Summer Sessions Greater University Are Coordinated

The summer sessions of the three units of the Greater University of North Carolina are to be coordinated this summer. This will result in greater economy by lessening duplication of courses, and greater efficiency by the concentration of each institution in the fields in which by their facilities and faculties they are best fitted to do distinctive and outstanding service.

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill will specialize in graduate work, secondary education, advanced work in various professional schools. State College at Raleigh will specialize in agricultural education, science teaching and technical courses. The Woman's College at Greensboro is the unit that will offer courses for elementary teachers, principals and supervisors; for home economic teachers, for commercial teachers, and courses needed by the teachers in each of these fields. Each of the institutions will offer courses of the regular year for students who wish to make up work or to advance their standing.

There will be a summer session at Chapel Hill, Raleigh and Greensboro, each beginning June 13 and closing July 24. All units will unite in a single summer session at Chapel Hill, beginning July 25.

One of the special features of the co-ordinated summer sessions will be the Institute of Education carried on at each of the three units. The leading educators of America will be on the program. Never before in the history of North Carolina have so many men of national and international reputation been utilized by a university. Students of the summer sessions as well as others interested may attend these meetings. Some of those appearing on the program are: Drs. W. C. Bagley, William H. Kilpatrick, George D. Strayer, Jesse H. Newlan, Tavis Mossman, George S. Counts and Edward H. Reiser, of Columbia University; Dr. Sidney B. Hall, superintendent of public instruction of the state of Virginia, and Dr. Edwin H. Reeder, now of the University of Vermont, formerly of Columbia University, who will be a member of the faculty of elementary education at the summer session at Woman's College.

A conference on labor and industrial relations in co-operation with the state department of labor, the commissioner of public welfare, and officials of the U. S. government will be held at Raleigh and Chapel Hill. Henri Deering, the master concert pianist, will teach at Chapel Hill and Greensboro and offer a concert in each place for the pleasure of summer session students. Every week will have one or more instructional or entertainment features of a high order for the benefit of the students.

The authorities of the Greater University are utilizing every facility to meet the needs of every teacher of North Carolina, and serve all who wish to avail themselves of the privileges of its co-ordinated summer sessions.

A cannery and creamery for Haywood County are two new projects now under way by the agent.

SOCIETY

Baptist Circle No. 4 Met With Mrs. Beish

Mrs. D. T. Beish was hostess to Circle No. 4 of the First Baptist church at her home Friday evening with five members and two visitors present. Mrs. Monroe Eller, chairman, presided for the business session, a number of matters being discussed. Mrs. Gilbert Foster was announced as the next hostess. A pleasant social hour followed the meeting at which time delightful refreshments were served.

A Delightful Supper Was Given At Church Hut

An outstanding social event of the week was the supper given at the hut of the Presbyterian church on Friday evening when the Ladies Bible class was hostess to the members of the Men's class and had as special guests, Rev. Eugene Olive, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Mrs. Olive, Rev. W. A. Jenkins, pastor of the local Methodist church, and Mrs. Jenkins. Masses of iris and verberna artistically arranged made a festive scene for the large number of guests attending. An interesting program of entertainment was given during the supper which was served at seven o'clock.

Miss Ellen Robinson was in charge of the program and the first number was the welcome address given by Mrs. Ione Warren, president of the ladies class, to which response was made by Gordon Finley. Mrs. Archie Ogilvie gave a toast to the men with P. M. Williams responding. Rev. and Mrs. Olive occupied the feature place on the program with a number of musical selections made up of vocal solos and duets.

Two Brides Feted By Mrs. Weaver Starr

Another charming courtesy was extended Mrs. Jack Brame, a recent bride, on Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Weaver Starr entertained at bridge at her home on Memorial Avenue and had as guests a number of the bride's special friends. Mrs. Brame prior to her marriage in March was Miss Virginia Hix, of this city, and several interesting social affairs have been given in her honor. Four tables were placed for the game in a gay setting of mixed spring flowers and the count of tallies showed Mrs. Ernest Blackman to be holder of the top score prize. The honoree was remembered with a lovely gift. A salad course followed the game.

Mrs. Starr entertained at her home again Friday afternoon at two tables of bridge and one of rook and honor guest for the afternoon was Mrs. Lincoln Spahnour, a bride of last month. Mrs. Spahnour was formerly Miss Mozelle Cochran of this city, and received a beautiful gift from the hostess. Mrs. Chal McNeil won out in the bridge competition while Mrs. Ralph Duncan proved to be the most successful at rook. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of play.

Practice Game 6-Team League

Taylorville Outfit Defeats Aggregation Here By Score of 8 To 8

Taylorville baseball team defeated a North Wilkesboro aggregation in a practice game of the proposed six-county league at the fairgrounds here Saturday afternoon.

The visitors hit Joe Martin, portlander hurling for the locals for several extra base hits and aided by a number of errors, scored eight runs in the early part of the game. Martin was relieved by Brown, who held the visitors in check for the last five innings.

Teague, Alexander left-hander, pitched a good game with the exception of the first inning, when the three runs were scored. The local team will return the game at Taylorville Thursday afternoon.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

QUESTION—Can onion flavor in milk be prevented? If so, how?
ANSWER—Yes. This flavor is caused by wild onions or garlic consumed by the cows on pasture and can be prevented by simply removing the cows from the pasture for a few hours before each milking. Experiments have shown that the flavor remains in the milk for a minimum of six hours after the onions are eaten and it is therefore necessary that the animals be taken off of pasture at least six hours before they are milked. They should be put up in a lot and given a small amount of dry roughage immediately.

Former Deputy Endorses Somers

The time that King David's persecution started was the same time that he became popular with his fellowman, and every reader knows that jealousy was the cause of this. About three years ago one of W. B. Somers' worst enemies said to the writer, "Bill Somers is my enemy, and he can't be Sheriff of Wilkes county." Revising these words so that anyone can comprehend their meaning the speaker meant this: "That Somers won't let me dictate to him and it interrupts my plans to commercialize on Republican politics in Wilkes county." For fear this statement will be used by the Democrats against the Republican ticket this fall I wish to state that a reliable Democrat told me that the man referred to above had joined their party and all I can say is that I am like Jiggs was when Maggie went to hell. "I feel sorry for the devil."

Two years ago all kinds of charges were trumped up against Bill, without any foundation and their promoters only intention was to defeat him in the primary, and voter, if you remember.

DO YOU KNOW?

One of the most original methods of man in showing his disfavor of the elements was that practiced by the Namaquas Indians who shot poisoned arrows at storms to drive them away.

TODAY'S FACT

The land on which North Wilkesboro is situated is a part of the first land grant to an American citizen between here and the Pacific coast. It was granted by King George II to Daniel Boone's father-in-law.

scope of his authority or order of the court and some of the expense of the County Home and even the County Bloodhounds were charged to him as personal expenses, and when you hear any of their charges this time, putting it in their words, 'Stealing,' just ask yourself two questions, 'How does he get by the audits of the bonding company who bonds him, and how come that we are paying the lowest rates of taxes for years with all this stealing and over-charging they talk about?' The truth of the matter is that Bill has not only been tried to be bluffed out of the Sheriff's office, but he has been tried to be starved out by forcing him and his deputies to do work at a lesser expense allowance than any adjoining county and forcing him to feed prisoners on a lesser allowance than any sheriff in the state. Fact is that he has been forced to take the little profit he made from feeding Federal prisoners to help feed the county prisoners. I am for Bill Somers for Sheriff for several reasons: First, because I believe if Abraham Lincoln was a voter in Wilkes county today that he would be for him. Second, because he has never had a political fight without being hit below the belt. Third, because the Sheriff's office of Wilkes county is not an empty honor just to be passed around. Fourth, because there are four men in death row at our State Penitentiary that is against him. Fifth, because on the day of the Taylorville bank massacre riding in the front seat beside him, he driving at eighty-four miles per hour after those robbers and murderers in a cool calm voice he says, 'Paris, they may get me. If they do grab the emergency brakes and ease your fall.' Sixth, because the Goliaths cannot come out in Wilkes county and challenge law and order, and not be met by the man that has stood between her citizens and danger for the last five and one-half years. Seventh, because his discharge from the United States Army does not say his character is good, does not even say its very good, but has the great big written in there of EXCELLENT. Eighth, because his character is as unspotted today as it was the day that it merited that big word EXCELLENT.

I wish to further say that Mr. Settle's argument for all occupants of the Courthouse to quit at once and save the Republican party is too thin to splinter, if it should fall from the top of the old Tory Oak that stands on the courthouse lawn. When the fact is that almost one hundred per cent of those that want Somers to come out at six years are the ones that wanted Mr. Stroud to have sixteen.

Mr. C. W. Wiles also states that he is for a rock ribbed Republican for Sheriff when his very attitude suggests that he is for those that bolted the party in ago, to pick the one hundred per cent.

In closing I wish to state that I would not be surprised to hear his enemies accuse him of being affiliated with the Dillinger gang, but in all sincerity I wish to ask why at a time when civilization is trembling in the fear of organized crime drop the best criminal officer that Wilkes county has ever and as good one as the State ever had.

Yours not only for the success of the Republican party but for the preservation of law and order.
