RICHLAND FARM
Must go at great sacrifice! Owing to old age I will dispose of my stock, fruit and grain farm of 131 acres rich black soil, suitable for corn, wheat, oats, rye, buckwheat, Irish potatoes, cabbage, beans and garden vegetables. Hay 2 tons per acre. 65 acres cleared, 3 orchards, two dwellings 2 barns, 2 cribs, hog pen, good garden. Has 10 bold, free-stone springs, creek, all under fence, wire and rails. One mile to state graded school, post-office, railway station, state highway, high school, four churches, and three stores. School bus comes to farm. Gristmill at the farm. Abundance of firewood, good cold spring. Most healthful climate, good neighbors. Harvested 300 bushels corn and 400 bushels apples in 1933. $300 worth shrubbery in the yard. One crop and the merchantable timber will almost pay for the farm. I have been offered $125 per acre ($15,000) just before the depression. Clear of mortgages, farm loans, back taxes, etc. Can make clear bona fide deed. If taken in the next 60 days $26.77 per acre gets crops, stock, possessions—all for $3,500.

Woman, 70, Cuts Youthful Capers At Cotnam Show

New York, Oct. 5.—Mrs. Josephine D. Robinson, who is past 70, demonstrated youth-giving exercises today with a routine of cartwheels, headstands and handstands at the women's exposition of arts and industries.

It was as a bareback rider in the circus that she learned the whole secret of keeping young and spirited, said the white-haired woman.

"The horse we rode bareback had to be phlegmatic," she explained. "So they fed them all the hay they wanted and very little oats which gave energy. They were exercised quietly."

"But the high-spirited horses were given lively workouts and lots of oats."

"All women who want to stay youthful should treat themselves like high-spirited horses. Eat little, exercise a lot and think more of their figures and less of their faces."

"Housework as most women do it isn't exercise. It ruins the figure. Most women don't even get exercise when they walk. They waddle, hunched in the middle, instead of walking with pride."

Georgia Democrats Take Stab At The New Deal

Macon, Ga., Oct. 4.—Georgia Democrats today assailed some phases of President Roosevelt's "new deal."

A platform adopted by the state Democratic convention included:

1. Demand for a "speedy termination" of the "period of experimentation in national governmental affairs."

2. Condemnation of "any policy of government which dominates and competes with private business."

3. Disapproval of the "growing tendency toward diverting the original purposes of the constitution to fit occasions of the moment."

4. Demand for abolition of "that experiment called the processing tax" on agricultural commodities.

5. Demand for "rigid economy in the national government and an immediate cessation of the orgy of money spending."

Canadian Mother Laying Claim To Championship

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 5.—A new contender appeared today in the Millar birth derby for $500,000 when Mrs. Matthew Kenny, who stands four feet, six inches, claimed to have given birth to 10 children since 1926 and to be expecting twins next month.

The little French-Canadian woman, 16 of whose 19 children died, said hospital authorities had told her she would bear twins in a month. Two more children would put Mrs. Kenny far in the lead of the race for the late Charles Vance Millar's money, left in an eccentric will providing for the Toronto woman bearing the most children during the first decade following his death. He died in 1926.

RFC WILL AID IN REOPENING OF 400 BANKS

Washington, Oct. 4.—A plan to end immediately receiverships in 400 national banks, with the object of saving depositors thousands of dollars, was announced today by Jesse Jones, RFC chairman.

The program calls for RFC loans up to 100 per cent of the value of a bank's assets, contingent upon these being sold at once to depositors or other bidders.

Under the old system, loans on assets were made to receivers, but there was no contingency on assets being sold immediately. This, Jones explained, meant that the money was more or less "frozen," necessitating continuation of receiverships.

Considerable criticism has been raised over receivers' fees and when these extended over several years they aggregated comparatively large amounts.

East Chicago Police Receive Reward for Dillinger Capture

Washington, Oct. 4.—The federal government wrote John Dillinger off its books today with an announcement that the $5,000 reward offered for information leading to the capture of the modern Jesse James had been paid to two East Chicago, Ind., police.

Sergeant Martin Zarkofitch, ace investigator, whose knowledge of Dillinger's women always had been credited with setting the trap for the outlaw, divided the reward with Capt. T. A. O'Neil. The two worked for months on running down Dillinger after one of their comrades had been slain by the desperado.

GREEN FOR PEACEFUL END OF LABOR ROWS

San Francisco, Oct. 7.—With bitter strife confronting the American Federation of Labor both from within and from without, President William Green pleaded today for the application of the "rules of righteousness" to effect friendly relations among all factions.

Declaring that even after one side is exhausted in an industrial strike, leaders of both sides must get together to decide conditions of peace, the labor president asked in an address from the pulpit of the First Congregational church here:

"Why not try the conference room first, and save all the waste?"

DEAL FAMILY SINGS AT WALNUT GROVE

The famous Deal Family Singers of Burke county, sang in Walnut Grove Baptist church in an all day singing Sunday and drew one of the largest crowds ever gathered there. The family consists of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Deal, three sons and four daughters. They have the distinction of being the only family of singers in the United States without an in-law, cousin or other relative in the group.

All of them are artists in the true sense of the word. The father, who is a singing school master, has seen to it that the talent of each was fully developed and today they can change from part to part at will. The parts are usually: John, tenor; George and Melvin, Bass; one daughter, Mrs. Albert Royal, contralto, with the father leading soprano and organ accompanist.

The Deals are consecrated Christians who are using their talents for the praise of God and the promotion of his kingdom.

At intervals during the day Mr. Deal paused and spoke to the people on the subjects nearest his heart. He stated that they did not sing for the applause of the people but for the glory of God.

"God didn't give me the talent to waste. It is my duty to use it as it is for your pastor to preach to you from Sunday to Sunday. I had rather wear out than to rust out," he declared.

Mr. Deal has a sense of humor, too. He expressed himself as a prohibitionist and stated that it was his belief that all who voted for the repeal of the 18th Amendment should be "put upon a shelf" and left there.

Among the group of people coming from Burke were two small gifted singers, Bertha and Lois Franklin. Bertha, 10, the protégée of Mr. Deal, has been his pupil for near two years. She has a rich contralto, developed beyond her age and can sing difficult songs at sight. Lois, 12, has a lovely soprano voice, too. The audience was delighted to have them sing a number of times.

The Deal family have been rendered radio audiences at Gastonia, N. C. and in South Carolina. The American Magazine carried an article not long since in their Interesting People section that has given them national recognition. The Columbia Phonograph Co., New York, recorded twenty-four songs for them and paid the family $1,400.00 for the same. The first two songs recorded were: "I'm Rolling Through An Unfriendly World" and "Everybody Will Be Happy Over There."

When queried in regard to commercializing on their talents in larger fields Mr. Deal replied: "It's against my religion to sing anything but spiritual songs. We have signed up with the Columbia record people and they won't let us sing anything else."

Rev. Elbert Jennings, of Fairplains, presented the people with an interesting feature during the day. He had with him a group of thirty little boys and girls who delighted the audience with several beautiful songs. Mr. Jennings is to be commended for his splendid work with the children.

The Deal family singing was used by the church as a home coming for relatives and friends. The people have long since been noted for their bountiful dinners on such occasions and this day was no exception. During the noon hour the long table back of the church was laden with good things to eat and everyone was invited to enjoy the same.—Reported.
