The death of Dr. Charles D. McIver, president of the Greensboro State Normal College, is a distinct loss to North Carolina. He devoted his talents and the enthusiasm of a very earnest and vigorous manhood to the advancement of education, and especially the education of the North Carolina girls. He was only 46. His life was too short. But in it was accomplished great good. The great State College for girls is his monument.

Mr. Bryan has had a warm reception in North Carolina. He began his speaking in Raleigh Monday and closed Tuesday night in Charlotte. At all places his audiences were large and enthusiastic. He is very popular in North Carolina, as he is elsewhere. But along with the pleasure of hearing his splendid oratory, there is deep regret that he continues to press his views in favor of government ownership of railroads.

Death of a Good Man.

Brother M. A. Sigmund was born September 19, 1834, and joined the M. E. Church, South, at Rock Spring campmeeting in 1854 and lived a consistent and faithful member filling the offices of steward and trustee many years and was the faithful superintendent of the Sunday School at that place for 36 years, and was ever punctual at his attendance. He died September the fifth 1906, aged 71 years 11 months and 19 days. His life was consistent with his profession, and his work a demonstration of the christian religion. He is not dead, but sleeps the sleep of the righteous and his works will continue to live. Peace be to his ashes. In the absence of his pastor, Rev. M. O. Radtill the writer conducted the burial service, in the presence of a large congregation and laid his body to rest in the Pisgah graveyard, to await resurrection of the just.

The May's Chapel revival meeting is still progressing with increased interest. Great good is being done.

Terrell News.
 Terrell, Sept. 17, 1906.—News is scarce out I will try and send a few items this week. I believe the farmers are about done pulling fodder. The next thing on board is cotton picking. Cotton in my section is very good, but I don't think it will be as good as the people think it will be. My advice to the farmers is to sow more corn and plant less cotton and fix the ground better. We need a better system of farming. Try and raise more of what is needed. Mr. Walter (Gabriel) has taken a position with Greensboro Hardware Company of Statesville as book keeper. He will take his family there as soon as he can get a suitable house. We are sorry to lose as a good citizen as Walter.

Terrell is getting on a boom. There were some railroad men passing through Terrell last week speaking of running a road from Statesville through Terrell, Denver, Lincoln or Ironston. Terrell is a larger town than Catawba, because we have a roller mill that is running every day, one good store, a blacksmith shop, gin, sawmill, planing mill, and good school that will start in a short while; church right in town. Catawba can't beat that.

Mr. T. F. Connor has returned from Baltimore where he has bought a big line of fall and winter goods. Miss Mary Connor has gone to Greensboro College to school. Miss Eva Wilson and Miss Blanch Fisher have gone to Statesville school. I am glad to see the girls take such steps as that. I would love to see some of the boys take such notions as that, wouldn't regret it when they get older. I have such a good joke on some of the fox hunters. Some dogs were running something one day last week when some man came to Terrell and said it was a red fox, for he saw it cross the road in front of him. Mr. Pink Sigma goes home as fast as his horse can go, got in sight and hollered to Enoch to bring the dogs, they had a red fox, so here comes Mr. Hugh Hager on that single footed Jun horse, making about a mile in three minutes. Charles Howard on the gray mare, Henry Gabriel on his gray mare. All bringing their dogs to get them in the race. One man lost his hat, but he was so hungry for a fox race he didn't take time to stop and get it. But low and behold when they caught the fox it proved to be a cat. Some got there in time to enjoy the race, some were mad because they were fooled. A. S. K. said he sold all his dogs for fifty dollars. I think if he had a few foxes he could get fifty dollars for them from Terrell boys, I tell you when our boys go into a thing, they go wholesale, cat or no cat.

Mr. Lloyd Sherrill and his best girl went a visiting last Saturday night over in Mecklenburg. We had a good size congregation at church Sunday evening. Mr. Jim Cochran went to see his best girl Sunday night. Take care Jim, we don't want to be deprived of a school teacher.

Best wishes to the ENTERPRISE

Dr. Chas. D. McIver Dead

Special to The Observer
 Darham, Sept. 17.—Dr. Charles D. McIver, president of the Satts Normal & Industrial College, at Greensboro, died suddenly on the Bryan special train at 4:40 o'clock this afternoon as the result of a stroke of apoplexy. The end came when the train was but a short distance from Darham en route to Greensboro.

This afternoon, after I had seen the crowd in the Academy of Music at Darham and heard Mr. Bryan begin his speech, I went into one of the first class coaches, where I saw Dr. Charles D. McIver sitting on the front seat with his feet on the long seat ahead. When asked why he did not attend the speaking, he said: "I have an acute attack of indigestion and am suffering considerable discomfort." He looked pale, but not enough to cause any alarm. We talked for several minutes, when State Treasurer B. R. Lacy came up and sat down by Dr. McIver and engaged him in conversation about his school. A few moments later Dr. McIver tapped his chest and said that he was suffering there from indigestion. He looked his head toward Mr. Lacy and whispered, "Call a doctor, I am desperately ill." Mr. Lacy called and Mr. Walter Murphy of Salisbury; Mr. A. D. Watts of Statesville, and Mr. P. D. Godd of Greensboro, responded and helped to stretch the sick man on the long seat. The end had come already. Dr. McIver was dying when he called to Mr. Lacy, Dr. Jones, of Hillsboro, was on the train and rendered what service he could, his patient was beyond human aid.

The sudden death of Dr. McIver cast a gloom over the train. Mr. Bryan, Senator Simmons, Governor Glenn and all others on board were stupefied at the suddenness of the summons. The ladies secured flowers and made two large bouquets and placed one on either side of the dead man's face. The remains were brought to Greensboro on the special was also stated that the cruisers Minneapolis and Newark will follow them. The Minneapolis and Newark carry about 700 men apiece, and the Tacoma 150. Should all of these vessels go to Havana, the navy would be able to land a force of 4,000 men in Cuba by Wednesday or Thursday if any developments should occur rendering such action necessary. Final instructions will be given the Cleveland and other vessels when they reach Key West. The Cleveland's sailing from the Norfolk yard occurred yesterday, while the Tacoma left there today. The Louisiana and Virginia left Newport yesterday, after hurriedly coaling. The New Jersey sailed from Boston.

Tremendous Gale on Wrightsville Beach

Special to The Chronicle.
 Wilmington, Sept. 17.—A South Atlantic storm, which is thought to have originated just north of Cuba, has played havoc in Wilmington and neighboring points to-day. The storm struck Carolina coast early this morning with the fury of a hundred demons. At Wrightsville Beach the greatest damage has been done. A few yards north of the Lumina pavilion a new inlet has been cut. At six other points the ocean has washed the beach and broken into the sound. The velocity of the wind there was at least 70 miles an hour at 10 o'clock this morning. The mile long trestle spanning Wrightsville Sound is a total wreck. No communication has been made with the beach since 6 o'clock. Several attempts have been made to get boats there, but without success.
