Would You Know?

You, as the sort of man who is called upon to decide matters of great importance in your home, and in your community—would do well in advance to inform yourself on the subject;

"The making of funeral arrangements." You may not need the knowledge for a long time, but now is the time to acquire it, not when bereavement has made clear thinking difficult.

You should know something of caskets—what is available, something of costs and values.

Important as it is, the selection of the casket is only one of the many details in the planning of a funeral service—many with which you may be unfamiliar, but which you should know.

It would be a real pleasure for your local funeral director to help you with any problem with which you may be unfamiliar.

Profits And Fertilization

It is just as much work to prepare a seed bed, plant and cultivate an acre of corn which yields forty bushels to the acre as an acre which yields one hundred.

You use the same plows, harrows, and cultivators. You can guess the reason for the difference. Yes, one crop was properly fertilized, the other unfertilized.

Your profits come from making the soil produce the maximum of quality crops. You are working for these profits so why not get them?

Armour's BIG CROP Fertilizers work for profits. They are made from the highest quality plant food and come to you in concentrated form. You are not paying for any useless bulky filler.

We can help you in deciding the analysis which is best suited to your needs. Let's talk it over.
