

SOCIETY

MISS MAMIE SOCKWELL, EDITOR PHONE 215

Mrs. Hubbard Entertained Wilkesboro Book Club

Mrs. J. C. Hubbard was hostess at her home in Wilkesboro Thursday afternoon entertaining at bridge and had as her guests members of her book club and several extra guests. Pink roses and blue larkspur artistically arranged, made a festive background for the players at three tables. In serving a salad and sweet course at the end of play, the hostess had the assistance of her mother, Mrs. J. W. White.

Mrs. J. M. Crawford Gives A Delightful Party

A social event of the week of much interest was the lovely party given by Mrs. J. M. Crawford at her home on E street Wednesday afternoon, entertaining a number of her friends at bridge and rook. A profusion of mixed summer flowers made a colorful setting for the games, who found their places at five tables for the games. Three were made up for bridge and two for rook, and resulted in the high score in bridge going to Mrs. Thos. Smith, with Mrs. Walter Newton holding the prize for honors. Mrs. W. P. Horton won in the rook game.

An honor guest of the party was Mrs. Jack Brame, a bride of the spring, who prior to her marriage was Miss Virginia Hix, of this city, and to her Mrs. Crawford presented a beautiful remembrance. A number of social courtesies have been extended Mrs. Brame since her wedding. After the removal of cards Mrs. Crawford was assisted by Miss Kathleen White and Mrs. A. B. Johnston in serving a salad and sweet course.

Miss Louise Vyne Hostess At Bridge Party Thursday

Miss Louise Vyne was charming hostess at bridge at her home on C street Thursday afternoon, entertaining a number of her friends. Included in her guest list were two popular brides of the spring, Mrs. Jack Brame and Mrs. J. D. Moore, Jr. A pretty arrangement of mixed garden flowers made a bright setting for the players at four tables. Mrs. Ivy Moore proved to be the most successful at cards, being awarded the top score prize. Mrs. Brame and Mrs. Moore were remembered with gifts. This was the first of a series of parties given by this club. Miss Margaret A. Lee, of Boston, was cards were held as a social affair in serving a salad and sweet course.

Musical Tea Given By Baptist Missionary Society

The musical tea given by the Baptist Missionary Society was informal, given at the home of Mrs. G. T. Mitchell in Wilkesboro Friday evening proved to be an interesting and enjoyable social affair of the week for the Wilkesboros. The tea was given under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Wilkesboro Baptist church and more than fifty guests called during the hours eight to ten.

All through the evening a musical program was given by Misses Bert and Ila Holman, soprano and contralto, Miss Ursula Blevins, pianist, and Miss Joyce Wellborn, reader. Each one of the ladies gave several numbers, all of which were most entertaining. A silver offering was taken for the benefit of the society and a neat sum was realized.

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of the Board of County Commissioners on the third Monday in June, 1934, for the purpose of equalizing and adjusting errors and valuations. This 4th day of June, 1934.

BOARD COUNTY COMMISSIONERS
By T. H. Settle, Clerk Ex-officio.

PRICE COMPLETE

We are reminded each day of the fine spirit of co-operation our people have given us in helping us to give more comforting and efficient service to those we serve. As a token of our appreciation for this fine co-operation, we are pricing our services complete. Only the price of casket, clothing and extra cars need would change our standard charge.

REINS-STURDIVANT

Incorporated
PHONE 420
Day - 45
Night - 86-228

Social Calendar

The three circles of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church will hold their monthly meetings on Tuesday with the following hostesses:

Circle No. 1 will meet with Mrs. H. B. Dodson at 3:30 o'clock. The Mary Brame Circle will meet with Mrs. A. E. Spainhower and Mrs. F. D. Forester at the home of Mrs. Spainhower at 3:30 o'clock.

Mrs. James Hauser and Miss Clyde Scroggs will be hostess to the Franklin Circle at their home at eight o'clock in the evening.

The monthly meeting of the Presbyterian Auxiliary will be held Tuesday afternoon at the church hut at 3:30 o'clock.

ed. Tea and wafers were served by a number of the members of the society while others received informally throughout the evening.

Miss Jack Hart Hostess At Dinner Bridge Party

To honor the members of Class No. 2 of Mae's Beauty Culture school Miss Jack Hart gave a lovely dinner bridge at her home Thursday evening at seven o'clock. The party was a farewell courtesy to the girls and those honored were Misses Bennie Elliott, Marjorie Walker, Era Templenton and Rosalie Wallace and Mrs. Elizabeth Goode. Guests other than the honorees were their instructor, Mrs. Jake Church, Misses Pansy Thompson, Gladys Absher, Sina Kilby, Lorene Shumate, Ruby McGlamery and Mrs. Bill Hart.

The girls were received by the hostess and Mrs. Bill Hart and directed to the living room which was attractively decorated in masses of cut flowers. In serving a four course dinner the hostess was assisted by Miss Absher, Miss Thompson and Mrs. Hart. Following the dinner three tables were made up for bridge and played for some time. As a result of the game Miss Absher was awarded the top score prize. Best wish was extended to the teacher and the girls by the hostess and the honor was given to the hostess.

Miss Rose Wade Scroggs Hostess At Bridge Party

A delightful bridge party for the younger set was the one given by Miss Rose Wade Scroggs at her home on Sixth Street Tuesday evening. In serving an ice course at the close of the game the hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. R. E. Scroggs. Larkspur and daisies made colorful decorations for the home.

W. M. S. Of Union Church Met Tuesday Afternoon

The members of Union Methodist Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Oscar Elliott Tuesday evening at 2 o'clock for their regular monthly meeting and was attended by eleven members. The president, Miss Winnie McLean, presided over the business session, plans were approved for work to be started soon at the church, also plans for home coming day to take place in August. Committees appointed and asked to meet with the executive officers Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Fred Miller. Miss Bessie McLean, superintendent of young peoples work, will meet with the children Thursday afternoon. After business session the program opened with Mrs. C. W. Mahaffey leading in prayer, Mrs. Oscar Elliott read the scripture lesson. Mrs. D. E. Turner discussed the leaflet on Brazil written by Miss Lella Epps, Missionary to Brazil. Reports from the district meeting at Elkin, which was attended by 8 ladies were given. Miss Epps' closing message was "Oh, Father, help our Missionary women to be Torch Bearers for Thee."

The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. J. P. Crysel, after which refreshments were served by the hostess and Mrs. Eula Owens.

Mrs. W. H. Clark entertained for her friends at her home on D Street Wednesday afternoon. A color motif of yellow and white was carried out in the decorations with the use of a profusion of summer flowers. In the rook game, which was played at three tables, Miss Lela Hester Brame received high score award. To the honorees Mrs. Clark presented remembrances.

Dainty refreshments followed the game, with Miss Anna Catherine Moore assisting the hostess. Alice Cassel and Jeanne Moore came in for refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Beach Keller Operating Green Lantern

Mr. and Mrs. Beach Keller have taken over the management of Green Lantern Cafe, popular eating place on Tenth Street.

The Green Lantern has recently been renovated and enlarged for the greater convenience of patrons. In connection with the cafe are the Greyhound Bus Station, Sanitary Barber Shop and rooms for transients or regular boarders.

Baptist Women To Meet Wednesday

Annual Meeting of Brushy Mountain Missionary Union To Be Held Here

The annual meeting of the Brushy Mountain Woman's Missionary Union will be held at the First Baptist church of this city Wednesday of this week. The sessions will begin at ten o'clock in the morning with Mrs. Eugene Olive presiding. The State Secretary, Mrs. Edna R. Harris of Raleigh, will be present and will take part on the program. It is expected also that Mrs. Alva Lawrence James, former Young People's Leader, and Mrs. B. K. Mason, chairman of the Charlotte Division, will be present. Besides these visitors a number of the women of the Association will take part on the program which will extend through the afternoon and evening. In connection with the evening program, beginning at 7:45, the Fannie Heck Memorial Pageant will be presented. It is announced that women from all the churches of the Brushy Mountain Association are expected to attend, even though some of them may have no organization for the women in their local churches. Both men and women are invited to the evening program. Lunch will be served for those present at noon, and places will be provided for visitors to spend the night.

E. L. Blackman, Sr. Dies In Tennessee

E. L. Blackman, father of E. L. Blackman, Jr., of this city, died at his home in Wartrace, Tenn., Friday, according to a message received here. He was a member of one of Wartrace's most prominent families and was held in high esteem by a host of friends. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Blackman, Jr., left here Friday on receipt of a message that his father was very ill.

Kilby-Lee Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kilby announce the marriage of their daughter, Viola, to Mr. William Lawrence Lee, of Goldsboro, N. C., on June 1st, 1934, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Bumgarner. Rev. E. P. Green, officiated.

Vacation Bible School Started

Two Weeks' Bible School Began Today At First Baptist Church

In spite of the rain Monday morning, nearly one hundred people enrolled for the first day of the 1934 two weeks' session of the Daily Vacation Bible School at the First Baptist church. Girls and boys aged 4 to 14 are eligible, but new pupils cannot be enrolled after Wednesday of this week. It is announced. Rev. Eugene Olive, pastor, is superintendent of the school. Departmental superintendents are Miss Marie Haigwood, beginners; Mrs. Bernard Williams, Primary; Bill Dancy, junior. About fifteen other persons are assisting in the three departments with the teaching, music, hand work and various other activities. It is expected, according to Mr. Olive, that the enrollment will reach more than 150 by Wednesday. Each day's program begins at 8:00 a. m. and lasts until 10:30 a. m. There will be no meeting of the school on Wednesdays. At the close of the second week's session a summation program will be presented and the public will be invited to attend.

FOR ANY KIND OF RADIATOR OR WELDING

job see the old reliable Williams Welding & Radiator Shop

(JAS. F. WILLIAMS)
Now located one mile west of North Wilkesboro on Boone Trail Highway.

We also do all kinds of Body and Fender Work and General Automobile Repairing.

DO NOT BE MISLED!
PHONE 334-W

S

T O D A Y

JUNE 18th

Starting

OUR "FOUR STAR"

ELECTRIC RANGE OFFER

---

FEATURING

Hotpoint

ELECTRIC

RANGES

ALLOWANCE FOR YOUR OLD STOVE

PRICES COMPLETELY INSTALLED

The beautiful new "Chicagoan," Hotpoint's popular table-top model

Hotpoint ELECTRIC RANGE

ONLY $5.00 CASH

30 MONTHS TO PAY

LATEST MODELS

LOWER PRICES

NEW FEATURES

LONGER TERMS

Fast, dependable, beautiful, new Hotpoint Electric Ranges are being featured this year in our Special Electric Range Offer. Never before have we been able to offer these high quality ranges at such a low price—A Genuine Hotpoint Automatic Range, Full Porcelain, for Less Than Ten Cents a Day. This offer has never been equaled by us and this is possibly your last opportunity to have a Cool, Clean, Economical Electric Range at such a ridiculously low price. Nothing has been cheapened—every change is an improvement.

Act now. Come in and let us explain the Modern Hotpoint Electric Range to you, its economical operation, its low price, and see the four new models on display. This offer is limited, so don't delay.

Tune in Our Radio Program—WBT—Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, 11:15 A. M.

Southern Public Utilities Co.

PHONE 420 "ELECTRICITY—THE SERVANT IN THE HOME" NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C.