

SOCIETY

MISS MAMIE SOCKWELL, EDITOR PHONE 215

Miss Savannah Harris Tuesday Club Hostess
The Tuesday bridge club was charmingly entertained by Miss Savannah Harris at her home on Tuesday evening. Two tables were placed for the game. After the game a delicious salad course followed by sweets was served by the hostess. High score for the evening was held by Miss Harris. Miss Carrie Clark, of Greenville, S. C., who is spending sometime here in the home of her brother, Mr. W. H. Clark, was a guest of the club.

Presbyterian Circles Meet
Large attendances, enthusiastic plans, and an earnest spirit marked the first meetings of the new church year for the Presbyterian circles that were held Tuesday. With an attendance of fifteen members and one visitor, Circle No. 1 held an interesting meeting at the home of the leader, Mrs. S. P. Mitchell on Tuesday evening. Organizing for the year's work filled the business session, after which Miss Elizabeth Finley taught the Bible study.

Circle No. 2 met at the home of Mrs. F. C. Forester, who is adviser for the group and in the absence of the leader, Miss Virginia Lane, Mrs. Forester, presided. During the business session the circle organized for the year, followed by the Bible lesson given by Miss Clara Ogilvie. Ten members were present.

Mrs. M. A. Vickery and Mrs. A. A. Cashion joined their hospitality to the members of Circle No. 3 at the home of Mrs. Vickery on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Archie Ogilvie led the devotional period and the business part of the meeting was presided over by the leader, Mrs. Cashion. Thirteen members were present.

Fourteen members and three visitors were present for the meeting of Circle No. 4 at the home of the leader, Mrs. H. B. Smith. The devotional period was in charge of Mrs. Pat Williams. Following each of the meetings a pleasant social hour was enjoyed and delightful refreshments were served.

M. E. Church Auxiliary Meets
The April meeting of the North Wilkesboro Methodist Auxiliary was held on Tuesday afternoon in the Ladies parlor of the church, with an attendance of around thirty-five members. Due to the absence of the president, Mrs. J. C. Reins, the meeting was presided over by Mrs. J. H. Armbrust. The opening prayer was offered by Mrs. P. J. Brame, after which splendid reports were submitted by the different secretaries and committees. "The Deaconess, as a Neighbor," made up the program and was in charge of Mrs. J. D. Schafer, being assisted by Mrs. A. W. Horton, Mrs. Ira Payne and Miss Clyde Scroggs. Interesting items from the Missionary Bulletin were given by Mrs. R. E. Scroggs. The attendance award went to Mrs. J. C. Smoot's circle.

Baptist Circles Met This Week

Three circles of the First Baptist Missionary Society have held interesting meetings this week. Circle No. 2 met at the home of Mrs. D. S. Lane on Tuesday afternoon. The leader, Mrs. A. C. Dennis, presided and the devotional was led by Mrs. L. M. Blackburn. A continued study on "Talks in Soul Winning" was led by Mrs. Dennis. Light refreshments were served to the eight members attending during the social hour.

Mrs. M. L. Gilreath was hostess to Circle No. 3 at her home on Tuesday afternoon, with the leader, Mrs. C. E. Jenkins presiding. Mrs. Dewey Minton, the teacher for the study course gave another splendid talk on the book, "A Decade of W. M. U. Work." Nine members were present.

Circle No. 4 held its meeting on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Jay Johnson with an attendance of eight members. Mrs. R. P. Casey conducted the devotional and the study course was taught by Mrs. A. H. Casey. Mrs. J. I. Myers, leader, held the chair for the business session.

Fidelis Class Is Entertained

A meeting of unusual interest was held on Tuesday evening of the Fidelis Sunday school class of the First Baptist church at the home of Miss Lunda Hendren with Mrs. Percy Walters and Miss Manie Brewer as associate hostesses. An impressive devotional was led by Mrs. Eugene Olive. The president, Mrs. A. H. Casey held the chair for the business part of the meeting during which time several important matters claimed the attention of the members. To close the evening the hostesses served a salad course with sandwiches and coffee to the thirty some members attending.

Mrs. N. B. Smithey Hostess To W. M. S.

Mrs. N. B. Smithey was hostess to the members of the Wilkesboro Methodist Missionary Society at her home on Tuesday afternoon. Fourteen members were present and heard the interesting program on "The Deaconess, as Neighbor," given by Mrs. C. H. Somers. Mrs. W. H. Starr and Mrs. J. W. White, with Mrs. C. H. Hulcher as leader. In the absence of the president, Mrs. H. A. Cranor, Mrs. Hulcher presided and heard the regular reports.

At the close of the meeting the members were invited into the dining room where a delightful surprise was awaiting the members as well as the hostess. A huge white birthday cake decorated in pink candles had been placed on an attractively appointed table by Mrs. Smithey's daughters, celebrating her natal day. A delicious salad course was served from four small tables which were decorated in the Easter motif. Boutonniere's of violets were given as favors. Mrs. Smithey's daughter, Mrs. Marvin Kirkpatrick, of Taylorsville, presided in the dining room.

Miss Guthrie Is Hostess To Class

Miss Beatrice Guthrie was hostess to the members of the Young Ladies Sunday School class of the Wilkesboro Methodist church at the Sandwich Shoppe on Tuesday evening. Miss Helen Bostic, president of the class, was in the chair, the regular routine of business being transacted. A box of clothing was packed to be sent to the orphan's home at Winston-Salem for a little girl that the class is caring for this year. During a pleasant social hour the thirteen members attending were served tempting refreshments.

Bridge Party Given By Miss Stafford

A delightful bridge party was given by Miss Lillian Stafford at her home on Tuesday evening when she entertained a number of her friends at two tables of bridge. At the conclusion of play the hostess was aided by her sister, Miss Mary Lindsay Stafford, in serving a delectable salad course followed by sweets. When scores were tallied, Mrs. Jimmie Anderson was found to hold the grand total and received an attractive prize.

Mrs. E. E. Eller Is Feted At Salisbury

Mrs. E. E. Eller was shown a pretty courtesy in Salisbury Saturday evening, when her daughter, Mrs. W. M. McCulley and Mr. McCulley were hosts at a delightful birthday dinner honoring Mrs. Eller. A three course dinner was served at seven o'clock with covers for sixteen. The dining table was attractively appointed in the Eastern motif. A huge white birthday cake topped with pink candles centered the table around which were placed nests containing Easter eggs and biddies. Dainty place cards suggestive of the season marked the guests places. Lilies, snapdragons and roses were used in profusion throughout the home. The honoree received a lovely shower of gifts. Mrs. Eller's natal day was Sunday, but the dinner was given on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Eller were in Salisbury from Friday until Sunday.

Miss Lillian Stafford Is Charming Hostess

Miss Lillian Stafford was a charming hostess to the members of the Monday bridge club and a trio of visitors at her home on E street, Monday evening. Two tables were placed for the game amid a lovely setting of spring flowers. Miss Janie McDiarmid made high score within the club, the guest award was won by Mrs. George Forester. At the conclusion of play the hostess aided by her mother, Mrs. E. F. Stafford, and sister, Miss Marjorie Lindsay Stafford, served a tempting salad course followed by sweets. Visitors of the club were Mrs. Forester, Mrs. James O'Daniel and Miss Rebecca Mosley.

Monthly Meeting Of Y. W. A. Held

Seventeen members attended the monthly meeting of the Y. W. A. of the First Baptist church that was held Monday evening with Mrs. W. R. Absher on Memorial Avenue. Miss Lola Church, the president, held the chair for the business part of the meeting. An impressive devotional was led by Miss Manie Brewer. The members heard interesting reports of the W. M. U. Conference that was held in Winston-Salem during March from Mrs. Absher and Mrs. J. N. Shockey. The program, "The Glory of Tat Dawn," was given by members of Miss Grace Woodruff's circle. A continuation of the study course, "Pioneer Women," was taught by Mrs. Absher. Miss Beatrice Jennings was welcomed into the society as a new member.

Wilkesboro Friendly Circle In Meeting

With an Easter program, a full attendance of members, and several visitors, a meeting of unusual interest of the Friendly Circle of the Wilkesboro Methodist church was held on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Emerson. The president, Miss Louise Melville, presided and was also in charge of the program. Those assisting her were Misses Mattie Gray Guthrie, Irene Culler, Ruby Hartley and Evelyn Leckie. During the social hour a jig-saw puzzle contest was enjoyed, followed by delightful refreshments.

U. D. C. Meeting Held On Monday

"Good Cheer" was the theme for the program of the monthly meeting of the U. D. C. that was held on Monday afternoon at the Hotel Wilkes. The program was given by the Good Cheer committee with Mrs. J. R. Finley in charge. Mrs. Finley presented a paper on Zebulon Vance, who was an apostle of Good Cheer, closing with a Good Cheer poem. The president, Miss Nell Rousseau, held the chair for routine business. Mrs. John Tevepugh and Miss Mae Foster will be the hostesses for the May meeting.

Curlee Clothing Company Enjoys Splendid Business

C. Spencer, a representative of the Curlee Clothing company, who called upon the Payne Clothing company, local dealers in Curlee clothing, this week has had a 166 per cent unit gain and a 136 per cent dollar gain on top coat sales for fall delivery over a like period last year. They have sold more coats, he stated, in six weeks than they have sold in any complete year in the history of the company which was established in 1889. More mail orders were received on March 26 than on any day during the past four years.

A group of New York mothers complained that these blood and thunder radio sketches are doing their children no good.

Blacksmith Is Busy On Farm Implements

Other News Of Interest In And Around The Sheets Community

SHEETS, April 3.—Mr. Ambrose Watkins, local blacksmith, reports that he has been doing a rushing business for the last few days sharpening and repairing farming implements.

Mrs. Dora Blevins, who was very ill last week, is much better since taking a treatment from Dr. McNeil.

Mr. J. H. Sheets and Mr. Rudolph Handy were in North Wilkesboro Monday buying fertilizer and seeds for their spring planting.

Mr. Jake Felts, of Hays, visited his brother, Mr. J. C. Felts, Sunday.

Mr. J. M. Handy, of Radical, visited his daughter, Mrs. Owen Felts, Sunday.

Mr. Wiley McGrady attended the singing Sunday night at Mr. Ira Shumates of Halls Creek.

Mr. J. M. Wyatt, who was very sick all of last week, is able to be out again.

Mr. Boyd Higgins and family, of Hays, spent Sunday with his father, Mr. W. C. Higgins.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Dancy, of Hays, are visiting Mrs. Dancy's mother, Mrs. J. C. Handy, this week.

Mrs. Isadore McGrady visited Mrs. L. E. Felts, Saturday evening.

Mr. Frank Blevins spent Saturday night and Sunday at Halls Creek visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Harrell, of Hays, spent Sunday with Mrs. Sarah Hincer, of this community.

Messrs. Burch and Wave Handy visited Mr. Bradford Long Sunday.

Rev. Michael Reedy, who has been sick for several days is improving.

There are 200 chiropodists in New York.

The Lutheran Mission

G. A. Wagner. Services every Sunday evening at 7:30 on B street. We have been studying the Passion History of our Savior during Lent, and next Sunday, being Palm Christians, behind the Man of Sorrows. We are always glad to see visitors.

In 1905 there were 800 hotels in New York. Today there are 500.

and next Sunday, being Palm Christians, behind the Man of Sorrows. We are always glad to see visitors.

Announcement

Attention Radio Owners and Prospective Buyers

We have a complete stock of Philco and Majestic Radios. Call us for a demonstration. Mr. A. G. (Red) Kenerly is now in charge of our Radio service department. Just phone us for service on any make of Radio. Tubes tested free.

Radio Sales Co.
Phone 101 "C" Street

We wish to announce to our patrons and friends that we have purchased the interest of Mr. W. M. Day in the D. & M. Electric Co. Mr. Day is no longer connected with the company, but the business will be continued as usual in the same location.

We wish to take this means of thanking our patrons for all business extended us in the past, and we hope that we will have the pleasure of serving you in the future.

If it's anything you need in electric work, see us. We have expert electricians and carry a complete stock of electrical supplies.

D. & M. Electric Co.

C. O. McNeil R. T. McNeil
Phone 101 "C" Street

Announcement

Concerning Change In Management and Ownership of the

Wilkes Plumbing Co.

To The Public:

The Wilkes Plumbing Company is pleased to announce to the public that of Elkin, has become a partner in the business, and will associate himself as General Manager. Mr. Holcomb has been operating a similar business in Elkin for the past several years, and is thoroughly familiar with the work. Mrs. D. S. Melville will retain her interest in the firm, and Miss Louise Melville will remain in charge of the office.

JONES D. HOLCOMB

John Tevepugh, well known and capable employee of the company, will continue his connection with the firm in the service department. The new organization will be adequately equipped to handle all kinds of

Plumbing, Heating Contracting, Repairing; Also Home Water Systems

Telephone 203 when you need Plumbing and Heating Service, or if interested in a Home Water Supply System if you do not now enjoy this convenience. Unusually low cost. Ask us.

Wilkes Plumbing Co.

Telephone 203

North Wilkesboro, N. C.

Classified Ads

WANTED—Work on lawns and gardens in the afternoons. Andy Alexander 3-12-11

FOR SALE OR TRADE—1929 Model Ford Coupe; rumble seat; good tires; in good shape. Call Journal-Patriot office. 4-6-11

FOR SALE—Mixed Gladiolus Bulbs, twenty cents a dozen. Call or see Mrs. C. L. Sockwell, City. 4-6-11

WANTED—To do your sewing. Children's and baby's clothes a specialty. Sewing room in Rexall building. Mrs. Gordon Shatley and Miss Ruth V. Shatley. 4-6-21p

WANTED—A man with car for local sales work. Real opportunity for permanent connection for right man. Write T. J. Terrell, Hickory, N. C. General Delivery. 4-27-4-3-3

LOST—Saturday postoffice key and two other small keys; also lost about sixty days ago black key holder containing postoffice key and three other keys; keys were lost between postoffice and my home. Liberal reward for return.—J. M. Bumgarner, Wilkesboro, N. C. 4-6-21

Cash For Old Gold

Folks, gather up your old gold scrap, such as GOLD TEETH, DENTAL CROWNS or BRIDGES, DISCARDED or BROKEN WATCHES, CHAINS, RINGS or any broken gold article, and bring them to me at the

Rexall Drug Store

Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week ONLY. I will pay highest cash price for anything you have. Every family has some scrap gold. Bring it in and put money in Circulation!

C. D. Cunningham
OLD GOLD BUYER