HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN

The Favor of Other Men

Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your blood decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and sluggish. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you.

But don't take salts, mineral waters, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. They only do it for they only sweep out the tail end of your bowels and don't take away enough of the deadly poison. Comedies won't help at all.

Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this deadly poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts the free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No cathartics (surgery) or Carter's Only Pills, sold vegetable extracts. If you would be a beautiful, charming person to win men, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today. 25¢ at drug stores.

Refuse "something just as good" for it may grip, loosen teeth or scald system. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. See the picture and get what you ask for. © 1933, C. M. Co.

Radio Wisecrackers Coming To Town

From "Big Time" vaudeville, the radio station WBT brought to Charlotte, N. C. the boy and girl harmony team known as Salt and Peanuts only to find that the audience demands them again as vaudeville entertainers.

The Liberty Theatre has prevailed upon the powers that be to release Salt and Peanuts from broadcasting at WBT long enough to let them appear in North Wilkesboro today so their many radio friends can see them in person.

Frank Salt, the man in the act, first gained his theatre reputation in the Salt and Pepper combination that became famous in musical comedies, on the vaudeville stage, and on hundreds of phonograph records. They played "The Passing Show of 1926," "Gay Parade," which had a 26 week run on Broadway, "Merry World," and "Passions of 1926." All of these were Broadway shows; some of them went on tour. They played the Palace in New York City, the goal of every vaudevillian. They played the Iowa and Fox circuits, all the Balaban and Katz houses in Chicago, twice, and finally played in New York City at the Yacht Club, the Mont Martre, the Anatole, the Silver Slipper, the Rue de la Paix, and Barney's.

When Salt and Pepper disagreed and the act split Salt teamed up with two girls and the three sang harmony with Salt carrying the burden of the act in solos.

The girl who now is known as "Peanuts" (and she won't admit what her name was before she and Salt adopted the catchy name for her) was a dancer on the same big time circuits with Salt, and the two girls. She "Crabbed" about his act. The two girls were dancers too and Peanuts didn't think they were so good. She didn't like their singing either.

KIWANIS PROGRAM BY PAST PRESIDENTS

Kiwanis program for the club's Friday noon luncheon meeting was centered around the past presidents of the club. The program was one of Kiwanis education.

Genio Cardwell was program chairman for the day. He called the names of all the past presidents and all those present were asked to stand. Greetings to the club from the past presidents not present were read by the various members.

The past presidents since the clubs organization are as follows: Charlie Smoot, Henry Reynolds, Genio Cardwell, P. W. Eshelman, J. C. Reins, J. L. Clements, J. R. Finley, Morace Sisk, E. G. Finley, H. H. Morehouse, Dr. F. C. Hubbard and the present president, R. G. Finley. J. B. Norris was the first district trustee of the club.

Dr. F. C. Hubbard read the list of the 57 charter members of the club. Later on in the program a poem about the charter members, written by Henry Reynolds soon after the club's organization, was read by P. W. Eshelman.

The president read a letter of greetings to the club from J. R. Finley, who was a patient in a Statesville hospital Friday. J. C. Reins read a letter from the club's first president, Charlie Smoot, who ended the letter by "Sing a Song For Me." Kiwanians promptly joined in singing "What's the Matter With Charlie?"

H. H. Morehouse spoke briefly in memory of J. L. Clements, former president of the Kiwanis, who died two years ago. His talk was followed by prayer, led by Rev. C. W. Robinson.

The first report of the local club to the district organization of Kiwanis was passed around for inspection by the members. E. G. Finley read a letter from Horace Sisk, now head of Fayetteville schools. The former president expressed regrets at not being able to be with the club in the meeting.

Genio Cardwell was the next past president to appear on the program. He cited two outstanding events in the club's history during the year he was president, one being a trip by the club in body over the nearby mountain counties and the other being the raising of a $300 fund to finance a clinic for crippled children. J. B. Norris read telegrams of greetings from Horace Sisk and Charlie Smoot.

The meeting closed by the lining up of all past presidents and Miss Lois Scroggs, club pianist, pinned a rose on the lapel of each one's coat.

Local Colored Team Wins Close Ball Game

The North Wilkesboro team is looking forward to a successful season, and many games have, and will be, scheduled for this year. Some of the best colored teams in this section will meet the local boys on their home grounds.

Mr. Romie Holbrook, resident of the Dockery community, underwent an operation for appendicitis at The Wilkes Hospital Friday.

An Appeal To Democrats

To the Democrats of Mitchell, Avery, Wilkes, Alexander, Davie and Yadkin Counties:

You will soon be called upon in a Democratic Primary to select a successor to Judge Finley who has made known his intention to retire at the end of his term and will thereupon become an Emergency Judge with all the powers and jurisdiction that he now has, except that he will not thereafter have to hold courts on schedule.

Believing that party gratitude to one who astounded the State by his wonderful campaign for Solicitor of this district four years ago when he reduced the normal republican majority of six thousand to the small majority of four hundred and twelve, and that Democrats should nominate a man who has fine judicial temperament, splendid ability and is honest to the core, I appeal to the Democrats of the district to vote for John W. Ragland, of Mitchell County, for the nomination for Judge of the district.

John Ragland is a Mitchell County Democrat and everyone knows what that means for to live in Mitchell county as a Democrat and to have made the fight John Ragland has made means that he is of the Simon-pure variety, and he has reduced the Republican majority in the district as he did, shows the esteem with which he is held even by his political enemies.

John Ragland will, as Judge, command the admiration of everyone for his splendid judicial poise and ability, and Democrats will be proud of him. Vote for him in the primary and get your friends to do the same.

We feel that he should be compensated by our party for the wonderful fight he made for Solicitor four years ago. The eternal fairness of things demand it. Yours for party success,

C. F. LAMBERT,
Chairman Democratic Executive Committee, Mitchell County.

Twenty-Five Await The End In Death Chair

Death row at state's prison now houses 24 condemned men—the largest number in North Carolina's history.

The arrival of Jack Hooker, Forsyth county negro, sentenced to die May 25 for the murder of Sally Anderson, placed the total at 24. Twenty-three had been the previous high record.

That number was reached last month prior to the execution of Jesse Brooks and James Johnson, negro killers, on the same day.

The total is expected to be boosted to 25 this week: Willie White, Charlotte negro burglar, is scheduled to take his place along the Last Mile within the next day or two.
