

THE NEWTON ENTERPRISE.

VOL XXVII

NEWTON, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28 1905,

No. 81.

Rules For Jap Brides.

London Express.

That the movement to free woman from the bonds of overbearing man receives but little encouragement in the sunny land of Japan is evident from the commandments given Japanese wives on their wedding morning by their mothers.

The behests are known as the "Twenty Commandments of the Bride," and read as follows:

"1. The moment you are married, you are no longer my daughter. Therefore, you must obey your parents-in-law as you once obeyed your father and mother.

"2. When you are married, your husband will be your sole master. Be humble and polite. Strict obedience to her husband is the noblest virtue a wife can possess.

"3. Always be amiable toward your mother-in-law.

"4. Do not be jealous; jealousy kills your husband's affection for you.

"5. Even though your husband be wrong, do not get angry; be patient, and when he has calmed down, then speak to him gently.

"6. Do not talk too much; speak no evil of your neighbors; never tell lies.

"7. Rise early, retire late, and do not sleep in the afternoon. Drink little wine, and until you are fifty take no part in public assemblies nor mingle in crowds.

"8. Consult no fortune-teller.

"9. Be a good manageress, and especially be economical in your household.

"10. Although you may marry young do not frequent too youthful society.

"11. Do not wear bright-colored garments. Always be neatly but modestly dressed.

"12. Do not pride yourself on your father's rank or fortune. If he is a rich man, never allude to his riches before your husband's relations."

These rules are similar to those which were in vogue in Japan hundreds of years ago, as is indicated in the interesting book on Japanese women by Mr. S. Tokutomi, in the "Wisdom of the East" series.

The Engineer Cried.

"Yes, indeed, we have some queer little incidents happen to us," said the engineer.

"A queer thing happened to me about a year ago. You'd think it queer for a rough man like me to cry for ten minutes, and nobody hurt either, wouldn't you? Well I did, and I almost cry every time I think of it."

"I was running along one afternoon pretty lively, when I approached a little village where the track cuts through the street. I slacked up a little, but was still making good speed, when suddenly about twenty rods ahead of me a little girl not more than three years old toddled onto the track. You can't even imagine my feelings. There was no way to save her. It was impossible to stop, or even slack much at that distance as the train was heavy and the grade was descending. In ten seconds it would have been all over, and after reversing and applying the brake I shut my eyes. I didn't want to see any more.

"As we slowed down my fireman stuck his head out of the cab window to see what I had stopped for when he laughed and shouted to me: 'Jim look here!' I looked, and there was a big, black Newfoundland dog holding the little girl in his mouth, leisurely walking towards the house where she evidently belonged. She was kicking and crying so that I knew she wasn't hurt, and the dog had saved her. My fireman thought it funny and kept laughing, but I cried like a woman. I just couldn't help it, had a little girl of my own at home."—Catholic Home Companion.

Horse Sense Hints.

Farm Journal.

Don't leave mekitched in my stall at night with a big cob right where I must lie down. I am tied and can't select a smooth place.

Don't compel me to eat more salt than I want by mixing it with my oats. I know better than any other animal how much I need.

Don't think because I go free under the whip I don't get tired. You would move up if under the whip.

Don't think because I am a horse that weeds and briars won't hurt my hay.

Don't whip me when I get frightened along the road, or I will expect it next time and may be make trouble.

Don't trot me up hill, for I have to carry you and the buggy and myself too. Try it yourself sometime. Run up hill with a big load.

Don't keep my stable very dark, for when I go out into the light my eyes are injured.

Don't say "whoa" unless you mean it.

Teach me to stop at the word. It may check me if the lines break, and save a runaway and smash-up.

Don't ask me to back with blinds on. I am afraid.

Don't run me down a steep hill, for if anything should give way I might break your neck.

Don't put on my blind bridle so that it irritates my eyes, or so leave my forelock that it will be in my eyes.

Don't be so careless of my harness as to find a great sore on me before you can attend to it.

Don't forget the old book that is a friend of all the oppressed, that says: "A merciful man is merciful to his beast."

Hurrying up the Canal.

Atlanta Journal.

The board of consulting engineers of the isthmian canal is still hesitating between various plans submitted for a completed canal in five years was considered yesterday. But the engineers should not be too precipitate about accepting it. Maybe if they wait ten years more some one will evolve a plan by which the waterway can be finished in four years.

M. Bunau Varilla, who was suddenly belated into prominence at the time the republic of Panama appeared, is author of the plan. "It could be deepened," says the Associated Press report of his canal, "to a sea level canal in five years more. The novel feature of his plan is to construct the locks from a foundation below sea level. With the locks built down to the sea level depth the work of dredging the canal could be continued without interrupting its operation for commerce. The same locks could be utilized at every depth until a sea level was reached, when the locks could be taken out."

The engineers rather liked Bunau Varilla's method, but did not, of course, commit themselves. That seems to be one of the chief functions of the various boards to avoid committing themselves about the canal. Month after month has rolled by, and still the engineers have not yet decided on the sort of a canal they want. Will it be a sea level canal, or a lock affair, or what kind of a canal will it be? No one knows. And please don't bother the experts. They intend to find some plan for constructing the waterway in record-breaking time if it takes twenty years of study.

Georgia Philosophy.

Atlanta Constitution.

The old times were good times, but, thank the Lord, we're alive to see the New!

Even when we reach the Valley of Despair, we get cheerful hoping for the best.

It's hard to find a thornless rose; but the sweetness of the flower makes up for the bitterness of the thorn.

Life has many wholesome lessons for us, but when school takes in, we all play truant.

"Binny's been fired fr'in the union." "Phwat fer?" "The walkin' dilgiate saw him going up a ladder two rounds at a time."—Cleveland Leader.

Green Goods Man Played for Suckers and Got Caught.

New York Special, 20th, to Charlotte Observer.

"We caught a wise man instead of a sucker," was the way two sorry looking "green goods" men explained it when locked up at police headquarters today. They were John H. Wilson and William Parker. The police say their faces are in the rogues gallery.

The two men addressed a "common" letter to R. A. Jarrett, of Dillsboro, N. C., not knowing that he was a postmaster. Jarrett sent the letter to the postoffice authorities, and Postoffice Inspector Boyie, of this city, Detective Farrell were put on the case.

The latter rigged up as a Southerner and drilled in a Southern drawl, took outside the city a train on which the "common" had been told to arrive. The detective was told to go to the Putnam House, where a man would call on him. A few minutes after he had engaged a room a man called and said his name was Edward Aill. He was, in fact, Parker. Parker took a rick to a house in Herkimer street, Brooklyn, where he introduced Farrell to Wilson and the "green goods" were produced.

Farrell says he was offered $5,000 worth for $1,250, and then drew his revolver and told the men they were under arrest.

South's Supremacy Undisputed in the Growth of Cotton.

Ry Associated Press.

Washington, Sept. 18.—The Department of Commerce and Labor has just published a report stating that the result of the attempt to grow cotton in West Africa has been very discouraging owing to the absence of laborers.

In Sierra Leone a cotton association tried American seeds, but plantation did not prove to be a success. Under the most favorable conditions Sierra Leone could produce 150,000 bales, but for the next ten years no more than 6,000 bales a year may be expected. Northern Nigeria, with a population of 20,000,000 of fairly civilized people, is best fitted for the cotton industry, but the lack of transportation facilities makes it impossible to conduct it. The colonies of Lagos, Southern Nigeria, Gold coast, Sierra Leone and Gambia could under most favorable conditions produce 350,000 bales but for the next eight years no more than 100,000 bales can be expected.

Suicide in Shiloh Township.

Yesterday at about 12 o'clock Miss Sallie Johnston, daughter of Mrs. Mag Johnston, who lives near New Stirling church, in Shiloh township jumped in the well at her home and was drowned before she could be rescued. The young woman had been in bad health for some time and this is the only reason that can be assigned for the suicide. It is supposed that she had brooded over her condition until her mind became impaired. It is evident that she had been planning suicide, for very recently she asked some of her friends if they thought she would be lost if she took her own life. The well in which she jumped is only about 25 feet deep and contains only about three feet of water, but the woman was drowned before she could be taken out.

ALWAYS SUCCESSFUL.

When indigestion becomes chronic it is dangerous. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will cure indigestion and all troubles resulting therefrom, thus preventing Catarrh of the Stomach. Dr. Newbrough, of League, W. Va., says: "To those suffering from indigestion or sour stomach I would say there is no better remedy than Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have prescribed it for a number of my patients with good success." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by R. P. Freeze and Abernethy Drug Co.

Judge Parker has only been a candidate for the presidency once and he is entitled to another try before Col. Bryan heads the ticket again.—Raleigh Post.

Rheumatism, gout, backache, acid poison, are results of kidney trouble. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea goes directly to the seat of the disease and cures when all else fails. 35 cents. Abernethy Drug Co.

Grouch—most of the people who talk about their ideas of things are mere fools, after all. Ascum—Indeed? Why, that's my own idea.—Philadelphia Press

Pointed Paragraphs.

Chicago News.

A cloak of charity is often a misfit.

Love frequently begets hate, but hate never begets love. Somehow people never like to take advice from a poor man.

Narrow-minded men seldom travel in the straight and narrow path.

Health food is so called because a healthy person can eat it with impunity.

A woman seldom says what she thinks when she hits her thumb with a hammer.

It sometimes happens that a foolish woman mistakes her disagreeable disposition for a proud spirit.

When a girl under fourteen is ambitious to become an actress, it's up to her mother to get busy with her slipper.

It is simply a waste of time to argue politics or religion. The other fellow knows you are in the wrong just as well as you know he isn't in the right.

The Ruling Passion.

Charleston News.

Representative James, of Kentucky, gives a strong illustration of the "ruling passion, strong in death."

"Old man Billy Bascomb was sick and his neighbors and family felt that his demise was only a question of a few hours or days. As the meat was running low a steer was butchered and when his son came into the room the old man asked:

"What have you been doing, John?"

"Killing the steer," was the reply.

"What did you do with the hide?" asked the old man faintly.

"Put it in the barn; going to sell it by and by."

"Oh, John,"

"Yes, pap."

"Drag the hide around the yard a couple of times, and it will weigh heavier."

"Yes, pap."

"And the good old man was gathered unto his fathers."

The Oak Tree's Reverie.

Atlanta Constitution.

"I feel that trouble's coming," said the Oak Tree: "The wind blows keen o' nights now, and I feel a sorter loosenin' of my leaves—a sudden shiver as the sap thrills through my veins. Old winter's on the way; for over there, in the fields made fair by Saunter, I see the yellow corn and the song o' the reapers has silenced all the birds. But I'm not complaining, for I've had a hallooia time the summer long! My broad, cool branches wald welcome to the winds, and rain sunshine shimmered in my laughing leaves! My shadow was rest and recompense to the sunburned toilers, and the tempests blew all the birds to my embracing arms. And when Winter strips my branches bare of bloom, the earth will be all glorious with my golden leaves. I shall but sleep a while, and hear a later spring-time signing in my dreams."

NO UNPLEASANT EFFECTS.

If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what pill pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and purify the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. Justice of the Peace Adam Shook, New Lisbon, Ind., says: "Some three years ago I had a spell of grip and felt outdone and I happened to get a trial box of DeWitt's Little Early Risers and they gave me strength and muscle." They do not gripe or make you feel sick. Sold by R. P. Freeze and Abernethy Drug Co.

Eaves-Dropped the Masonic Meeting.

Spencer Dispatch, 18th.

Ten young men of this place were tried tonight and fined $15 each and the costs for breaking up a Masonic lodge meeting yesterday afternoon. The youngsters, who are from some of the best families in Spencer, are accused of eaves-dropping the lodge was in secret session. The boys climbed up a garret over the lodge room and broke up the meeting, after which they were taken into custody.

The affair has caused a sensation in Spencer.

Mr. Harriman was trying to negotiate a deal for a Japanese railroad when those Tokyo rioters threw stones at him. Possibly they had heard of Mr. Harriman's railroad experiences in America. —Washington Post.

Nuts as Food.

Charlotte Chronicle.

Mr. G. B. Burkett, of The Progressive Farmer, is urging upon his readers the value of nuts as food and it strikes us that he is engaged in a good work. He gives the composition of chestnuts, peanuts, corn, potatoes and oatmeal feeding stuffs commonly used on the dining table. The composition of each is given, so any one can readily estimate the nutritive value of each.

Chestnuts (native), ash, 1.62; protein, 7.55; starch, 39.66; fat, 9.89.

Peanuts, ash, 2.21; protein, 26.62; fiber, 2.41; starch, 16.75; fat, 42.01.

Corn, ash, 1.5; protein, 11.5; fiber, 2.1; starch, 79.6; fat, 5.4.

Potatoes, ash, 1.0; protein, 2.1; fiber, 6; starch, 17.3; fat, 1.

Oatmeal, ash, 2; protein, 14.7; fiber, 9; starch, 67.4; fat, 7.1.

Take peanuts, for instance, he says. While this nut is not considered as a nut, properly speaking, it can be used in this classification. You see they take high rank as human food. They contain more mineral matter than oatmeal and nearly twice the quantity of protein—the blood, the muscle and the nerve maker. Nuts, then, including peanuts, should readily find a place on the home table. They are nutritious, wholesome and appetizing. Properly used they are unsurpassed, and all the time they are cheap in price. From the standpoint of value a dollar will purchase more of nuts or peanuts, than scarcely anything else eaten by man.

Pattlesnake Bites Child.

Special to The Charlotte News.

Goldsboro, Sept. 22.—Yesterday morning while trying to liberate her pet kitten, which a rattlesnake had coiled its tail around, the little daughter of Dr. W. B. Crawford was bitten twice, and would have been killed if it hadn't been for her father.

When she at last secured her kitten she let out to running with the snake close behind her. The father was attracted to the scene by the cries of his daughter and when he reached her, was astonished to see a huge rattlesnake close behind her. He seized a piece of wood close by and after about 15 minutes of work succeeded in killing it.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

He then proceeded to suck the poison from the wounds of his daughter as best he could, and applied every known remedy, but notwithstanding this the child has suffered excruciating pain ever since and is expected to die. The snake was about as large as a man's wrist and several feet long.

William on Dr. Murphy.

Charlotte Chronicle.

"What are you smiling so broadly about this morning?" asked a Chronicle man of William Gorrell, the club doorkeeper.

"There's des been er gem'mon heradat I's sorter proud uv. He's er big, healthy lookin' gem'mon, wid er sharp berd, er little red la'k. Dey say dat it's Dr. Murphy, frum Morganton. Well he's on'uf our own fo'lks, I mean we good old time Southern white fo'lks an' niggers. He step in de do' here an' look at me, an' smile la'k an' den ast: 'Is dis here Mr. William Gorrell?' I seed frum de smile on is face dat de 'Mister' wuz all in fun, an' dat de right thing fr me to do was to scrape mer foot an' be perlit. I knowed right den dat he wuz one uv de ole stock. I'd dos la'k to drap er few words in his year."

"William, Dr. Murphy must have given you something?" suggested the reporter.

"No, sir, but he's gut some nickels and dimes in his clothes fur me some time. He's des de sort dat don't never furgiter nigger. He sho' is all right."

SALE OF LAND.

Under and by virtue of a Deed of Trust executed to me by H. H. Harner and wife, Manie L. Harner, bearing date December 16th, 1904, and duly recorded in book 67, on page 432, in the office of Register of Deeds for Catawba county State of North Carolina, and because of default in the payment of the debt there secured, I will sell at public auction for cash to the highest bidder at the County Court House door in the town of Newton, N. C., on MONDAY, OCTOBER 9TH, 1905, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 2 P. M., all of the following described piece of land, lying and being in Jacobs Fork Township, Catawba County, and more particularly described and defined as follows:

Beginning at a rock in the public road, Jarrett's corner, and runs N. 66° W. 15 poles to a rock, thence S. 55° W. 6 1/2 poles to a rock on the Kiles line, thence S 83° E 12 poles and 8 links to a rock in the public road, thence N. 26° E. 14 rods and 10 links to the beginning, containing one acre more or less, said piece or parcel of land lying at what is known as Plateau, in the County of Catawba, and upon which land is situated a storehouse and the dwelling house of the grantors.

This September 2nd, 1905. R. R. Williams, W. E. Younts, Attorneys.

NOTICE.

NORTH CAROLINA—Catawba County, In the Superior Court, Before the Clerk.

W. N. Hunsicker vs. N. C. Sigmon, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rose, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Pinner, Affie, May and Lee Sigmon, minors and non residents above named, will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced in the Superior Court, before the clerk, to make partition between the above named tenants in common, the said defendants are summoned to appear before the clerk of the Superior Court at his office in Newton, on the 24th day of October, 1905, and answer or demur to the petition of the plaintiff above named. You will further take notice that if you and each of you fail to appear on the date and place hereinbefore named, the relief demanded in said petition will be prayed.

Done at my office in Newton this 11th day of September, 1905. L. H. PHILLIPS, Clerk Superior Court.

Trinity College

Four Departments—Collegiate, Graduate, Engineering and Law.

Large library facilities. Well equipped laboratories in all departments of science. Gymnasium furnished with best apparatus. Expenses very moderate. Aid for worthy students.

Young Men wishing to Study Law should investigate the superior advantages offered by the Department of Law in TRINITY COLLEGE.

For catalogue and further information, address, D. W. NEWSM, Registrar, DURHAM, N. C.

Hutham & Williams

The undersigned attorneys have formed a partnership for the practice of law in litigated cases only. The office of Mr. Hutham will continue at Hickory as hitherto and that of Mr. Williams at Newton. Persons desiring to do business with the firm may consult either of the members as convenience may suggest. May 16th, 1905.

Thos. M. Hutham, R. R. Williams.

200 Acres Land for Sale.

I have 200 acres of land for sale, and will sell all in one tract or cut it up in small tracts to suit purchasers. It lies on Ball's Creek, eight miles east of Newton, adjoining the W. L. Blackey land, Rev. D. A. Lanier and others, and known as the P. D. Drum place. About half the land is well timbered and the balance cleared and in good condition. Good 2-story dwelling on five-acre orchard, 20 or more acres of bottom land. Price right, terms easy.

Address me at Claremont, N. C., or call at my residence on Herrill's Ford road, one mile west of Bandy's store, C. D. Drum.

Sept. 11th, 1905.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery FOR CONSUMPTION, WHOOPING COUGHS and COLDS. Price 50c & $1.00 Free Trial.

Surest and Quickest Cure for all THROAT and LUNG TROUBLES, or MONEY BACK.

Harness, Saddles & Bridles.

Good Single Set Buggy Harness $7.75

SADDLES $3.50 to $10.00

BRIDLES $1.00 up

Ranges, Cook Stoves, Tin Ware, Shovels; Tools and many thing that a farmer needs. :: ::

When you need anything in the Hardware line call on

SMYRE HARDWARE CO.

Some of the Advantages of a Bank Account.

You are relieved of the worry and danger of loss incident to keeping money in your home or on your person.

You are enabled to save money more easily. You are always able to give a check for any amount without the trouble of making change.

You have a complete record of all money paid out, and your cancelled checks which are returned to you at the end of each month, are the best kinds of receipts.

You are saved the trouble and expense of buying money orders or registering, in sending money through the mail.

Money hoarded, is dead, and of no use to any one; deposited in a bank, it is put into active circulation, and is of benefit to the whole community.

Persons who have never run a bank account, think it a very complicated affair. Such is not the case. Come in any time and we will take pleasure in showing you just how a bank account is run and how simple and convenient it really is.

1905 Assets 1905 $128,094,315.24

Statement for the year ending December 31 1904