

SOCIETY

MISS MAMIE SOCKWELL, EDITOR      PHONE 218

Literature Department In Splendid Meeting Thursday

The life of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt proved to be an interesting topic for the May meeting of the Literature Department of the North Wilkesboro Woman's club that was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Louise Vyne with Miss Etta Turner as associate hostess. Presiding for the afternoon was Mrs. W. B. Halfacre, department chairman. The first paper was presented by Mrs. Hoyle Hutchens, who gave a brief history of Mrs. Roosevelt's life; Mrs. W. H. Clark's paper was, "Mrs. Roosevelt as First Lady" and Mrs. Halfacre gave, "The Most Traveled First Lady."

A pleasant social hour followed the meeting during which time Miss Vyne and Miss Turner served the group delicious refreshments. The meeting Thursday was the last one for the club year.

Mrs. C. B. Eller Hostess To Current Topic Club

A miscellaneous snower for a bride of the spring, a flower contest and a game of rook made the Current Topic club meeting Wednesday afternoon one of much enjoyment. Hostess for the afternoon was Mrs. C. B. Eller entertaining the members and five additional guests at the home of Mrs. Chal McNeil. A profusion of iris and roses artistically arranged made colorful decorations throughout the home.

Mrs. W. J. Allen presided and directed an interesting flower contest in which the group entered with much zest. Mrs. J. M. Crawford was adjudged the winner and in recognition of her skill received an attractive prize while the consolation award went to Mrs. J. E. Spainhour. Following

WANT ADS

FOUND—Three Chevrolet keys. Owner may claim same at Journal-Patriot office by paying for this advertisement. 1t

LOST—A blue silk dress in North Wilkesboro Thursday. Finder please return to Journal-Patriot and receive reward. 5-21-1t-pd

FOR SALE—One jersey and one part jersey cow. Both good milkers with second calves. J. O. Brewer, Dockery, N. C. 5-21-1t-pd

LOST—Bulldog; black with white spot on breast; weight 60 pounds; answers to name boss; finder please notify Paul Owens, Wilkesboro route 1, and receive reward. 5-21-1t-pd

FOR SALE OR RENT—Well located house suitable for rooming or boarding house. . . 15 rooms, steam heated. . . just 2 blocks off Main Street. . . For particulars call Journal-Patriot office. 4-25-1f

PART-PAK—Is a top notcher. Compare it with any other Ginger Ale, we exclude none. 10c per quart bottle plus 5c deposit at Drug Stores, Cafes, Grocers and Lunch Stands. 5-14-1f

DO YOU KNOW?

The largest whale ever captured is supposed to have been the one caught by Norwegians in the Antarctic a few years ago, its weight being estimated at 175,000 pounds.

TODAY'S FACT

In August, 1891, 43 years ago, the first railroad train came into North Wilkesboro over the Southern railroad from Winston-Salem.

By SAM CASSEL

Wilkes Drug Co.
PHONE 48
ON THE SQUARE
North Wilkesboro, N. C.

Social Calendar

The Missionary Society of Wilkesboro Baptist church will hold its monthly meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Zeb Davis.

The May meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held Thursday afternoon at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. E. Faw. The program for the afternoon will emphasize Mother's Day and all members are asked to bring some article on mother to contribute to the program.

At the contest the guests found their places at four tables for rook by means of place cards suggestive of springtime.

To Mrs. Frank Allen, daughter-in-law of Mrs. W. J. Allen, president of the Current Topic club, the club members presented a beautiful shower of miscellaneous gifts. Mrs. Eller brought the gifts into the room on a tea wagon and presented them to the honoree in behalf of the club members. Mrs. Allen prior to her marriage March the eighth was Miss Faye Templeton, of Mountain View. Mrs. Lincoln Spainhour, who before her marriage the nineteenth of April was Miss Mozell Cochran, of this city, was remembered with a lovely gift by Mrs. Eller and Mrs. McNeil.

At the close of the afternoon the hostess, aided by Mrs. McNeil and Mrs. A. H. Casey, served tempting refreshments in two courses. Those present for the afternoon besides club members were Mesdames A. J. Eller, of Ready Branch, J. E. Spainhour, Lincoln Spainhour, Frank Allen and Weaver Starr.

Junior Girl's Auxiliary Met Wednesday Afternoon

Both groups of the Junior Girl's Auxiliary of the First Baptist church held splendid meetings on Wednesday afternoon. The green group was entertained by Mildred Campbell at her home at 3:30 o'clock with ten members attending. The hostess was program leader and meeting with the group were Mrs. Bernard Williams, leader, Mrs. J. I. Myers, counsellor, and Mrs. Tip McNeil.

Agnes Elledge was hostess to the white group at 4 o'clock and had eleven members present. Due to the absence of the president the meeting was presided over by Agnes Elledge, and at this time Nellie Hall was elected as president and Mary Sue Hollars as vice president. Topic of program presented at each meeting was "Baptist Work in all the World." Mrs. Myers and Mrs. McNeil visited this group too, which was in charge of Miss Lunda Hendren as leader. At the close of each of the meetings a social hour was enjoyed while light refreshments were served.

Social of Junior B.Y.P.U. Of Hinshaw Baptist Church

The Junior B. Y. P. U. of Hinshaw Baptist church enjoyed a social at the home of their leader, Mrs. Flossie H. Lockhart, on Monday, May 7th, at 2 o'clock. After many games were played, dainty refreshments were served.

Friday Book Club Entertained By Mrs. Reeves

Mrs. Rosa Reeves was gracious hostess to the members of the Friday Book club, of which she is a member, and a number of extra guests at her home on D street Friday afternoon. Penonies and roses attractively arranged made a pretty background for the guests, who spent

Buying Drugs Blindfolded A Bad Practice

Doctors throughout the world agree there is no greater folly than to buy and take unknown drugs. Ask your own doctor.

So—when you go into a store for real Bayer Aspirin, see that you get it. Remember that doctors endorse Genuine Bayer Aspirin as SAFE relief for headache, colds, sore throat, pains of rheumatism and neuritis, etc.

Just remember this Demand and get Genuine Bayer Aspirin.

the hours together in a most informal way. Mrs. C. E. Jenkins, the president, presided while Miss Lister Hilde called the roll, the members responding with events of decided interest. To close the afternoon the hostess served dainty refreshments. The next meeting is scheduled to be with Mrs. J. C. Smoot.

Tommy Smith Honored At Birthday Party

Mrs. W. A. Jenkins honored her little grandson, Tommy Smith, Friday afternoon when she entertained the members of his Sunday school class, with a few of his playmates, at a birthday party at the North Wilkesboro Methodist parsonage, celebrating his third birthday anniversary. Misses Ruth Colvard and Myrtle Norris, Tommy's teacher in Sunday school, assisted Mrs. Jenkins in directing a number of games on the lawn and afterwards in serving the youngsters ice cream and cake. The white cake topped with three pink candles held place of honor on the birthday table. Around twelve children were present and presented Tommy with a number of useful gifts as souvenirs of the happy occasion. Favors for the guests were balloons.

Presbyterian Auxiliary Members Visit Churches

A number of ladies from the local Presbyterian church attended the Auxiliary meetings at Bethel and Millers Chapel Presbyterian churches on highway No. 16 Friday afternoon. Last month several of the ladies visited the two churches and helped to organize auxiliaries in each one of the churches and in their visits Friday afternoon they observed splendid programs put on at each meeting. President for the Millers Chapel Auxiliary is Miss Annie Dancy and for the Bethel Auxiliary, Mrs. M. C. Miller.

Those going to Millers Chapel were Mrs. Archie Ogilvie, Mrs. C. C. Faw and Miss Margaret Faw, and to Bethel Mesdames J. P. Mills, A. A. Cashion, Hunter B. Keck and T. A. Finley. Mrs. Mills conducted the Bible study at the Bethel meeting.

Legion Auxiliary Members Attend Meet In Charlotte

The Aero Conference of the American Legion Auxiliary, composed of a number of districts in this section of the state, held a splendid meeting in Charlotte Thursday and a number of members from the local auxiliary went over for the day. Those attending from North Wilkesboro were Mrs. A. F. Kilby, Mrs. T. A. Finley, Mrs. W. R. Absher, Miss Toby Turner and Miss Arelia Adams, state department secretary. Miss Gladys Lomax and Mrs. Kilby's two children, Grace Frank and Lomax, accompanied the party over and were visitors in Charlotte during the day.

Mrs. Absher, state department president, appeared on the program for a talk, all other state officers attending were recognized at meeting, and fine reports were submitted from each district chairman. The local side of the meeting was an enjoyable affair with a delightful luncheon being served at the noon hour. At this time all the state officers were presented with beautiful corsages.

Wagner-Martin Wedding

In a ceremony of quiet simplicity solemnized Saturday morning, May 5, at 10 o'clock at Christ Episcopal church, Miss Emily Corpening Martin became the bride of Mr. Frank Morton Wagner. Only members of the immediate families attended the wedding. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jennings M. Hobson, rector of the church, in the absence of the bride's pastor, Rev. M. A. Stevenson, of Bland Street Methodist church, who is attending the Methodist general conference at Jackson, Miss.

Flowers and lighted cathedral candles before the beautiful stained glass windows made a lovely altar.

The bride and bridegroom entered together. Mrs. Martin, the bride's mother, entered with her brother-in-law, T. Frank Mastin. Mrs. Virginia Martin Nash and Miss Mary Martin, sisters of the bride, entered together. Mrs. Helen Martin Rhodes, another sister, entered with her husband, Joe Rhodes, and their little daughter, Carolyn. John F. Nash entered with his little son, John Jr. The family of the groom were seated on the right.

The bride was modishly attired in a dark blue silk travel suit with matching accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of gardenias and snapdragons.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to southern points, including Charleston, S. C. They will make their home in the Akers apartments, Ramsey street, upon their return to Bluefield.

Mrs. Wagner is the youngest daughter of Mrs. J. E. Martin and the late Dr. J. E. Martin, of Bluefield. She received her education at Hollins College, Hollins, Va., and at the University of West Virginia, Morgantown. After her graduation from the university, she was for one year a member of Beaver high school faculty.

Mr. Wagner is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wagner, Stowers Street. He is a graduate of Emory and Henry College, Emory, Va., and the law school of the University of Virginia. Mr. Wagner has practiced law in Bluefield four years and is now assistant prosecuting attorney for Mercer county. He is former chairman of the Mercer county Democratic executive committee.

The bride is a niece of Mrs. D. S. Lane, of North Wilkesboro, and of Mesdames Laura Martin Linney and N. T. Jarvis, of Roaring River, Route 2. Her mother, who was formerly Miss Emma Baker, is a native of Ashe county, a daughter of the late Sheriff John Baker. Her father, the late Dr. J. Everett Martin, was a native of the Roaring River and Dellaplane section of Wilkes.

Bush-Minton

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Hazel Bush, of this city, to Howard Minton, of Millers Creek. Saturday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of L. G. Caldwell on Kensington Drive. Mr. Caldwell, a justice of the peace, performed the ceremony in the presence of immediate members of both families and a number of the bride and groom's special friends.

The bride, an attractive brunette, was becomingly attired in a white suit with accessories of white, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Mrs. Minton is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Bush, of this city, and is employed by the Wilkes Hosiery Mills. Mr. Minton, son of Lewis Minton, of Millers Creek, and the late Mrs. Minton, is connected with the Caldwell Motor Co.

The young couple, who will make their home in North Wilkesboro, have many friends here and throughout the county who will be interested to learn of their marriage.

Elihu Jordan Dies

Elihu Jordan, age 73 years, died at his home on North Wilkesboro route 2 Saturday morning.

Of the immediate family there are surviving his wife, Mrs. Mary Anne Jordan and one son, Reece. The funeral service was held from Rock Creek church Sunday at 12 o'clock.

Injured In Wreck

Edward Bowles, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bowles, of this city, was painfully injured Sunday morning when the mail truck which he was driving overturned on the North Wilkesboro-Jefferson highway about five miles north of Millers Creek.

He was carried by ambulance from the scene of the wreck to the hospital here, where examination showed that he had sustained severe lacerations about the scalp and face.

Justice Adams Dies

Baltimore, May 20.—William Jackson Adams, an associate justice of the North Carolina Supreme court, died today at 11:45 p. m. at the Johns Hopkins hospital here.

Justice Adams entered the hospital on May 9. The cause of his death was given as heart attack following an operation for a kidney ailment.

Mrs. Adams was with her husband at the time of his death.

★ Before you buy any electric refrigerator, get complete details on the WESTINGHOUSE PROTECTION PLAN. Promise nothing, sign nothing, pay nothing until you see how much more WESTINGHOUSE offers in every way.

WILKES ELECTRIC COMPANY

W. M. DAY      TAL J. PEARSON
Phone 328      North Wilkesboro, N. C.

more emphatically true today than it ever was

A SIX COSTS LESS TO RUN

... and the CHEVROLET OVERHEAD VALVE SIX

is the most economical car in the world

CHEVROLET Engineering facts prove it. Experience in building nearly ten million cars confirms it. And the record of over 3,000,000 Chevrolet Six owners removes any shadow of doubt about it: The only way to get real economy in a low-priced car is to insist on SIX cylinders and OVERHEAD valves.

SIX cylinders—no more!—because extra cylinders mean extra cost for gas, oil, upkeep and parts. OVERHEAD valves—nothing else!—for the same good reason that airplanes use them. And speedboats. And racing cars. They get the MOST power out of the LEAST gas. That's why overhead valves are the choice of leaders—and champions.

CHEVROLET MOTOR CO., DETROIT, MICH. Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices and easy G.M.A.C. terms. A General Motors Value.

FULLY-ENCLOSED KNEE-ACTION WHEELS

80-HORSEPOWER—80 MILES PER HOUR

CABLE-CONTROLLED BRAKES

SHOCK-PROOF STEERING

BODIES BY FISHER

HAFER CHEVROLET CO.

6th STREET

PHONE 112

NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C.