

Farm Program For Kiwanians

W. B. Pipkin and R. H. McNeill To Speak At Friday's Meeting

Farm Management will be the theme of the program for the North Wilkesboro Kiwanis Club meeting Friday noon when W. B. Pipkin, of Washington, D. C., nationally known agricultural authority, and Attorney R. H. McNeill, also of Washington, D. C., will appear on the program under the direction of W. K. Sturdivant, program chairman for the day.

This is one of the many farm programs to be sponsored by the Kiwanians and each member is asked to have a farmer as his guest at the meeting.

Difference Of Opinion

Albuquerque, N. M. Oct. 12, 1934.

Journal-Patriot, North Wilkesboro, N. C. Dear Editor:

While reading the news in the Journal-Patriot published Oct. 8, I noticed an article where the baseball fans of North Wilkesboro sent School Boy Rowe congratulations telling him that Dizzy Dean was not in his class. I heartily agree with the fans on that point, for Dizzy and his brother, Paul, are both in a much higher class than Rowe will ever be. The fans of North Wilkesboro probably realize that by this time, if not, get them a guide book or a who's who in baseball.

I close with regrets that Detroit couldn't put up a better battle than they did for I would have liked to have seen a close series.

Yours truly,
CONRAD M. ELLER.
A loyal St. Louis fan.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION

Having this day purchased the entire interest of John W. Rallege in the Wilkes Furniture Exchange, this is to notify all persons that we assume all liabilities, and all accounts are payable to us. The business will be conducted as formally at the same location, next door to the Goodwill Store, and we will appreciate your continued patronage and good will.

This 10th day of Oct., 1934.

DUKE ELEVEN IS COMPOSED OF TAR HEELS, CAVALIERS

Durham, Oct. 16.—The states of North Carolina and Virginia can be jointly proud of Duke's undefeated 1934 edition of Blue Devils for it is truly an all Tar-Heel-Cavalier football squad.

Twelve of the 23 players who took part in Duke's great victory over Georgia Tech last week hail from North Carolina and Virginia. Eight of the members of Duke's varsity team are Tar Heels and Cavaliers.

The first team home town roll is: Elmer Tarrall, of Norfolk, Va., and Earle Wentz, Danville, Va., ends; Gus Durner, Asheville, and Tom Power, Rosemont, Pa., tackles; Jim Johnston, Winston-Salem, and Captain Jack Dunlap, Lawton, Okla., guards; E. B. Dunlap, Lawton, Okla., center. Clarence Parker, Portsmouth, Va., Corky Cornelius, Winston-Salem, Jack Alexander, Asheville, and Jule Ward, Galax, Va., backs.

C. L. Comer & Co. Store Announcing Reductions On Fall Merchandise

C. L. Comer & Co., well known mercantile firm located near the Wilkes-Iredell line on highway number 115, is announcing through an advertisement elsewhere in this newspaper sweeping reductions on fall and winter merchandise now in stock and is soliciting the continued patronage of old customers and a trial from new ones.

In conjunction with the store Mr. Comer is buying cotton at the highest market prices and is operating a feed and grist mill for the accommodation of customers at all times.

Auxiliary Of U. S. W. V. To Have Box Supper

The proceeds to aid in building a home to be used for a meeting place for the Spanish-American War Veterans. A live program, consisting of string music, songs and stunts will be given. All ladies young, old, and middle-aged are invited to come and bring boxes, an all gentlemen; young, old and middle-aged are asked to come and bring pocketbooks. —Reported.

Durham tobacco growers say they will get 40 per cent more money from 50 per cent less tobacco this year than in 1933.

DIETRICH'S "EMPRESS" IS ARTISTIC ACHIEVEMENT

Complete to the minutest detail, the setting and costumes of Josef Sternberg's "The Scarlet Empress," Marlene Dietrich's latest starring picture which opens at the Liberty Theatre Thursday for a two-day run, transports the observer back to the exciting regime of Russia's glorious Catherine. In addition a grand program of short features is booked. Charley Chase appears in his latest comedy, "It Happened One Day," and a new type of color cartoon, "Mingling In Mexico," with old favorites Mutt and Jeff, and a Metrotrone news round out a most complete program.

WILKESBORO STUDENT WINS W. C. T. U. PRIZE

Joy Elizabeth Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, of Call, was greatly surprised Tuesday to learn that she had won second prize on an essay she had written near the close of the 1933-34 school year, at which time she was a student in the fourth grade at Wilkesboro school.

The contest was state-wide and sponsored by the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Incidentally, the prize is $2.50 in cash.

Ferguson Hi School News

Messrs. Steele Bentley and a Mr. McNeill, students of Patterson Agricultural school, Caldwell county, visited the school Monday.

Prof. Cotner, who teaches in the Agricultural Extension Department of the Agricultural school in Raleigh, accompanied by his wife and youngest daughter, visited his daughter, Miss Clyde, math and Science teacher in Ferguson high school Saturday. Prof. Cotner gave a most instructive address both at the P.-T. A. meeting Thursday night, and at Chapel Friday morning.

Children of the various departments are assisting in giving short programs at chapel and thereby training themselves in expressing themselves before the public.

The first monthly test is being given in both high school and the elementary departments this week.

Professor Earp spent last week-end working on the baseball equipment.

Mr. Dickson made a partial survey of the truck routes last week, and will make the entire rounds within the next few days.

Critics who are supposed to do constructive criticism are appointed each week from the high school department to check up on some of the so-called "little things" and report at chapel each Friday morning. Some very helpful suggestions were given Monday morning. A little later the grade children will also be allowed to participate.

Some emphasis is being placed on improving in spelling. This seems to be one of the "lost arts" everywhere, and we think, should be "resurrected" again.

BENHAM NEWS

BENHAM, Oct. 17.—Mrs. May Sexton spent the week-end with her grandfather, Mr. H. T. Siden.

Mrs. George W. Curry spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Hemric, at Ronda.

Mr. Hilary Byrd spent last week at Wilkesboro attending court, as juror.

Brier Creek And Roaring River News

ROARING RIVER, Route 1, Oct. 17.—Misses Mattie and Armisa Sale had as their guests last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. W. and Carolyn Smith, of Plum Ridge, and Mrs. Burchette, wife of the late Rev. J. W. Burchette, of Mountain View.

Miss Bonnie Gentry, who attends Roaring River high school and boards at Mr. A. W. Green's, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sneed Gentry, of Brier Creek.

Mr. Wilson Reece and Miss Victrola Hampton, of Mt. Airy, and Mr. and Mrs. Rieden Reece, of Winston-Salem, gave Misses Mattie and Armisa Sale a delightful surprise last Sunday evening, making them an unexpected visit. Mrs. Reece planned to bring Mrs. W. G. Church with her party to her old home but got started too late.

Misses Ethel and Ophe Gentry, of Brier Creek, and Miss Ruth Boyd, of Clingman, went to Elkin Saturday.

Miss Mary Kate Sale, of Brier Creek, was called to her job at J. C. Penney's at Elkin last Saturday. She thinks "hard times" seem to be over if busy shopping days are any indication.

Mr. Arthur West, of Benham, was the guest of Mr. Sneed Gentry yesterday.

The Stone Mountain Association gave an interesting and inspirational meeting at Benham last Sunday night. Traphill B. Y. P. U. rendered an ideal program on, "Home." Pleasant Ridge quartet made exquisite vocal music for the occasion. Everyone was thrilled with the songs that interspersed the speeches. Roaring Gap, Traphill, Cool Springs, Mountain View were all represented and had speakers for the occasion.

Mr. Geo. Harvey Sale carried his "Aunt Mat" to her boarding place, Mr. Arthur West's, in Little Elkin community, where she is teaching and carried his wife from her father's to their home at Mr. Worth Sale's, Sunday afternoon.

Ronda Sunday school made an excursion to the Lithia Springs last Sunday.

Mr. R. R. Crater and family, of Ronda, attended the golden wedding of his parents, Mr. J. M. Crater, and Mrs. Delia Myers, at Cycle, Oct. 14.

Mrs. Sam Gray, of Brier Creek, has been in the hospital at Harmony. Several days. Her many friends are keenly anxious about her and are wishing she may return at an early day.

Miss Jettie Johnson, of Brier Creek, has spent the past week with Mrs. J. M. Crater, at Cycle.

Hog cholera appears to be spreading in Wilson county with the farm agent aiding to control the disease.

Saturday Home Coming Day At Wake Forest

Wake Forest began its second century of operation last month with 1000 students enrolled. It looks now as though in future years the registration will be limited to this number. President Thurman D. Kitchen will make such recommendation to his board of trustees at its next meeting.

The 100-year-old Baptist institution is rapidly bettering its physical plant. Wait Hall, new administration building, is in use this session for the first time. The William Amos Johnson medical building is just two years old. A new wing of concrete bleachers on Gore athletic field was added last year, and this week construction was begun on a new auditorium-physical education building which will cost approximately $150,000.

A large number of alumni have signified their intention to return to the campus this coming Saturday, October 20, for Homecoming Day, which will be featured with the annual literary society day program and a football game between Wake Forest and Presbyterian college of South Carolina.

IMPORTANT Announcement To Our Customers

In order to meet competition, we are marking all Fall and Winter merchandise with the lowest margin of profit possible. It is our aim to sell you merchandise at no greater price than you would have to pay elsewhere. While we might charge you more for one item, you could save on another. All the way through you will find our prices as low as any for the same class of merchandise.

To maintain these lower prices we will be compelled to reduce the volume of our credit sales. We have for sometime realized that our credit sales, through bad collections, have been an injury to our business. We must confine our credit sales to those of you who have, and do meet, your obligations promptly. Farm products are bringing better prices, and we expect you who owe us to meet your obligations promptly. Your future credit with us will depend on how you pay us this year.

We have the most complete stock of dependable merchandise we have ever had. In our stock you will find all standard brands of merchandise, such as LEE OVERALLS, the best overall in the world; PETERS DIAMOND BRAND SHOES for the whole family; WOLVERINE SHELL HORSE-HIDE Work Shoes for men; HANES UNDERWEAR; GOODYEAR TIRES; V.-C. FERTILIZER; STONY POINT FLOUR AND FEEDS.
