

COOKING SCHOOL TO BE CONDUCTED IN THIS CITY TOMORROW

Miss Loretta Gray, Noted Dietician And Home Economist, To Lecture

School To Be Held At Call Hotel Building; Miss Loretta Gray In Charge

RANGE BE GIVEN FREE
Local Merchants Sponsoring School; In Co-operation With Chas. F. Smith

The Call Hotel building, located at the corner of "B" and Ninth Streets, will be the scene of a major cooking school tomorrow when Miss Loretta Gray, of New York City, noted dietician and home economist, conducts free classes for the benefit of housewives of this section.

Classes will be conducted at 2 p. m. and at 7 p. m. and are open to all interested housewives.

Miss Gray comes here under the sponsorship of North Wilkesboro merchants in co-operation with Chas. F. Smith, of Greensboro, who is distributor of Pyrofax gas and Magic Chef ranges in this territory.

Many attractive prizes, chief among which is the Magic Chef range, will be won by some of the ladies who attend the cooking school. The range will be given away by Mr. Smith and other prizes will be offered by local merchants.

Miss Gray's lectures will be really worthwhile, Mr. Smith assured The Journal-Patriot in an interview this week while in the city arranging minor details in connection with the school. These lectures will deal with kitchen problems which every housewife will be interested in hearing discussed. It will be time spent profitably, Mr. Smith declared enthusiastically.

On display in addition to the Magic Chef range, will be Pyrofax gas and the new Electrolux refrigerator. Fay Grow, of New York City, will represent the American Stove company, manufacturers of Magic Chef ranges, and Jack Hickman, also of New York City, will represent Carbide and Carbon Chemical company, distributors of Pyrofax gas, at the cooking school. Frank Knudson, of Evansville, Ind., will be here to represent the Electrolux Refrigerator company, manufacturers of the Electrolux refrigerator.

Present indications are that the school will be one of the most largely attended ever held in this section. Housewives have manifested considerable interest in the school and are making plans

'Flying Down To Rio' Coming To Orpheum

Beautiful Dolores Del Rio enacts the most thrilling romance ever experienced by a girl. In RKO-Radio Pictures' musical extravaganza, "Flying Down To Rio."

Loved by two handsome screen heroes, Gene Raymond as an American and Raul Roulien as a Latin-American, she is first virtually kidnapped by Raymond who soars aloft with her in his "flying plane" and woos her with original compositions. Later she is spirited aloft by Roulien, but Raymond gets aboard the same plane; and in the climax Roulien is bested at love and Dolores and Raymond are married far above the clouds by the plane's pilot.

The production is enacted by an all-star cast, including Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire, celebrated idol of New York and London, and a chorus of 200 beauties, selected from 10,000 applicants.

Thornton Freeland directed, Vincent Youmans wrote the music, Edward Eliscu and Gus Kahn the lyrics, Ann Caldwell the screen play and Lou Brock, Supervisor, contributed the original story.

"Flying Down To Rio" will be shown at the New Orpheum Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, March 19th and 20th.

SOLONS IN KENTUCKY HAVE EDITOR JAILED

Frankfort, Ky., March 7.—Vance Armentrout, acting editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, was placed in jail for contempt by the Kentucky house lobby investigating committee, late today, but released a short time later on a writ of habeas corpus.

The contempt charge and order for Louisville editor to go to jail followed his refusal to tell the committee the name of a member of the legislature who had written an article in the paper's "point of view column." Armentrout maintained that names in such cases were confidential. The article, captioned "The Psalm of Politics," was held by some of the committee and the speaker of the house, W. E. Rogers, Sr., because of certain criticism in it.

County Judge L. Boone Hamilton, a former member of the legislature, ruled in granting the writ that the house committee was without power to jail a person for the stand Armentrout took and that the arrest was illegal. Armentrout was escorted to the Franklin county jail by Major C. W. Longmire, the house sergeant-at-arms, and remained there about an hour.

Miss Gray will supply her audience with some valuable recipes and demonstrate the most modern methods of cooking. The school will be practical from every standpoint.

The doors of the Call building will be thrown open tomorrow shortly after noon and those who attend are requested to come in before the first class starts at 2 o'clock.

Officers Local P.-T. A. Elected

Mrs. Ross Seroggs Is New President; High School Pupils Give Program

Officers of the North Wilkesboro Parent-Teacher Association were elected at the meeting Thursday afternoon in the city school auditorium. The new officers are: Mrs. Ross Seroggs, president; Mrs. J. D. Schaefer, treasurer, and Mrs. W. D. Half-acre, corresponding secretary.

The list was submitted by the nominating committee and the election was unanimous in each instance.

Mrs. E. G. Finley, retiring president, presided at the meeting. One of the important items of business was the report of Rev. Eugene Olson, chairman of the playground committee, who outlined the proposed plan for the ground and gave a summary of the committee's activities up to this time. The association pledged its co-operation and support in the movement to secure the playground.

Mrs. C. C. Faw, Mrs. J. P. Mills, Mrs. W. H. Whittington and Mrs. W. F. Jones were named on a committee to work with Prof. W. D. Halfacre on the Summer Round-up to be held this spring.

Mrs. Palmer Horton, program chairman, announced that the program for the meeting would be given by the high school pupils. With Miss Ruby Tuttle as master of ceremonies, the following program was given:

Piano solo—Gwendolyn Hubbard.

Vocal duet—Elizabeth Johnson and Mickey Bryant.

Talk on the Development of Citizenship during Early Childhood and School Age—Margaret Faw.

Piano solo—Rebecca Brame.

Talk on The Communities Part in Developing Citizenship—Henry Baugess.

Piano solo—Margaret Faw.

Vocal quartet—Gladys Bryant, Mickey Bryant, Marcella Pendley and Rebecca Brame. Elsie Nichols was the piano accompanist.

The prizes for the winning grades for the most parents present went to Miss Sallie Outlaw's first grade and Miss Tim Crawford's seventh grade.

Negro Held For Assault On Woman At Reidsville

Reidsville, March 12.—Lawrence Graves, 26-year-old negro man, is in the city jail here charged with an attempt to criminally assault a 30-year-old white woman, Mrs. Nannie Dix, wife of Burch Dix, well known here.

Officers Tate and Taylor, on their night beat this morning heard screams from a woman. They investigated and the negro attempted to get away. After he was placed under arrest he had to be subdued with a blackjack.

Graves will be given a preliminary hearing here tomorrow morning. In the meantime he is held in the city jail without privilege of bond.

Doughton Heads Taxation Group

Ninth District Representative Is Named Chairman Of Important Body

Congressman R. L. Doughton, chairman of the ways and means committee, most powerful of house committees, acquired new honors Thursday when he was chosen chairman on the joint committee on internal revenue taxation.

The taxation committee, which devotes its attention to the more difficult and complex phases on the tax program of the government, is comprised of five members of the ways committee and five members of the finance committee.

Mr. Doughton has represented the new ninth district in Congress for nearly 24 years.

Miss Jennings Wed To J. G. Kennerly

A wedding which will be received with interest by friends throughout the state occurred at 4 o'clock p. m. Sunday, March 11, when Miss Lula Jennings, daughter of Mrs. Sally Jennings and the late Leander C. Jennings, was married to John Gray Kennerly, of Mooresville, N. C.

The marriage took place at Pores Knob at the home of Mrs. Sally Jennings. Rev. C. C. Holland, of Stoney Point, pastor of the bride, performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of the immediate members of the families.

Miss Beatrice Jennings, niece of the bride, played the bridal chorus, Lohengrin and the processional by Mendelssohn. The groom and his best man, Bruce Kennerly, of Mooresville, entered the room and took their places before the altar followed by the matron of honor, Mrs. Floyd Jennings. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Attorney R. C. Jennings, who gave her in marriage.

The bride was attired in a navy blue suit with matching accessories. She is an attractive brunette and a young woman with a pleasing personality. She has been cashier and bookkeeper for the Belk's Department store in North Wilkesboro for several years.

The groom is the son of Mr. John Kennerly and the late Mrs. Emmaline Kennerly, of Mooresville, N. C., and is a young man of sterling character and marked business ability, being a member of the firm of Peoples' Home Furnishing Co., of Mooresville.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for a short wedding trip and on their return will be at home at 312 West Statesville, Mooresville.

Negro Indicted For Murder Of 45-Year-Old White Man

Laurinburg, March 12.—John Malloy, 23-year-old negro, was indicted on a murder charge by the Scotland county grand jury today, as a result of the death March 4 of N. F. Alford, 45-year-old white trader.

"You can't fool a growing crop . . .

That's why I use Royster Field Tested Fertilizer"

IF YOU want a good quality crop, with a heavy yield, you've got to give your crops the kind of plant foods that stay with them, that feed them evenly throughout the growing season. Royster's Fertilizer does these things. Our field-tests prove it to us. Your profits will prove it to you.

Don't take any chance when you buy your fertilizer. Remember this: Royster's is made in one quality only—the best. You can pay more or you can pay less, but you cannot buy better fertilizer.

Royster experts are continually studying crops like yours, learning all there is to know about fertilizing them. They never stop experimenting and improving. They test every fertilizer in the laboratory, then field-test it under actual growing conditions. Only refined materials are used to make sure that the purest obtainable grades go into Royster sacks. As a result, we know that Royster Fertilizer will give you the results you want.

See your Royster dealer today and let him know how many tons you need.
