dance leading to show that the keeper of the poll book had made a mistake and had written the name of Edward Walsh instead of Edward Foster, who was a qualified voter and who voted.

Elk Number 2
Philo Triplett, election judge on June 30, signed an affidavit alleging that nine illegal votes were cast for Rousseau and that he refused to sign the returns of the precinct. Defending counsel introduced affidavit of the registrar, saying that 4 Republicans voted for Rousseau and 2 for Burke, according to his check of the poll books of June 2 as compared with June 30. There was a general challenge of the absentee votes.

Edwards Number 1
Burke's 28 electors in this precinct signed affidavit that they affiliated with the Democratic party. It was alleged that four Republicans voted for Rousseau. Affidavit of the registrar declared that at least three of the four alleged to be Republicans are known Democrats.

Edwards Number 2
In an attempt to show fraud protesting counsel had an affidavit with the signatures of 43 Democrats who swore they voted for Burke while the returns in this precinct showed only 41. An affidavit by Porter Norman's mother said that he was under 21 and had voted for Rousseau. It was brought out by the defense that the elector in question will be 21 before the fall election and that the primary in that precinct was regular in every respect.

Edwards Number 3
Twenty-two Republicans were alleged to have voted for Rousseau as against six admitted by the registrar after a check of the poll books. One voted for Rousseau and five for Burke, he said.

Jobs Cabin Number 1
The principal objection to the vote as certified by the county board in this precinct by Burke counsel was that the Alexander county man did not poll one vote. An affidavit, however, was presented alleging that M. C. Beshears did vote for Burke, although the returns showed none. The affidavit was signed by Beshears. This affidavit was flatly denied by the defense, one by an election judge saying that he saw Beshears' ticket when he handed it to him and that it was marked clearly for Rousseau.

Jobs Cabin Number 2
No contest.

Lewis Fork
Lewis Fork was one of the townships in which multiple voting of Republicans was alleged by Burke counsel. An attempt was made to show that absentees were plentiful and that one man's ballot was taken while he was hoeing corn a half mile from the polling place. This was admitted by the defense but it was brought out that the man was very old and not able to walk around very much.

Lovelace
Rousseau counsel admitted by affidavit that 13 Republicans voted for Rousseau and one for Burke, according to a poll book count as against the 20 or more claimed by Burke affiliates.

Other Townships
Moravian Falls, Mulberry, New Castle, North Wilkesboro, Reddies River, Rock Creek, Somers and Stanton were taken up in respective order and similar allegations and admissions were made in each precinct by both sides.

North Wilkesboro Vote
The center of Republican voting was pointed to as North Wilkesboro, in which Mr. Rousseau polled a huge majority of the more than 1,200 votes cast. G. S. Forester, a judge of the primary, said that from observation and from information 233 Republicans voted for Rousseau. A check of the poll books by Burke counsel showed that 194 who, voted Republican in the primary June 2 voted in the Democratic primary June 30, compared with the check made by the registrar, Frank Stafford, who found 137. Of the 137 affidavits were produced from Rousseau supporters tending to show from observation in the manner in which they came to the polls and who brought them in that 72 voted for Burke and 65 for Rousseau.

This is in almost direct contrast to the allegations of protesting counsel.

An affidavit by Mrs. W. G. Harrison alleged that she, a Republican, was approached by J. G. Hackett, a Rousseau worker, and he asked her to vote, saying that it made no difference if she was a Republican. She further stated that Mr. Hackett gave her a dollar for voting.

Mr. Hackett refuted this affidavit by testimony in person. Mr. Hackett said that he did not know Mrs. Harrison and that he did not talk to her on that day.

Thirty absentee ballots were challenged in North Wilkesboro on the day of the primary by G. S. Forester on the grounds that some of them were not registered and some were Republicans. Most of the votes were counted, on the grounds that the electors were registered under maiden names and under names of their husbands.

Somers
In Somers Mr. Burke claimed 50 Republican votes for Rousseau where he did not poll a vote. Counter affidavit admitted only eight Republican votes. L. W. Lunsford, aged but enthusiastic Democrat, testified as to the party affiliation of a large number of the claimed Republicans.

C. C. Camp Voting
In Stanton township it was alleged by H. O. Parsons that 30 members of the James C. C. Camp voted for Rousseau while they were not bona fide residents of the county, and state. Affidavit by the registrar showed eight Republicans voting as against the ten claimed. Two of the eight, the affidavit said, were believed cast for Burke.

Fraud Again Alleged
In Union township an affidavit was gotten up signed by 19 who said they voted for Burke while the returns showed his vote 16 and it was also alleged that 20 Republicans voted for Rousseau. In the rebuttal affidavit thirteen Republican votes were admitted, 12 for Rousseau and one for Burke.

Republican Affiliates
In Walnut Grove number 1 multiple Republican voting was alleged. Affidavits by 76 individuals were produced to the effect that they voted Republican on June 2 and for Mr. Rousseau on June 30. These affidavits were countered by one affidavit by the registrar to the effect that only 26 such votes were cast. Forty-eight illegal votes were alleged in Walnut Grove number 2.

Wilkesboro Probed
In Wilkesboro Burke counsel alleged by affidavit around 100 Republican votes. Counter affidavit in rebuttal claimed 48 Republicans voted for Burke and 36 for Rousseau.

An affidavit was produced charging W. B. Warner with changing party affiliations on the poll books since the probe got under way several days ago. Burke counsel stated that Mr. Warner wished to make a statement in regard to this charge at the opportune time.

Beaver Creek
An affidavit by T. W. Ferguson alleged that 20 Republicans voted for Rousseau and that three votes were counted which he termed illegal because of residence of the electors. Counter affidavits were introduced, signed by the registrar and an election judge, affirming that no Republicans voted and that there were no irregularities in that precinct.

Boomer
From Boomer township was an affidavit signed by 44 voters who said they were Democrats and who voted for Burke. Burke's vote in Boomer as shown by the returns being 44. J. E. Howell alleged that 17 Republicans in that precinct voted for Rousseau. Counter affidavit was introduced by Rousseau counsel, admitting that 14 Republicans voted on June 30 and alleging that the vote of the 14 was evenly divided—Burke 7, Rousseau 7.

Brushy Mountain
Burke counsel alleged by affidavit that 31 Republicans voted for Rousseau and none for Burke. Burke's vote in the precinct was three. Counter affidavit based on check by poll books admitted 13 Republicans voting, 12 for Rousseau and 1 for Burke.
