

SOCIETY

MRS. MARIE SOCKWELL, EDITOR PHONE 316

Monthly Meeting of Legion Auxiliary Held Monday

Norma Stevenson and Mrs. Jack Quinn joined hospitality to the members of the Legion Auxiliary in their monthly meeting at the Legion clubhouse on Monday evening. Miss Toby Tupper, the president, was in charge of the business meeting the usual routine of business being transacted. The traveling library being sponsored by the Auxiliary is opened to the public twice a week at Spahnour's store on Tuesday and Friday morning from 9 to 11. The books are mostly for children and they are invited to make use of the books.

The program for the evening was given by Miss Lillian Stafford and Mrs. Russell Hodges. Mrs. Stafford gave a report of the Public Welfare Child survey in Wilkes county that is being conducted by the Legion Auxiliary. June is Pdad month and Mrs. Russell Hodges presented the interesting paper on this phase of work in the organization. Mrs. Frank Stevenson, of Hickory, mother of Miss Stevenson was a visitor at the meeting. The hostesses served delightful refreshments during a pleasant social hour.

Intermediate G. A.'s Held Meeting Monday Evening

The June meeting of the Intermediate Girl's Auxiliary, of the First Baptist church, was held at the church on Monday evening and a good attendance of members were present. Miss Edna Bullis was in charge of the program and those assisting her with the program were Misses Virginia Bullis and Arlee Bumgarner. Presiding for routine business was the president, Miss Annie Jo Haigwood. In the absence of the leader, Mrs. R. P. Casey, Miss Lura Reynolds met with the group.

Ladies' Bible Class Met With Mrs. J. H. Alexander

A business and social meeting of the Young Ladies' Bible class of the Wilkesboro Methodist church was held on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. H. Alexander. The main business item was to make plans for a food sale to be held Saturday. Eight members were present and enjoyed a delightful social hour during which time dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. G. T. Mitchell New Leader Jr. Woman's Club

Misses Bess Stewart and Lillian Linney were hostesses to the members of the Junior Woman's club of Wilkesboro at the home of Mrs. Linney on Friday afternoon. Miss Eva Lee Gahr presented an interesting and helpful garden program, which consisted of the cultivation of different kinds of flowers. In giving the program an informal discussion was engaged in by the members.

Junior G. A.'s in Fine Meetings Wednesday

Both groups of the Junior Girl's Auxiliary of the First Baptist church held interesting meetings on Wednesday and each one was largely attended. The green group was entertained by Mary Lois Frazier in the afternoon with an attendance of fourteen members and a number of visitors. A special feature of their program was a solo sang by Little Martha Frazier. The leader, Mrs. Bernard Williams, was in charge of the program. Mrs. A. C. Dennis, president of the society, attended the meeting.

Baptist Missionary Society Met With Mrs. Eller

With the Dozier Circle in charge of the program a most interesting meeting of the North Wilkesboro Baptist Missionary Society was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. E. Eller. Mrs. E. M. Blackburn, chairman of circle led the devotional period after which the topic "Contribution to World Mindness" was presented by Mrs. Blackburn, Mrs. W. A. Bullis, and Mrs. Tal Barnes. Special prayers were offered by Mrs. Tip McNeill and Mrs. Blackburn. Mrs. A. C. Dennis, the president, was in charge of the business part of the meeting, the usual reports being heard. The meeting was well attended.

Miss Ruby Hartley Hostess to Friendly Circle

The Friendly Circle of the Wilkesboro Methodist church held an enthusiastic meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Ruby Hartley with a full attendance of members. Program leader for the evening was Miss Mattie Gray Guthrie and with the assistance of a number of the girls, an instructive program on "The Missionary Society of the Methodist church in Brazil" was given. Miss Guthrie conducted the devotional and the business session was presided over by Miss Irene Culler. Delightful refreshments were served during the social hour.

Miss Louise Vyne Entertained At Bridge

Miss Louise Vyne was charming hostess at bridge at her home on Tuesday afternoon entertaining a number of her friends. Four tables were arranged for the game in a bright setting of roses and other summer flowers. The game was enjoyed through the late hours of the afternoon, after which the hostess aided by Mrs. Will Blair served a salad and sweet course. Mrs. Claude Doughton, a bride of the winter, was an honor guest at the party, and was presented with a lovely remembrance. Mrs. Doughton was the guest of honor at the luncheon given by Mrs. T. A. Finley to be the holder of the top score prize. A special guest of the club was Mrs. Donald Lumpkin, of Durham, who was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Palmer Horton, and to Mrs. Lumpkin Miss Somers presented a lovely remembrance.

Mrs. Wagoner Entertains Worker's Council Monday

With twenty officers and teachers present an enthusiastic meeting of the Worker's Council of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church was held on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. H. V. Wagoner. Dr. A. S. Cassel, general superintendent of the Sunday school, occupied the chair for the business session at which time plans were made for the Daily Vacation Bible School and a Teacher Training class. The class will be taught by Rev. W. A. Jenkins, pastor of the church, and will begin at an early date.

Summit News

SUMMIT, June 11.—We have several new cases of measles in this community.

Miss Eva Kight spent Saturday night with her cousin, Miss Mae Mikel of this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee J. Church and son and daughter, motored to North Wilkesboro Monday on business.

Mr. Pressley Church, of this section, and Coy Church, of Pattons Ridge, spent the week-end with their sister, Mrs. Garnett Greer, at Brownwood.

Mr. Joe Beshears and little son, of Winston-Salem, are spending a few days in this section visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Lizzie Kees spent Sunday evening in the home of her sister, Mrs. Coy Church, at Pattons Ridge.

Mr. Reggar Waters and Ottis Green, of Pattons Ridge, were visitors in this community Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bengt visited in the home of Rev. J. W. Church Sunday evening.

To Broadcast Big Fight From Radio Sales Co.

Announcement is made today that the Carnero-Baer championship fight will be broadcast over loud speaker at the Radio Sales Company on C Street. The company invites the public to hear the fight over the loud speakers.

Ladies' Bible Class Met Tuesday Evening

Mrs. T. H. Waller and Mrs. J. D. Kennerly joined hospitality to the members of the Young Ladies' Bible class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church in their business and social meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Waller on Sixth street. The meeting opened with Miss Ruth Colvard reading the scripture lesson after which Mr. W. G. Gabriel, teacher of the class, led in prayer. The president of class, Mrs. Walter Newton, presided for routine business. Plans were discussed for the annual picnic and Mrs. Murphy Hunt, Mrs. J. D. Schafer and Mrs. Ivey Moore were appointed as a committee to make arrangements for the picnic. The hostesses served tempting refreshments during the social hour.

Miss Louise Vyne Entertained At Bridge

Miss Louise Vyne was charming hostess at bridge at her home on Tuesday afternoon entertaining a number of her friends. Four tables were arranged for the game in a bright setting of roses and other summer flowers. The game was enjoyed through the late hours of the afternoon, after which the hostess aided by Mrs. Will Blair served a salad and sweet course. Mrs. Claude Doughton, a bride of the winter, was an honor guest at the party, and was presented with a lovely remembrance. Mrs. Dough-

PRICE COMPLETE

We are reminded each day of the fine spirit of co-operation our people have given us in helping us to give more comforting and efficient service to those we serve.

As a token of our appreciation for this fine co-operation, we are pricing our services complete. Only the price of casket, clothing and extra cars used would change our standard charge.

REINS-STURDIVANT

Incorporated
PHONES—
Day — 85
Night — 85-228

Special OCCASIONAL Chairs and Rockers

Upholstered in Colored Rep and Tapestry. Walnut and Maple.

While present stock lasts

$4.95

Rhodes-Day Furniture Co.
COMPLETE FURNISHERS OF THE HOME
NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C.

Father's Day Is June 17

GET "DAD" A USEFUL GIFT

One visit to our store will remind you of a dozen useful things to wear for Dad at an amazingly little cost. Here are just a few examples of what he would appreciate as a Father's Day remembrance...

- SHIRTS 97c, $1.45, $1.94
- TIES 19c, 48c, 97c
- SOCKS 25c, 50c
- PAJAMAS $1.94
- BELTS 48c, 75c, 97c

Absher's
The Cash Clothing Store North Wilkesboro, N. C.

LIBERTY THEATRE

Pride of N. Wilkesboro

THURSDAY - FRIDAY

GUY LOMBARDO and his famous band . . .
Georgie Burns and Gracie Allen of Radio Fame

"MANY HAPPY RETURNS"

Plus—A Walt Disney Cartoon, "Birds of a Feather"

SATURDAY BOB STEELE

"Sunrise Trail"

Plus—A Popeye Cartoon, "Man On the Flying Trapeze"
Last Chapter—"Fighting With Kit Carson"

COMING MONDAY

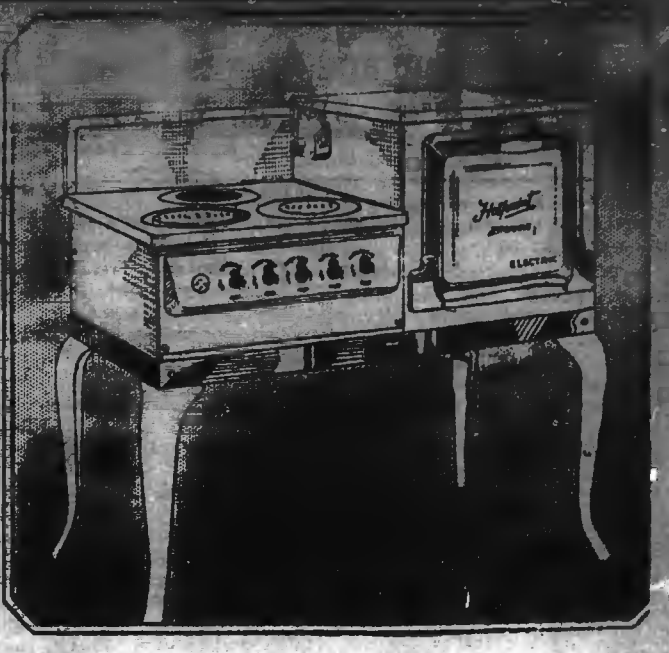

"Murder at the Vanities"

Tuesday of Wilkesboro was the most successful at cards winning the top score prize while the consolation award went to Mrs. D. J. Carter.

Presbyterian Young People At Davidson College

A number of young people of the North Wilkesboro Presbyterian church are at Davidson College this week attending the annual meeting of the Presbytery for young people. The party went over Tuesday and will be there for a week. Rev. Rufus Morrow and Edward Finley, Jr., motored over for the day to accompany them there.

The following are attending: Paul Cashio, treasurer of Presbytery; Mary Gwyn Williams, foreign mission chairman of Presbytery; Sue Moring Clements and Kate Ogilvie, delegates from the local church. Margaret Faw is representing the Wilkesboro church; Jeannie Ogilvie, representative from Flora McDonald College; and Sam Ogilvie, of Maxton College.

Keep Cool IN YOUR KITCHEN THIS SUMMER BY INSTALLING A HOTPOINT ELECTRIC RANGE

Now that summer is here and long, hot hours to spend in your kitchen, why not give a thought to the comforts of a HOTPOINT ELECTRIC RANGE? You can enjoy the summer as much as any of your friends—if you do your cooking by electricity. Prepare your meal—set the Range—then forget it until you are ready to serve. A call will bring a representative to your home—or if you call at our office we will gladly give you a demonstration.

Southern Public Utilities Company
PHONE 420 NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C.

AUCTION SALE Furniture, Pianos, Organs Saturday, June 16 11 O'clock A. M. 16

Just to stimulate June business, we are going to sell at public auction for cash some high-grade Used Furniture, Pianos, etc, consisting in part of Living Room Suites, Rugs, Porch Suites, Rockers, Chairs, Buffets, Beds, Pianos, Organs, Phonograph, Sewing Machine, Dishes and many other articles.

Remember, you make the price. Real bargains. Don't miss it. 11 o'clock sharp.

Wilkes Furniture Exchange
TENTH STREET (NEXT DOOR TO GOODWILL STORE)
NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C.