Junior G. A.'s Enjoy Hallowe'en Party

Little Miss Billie Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tai Barnes, was hostess to the members of the Junior Girl's auxiliary group, of which Mrs. Bernard Williams is leader, at a Hallowe'en party at her home on E Street Saturday evening. The children were dressed in Hallowe'en costumes and the games and contests were in keeping with the season. The twenty children attending were served delightful refreshments at the close of the evening.

Hallowe'en Socials Given At Legion Clubhouse

The Legion clubhouse was the scene of delightful entertainment on Monday and Tuesday evenings when the Intermediate and Senior groups of the B. Y. P. U.'s of the First Baptist church, held Hallowe'en socials there. For both evenings the spacious room was decorated in autumn leaves, pumpkins and other things symbolic of the season.

On Monday evening members of Intermediate Group No. 1 assembled in costume, for which prizes were given. Those receiving prizes for their costumes were Ray Foster, Edna Mae Rose, and Daisy Meade. During the evening games and contests, furnished entertainment and refreshments consisted of popcorn, toasted marshmallows, peanuts and apples. Around thirty-five children were present with Miss Lunda Hendren, Claude Canter and Bill Dancy and Rev. Eugene Olive in charge.

The Senior group and Intermediate Group No. 2 celebrated Hallowe'en in a big way on Tuesday evening, each group having a large number of young people present. Games and contests, followed by refreshments, afforded much amusement. The social committee for the Senior group was Misses Jeanne Bare and Elsie Nichols and Mr. Clay Elledge.

Mrs. Eugene Olive Is Hostess To Her Club

An enjoyable meeting of the Idlewee club was held on Tuesday evening when Mrs. Eugene Olive was hostess to the club members and several additional guests at her home on D Street. Hallowe'en decorations with an abundance of autumn leaves, jack-o-lanterns, chrysanthemums and other things suggestive of the season made a festive scene for the guests who gathered at four o'clock and spent sometime in needlework. At six o'clock a buffet supper was served from the dining room, the guests finding seats at a number of small tables placed throughout the rooms. Various games provided entertainment following the supper. During the evening books were exchanged.

Bible Class In Meeting Tuesday Afternoon

Mrs. H. B. Dodson, Mrs. Anna Hull and Mrs. G. A. Forester joined hospitality to the members of the Woman's Bible class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church in their monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dodson and had in attendance sixteen members.

Presiding for the business session was the president, Mrs. W. P. Horton, the regular routine of business being transacted. The devotional period was led by Mrs. A. B. Johnston with Mrs. R. M. Brame leading in prayer. A pleasant social hour followed the meeting during which time the hostesses served tempting refreshments.

Miss Mickey Bryant Gave Hallowe'en Party

Miss Mickey Bryant was hostess to a number of boys and girls at her home on D Street Saturday evening when she entertained at a Hallowe'en party. The Hallowe'en note was emphasized throughout in the games, contests, decorations and refreshments. Around twenty young people were present to enjoy the evening with Miss Bryant.

Wilkesboro Woman's Club In Meet Friday Afternoon

"Creation and Protection of Beauty" made an interesting topic for the program given at the monthly meeting of the Wilkesboro Woman's club that was held on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Julius C. Hubbard with Mrs. C. H. Cowles joining as hostess. The meeting was well attended and during the social hour enjoyed at close of the afternoon delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

To open the meeting the members joined in singing the club hymn after which Mrs. Cowles, the president, presided for the business session. Mrs. L. B. Dula was named as chairman for the sale of Christmas seals. Mrs. William Barber was received into the club as a new member.

Program chairman for the afternoon was Mrs. A. R. Gray and in presenting the topic she was aided by Mrs. G. T. Mitchell, Miss Ursula Blevins, Mrs. F. G. Holman, Mrs. R. E. Pevette and Little Miss Betsy Barber. The program was given as follows: Creation of Beauty, Mrs. Mitchell; piano solo, "Libestraume," Miss Blevins; Protection of Beauty, Mrs. Holman; vocal solo, "Trees," Mrs. Pevette and Little Miss Barber dressed in old fashioned costume sang "The Old Spinning Wheel."

Miss Mary Jo Pearson Hostess To Music Club

A meeting of the Music Lover's club pupils of Miss Ellen Robinson, was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Mary Jo Pearson. Since this was the first meeting for the club year new officers were elected as follows: President, Mary Gwyn Williams; Mary Jo Pearson, vice president; Corrine Faw, treasurer, and Betty Halfacre, secretary. After the business session a number of the pupils recited to make a study of American piano solos. The club deca composers during the year. Delightful refreshments were served at close of the afternoon.

Mrs. W. E. Jones Gave A Delightful Dinner Party

An enjoyable dinner party of the week was the one given by Mrs. W. E. Jones at her home on D Street Wednesday evening when she entertained the members of the Thursday Afternoon Book club from Elkin and included in her guest list a number of friends in North Wilkesboro. Mrs. Jones is a former member of the club. Masses of dahlias and chrysanthemums made a colorful background for the guests, who were served a delicious dinner at six o'clock.

Those coming up from Elkin were Messadams W. W. Whitaker, Herbert Graham, George Royal, G. P. Dockery, W. R. Wellborn, M. A. Biggs, E. F. McNeer, Mason Lillard, Fred Colhard and

Miss Carolyn Lillard. The out-of-town guests were presented with attractive pieces of pottery as souvenirs of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton Hosts At Dinner-Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Horton were hosts at a delightful dinner bridge at their home on Sixth Street Wednesday evening entertaining a number of their friends. A three course dinner was served at seven o'clock with covers laid for sixteen at four small tables placed amid a bright setting of autumn blossoms. Following the dinner bridge was in play for sometime and resulted in the top score prize going to Dr. and Mrs. J. H. McNeil.

Current Topic Club Is Entertained

Mrs. F. C. Forester was charming hostess to the members of the Current Topic Club and a number of additional friends at her home on D Street Wednesday afternoon. The home was beautifully decorated in pink dahlias and white chrysanthemums forming a festive background for the guests. The president, Mrs. W. J. Allen, presided and during the roll call members responded with news items of much interest.

After the business part of the meeting rook and bridge were enjoyed at five tables. Mrs. Dudley Hill won out in the bridge game, receiving an attractive award and in cutting for the rook prize between Mrs. Chal McNeil and Mrs. A. B. Johnston, Mrs. McNeil was the winner.

To close the delightful afternoon Mrs. Forester, with the assistance of Mrs. E. E. Eller and Mrs. A. H. Casey, served a salad course followed by a sweet course.

Mrs. R. S. Shoaf Entertained at Dinner Party

To compliment a number of the teachers from Appalachian State Teachers College at Boone, Mrs. R. S. Shoaf was hostess at a pretty dinner party at her home on B Street Saturday evening, and included in her guest list a number of North Wilkesboro friends. Miss Alma Shoaf, a daughter of the hostess, is a sophomore at the college.

Masses of flowers in the bright autumn hues of orange and yellow, shaded lights, black cats, and other appointments reflected the Hallowe'en season. A delicious four course dinner was served at seven o'clock from the dining table and several small tables, which were centered with vases of yellow chrysanthemums. Handmade place cards marked the guests positions and favors were Hallowe'en baskets filled with mints.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Frank Tomlinson, Mrs. Myrtle Freeland, Mrs. Glenn Green, Mrs. Presley Myers and Miss Myrtle Smithey. At the close of the evening punch was served by Mrs. Tomlinson and Mrs. J. I. Myers from a booth of autumn leaves.

Several vocal numbers by Rev.

and Mrs. Eugene Olive, with Mrs. Olive at the piano, and contests furnished delightful entertainment after the dinner. In a "cat contest" Mrs. J. A. Williams and Mr. J. B. Williams were the winners and for the "county contest" Mrs. Steele Horton and Mr. J. B. Williams were the most successful. Mrs. W. D. Halfacre and Mr. Frank Tomlinson were the lucky ones in guessing the nearest age of an antique sugar bowl. Attractive prizes were given in the contests.

Around thirty guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Shoaf and among those from the college faculty at Boone were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Van Hinson, Mrs. L. B. Hardin, Miss Ida Bell Ledbetter, Miss Carolyn Weaver, and Mr. Harold Wolf. Others from out-of-town were Miss Alma Shoaf, Miss Gladys Earl, and Mr. T. L. Smith, students at A. S. T. C.; Mrs. Steele Horton, of Flint, Michigan, and Miss Melvina Williams, student at Woman's College in Greensboro, who were visiting their mother, Mrs. W. V. Williams, here.

Miss Lorene Caudill Is Wed to F. D. Forester, Jr.

The marriage of Miss Ina Lorene Caudill and F. D. Forester, Jr., both of North Wilkesboro, was solemnized Saturday evening, October 27, at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. R. L. Frazier, in Winston-Salem, in the presence of a few relatives and friends. Rev. Douglas L. Right, of the Moravian church at Winston-Salem officiated.

During the ceremony Mrs. Frazier softly played the Venetian Love Song, by Nevin.

The bride was lovely in her wedding ensemble of green satin with accessories to match. She wore a beautiful corsage of baby chrysanthemums and roses.

Immediately following the ceremony the bridal couple left on an extended honeymoon for Washington, D. C., and other northern points and upon their return will be at home in North Wilkesboro with the groom's mother, Mrs. F. D. Forester, Sr.

Mrs. Forester is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Caudill and is one of the cities most charming and attractive young members of society. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Genevia Forester and the late F. D. Forester. He is a graduate of the North Wilkesboro high school and Poughkeepsie Institute, of New York. Mr. Forester is now engaged in the automobile business and is one of the cities most prominent young business men.

Mr. J. O. Emerson Is Honored on Birthday

Mr. J. O. Emerson was honored at a delightful birthday dinner at his home here on C Street last Sunday when around a hundred and twenty-five of his relatives and friends gathered to celebrate the natal day with him. A picnic dinner was served on the lawn at the noon hour and centering the table was a huge white birthday cake topped with 53 candles. Preceding the dinner all joined in singing the doxology after which Rev. Eugene Olive offered the invocation. Mr. Emerson was the recipient of a number of useful gifts as souvenirs of the happy occasion.

Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hicks and children, all of Winston-Salem, Mr. and Mrs.

Avery Wiler and children, Mr. Fred Emerson, all of Rock Creek, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Emerson and children from Roaring River.
