Mrs. Grier Gives Tea For Her Sister, Miss Finley

In compliment to her sister, Miss Kate Finley, of New York City, Mrs. W. C. Grier entertained at a pretty tea at her home on E street Monday afternoon. Miss Finley spent the holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Finley, returning to New York Tuesday.

A large number of friends braved the sleet and rain to call between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock and found the interior of the Grier home all gay and bright, a cheery contrast to the bleakness outside. The living room was decorated in the Christmas motif and in the dining room a color scheme of yellow and white was effectively carried out.

Mrs. S. P. Mitchell bade the callers welcome and presented them to the receiving line in which stood Mrs. Grier, Miss Finley and Mrs. J. R. Finley. Miss Lucy Finley showed the way to the dining room where Miss Grace Finley presided at the table. Those serving were Mrs. Bryan Higgins, Miss Clara Ogilvie and Miss Julia Finley. Good-byes were spoken to Mrs. Arthur Finley.

Miss Adeline Jones is Hostess at Bridge Party

The New Year's Eve bridge given by Miss Adeline Jones at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jones, on D street, Monday evening was an outstanding social event during the Christmas holidays for the boys and girls of the younger set.

Miss Jones received her guests at 8:30, and after they found their positions at five tables the game was enjoyed for sometime. Miss Sue Moring Clements proved most efficient in bridge, while Miss Mary Sink won prize for second high.

The buffet supper, which was served at 11 o'clock, was followed by ringing out the old year and welcoming the new.

Presbyterian Circles Held Meetings Tuesday

The four circles of the North Wilkesboro Presbyterian church began the new year Tuesday by holding their regular monthly meetings. Circle No. 1, Mrs. Dan Carter chairman, met at the home of Miss Lucy Shook in the evening with an attendance of ten members. Mrs. W. C. Grier gave the Bible Study. Hostess for Circle No. 2, which met at night, was Mrs. James O'Daniel. Mrs. Gordon Forester was in charge of the meeting and the Bible study was given by Miss Janie McDiarmid. Seven members were present.

Mrs. H. B. Keck entertained the members of Circle No. 3 in the afternoon and had eight members in attendance. Presiding for the business part of the meeting was the chairman, Mrs. C. C. Faw. The Bible study was led by Mrs. J. B. McCoy.

Circle No. 4 met with Mrs. T. B. Finley in the afternoon and was attended by six members. Mrs. A. A. Cashion presided for routine business and Mrs. M. A. Vickery gave the Bible study. Visiting secretary for each of the circles was Mrs. E. G. Finley, who spoke on foreign missions. A pleasant social hour followed each of the meetings during which time tempting refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodges Hosts At Bridge Party

To honor Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McLaughlin and Mr. and Mrs. Watson Brame, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hodges were hosts at a delightful bridge party at their home Friday evening. Mrs. Mc-

Social Calendar

The Wilkes Valley Guards Chapter of the U. D. C. will meet Monday afternoon, 8:30 with Mrs. J. D. Moore and Mrs. E. F. Stafford at the home of Mrs. Moore.

The monthly meeting of the Fidelis class of the First Baptist church will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. V. Caudill with Mrs. Nell Hendren as associate hostess.

Laughlin, a bride of the fall, was prior to her nuptials Miss Frances Pearson, of Moravian Falls, and Mrs. Brame, a bride of the late Summer, was the former Miss Lina Forester, of this city.

Four tables were arranged for bridge in a colorful setting of Christmas decorations. High score prize for the ladies was won by Mrs. Watson Brame and among the men Charlie Crutchfield proved to be the most successful. To each of the brides Mrs. Hodges presented lovely remembrances. In serving a salad course at conclusion of play the hostess had the assistance of Mrs. Ernest Blackman.

Misses Lucy and Grace Finley Hostesses at Party

Misses Lucy and Grace Finley entertained at a charmingly informal party Saturday evening, honoring their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Clements, of Greensboro, and Miss Kate Finley, of New York, who is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Finley. After a delightful social hour, the hostesses served coffee, a variety of cheeses, cake, nuts and candies. Those enjoying the Misses Finley's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Grier, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Finley, Mr. and Mrs. Don Coffey, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Nelson, Misses Kate and Elizabeth Finley, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Clements, and the hostesses' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Finley.

Mrs. B. A. Edwards Entertains at Ronda

RONDA, Dec. 29.—Mrs. Banner A. Edwards entertained at a miscellaneous shower on Saturday afternoon at her home, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest T. Edwards, whose marriage is an event of December.

The guests met at the home of Mrs. Richard C. Martin, sister of the hostess, and came to Mrs. Edwards as one big party. The guests wrote their favorite recipes in a memo book for the bride. Ten minutes were given for a contest to see who could make the most words from the letters in the bride's new name "Edwards." Miss Willye McBride won the prize, a pretty glass dish, which she presented to the bride. Little Sarah Della Jones, niece of the honor guest, came in wearing her rain coat and cap with a wagon hauling the gifts. "I have come in for the shower," she said and presented the wagon to Mrs. Ernest Edwards. At this time she was the recipient of many lovely things brought and sent by her many friends.

Those present were: Misses Frances Prevette, Edna Hanks, Rhea Martin, Mozelle Burchette, Nannie Sue Burchette, Willye McBride, Ruth McCann, Bertha McBride, Mrs. H. A. Hanks, Mrs. Garfield Gambill, Mrs. E. D. Byrd, Mrs. W. S. Edwards, Mrs. M. C. Jones, Mrs. A. M. Blackburn, Mrs. Marvin Walls, Mrs. R. W. McBride, Mrs. R. L. Jones, Mrs. J. T. Martin, Mrs. Floyd Bass, Mrs. George H. Hill, Mrs. Richard C. Martin, Mrs. J. B. Belle, Mrs. Ralph Martin, and Mrs. Robert L. Boger, of Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Finley Hosts to the Young People

With a popular visiting girl as honoree, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Finley were hosts to a number of the young people at their home on E Street Saturday evening. The honoree, Miss Marie Simpson, of Decatur, Ga., spent the Christmas holidays here with Miss Julia Finley, a former schoolmate at Agnes Scott College, and was extended a number of social courtesies during her stay.

Games and music filled the evening with delightful entertainment for the twenty guests, after which ambrosia and cake with coffee was served. Bright hues of red and green were used
