Miss Mary Lindsay Stafford was charming hostess at a bridge party at her home on Monday evening. Three tables were placed for play amid a wealth of colorful spring flowers. Mrs. Teagle Lott proved most proficient at cards and received a lovely gift. When cards were laid aside the hostess served delicious refreshments consisting of a salad with accessories followed by strawberry short cake and coffee.

Wilkesboro Sunbeam Class Met Monday
The Sunbeam Class of the Wilkesboro Baptist church held the regular monthly meeting at the church Monday afternoon. The devotionals were led by the leader, Mrs. O. K. Whittington who also told the children an interesting story. At the close of the meeting the members went to a nearby grove where an egg hunt was enjoyed. Little Miss Carolyn Sue Linney proved luckiest in the hunt and was given a large white rabbit as prize. Quite a large number of children enjoyed this delightful outing.

Epworth League Enjoys Egg Hunt
The Junior Epworth League of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church enjoyed an Easter egg hunt on Finley hill, Monday morning. A large number of eggs were hidden in the grove and much enthusiasm was shown when the members were allowed to hunt. After a number of games were played the children returned home each reporting a delightful outing. Chaperones were Mesdames I. E. Pearson, M.

P. Hunt and Ira Payne. Rendezvous Chapter D. A. R. Met Monday
The Rendezvous Mountain Chapter of the D. A. R. met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. C. Grier with a large number of members in attendance. The meeting opened with the usual devotional exercise after which the regular routine business was transacted with the regent, Miss Lucy Finley, presiding. A nominating committee composed of the following members was elected: Misses Ellen Robinson, Elizabeth Finley and Mrs. J. E. Turner. An interesting Easter program was presented by Mrs. J. E. Turner. At the close of the program the members were invited into the dining room where a delicious salad course was served.

Methodist Church Circles In Meets
The Missionary Circles of the Methodist Church met Tuesday afternoon as follows:
Circle No. 1, Mrs. J. C. Smoot leader, met at the home of Mrs. H. B. Dodson, on the Fairplains road, with Mrs. J. W. Forester associate hostess. Mrs. Smoot conducted the devotionals and also presented the program from the World Outlook. The usual business was taken up after which time the hostesses served delicious refreshments. Sixteen members were present.

Circle No. 2 met at the home of Mrs. W. P. Horton with the leader, Mrs. P. J. Brame presiding. Mrs. A. L. Lippard read the scripture lesson which was followed by prayer led by Mrs. Genio Cardwell. 'Dick' Shepherd Is Model Farmer

Other News From The Ferguson Community For The Past Week

FERGUSON, April 17—Among the leading farmers of this section of the county is Mr. Pressley "Dick" Shepherd who several years ago purchased the Major Lee Horton farm on the Yadkin River and he now resides there, his home being located on a prominent hill top overlooking the valley which commands a most beautiful view both up and down the river. Mr. Shepherd is a former resident of Idlewild, Ashe county, and a highly respected Confederate veteran and former school teacher. While living in Ashe county he learned how to sow his lands to grass and clover and thus keep it in a high state of cultivation, which method he has practiced on his farm here. He is also sowing quite a bit of Lespedeza now, we are informed.

Mrs. Edith R. Ferguson and children spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Kyles in Troutman. She was accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Foster.

Mr. W. J. St. Clair, who has been sick for some time seems to be much improved. About thirty of his friends and neighbors visited him last Sunday afternoon.

Rev. A. J. Foster filled the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday morning and delivered a very forceful sermon. Egg hunts were conducted for the children by the Sunday schools of the community last Saturday afternoon. The weather was ideal for Easter and the day was spent very pleasantly.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hemphill, of North Wilkesboro, were visitors here last Friday.

Messrs Stokes Barlow and Walter Wheeling, formerly of this place, but now of Chillivesta, Calif., are visiting relatives and friends here and will possibly be here for a month or more. We are glad to see them back.

T. W. Ferguson in company with Rev. R. L. Isbel, H. L. Bolick, of Lenoir, and Rev. W. F. Preslar and Mr. Chas. Preslar, of Hickory, were visitors in Charleston, W. Va., last week. They went up Friday and returned Sunday. They were delegates to a meeting of the Appalachian Assembly of the Advent Christian Church which convened at Charleston. This meeting was of rather far reaching importance locally as well as to all Piedmont North Carolina. A charter was issued and the foundation was laid for the Appalachian Vocational Institute. While it may be some little time before the school is established, it is practically a certainty, about thirty-five thousand dollars already having been allotted for this purpose and a similar amount additional has been assured for the enterprise.

Junior Department Enjoys Egg Hunt

The members of the Junior department of the first Baptist Sunday School were entertained by their superintendent and teachers at an Easter egg hunt, Monday afternoon, on Finley hill. Much enthusiasm and friendly rivalry was shown during the hunt after which the guests were served candy. Fifty boys and girls were guests of Mrs. J. I. Myers, superintendent, and Mesdames Tip McNeil, R. P. Casey, Tal Barnes, Miss Mabel Topping and Mr. Frank Stafford, teachers.

HOUSECLEANING?

Why not new shades?

Housecleaning time is an ideal time to consider re-shading. Look at your present shades carefully. Are they worn?

Faded? Frayed? Ruffled? Do they add to the beauty of your home as they should? If not, let us tell you how little it costs to completely re-shade your home with smart, new Brenlin Shades. The effect they have on both the inside and outside of your house is surprising. But even more surprising is the length of time they last!
