskins, Florida; Marion Butler, North Carolina.

The place of meeting is to be determined by the committee, but it is understood that it will be held in St. Louis, Cincinnati, Chicago, or some point in the central Northwest.

No changes in our national officers except the substitution of Bro H. L. Loucks, of South Dakota, for Bro. B. H. Clover, of Kansas, as Vice-President. Bro. Clover, it will be remembered, is now a member of congress. The National Legislative Committee now consists of the National President, C. W. Macune, L. P. Featherstone, of Arkansas, Gwinn, of Tennessee, and Mann Page, of Virginia. The Presidents of all the States constitute the Advisory Council to the National President.

A resolution was adopted requesting such members of Congress as owe their election to Alliance votes, not to enter a party caucus on the question of Speaker-ship unless adherence to the Ocala demands be made the test.

Certainly, in one instance, it does. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the great protection against the dangers of impure blood, and it will cure or prevent all diseases of this class. It has well won its name of the best blood purifier by its many remarkable cures.

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy efficient action. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 cents per box.

"Listed," as the brokers say, at "100 Doses One Dollar," Hood's Sarsaparilla is always a fair equivalent for the price.

The largest line of Confections ever brought to Newton, at Yount & Shrums. Prices lower than ever before.

What measures are you taking to stop that cough? Let us suggest, Dr. Witt's Cough and Consumption Cure. It is infallible.—For sale by J. A. Smith, druggist.

THIRD PARTY HERE.

Mecklenburg Times. An Allianceman sent the following to the editor of the Times yesterday: Editor Times: There is a scheme or trick being run on the voters of this State, and I suppose the whole country, that should be exposed. A very fancy gotten-up paper, in the shape of a petition with red tape and the name of the National Alliance attached, headed, "We the undersigned, pledge ourselves to support a third party in 1892," and is being sent to all the sub-Alliances in the State and are being signed by the Alliancemen almost to a man. Two men in this county that you well know are at work all over this county, Ireddell, Rowan, Cabarrus and Stanley."

The red taped petition will be published in the Times next week. In the meantime, we have to say that there is nothing in the English language that will express our contempt for this low-down, underhand, cowardly, sneaking, proselyting method of politics.

The men who seek to prostitute the Alliance to the crazy Third party movement had no regard for the Alliance constitution and its pledges of non-partisanship. We feel sure that this low down method was never dreamed of by any farmer, but it is the work of old worn out dead-beat political skunks, like Ritzren-moore and Macree, who have stolen in the organization like weevils in corn, to sap its life, befool its constitution and leave it empty shell.

Over a year ago we pointed out the dangers of allowing politicians to get in control of the farmers organization. The fork of the road is here. The farmers who joined the Alliance for a good purpose have either to get the politicians outside or see the organization perverted, disgraced and run in the ground.

Our experience covers many ills, many pills and many bills. Our pills are smaller our pills are smaller and our bills are smaller when we use Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers.—For sale by J. A. Smith, druggist.

GUARANTEED CURE. We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition. If you are afflicted with a Cough, Cold or any Lung, Throat or Chest trouble, and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We could not make this offer did we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Trial bottles free at T. R. Abernethy's Drug Store. Large size 50c. and $1.00.

Dr. Witt's Sarsaparilla destroys such poisons as scrofula, skin disease, eczema, rheumatism. Its timely use saves many lives.—For sale by J. A. Smith, druggist.

HAPPY HOOSIERS. Wm Timmers, Postmaster of Ila-ville, Ind., writes: Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." It would be curious to trace the evolution of the present game from the old-fashioned foothall played thirty years ago, when it was almost wholly a kicking game. Then it was an exceptional thing for the ball to be touched by a player's hands; now it is seldom out of some one's hands.
