

Large Distillery Outfit Destroyed

Sheriff Somers and Deputy Find Extra Large Outfit Near Spurgeon

Sheriff W. B. Somers and Deputy H. C. Kilby destroyed an unusually large distillery outfit about three miles southeast of Spurgeon near the Wilkes-Ire-Well line yesterday morning.

As the officers approached the still they observed several men leaving but were unable to identify or catch any of them.

From the appearance of the still the officers gathered that large quantities of liquor had been made. The outfit and materials ready for distillation were destroyed.

Mrs. W. J. Bason Named Case Worker Relief Work

Mrs. G. G. Foster, county relief administrator, stated yesterday that Mrs. W. J. Bason, of this city, has been named as a case worker for the Federal Emergency Relief Work in Wilkes. Mrs. Bason is well fitted by training and experience to perform the duties of the position.

Follies Show At Liberty Theatre

"Hollywood Follies," a very pleasing and highly entertaining vaudeville show, is scheduled for the Liberty Theatre midnight show Sunday and two performances Monday and Tuesday. This show comes to the city highly recommended as having considerable merit.

Among the headliners appearing in "Hollywood Follies" will be Henri Nelsor, "The Human Frog," a recent World's Fair attraction; Al Quirk, "King on the Xylophone," an R. K. O. Vaudeville act; Foyle Craig and his California Serenaders; Ace Foglemen, "Ace of Blackface"; Miss Theo Mackey with her "Rhythm Tap Dancing"; Riley and Trimble, featuring "Up Town Low Down Quartet"; a chorus of "Sunkist Beauties" and other features.

Local High Nine Defeats Wilkesboro

North Wilkesboro high school baseball team easily defeated Wilkesboro on the local field Tuesday afternoon by a score of 11 to 2.

North Wilkesboro took 13 hits off of Phillips' offerings while Wilkesboro was able to garner only four from the slants of Reavis. Reavis and Reynolds led in the hitting for the locals with three each. Garwood, with two hits, led Wilkesboro in stick work.
