Manie Brewer Is Club Hostess
 Manie Brewer entertained the members of the Priscilla club at the home of Miss Wellborn in Wilkesboro last evening. A period of work and conversation followed by refreshments, consisting of a salad and sweet course with coffee, and was presided over by the hostess with the aid of Mrs. R. L. Wellborn. Miss Anna Bumgarner was an only guest of the club.

Pinocle Club Entertained Mr. and Mrs. Cashion
 Mr. and Mrs. John Cashion were hosts to the members of the Pinocle club, of which they are members, at their home last evening. Red and green decorations suggestive of the festive season made a colorful setting for the guests at three tables of pinocle. High score for ladies was won by Mrs. W. Sturdivant and among the men James Lowe was the most successful. In serving fruit cake and coffee at the close of the evening Mrs. Cashion was aided by her sister, Mrs. Sturdivant. Guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. Sturdivant.

Bridge Is Given Miss Hallie Waugh
 Miss Hallie Waugh was hostess at a delightful dinner bridge at her home on D Street Friday evening. A two course dinner was served at seven o'clock after which bridge was in progress at three tables. Miss Marjorie Deans proved to be the most successful at cards receiving an attractive award. The Christmas motif was carried out in the decorations and appointments of tables by the use of holly, red candles, and Christmas greenery. Yuletide place cards marked the guests positions.

Social Calendar

The Wilkesboro Baptist Y. W. A. meets this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. G. T. Mitchell.

The December meeting of the Woman's Wesley Bible class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Rom H. Pearson. A full attendance of the members is desired.

which she is a member, at her home on D Street Friday afternoon also a number of additional guests. The president, Mrs. J. E. Spainhour, called the meeting to order and during the roll call by Miss Lizzie Hix members responded with interesting current events. The outstanding feature of the responses was the talk Mrs. J. C. McDiarmid gave on the annual convention of the North Carolina Literary and Historical association that she attended in Raleigh recently. Mrs. McDiarmid was chosen as vice-president of the association.

The home was decorated with seasonal suggestions and in the living room the Christmas tree was predominant. At the close of the afternoon the guests were invited into the dining room where a salad and sweet course was served by Mrs. Hix with the assistance of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Brame. They were seated at the dining table and, two smaller ones, which were prettily appointed in holly, red candles, and Christmas place cards.

Mrs. H. B. Smith Is Bridge Club Hostess
 With Mrs. H. B. Smith as hostess the members of the Friday bridge club were charmingly entertained at bridge at her home on D Street Friday afternoon. Two tables were placed for the game in a festive setting of Christmas decorations, and the accepted motif was furthered in the refreshments that were served at close of play.

Idlewise Club Met With Mrs. A. F. Kilby
 The Idlewise club members were entertained at a Christmas party when Mrs. A. F. Kilby was hostess to the club at her home on Memorial Avenue Friday evening. The hostess used holiday colors and flowers throughout the home. The first part of the evening the guests spent an informal hour in sewing and chatting after which Mrs. Kilby, assisted by her little daughter,

Grand Frank Kilby, and sister, Mrs. Jack Quinn, served tempting refreshments in two courses. During the evening they were invited into the dining room where they exchanged gifts around a lovely Christmas tree placed on the dining table. Long cords with gifts and cards attached to each end were entwined around the tree and in getting their gifts the guests chose a card. The tracing up of package caused much fun.

Misses Outlaw and Staffords Are Hostesses

An enjoyable dinner bridge was given Tuesday evening at the Stafford home when Misses Lillian and Mary Lindsay Stafford and Miss Sallie Outlaw combined hospitality to a number of their friends. The Christmas motif was carried out in the decorations and appointments. A delicious dinner was served at seven o'clock after which bridge was in play for sometime at three tables. The count of tallies showed Miss Rebecca Mosley to be the holder of the top score prize.

Music Lover's Club Met With Lucille Casey

The December meeting of the Music Lovers Club was held on Wednesday afternoon with Lucille Casey as hostess. In the absence of the president, Mary Gwyn Williams, a short business session was presided over by Mary Jo Pearson. A varied program was presented by a number of the pupils. Marcella Pendley gave a splendid paper on the life of Mozart and piano solos were played by Joyce Harrold, Ruth Blankenship, and Lucille Casey. In keeping with the season Mary Jo Pearson gave a Christmas reading and the whole group joined in singing a number of Christmas carols.

To close the afternoon, the small hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. H. Casey, served delightful refreshments. Betty Halfacre was announced as the next hostess.

Mrs. Watson Brame Entertained At Bridge

A pretty club party of the week was the one given by Mrs. Watson Brame at her home on D Street Wednesday afternoon when she entertained the members of her bridge club and included in her guest list a number of other friends. An attractive arrangement of holly, red candles, and poinsettias made a festive Christmas background for the players at five tables. The tally cards were in Christmas design.

The high score prize in the club was won by Mrs. Gordon Forester while among the visitors Mrs. Jack Brame was the winner. Three recent brides received remembrances from Mrs. Brame, those remembered were Mrs. N. S. Forester, Jr., the former Miss Ola Church, of Elkin, Mrs. F. D. Forester, Jr., the former Miss Lorena Caudill, of this city, and Mrs. Thomas McLaughlin, the former Miss Frances Pearson, of Moravian Falls. In serving a salad and sweet course at end of play the hostess was aided by Mrs. Bill Absher and Mrs. F. P. Blair, Jr.

Mrs. Payne Is Hostess To Tea And Topics Club

Mrs. Ira Payne delightfully entertained the members of the Tea and Topics club and a few other guests at a pretty Christmas party at her home on Fifth Street Thursday evening. Twelve of the club members were present and the four visitors were Mesdames H. K. King, Hoyle Hutchens, Chas. McNeil and H. V. Wagoner.

The first part of the evening the group engaged in a sewing period after which an advertisement contest was entered into with much enthusiasm. Mrs. Murphy Hunt, Mrs. J. Q. Adams and Mrs. Hoyle Hutchens tied in the contest and in drawing for the prize Mrs. Hutchens proved to be the lucky one.

The home was artistically decorated in the Christmas colors of red and green and an enjoyable feature of the evening was the exchange of gifts which had been placed on the beautifully lighted Christmas tree.

At the close of the evening Mrs. Payne had the assistance of Mrs. Hutchens and Miss Sallie Outlaw in serving a salad and sweet course.

Spanish-American War Veterans Auxiliary In December Meeting

The Wilkes unit of the auxiliary for the Spanish-American war veterans camp held their regular meeting on Saturday, December 8, at 1:30 o'clock. This was one of the most important meetings of the year and the following officers were elected: Mrs. Blanche Miller, president; Mrs. Angie Henderson, secretary. These officers were re-elected, proving the esteem in which they are held by the auxiliary. Due to probability of inclement weather there will be no meeting in January and the next meeting will be held on the second Saturday afternoon in February.
